THE PREVIEW

with Beth NICHOLLS

The Broncos travel down to Melbourne to take on the Storm for the first time in 2023.

Brisbane have had a rough history against the Storm, winning only 13 matches out of the 52 games they've played each other, however with the Broncos' current form will they manage to topple Melbourne for the first time since 2016?

The Storm have had an inconsistent season so far, sitting on 5 wins and 4 losses, not being able to put on repeat stellar performances. They will be looking to bounce back on Thursday night after suffering a 28-12 loss to the Rabbitohs in Magic Round.

The Broncos are still holding number one spot on the ladder, only having lost to the Raiders and Rabbitohs this season. They will be looking to hold onto top spot and continue to add 2 points to the board, especially after an impressive win against Manly in Magic Round where they had an excellent offensive first half and defensive second half.

Bellamy has named an unchanged starting 17 side for the Thursday night clash, with Tui Kamikamica being listed among the reserves list, after serving a two-match suspension, where he may be called into the squad closer to the game.

Similarly, Walters has also named an unchanged side to take the field, who have shown to be an impressive side. Capewell has been listed to play, despite suffering a head-knock against the Sea Eagles, which was classified as a Category 2 concussion during the match.

WHO TO WATCH: Harry Grant is a powerhouse for Melbourne, leading the team with 417 tackles for the season, as well as scoring two tries so far. Grant is an important member of the Storm's spine, and I'm excited to see what he brings to the game against the Broncos.

Currently one of the best centres in the game, Herbie Farnworth, is such an asset to the Broncos side. He has already scored six tries in the opening 10 games of the season, one of those being a double against Penrith, as well as two try assist and five linebreaks. Hopefully he'll add another 4-pointer (or two) to his 2023 count during the Thursday night clash.

FAVOURITE: Melbourne is slightly favoured to add another 2 points to their competition tally for the season.

MY TIP: I believe that the Broncos have the form and strength to overpower the Storm and take victory for the first time in over 6 years. I think that Melbourne is just too sloppy and inconsistent with both their attack and defence to coherently string together a win against one of the better teams in the competition. Broncos by 10.

THE PREVIEW

with Andrew FERGUSON

Both these sides come into this match with last start losses, however neither side has been disgraced in their last 3 games each, ensuring that this will be a relatively closely fought contest between two sides desperate for a win.

The Bulldogs started the season solidly enough, winning 3 of their opening 5 games to have them on the cusp of the top 8, but then their defence fell apart as they conceded 113 points in their next 3 games, 50 of those points against Souths. They scored a narrow 18-16 win over the lowly Dragons in Round 9 before going down to the Raiders last weekend by 4 points in a high scoring affair.

The Bulldogs struggles in attack all year though have been when they hit the defensive line. Only the last placed Wests Tigers have fewer line breaks (by just 1), they are also third last for post contact metres (ahead of the Dragons and Titans) and third last for tackle breaks (ahead of Canberra and Manly). It doesn't read much better defensively with the Bulldogs being equal last for completion rates, while also being the third worst side for handling errors, the worst side for conceding penalties and third worst for missed tackles. All in all, this Dogs side has a lot of work to do if they are to be competitive for the rest of the season, because at the moment, their performance in the middle of the field is simply not good enough.

To combat this, the Dogs have made no changes to their middle, with Josh Addo-Carr returning on the wing and edge forward Harrison Edwards returning to the bench.

The Warriors, like the Dogs, started the season strongly, winning 5 of their opening 7 games to be placed as high as 4th on the ladder, but 3 straight losses to the last 3 Premiership winning teams (Melbourne, Sydney and Penrith) has seen them drift outside the top 8 and down to 11th place. The losses though were not heavy ones - they lost by 8 to the Storm, 14 to the Roosters and 12 to the Panthers, and for the last 2 of those games, kept their opponents under 20.

The Warriors have the highest completion rate in the NRL and one of the lowest Possession rates, so they are making the most of their sets when they get them. As for breaking the line, post contact metres and overall metres gained, the Warriors are in the top 8 in all areas, so its fair to say, they will be looking to play this game at the line and in the middle of the park. What would really help them dominate through the middle is quick metres from dummy half runs, but the Warriors are one of the 3 worst sides in this aspect.

The Warriors will be without winger Edward Kosi and back rower Jackson Ford, who have been replaced by Rocco Berry (who will move to centre and push Marcelo Montoya out to the wing) and Ronald Volkman. Volkman will push Dylan Walker out of the five-eighth role and onto the bench, while Freddy Lussick and Wayde Egan will swap roles with Egan starting at hooker this week and Lussick on the bench. Josh Curran will move into the back row.

WHO TO WATCH: Tohu Harris has been absolute brick wall in the middle of the field this year, averaging an immense 40 tackles per game. He will be ensuring the Warriors middle is locked down and not leaking any metres or points. Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad has also been making huge metres at the back and ensuring the Warriors sets are getting off to a good start.

Jacob Kiraz has been a real revelation for the Bulldogs on the wing, breaking the line and tackles at will and with Josh Addo-Carr returning, look for the Bulldogs to get both men involved as much as possible, even early in sets with ruck runs, using their speed and strength to get the Warriors defence back-peddaling.

FAVOURITE: The Warriors will start as favourites here, narrowly though.

MY TIP: The Warriors to bounce back in a tough encounter. Warriors by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with Andrew JACKSON

What potentially shaped as a grand final preview instead sees two premierships contenders with big question marks face off at BlueBet Stadium to cap off Friday night's NRL action in Round 11.

The Panthers may be the top defensive team in the competition but their attack has looked clunky at best in recent weeks, with the back-to-back defending premiers scrapping home for an 18-6 win over the Warriors at Magic Round. That result in itself was a snapshot of their season as a whole so far. Penrith has got by, winning enough games to stay in touch with the top four and not giving its critics enough of a reason to sound alarm bells just yet. But at the same time, the Panthers are having to work a lot harder for what used to be relatively straight-forward wins during recent years of dominance at the foot of the mountains.

Penrith has no trouble getting into dominant field position, like it did in the opening stages of the second half against the Warriors last week. Converting it into points though is proving a challenge. A lot of that comes back to Penrith's left edge, which has struggled for fluency all year following the departure of Viliame Kikau, which has in turn exposed the need for Jarome Luai to improve his ball-playing. The Panthers have also lacked potency and variety in attack without hooker Apisai Koroisau along with the veteran hooker's speed and decisiveness in knowing which side of the field to explore. Of course, all of this is quite grim reading for a team that sits third on the competition ladder and is coming off a win. But a statement victory over the Roosters this week at home could be exactly what the Panthers need to prove they still have a ruthless side to their football.

Penrith is unchanged this week with Liam Martin (hamstring) named on an extended bench as he hunts a return ahead of the upcoming Origin series.

Of course, it's not just the Panthers who are struggling to get their attack clicking, with the Roosters only managing to cross the try line in the final minute of last week's 20-6 loss to North Queensland. While the Joey Manu and Luke Keary halves combination had helped the Roosters to a few wins on the trot, they weren't always convincing victories and last Sunday's heavy defeat was a reality check of sorts in that regard. The Tricolours have been wildly inconsistent this year, taking care of South Sydney and Parramatta before crumbling in back-to-back defeats to Melbourne and Cronulla. The attack has been the main problem, with frustration at a lack of points then leading to ill-discipline and a poor attitude in defence. For all their firepower on paper, the Roosters have only scored fewer points than the Wests Tigers this season - a sobering reminder of just how far Trent Robinson's side have to go.

There is just one change to the Roosters team this week, with Egan Butcher (concussion) unavailable and replaced by Angus Crichton in the starting side while Fletcher Baker joins the bench.

The Roosters will be looking for their first win against the Panthers since 2019 this week, having lost their last six games against Penrith. In fact, their record at Penrith is even worse, having not won a game at the foot of the mountains since Round 3 in 2017.

WHO TO WATCH: Provided there are no late switches, the Panthers could be in serious trouble trying to defend Joseph Suaalii on Friday night. The young centre has not been in the best touch as of late but should thrive against Penrith's fill-in option on the left edge, Tyrone Peachey. The versatile Peachey was improved in last week's game against the Warriors but has been a defensive liability at times given his lack of speed off the mark. Suaalii is not just quick though, he also has a powerful fend and so it will be interesting to see how Peachey fares when he tries to defend him. If Suaalii shows him up, the spotlight will be placed on Penrith coach Ivan Cleary given the conservative decision to select Peachey ahead of a talented youngster like Tom Jenkins was baffling in the first place.

Obviously all the talk this week will be about the Roosters halves but when it comes to key players in Friday night's game, Victor Radley may not be mentioned enough. Tohu Harris and a few of the other Warriors forwards really exposed Penrith's middle defence last week with clever short ball-playing close to the line. If there is someone in the Roosters line-up capable of doing similar it is Radley. Of course, part of the Roosters' attacking issues this year has been the fact they have had too many cooks in the kitchen, if you will. And a ball-playing lock like Radley can at times complicate things if the attack needs to be simplified. But when the Roosters aren't in attacking shape and getting ready for set plays, Radley's passing game could be key to opening the Panthers up. That is, provided he is not already in the sin bin.

FAVOURITE: The Panthers are well-backed to make it two on the trot.

MY TIP: On the back of last week's humiliation against North Queensland, look for the Roosters to head to the foot of the mountains and make a much-needed statement against a Panthers team that has its own question marks this season. Roosters by 4.

THE PREVIEW

with Josh ROBERTSON

Saturday afternoon Rugby League heads to Accor Stadium and despite the contest reading a battle between 2nd and 17th, it's actually a contest with both the Rabbitohs and Tigers coming into the contest with some strong winning form.

It's been a strong season for the South Sydney Rabbitohs in 2023 as they sit in second spot across the first ten rounds with 7 wins and just the 3 losses for the season including big wins over the Broncos, Panthers and Storm in recent weeks.

The Rabbitohs come into the contest off another impressive performance at Magic Round running out impressive 28-12 winners over the Melbourne Storm. The defence of South Sydney was the most impressive part of their victory especially in the first half when Melbourne dominated possession during the first half especially after some ill-discipline on their own line. The second half was almost clinical from the Rabbitohs as they gave Melbourne no chance and the work of Cody Walker to exploit the defensive fragilities of the Victorians was excellent.

There are no changes for the Rabbitohs and it's not expected that there will be any changes to the 17 that took to the field last week.

As the saying goes "When it rains, it pours" and that's what has happened for the Wests Tigers especially after pulling off one of the biggest upsets in recent memory with their win in the torrential rain in Bathurst over the Panthers before a second straight victory last weekend against the Dragons at Magic Round.

The Tigers were hardly the most polished team of Magic Round in their 18-16 victory over the St George Illawarra Dragons but they were a team with confidence and with things starting to click the world is at their feet. Things didn't start well for the Tigers with Englishman John Bateman ruled out in the warm-up but it started to click early for them as Luke Brooks picked up where he left off in Bathurst. The Tigers though did give up a 10-point lead at one stage but found the courage to fight back and re-take the lead before holding strong in defence.

Only the one change for the Tigers and as expected John Bateman has been brought back into the starting side after his warm-up injury last week. The return of Bateman sees Asu Kepaea drop back to the bench with Alex Seyfarth the 18th man.

WHO TO WATCH: There have been mentions of a return to the NSW State of Origin team for Cody Walker but whilst highly unlikely, a strong performance against the Tigers is not going to do the Rabbitohs number six any dangers of putting his name up for the team. The partnership between Walker and Latrell as well as Walker and his outside men in Tass and Johnston was something to behold last week and if the Tigers don't pay strong attention to Walker, it could be a long afternoon.

So much of the pressure of the Wests Tigers poor performances has been surrounding Luke Brooks, but one man that has slotted into the side in recent weeks with calm and poise has been Brandon Wakeham. A signing somewhat laughed at pre-season, Wakeham has had control of his game and in the big moments has pulled the right reign both against the Panthers and Dragons. If the Tigers want to get close and win the game, Wakeham's calm hand needs to stay.

FAVOURITE: On overall form and squad strength, the Rabbitohs are heavy favourites for the contest and it's understandable the large gap between the teams.

MY TIP: This is one of those games that is a bit of a thorny bush, the form of the Rabbitohs says they should run up a score against the Tigers but over the past few seasons the Tigers have proved an issue for Souths. I think Souths have enough to win the contest but it might be a lot closer than what a lot of people are thinking. Souths by 10.

THE PREVIEW

with AJ LUCANTONIO

Cowboys out to Oust Griffin

The North Queensland Cowboys will be aiming for back to back victories when they go up against a St George Illawarra side trying to save Anthony Griffin's job on Super Saturday.

The Cowboys were in great touch in their 20-6 victory over the Roosters at a waterlogged Suncorp Stadium. Their forwards were easily able to win the possession battle and dominate a Roosters pack that was starting to show positive progress after an indifferent start to 2023. Reuben Cotter showed great signs crossing for the first try and also was immense up front. Chad Townsend also atoned his error riddled nightmare against Cronulla with a strong showing.

This week against the Dragons is a match that everyone will expect them to win. But it's full of danger for the home side. Complacency is an issue that's presented itself for the Cowboys. Everyone remembers the match where they nearly lost to the Tigers at home last year. It'll be a tough match against a resurgent Dragons side trying to save their coaches future so it'll be up to the likes of Cotter, Townsend and season star Tom Dearden to avoid this fate.

Todd Payten keeps a settled side. Jamayne Taunua-Brown was hit with a high tackle charge for his shot on Jared Waerea-Hargreaves but is free to play after receiving a fine. Riley Price is 18th Man.

For the Dragons. One word will haunt their 2023 season so far. That is execution. They've only been outplayed in two of their seven losses and it's a hard sentence to type. Their last five losses in fact have all been with deficits of under 6 points. Five losses in a row with a combined margin of 13 points. So it's not as bad as the pundits in the NewsCorp media would have you believe, however it's a sign that execution is lacking in big areas.

To win, they'll need to arrest the "dumb plays" as Ben Hunt kindly put in his post-game chat on FOX League. They run some really great shape and looked a much more effective and cohesive side when Jayden Sullivan came into the game and was able to use his pace to get past a tiring Cowboys defence. That will be handy against a Cowboys pack still missing Jason Taumalolo. Elsewhere, their forwards need to lift and win their positional battles.

Coach Anthony Griffin is sticking with the same 17-man squad that suffered a two-point loss to Wests Tigers at Magic Round. Skipper Ben Hunt starts at halfback in his 300th NRL game with Moses Mbye remaining at hooker and Jayden Sullivan on the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: After a strong showing to revitalise his season. Reuben Cotter will be looking to continue to stamp his QLD Origin credentials. After starring in the opener last year, a cruel warm-up injury saw his series end prematurely. In 2023, Cotter has looked off the pace but bounced back nicely leading the troops to victory over a highly fancied Roosters pack. With more performances like that, Cotter's name will again be imprinted for the Maroons.

A player that needs to find consistency too is young gun Tyrell Sloan. It's been a mixed bag season for the highly fancied fullback. After winning the position by default after Cody Ramsey's unfortunate medical diagnosis. Sloan has had a mixed season which has seen the highs (ANZAC Day) and the lows in last week.

FAVOURITE: Cowboys come into this clash as the favourites with the bookies. In clashes at QCB Stadium, the Cowboys have won two of the three meetings at this venue.

MY TIP: It's set up for a Cowboys victory. Fresh over a big morale boosting victory and coming back home. The home side are odds on to collect the points in this one. However, if the Dragons are keen on saving Hook's job and show the right attitude then anything can happen in this 2023 Telstra Premiership campaign. But my gut feeling has the Cowboys building their season off their strong showing over the Roosters. Cowboys by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with Rob CROSBY

Slow starters look to continue momentum in Canberra

The Canberra Raiders will be out to continue their resurgence on Saturday evening when they host the Parramatta Eels at GIO Stadium.

Putting aside a slow start to the season with a wave of momentum culminating in four straight victories, the Canberra Raiders will face their toughest test carrying the weight of favouritism on Saturday evening.

Holding off the Bulldogs 34-30 in the opening match of Magic Round last Friday, coach Ricky Stuart will be challenging his players to adopt a greater defensive resolve after conceding 30 points in their past two matches.

Winning 12 out of 15 matches played in Canberra against the Eels over the past two decades, Albert Hopoate returns to the starting side with Xavier Savage dropping to 18th man.

Counting the scars of a costly Magic Round on the scoreboard and injury front, the Parramatta Eels will be hoping for a reversal of fortune following their worst start to a season in five years.

Going down to the Titans 26-24 in the final match of Magic Round, halfback Mitchell Moses will miss the trip to Canberra after sustaining a category one concussion in the closing stages last Sunday evening.

Replacement playmaker Jakob Arthur will make his first appearance of the season in the number seven jersey, while Ryan Matterson will make his 150th appearance in first grade off the bench.

Holding a poor overall record in the nation's capital, including two wins from seven appearances during Arthur's tenure, the Eels have defied the record books in recent seasons with wins in their past two visits to the ACT.

WHO TO WATCH: Emerging as a bolter for the Maroons ahead of the opening State of Origin fixture in three weeks time, Corey Horsburgh will be putting his club first on Saturday evening. Beginning the year off the bench before making the most of an opportunity in the starting side coinciding with the side's recent run of wins, the 25-year-old firebrand has produced stellar numbers with close to 200 running metres in each of his past two appearances. Endearing himself to supporters across the league for his unfiltered display of passion against the Eels three years ago, Horsburgh will be vitally important if the Raiders are to go five-in-a-row.

Set to make his first appearance in the top grade since a late cameo in last year's grand final, replacement halfback Jakob Arthur will be looking to silence his critics on Saturday evening. Producing 11 try-assists and averaging 117 running metres in ten reserve grade matches this season, the 20-year-old has been unfairly maligned during his time in the top grade previously. Returning to the pressure cooker of the NRL after honing his craft as a halfback in reserve grade, look for Arthur to give a good account of himself in the nation's capital.

FAVOURITE: The in-form Raiders are favoured to claim five straight victories for only the fourth time during Ricky Stuart's tenure at the club.

MY TIP: On paper a team in good form playing at home against an inconsistent team missing their main playmaker should be an open-and-shut case. The Raiders should get the job done if they are the real deal. Raiders by 9.

Titans Look to Keep Strong Form Rolling Against Refreshed Knights Outfit

Through 10 rounds of NRL football, the competition ladder is as close as ever. 7 teams are tied with 5 wins each, while the cellar dwelling Tigers are only 3 wins out of the top eight after going their first 7 games without a win.

Two sides right in the thick of this tight squeeze for the 8 are the Knights and Titans. The Knights were showing promise early in the season, but have since fallen off the boil a bit, with their recent bye preceded by poor losses against the Cowboys and Eels. Newcastle have a tough schedule coming up; 5 of their next 6 games are against teams current in the top eight, so they will need to turn things around and fast if they want to avoid anchoring themselves near the bottom of the table.

The Titans on the other hand are playing some of the best football we've seen on the Gold Coast in a long time. While it may only be good for a 5-4 record, 3 of the 4 losses have seen them leading at half time, and in their last two wins they've shown a newfound ability to go on with the job. Facing the Knights this week and the Bulldogs next week before a bye in round 13, the Titans will be eager to continue their winning ways and establish themselves in the top 8 before the origin period.

In team news, Phoenix Crossland is back into the starting side at hooker for Newcastle, replacing the injured Kurt Mann, while Adam Elliott is back and will come off the bench.

For the Titans, Jayden Campbell remains at fullback as AJ Brimson continues to recover from a hamstring injury. Keano Kini drops back to the reserves after making his debut last week, with Kruiise Leeming coming back onto the bench to make his fourth appearance for the Gold Coast.

WHO TO WATCH: There's one player that immediately comes to mind when thinking of the Knights and over the years he's become quite the polarising figure among Rugby League circles. It's been great to see Kalyn Ponga back on the field after suffering yet another concussion issue earlier in the season, but his form since returning has been a mixed bag to say the least. In his first game back against his old club the Cowboys, Ponga was clearly a bit gun shy off the bat, but as the game went on he warmed into the contest and was looking close to his best in attack, clearly establishing himself as Newcastle's best option close to the line. The next week against the Eels was probably the worst performance of his career, making 13 tackles and missing 8 in a blowout loss. If Ponga continues to struggle at five-eighth, it isn't as simple as simply dropping him back to fullback due to the emergence of Lachlan Miller in the custodian role. He'll have a big job on the weekend against the dynamic Titans edges.

It was a shame to see new Titans recruit Sam Verrills go down early in the season with another long-term injury, but a silver lining has been the emergence of Chris Randall on the Gold Coast. During his time in Newcastle, Randall showed himself to be a solid if not spectacular option at hooker who was more than capable of holding his own defensively. He has certainly upheld that reputation at the Titans, making 266 tackles this season at an average of 33.25 per game, which is made even more impressive when you consider he's only played a full 80 minutes twice. He is also doing so at an efficiency rate 95.3%, only missing more than 3 tackles in a game once (during a 38-34 shootout victory against Melbourne). Coming up against his old club on Sunday, Randall will surely have some extra fire in the belly and be wanting to show Newcastle what they are missing out on.

FAVOURITE: The Titans are 1.5 favourites in this one at the time of writing.

MY TIP: While I expect Newcastle to produce a much, much improved showing in front of their home crowd on Sunday, the Titans have been too good in recent weeks for me to tip against them. Titans by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with Lachlan McINTYRE

Sea Eagles and Sharks hope to bounce back from their not-so-magic round tens

Round eleven will come to a close on Sunday afternoon when the Manly Sea Eagles face off against the Cronulla Sharks. Brookvale Oval is the backdrop for the clash between two sides that have shown sparks of brilliance in 2023, but have struggled with consistency. Manly have just dropped outside the top eight, while the Sharks are only just hanging onto the top four by a thread, so there is a lot to play for at Brookie.

The Sea Eagles head into this game with a lot of work to do. Despite a promising start to the season, punctuated by their pre-season challenge triumph, Manly are now on the precipice of a third straight loss. In their past two weeks they have seen defeat against the Gold Coast and struggled through a poor defensive effort against the high-flying Broncos at Magic Round.

The 32-6 loss in 'The Cauldron' last week shows that Manly are not a top of the table team in 2023, however they will certainly still have their aims set on getting through a few weeks of finals football. The Sea Eagles need a big effort to turn their fortunes around, and with an easier stretch of games coming up heading into their second bye of the season, this could be the period where Manly string some wins together.

Manly has named the same 17 that suffered that tough defeat last week. Josh Schuster is nearing a return from some quad issues.

The Cronulla Sharks headed to Magic Round riding high on a three game winning streak, with the inconsistent Dolphins blocking their road to a fourth. In Wayne's (maybe) 900th game, Cronulla couldn't get the result that they were heavily favoured to do. In fact, the Sharks were blown out of the water in severe fashion early on, and never looked like beating the NRL's 17th team.

The 36-16 loss is certainly a tough one for Cronulla to cop. Just as everyone was getting excited about a club that suddenly was holding serious premiership potential, they now have to deal with a loss to the inexperienced Redcliffe Dolphins side. How the Sharks bounce back this week will be a good indicator of just how deep they can go in season 2023.

Cronulla's captain Dale Finucane will regain a starting spot, with Cameron McInnes making way by shifting to the bench.

Despite Manly going down against Cronulla in their past two match-ups, the Sharks have won less than 29% of the 96 clashes between the two clubs in first grade. Cronulla will still be confident of getting their third win in a row against the Sea Eagles.

WHO TO WATCH: Cooper Johns will start in the halves alongside DCE for Manly this weekend, in his 7th NRL game of the season. The 23 year old has a real shot of nailing down this halves spot, with Josh Schuster dealing with injury and fitness struggles. Expect Johns to come out with a point to prove.

On the other side for Cronulla in the 6 jersey is Matt Moylan. Moylan certainly has a lot more experience than his rival opposition position, and he will want to show the importance of that this weekend.

FAVOURITE: The away side are the firm favourites to bounce back from their disappointing Dolphins performance last week by recording the win this Sunday over Manly.

MY TIP: This game really depends on which side is 'on'. We know that both teams can play good footy, and it's hard to pick either with any confidence. However, the spark that Manly started the season with seems to have gone out a little. Cronulla by 10.

NRL 2023 MAGIC ROUND: ROUND 10

FRIDAY 6 MAY 6:00pm

CANBERRA 34 CANTERBURY 30

MATCH FACTS: CANBERRA 34 (J. Rapana 2, J. Croker, X. Savage, M. Timoko, H. Young tries; J. Croker 5 goals) DEFEATED CANTERBURY 30 (J. Averillo 2, J. Preston 2 tries; M. Burton 5 goals) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Fri, 5th May. Kickoff: 6:00 PM. Halftime: Canberra 22-18. Penalties: Canberra 9-5. Referee: Chris Sutton. Crowd: 41,462. THE TEAMS: CANTERBURY: Perham, Kiraz, Averillo, Alamoti, Casey; Reynolds, Burton (C); King, Mahoney, Pangai Junior, Waddell, Preston, Faitala-Mariner. Int: Oloapu, Okunbor, Pele, Hughes. CANBERRA: Kris, Savage, Croker (C), Timoko, Rapana; Wighton, Fogarty; Papalii, Woolford, Tapine, Young, Whitehead, Horsburgh. Int: Starling, Guler, Saulo, Mariota.

A brace of tries from Jordan Rapana has seen the Canberra Raiders extend their run of dominance over the Canterbury-Bankstown Bulldogs with a 34-30 victory in the opening match of Magic Round on Friday evening.

Posting their seventh win in succession over the Bulldogs dating back to 2018, the Raiders were made to wait until the final play of a high scoring contest before claiming victory in front of 41,462 supporters at Suncorp Stadium. Getting off to a dream start with points inside the opening 60 seconds, Rapana (1st minute) leapt above his opposing winger to cross for his fourth try of the season following a well-timed bomb from Jamal Fogarty. Responding after Reed Mahoney nailed his fourth 40/20 in blue and white colours, the Bulldogs hooker delivered a superb pass which saw Jacob Preston (10th minute) crash over from close range. In a game-defining passage that saw the Raiders post three straight tries midway through the half, returning winger Xavier Savage (16th minute), centre Matt Timoko (20th minute) and second-rower Hudson Young (23rd minute) took the score from 6-all to 22-6 in the space of seven minutes. Getting back into the contest with attacking opportunities in good field position of their own, well-placed grubbers from Josh Reynolds and Matt Burton allowed Preston (27th minute) and Jake Averillo (33rd minute) to narrow the margin to four points at the change of ends.

Beginning the second half as they did the first with a try to Rapana (44th minute) in the opening stages, the Raiders were left to rue a missed opportunity with Emre Guler crossing underneath the posts only for Jack Wighton's pass to be ruled forward. Temporarily going beyond two converted tries after Jarrod Croker (57th minute) crossed close to the hour mark, the Bulldogs refused to concede and were rewarded with Averillo (62nd minute) combining with Jacob Kiraz to capitalise on a towering bomb from Burton. A late penalty goal from Croker appeared to give the Raiders breathing space, however a late penalty try to Hayze Perham (77th minute) set up a grandstand finish after Ata Mariota tackled the Bulldogs fullback off the ball with the try line in sight. The Raiders stood firm on the final play of the game with Rapana holding his nerve in the face of Burton's boot to secure the side's fourth win in succession. ROBERT CROSBY

FRIDAY 28 APRIL, 6:00pm

BRISBANE 32 MANLY 6

MATCH FACTS: BRISBANE 32 (S. Cobbo 3, J. Arthars, H. Farnworth, B. Walters tries; A. Reynolds 4 goals) DEFEATED MANLY 6 (B. Trbojevic try; R. Garrick goal) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Fri, 5th May. Kickoff: 8:05 PM. Halftime: Brisbane 20-0. Penalties: Manly 4-1. Referee: Gerard Sutton. Crowd: 50,077. THE TEAMS: MANLY: Trbojevic, Saab, Parker, Koula, Garrick; Johns, Cherry-Evans (C); Paseka, Croker, Keppie, Olakau'atu, Tuilagi, Aloiai. Int: Lawton, Trbojevic, Bullemor, Woods. BRISBANE: Walsh, Arthars, Staggs, Farnworth, Cobbo; Mam, Reynolds (C); Flegler, Walters, Haas, Capewell, Riki, Carrigan. Int: Paix, Jensen, Taupau, Hetherington.

The Brisbane Broncos have capitalised on a dismal first half performance by Manly to get out to a 20 point lead at halftime, which they extended even further in a more evenly contested second half.

From the very outset, Manly turned the ball over cheaply in the first set of the game through some very poor ball handling, which would become a feature of their performance for the whole game. The opening 10 minutes saw both sides turning the ball over, but it was the Broncos who settled down and scored first, when a Reece Walsh grubber close to Manly's line bounced perfectly for Selwyn Cobbo, who regathered and casually scored a try in the corner. Kotoni Staggs failed to convert from out wide. A short restart by Manly failed to get them the ball back and a knock on at the end of Brisbane's set put the Broncos in great field position and it was Billy Walters who scored in the 14th minute when he scooted over from dummy half when Thomas Flegler (who played the ball) and Daly Cherry-Evans (who was at marker) were engaged in some pushing, creating the space for Walters. Adam Reynolds converted the try. Manly's inability to shut down the Broncos grubber gave away another set of six where they send the ball out to the right side to Cobbo who dived over in the corner to score his second try of the game. Reynolds converted from the sideline. Brisbane crossed again off the back of Manly errors in the 36th minute when they perfectly executed some lovely catch and passing providing enough space for Jesse Arthars who dived over to score in the corner. Reynolds failed to add the extras from out wide and at halftime, the Broncos had a 20-0 lead.

Manly's ball control was better in the second half, as was their defence, however errors still prevented them for building any momentum or pressure, but they at least kept the Broncos from blowing the score out even further. The Broncos finally scored again in the 69th minute when Cobbo juggled an intercept and raced 70 metres to score untouched. Reynolds converted the try. Brisbane crossed again just 3 minutes later when Herbie Farnworth barged over from dummy half to score a soft try, which Reynolds converted. Manly finally got on the board in the 77th minute when Tom Trbojevic almost got across the Broncos line, but managed to get an offload away to his brother Ben, who scored in the corner. Reuben Garrick converted from touch. ANDREW FERGUSON

SATURDAY 6 MAY 3:00pm

PENRITH 18 WARRIORS 6

MATCH FACTS: PENRITH 18 (D. Edwards, S. Leniu, B. To'o tries; N. Cleary 3 goals) DEFEATED WARRIORS 6 (A. Fonua-Blake try; S. Johnson goal) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Sat, 6th May. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Penrith 12-6. Penalties:

Penrith 5-3. Referee: Todd Smith. THE TEAMS: WARRIORS: Nicoll-Klokstad, Watene-Zelezniak, Montoya, Pompey, Kosi; Walker, Johnson; Fonua-Blake, Lussick, Afoa, Ford, Niukore, Harris (C). Int: Egan, Curran, Sifakula, Ale. PENRITH: Edwards, Turuva, Peachey, Crichton, To'o; Luai, Cleary (C); Leota, Kenny, Fisher-Harris, Sorensen, Hosking, Yeo. Int: Luke, Smith, Salmon, Leniu.

The Penrith Panthers have ended their two-game losing streak with an 18-6 victory over a determined New Zealand Warriors side to kickstart Super Saturday at Magic Round.

The Warriors crossed for the first try of the game inside the first 10 minutes of play. Following a penalty, they went close a play before after DWZ was taken metres short of the line. From the ensuing play, it was great ball-playing from Tohu Harris which saw Addin Fonua-Blake charge through a gaping hole and the Warriors led 6-0. Penrith began to build some possession down the other end, despite some brutal Warriors defence which included a bone-crunching shot by Ed Kosi on Stephen Crichton. However, the Panthers continued to own possession and Dylan Edwards stepped his way through some would-be tacklers to score and get the score back level. The match was turning into a big shot simulator with both sides turning on the explosiveness in defence which included Crichton getting retribution with a monster shot on Dylan Walker. However, Penrith began taking their momentum and was rewarded with their second try. Isaaq Yeo and Cleary combined which allowed Edwards to draw in the Warriors defence and Brian To'o crossed out wide for a 12-6 lead. The rest of the first half left a lot to be desired with both sides trying and ultimately unsuccessful in finding the line. This left us with a narrow 12-6 half-time lead for the visitors.

The second half started in favour of the Panthers. Jackson Ford was pinned for a 'hip-drop' tackle on Spencer Leniu and was quickly dispatched to the sin bin. Cleary didn't hesitate to elect to take a shot at goal and Penrith led 14-6. The rest of their attack in the sin-bin period can only be described as diabolical with the Panthers struggling for their attacking shape. Much of the second half was what could've been for both sides. These sides had more scoring chances than a game of bowling and the execution was at a low level, but that's a testament to the way that both sides defended. It appeared that Penrith would ice the game after a brain explosion from young forward Demitric Sifakula who was determined to have struck Nathan Cleary and was sent to the sin-bin. However, the Warriors wouldn't give up without a fight and kept the Panthers at bay for a prolonged period. The match was sealed right on full-time. A great offload from Cleary found Edwards who broke open before kicking to Hosking who was taken metres from the line. From the ensuing play, the rampaging Spencer Leniu crashed over to score the game-sealing try. AJ LUCANTONIO

DOLPHINS 36 CRONULLA 16

MATCH FACTS: DOLPHINS 36 (V. Te Whare 2, I. Katoa, C. Lemuelu, T. Niu, H. Tabuai-Fidow tries; J. Isaako 6 goals) DEFEATED CRONULLA 16 (W. Kennedy, R. Mulitalo, T. Wilton tries; N. Hynes 2 goals) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Sat, 6th May. Kickoff: 5:30 PM. Halftime: Dolphins 30-10. Penalties: 3-all. Referee: Grant Atkins. THE TEAMS: CRONULLA: Kennedy, Katoa, Ramien, Talakai, Mulitalo; Moylan, Hynes; Kaufusi, Brailey, Hunt, Nikora, Wilton, McInnes. Int: Finucane (C), Williams, Graham, Hazelton. DOLPHINS: Tabuai-Fidow, Isaako, Aitken, Te Whare, Niu; Nikorima, Katoa; Faamausili, Marshall-King, Bromwich, Kaufusi (C), Lemuelu, Gilbert. Int: Wallace, Milford, Teague, Ese'ese.

Wayne Bennett's 900th game as an NRL coach finished with a victory as the Dolphins were ruthless in their 36-16 victory over the highly fancied Cronulla Sharks in the middle game of Saturday's triple header at Suncorp Stadium.

The Sharks started with intent and looked likely to score when Ronaldo Mulitalo burst through on a kick return. But, like he has so often this season he bombed it at the final moment. That proved costly for the 'home' team. Following a ruck infringement, the Dolphins broke through. Jeremy Marshall-King breaks through out of dummy half and split them before linking up with Isaiya Katoa to score his first NRL try and the Dolphins had a 6-0 lead. Eleven minutes later, the Dolphins were able to exploit the right edge of the Sharks who looked lost at sea. Euan Aitken beat Jesse Ramien all ends up and found the flying Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow to cross for their second try of the opening quarter hour. It was going from bad to worse for the Sharks. A penalty whilst in possession of the football set the Dolphins on their way to their third try, and a new cult hero was born. It was a great shift from the Dolphins with Isaiya Katoa showing great ball playing to get the ball to the debutant Valynce Te Whare and he showed so much strength and power to get to the line. Cronulla were simply defending for their lives and it was getting worse by the minute. Back-to-back penalties combined with a set restart set the Phins up for more success. In the ocean, it happens the other way around with Sharks mauling Dolphins. But tonight, the Dolphins are mauling the Sharks. Connelly Lemuelu charged on the ball and crashed through the defence and did enough to get the ball down and they led by 24-0. From another Sharks error. A late offload from Herman Ese'ese to Jarrod Wallace provided the spark before an ensuing switch down the blind side saw Katoa and Nikorima combine with Tesi Niu and it's 28-0. Isaako nailed the conversion from touch and it was 30-0 with six to go in the first half. Cronulla were able to capitalise on their lone first-half chances. It was a great shift involving Matt Moylan and Nicho Hynes. Talakai gets revenge on Te Whare and Mulitalo wasn't going to butcher that one and it was the beginning of what would be a long road back. The Sharks collected a second on the stroke of half-time as they went down the left again. Moylan, Hynes combined with Will Kennedy to send Talakai away before getting the ball back on the inside to Kennedy and it was 30-10 at the break.

Any hope of a Sharks comeback was extinguished early in the second half with the new cult hero Te Whare crossed out wide for his second. The Sharks all stood off Anthony Milford as he got through some paper-thin defence and linked up with Te Whare. Cronulla left their second-half scoring raid way too late and it was Teig Wilton cracking the line with just 14 minutes to go after great second-phase play which saw Moylan find his edge backrower. AJ LUCANTONIO

SOUTH SYDNEY 28 MELBOURNE 12

MATCH FACTS: SOUTHS 28 (A. Johnston 2, J. Host, I. Tass, C. Walker tries; L. Mitchell 4 goals) DEFEATED MELBOURNE 12 (B. Garlick, R. Smith tries; N. Meaney 2 goals) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Sat, 6th May. Kickoff: 7:45 PM. Halftime: Souths 12-6. Penalties: Souths 6-5. Referee: Adam Gee. THE TEAMS: MELBOURNE: Meaney, Warbrick, Smith, Olam, Coates; Munster, Hughes; Asofa-Solomona, Grant, Welch (C), Loiero, Katoa, King. Int: Garlick, Pene, Eisenhuth, Anderson. SOUTHS: Mitchell, Johnston, Tass, Graham, Milne; Walker, Ilias; Tatola, Cook, Sele, Chee-Kam, Host, Murray (C). Int: Cartwright, Arrow, Knight, Burgess, Taaffe.

The South Sydney Rabbitohs have coronated themselves as kings of Magic Round with an impressive 28-12 victory over an error-ridden Melbourne Storm side in front of over 50,000 fans.

Both sides started evenly and it was off the back of a penalty and some Latrell Mitchell magic that the Rabbitohs opened the scoring when Latrell Mitchell out of dummy half initially looked to pass the ball before going to the boot into open space in the middle of the field for Cody Walker who read the play before it happened. Repeat infringements put the pressure on South Sydney and Melbourne took advantage when a high kick saw Xavier Coates fly high and tap the ball back before Souths knocked it on and subsequently grounded it before a potential try. Poor discipline hurt Melbourne again as they again came under pressure and it was Jacob Host who went over after Cody Walker looked to initially go long but the short pass did the damage and after Latrell Mitchell's conversion, Souths lead 12-0. A bit of luck went the Storm's way for their only try of the half when a high kick from Cameron Munster was put down by Cody Walker and it was scooped up by Reimis Smith much to the anger of Cody Walker who thought he was taken out, when he clearly wasn't. Despite the dominance of possession, the Storm could only trail 12-6 at the break.

The second half was all Souths and especially down the left-hand side where they began to have a field day. The Bunnies opened the second half scoring twice through Alex Johnston in game 200 with the first coming off a pin point kick from Latrell Mitchell and then the second set up by a brilliant pass from Cody Walker to Isaiah Tass before AJ went over in the corner. A missed penalty goal from Latrell Mitchell just shy of the hour mark didn't hurt the Bunnies as they went on to score ten minutes later and it was again down the left this time when Cody Walker put boot to ball and caught out a rushed-up Will Warbrick for Isaiah Tass to score. The Storm then added a second try in a somewhat bittersweet moment for the Garlick family where Bronson Garlick scored his first ever NRL try against the side his father played 96 games for in his NRL career. Souths blew a late chance for an Alex Johnston three-piece effort when he put down a Cody Walker offload with the line wide open inside the final 30 seconds. JOSH ROBERTSON

SUNDAY 7 MAY, 1:50pm

WESTS TIGERS 18 ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA 16

MATCH FACTS: WESTS TIGERS 18 (D. Nofoluma, S. To'a, J. Tupou tries; B. Wakeham 3 goals) DEFEATED ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA 16 (J. Sullivan 2, M. Ravalawa tries; J. Sullivan 2 goals) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Sun, 7th May. Kickoff: 1:50 PM. Halftime: Wests Tigers 14-10. Penalties: Wests Tigers 8-5. Referee: Peter Gough. THE TEAMS: WESTS TIGERS: Bula, Nofoluma, To'a, Talau, Tupou; Wakeham, Brooks; Utoikamanu, Koroisau (C), Klemmer, Papali'i, Kepaao, Pole. Int: Simpkin, Ofahengaue, Twal, Seyfarth. ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA: Sloan, Feagai, Suli, Feagai, Ravalawa; Amone, Hunt (C); De Belin, Mbye, Lawrie, Burns, Su'A, Bird. Int: Sullivan, Molo, Murdoch-Masila, Kera.

A last-gasp act of defensive desire has seen the Wests Tigers defeat the St George Illawarra Dragons 18-16 to claim their second win of the season.

Leading by two with little more than a minute remaining, a streak of Tigers, led by fullback Jahream Bula, denied Mikaele Ravalawa a match-clinching try to the delight of supporters in attendance on the final day of Magic Round. In a contest that finished three tries apiece, the kicking game of Brandon Wakeham proved decisive with three conversions, a 40/20 and a game-defining short drop out late in the match. Overcoming the late withdrawal of John Bateman due to a strained hamstring sustained in the warm-up, the Tigers posted first points with Wakeham slotting a penalty goal. The Dragons responded moments later with Ravalawa (9th minute) finishing off an opportunity gifted to the returning winger after Junior Tupou failed to hold onto a bomb from Ben Hunt. Buoyed by the confidence gained from their first win of the season, a cross-field kick from Luke Brooks allowed Starford To'a (14th minute) to touch down for his third try of the season. Undeterred by a bunker ruling that denied To'a his second four-pointer due to a knock on from Bula contesting a bomb, the rookie fullback atoned by palming the ball into the arms of David Nofoluma (22nd minute) to extend the score out to 14-4. The Tigers failed to capitalise on a 40/20 from Wakeham midway through the half and paid a heavy price for failing to find touch from a penalty; interchange halfback Jayden Sullivan (32nd minute) exploded into space created by a show-and-go to reduce the margin to four points. A well-placed grubber from Wakeham nearly resulted in a try to Apisai Koroisau with seconds left in the half, leaving the Tigers to take a 14-10 advantage to the sheds.

Coming out after the break determined to make the most of their attacking chances, the Dragons hit the front with Sullivan (53rd minute) dazzling the Tigers defence with footwork close to the line to snare his first career double. Having produced rocks and diamonds with his kicking game earlier in the match, Wakeham nailed a short drop-out which allowed the Tigers to go the length of the field and regain the lead through Tupou (64th minute). Holding off a last-gasp attacking raid which saw Hunt find space with a kick and get the ball out to Moses Suli on the right edge, the Tigers repelled a rampaging effort from Ravalawa to prevail 18-16. ROBERT CROSBY

NORTH QUEENSLAND 20 SYDNEY 6

MATCH FACTS: NORTH QLD 20 (R. Cotter, J. Gosiewski, C. Townsend tries; V. Holmes 4 goals) DEFEATED SYDNEY 6 (A. Crichton try; J. Sua'ali'i goal) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Sun, 7th May. Kickoff: 4:00 PM. Halftime: North QLD 6-0. Penalties: Sydney 5-3. Referee: Ashley Klein. THE TEAMS: SYDNEY: Tedesco (C), Allan, Sua'ali'i, Smith, Paulo; Manu, Keary; Lodge, Smith, Collins, Butcher, Butcher, Radley. Int: Granville, Dunn, Taunoa-Brown, Finefeuiaki.

The North Queensland Cowboys have put themselves back into winning form with a highly impressive 20-6 victory over the Sydney Roosters in tough conditions at Suncorp Stadium.

Perfect weather had graced Brisbane for Magic Round for the first six games but that was it when the heavens opened with both torrential rain and hail for the beginning of the game. The conditions looked more like playing out in a local farmers field with the cut up turf and surface water sitting on the ground. The opening forty minutes was a war of attrition for both sides just managing the conditions. The Cowboys opened the scoring after twenty minutes as Reuben Cotter was put over after some good work from Reece Robson through a short ball to Coen Hess who turned the ball out the back to Cotter who scored. A missed field goal from Chad Townsend could have pushed the margin out to 7 but it remained 6-0 in the second half.

It was a defensive masterclass from the Cowboys in the second forty minutes as wave and wave of attack was thrown at them. The North Queenslanders added two quick tries not long after the resumption of play when a Chad Townsend grubber kick was lost by Nat Butcher and swooped on by Jack Gosiewski. It was a long review by the bunker after it was initially sent upstairs by Ashley Klein on a live decision of NO TRY but ultimately replays showed the Cowboys second rower grounded the ball first. The Cowboys had luck on their side for their next try when a Chad Townsend bomb was left to bounce by Jaxson Paulo and an unintentional kick from Murray Taulagi saw the ball go into space and tiptoeing the sideline, Taulagi got the ball back to the middle for Townsend to finish what he started. Despite leading 18-0, the Cowboys never looked entirely comfortable with the Roosters continually throwing everything in attack at them and the defence held solid for the North Queenslanders right throughout. A penalty goal inside the final five minutes sealed the deal for the Cowboys after a high tackle saw Joey Manu put on report. A consolation try inside the final minutes to Angus Crichton was the only blot on the copybook for the Cowboys defence on what was a strong defensive night. JOSH ROBERTSON

Gold Coast Titans were able to hold on for a 26-24 win over Parramatta Eels which finished off Magic Round at Lang Park.

It was the fourth week in a row which the Gold Coast Titans scored 26 points and they were able to record back-to-back results which saw them move in the top eight after another wonderful edition of Magic Round. The Eels got off to the best possible start. They shifted the ball to the left and tryscoring maestro Maika Sivo had the simple task of putting it down over the line to make it 4-0 for the blue-and-gold side. From there, it was a Titans onslaught. The old stager Kieran Foran got a quickfire double to wrestle back the lead. His first came from a superb David Fifita offload then he sliced through some feeble defence to make it 10-4. The Titans extended their advantage in the 23rd minute. Another break on the left side, young winger Alofiana Khan-Pereira got into plenty of space with Foran looming for the hat-trick but he chipped for himself and dived over. It felt like deja vu with Eels scoring from their first chance in the second half. Once again it was Sivo on the end of the play, having to take the pass down low and bustling over the tryline to get them back in the game. They looked to strike for another four-pointer but Khan-Pereira was there to intercept the ball and just take a night time stroll to give the Titans a 14-point advantage and close in on another win.

The Eels refused to go quietly into the night. From an escort penalty, Sivo made it a hat-trick with another simple finish which saw the "Sivo" chants make their way up north due to the mass of blue-and-gold fans in the stadium. Parramatta went back-to-back with fittingly in coronation weekend, the man dubbed "The King" got on the board. He was able to pick up the scraps from a Mitch Moses kick to get it back to 22-18 with 20 minutes to go. Titans looked to have wrapped up the points with seven minutes to go. A wonderful shift on the right saw Phillip Sami burst through and go close. Debutant Keano Kini put it through the hands and Brian Kelly planted the ball down for 26-18. They were given a late scare with the Eels pushing back again. Dylan Brown sliced through the defense before he sent the ball inside to former Bulldogs Andrew Davey to score close to the posts. JUSTIN DAVIES

Hull FC won back-to-back games after their 14-10 triumph over Wigan Warriors at MKM Stadium on Thursday night.

Coming off their huge win over Huddersfield, the hosts were keen to build on that against one of the top teams in Super League and struck first. It was a smart kick from Jake Clifford which fell right into the path of winger Darnell McIntosh who brushed off a defender and slammed it down. The second Hull FC score came from pure grit. Josh Griffin got the legs pumping for a quick play-the-ball then Clifford snuck between the defense to make it 12-0. Clifford continued his strong start with two points from the boot. An offside offered the opportunity and he raised the flags to stretch the advantage. Wigan did strike back to get on the board. McIntosh wasn't able to snatch the intercept and from the resulted scrum, Iain Thornley dived over in the corner. The Warriors got back within four with an identical play to their first four-pointer. Another back line movement to the left saw Thornley make it a double for 14-10. We were set for a grandstand finish. Jake Trueman was sin binned for a professional foul from a dropped bomb which gave Wigan a chance. Wigan tried to go the powerplay close to the line and dropped the ball which sparked huge celebrations from the Hull FC players.

Catalans Dragons defeated St Helens 24-12 to move into the top four at Stade Gilbert Brutus on Friday night.

The visitors were the first side to get points on the board. Alex Warmley stepped inside the defense to slam the ball down for 6-0. Saints doubled their delight through Jack Welsby. Konrad Hurrell drifted cross field before he found the steaming fullback to make it a dozen. From there, Catalans took the bull by the horns and turned the game around. Arthur Mourgue took an inside pass and sprinted past the Saints defense. Both teams had a man binned. Firstly Konrad Hurrell got his marching orders for dissent then Sio Siau Taukeiaho followed for a high tackle. The Dragons did send us into the break at 12-all following a dream debut for former Shark Matt Ikuvalu who dived over from close range. Catalans inched ahead just after the break. Mitch Pearce was fouled by a late hit which saw Adam Keighran raise the flags to make it 14-12. Tom Davies picked up a quick double on the right wing. Both his scores had to be checked by the video referee but were judged fair tries to make it 22-12.

Warrington Wolves moved back to top spot after a 32-18 win over Wakefield Trinity at the Halliwell Jones Stadium on Friday night.

Josh Thewlis had more steps than a pedometer on the way to the first four-pointer then doubled down with his second supporting through the middle to make it 12-0. Wakefield were stung into action with their own long range break which ended with Morgan Smith rolling over to touch down. The visitors levelled up just after the quarter mark in the game when Kelepi Tanginoa ran wide and steamed on the ball. The visitors hopes were dealt a heavy blow after Kevin Proctor was sent off for a swinging arm which saw Wolves kick ahead through Stefan Ratchford. It was the other Wolves winger turn to get into the action. Matty Ashton dived over from a wonderful George Williams cutout then added another late for his brace. Williams got himself on the scoresheet as well with some nifty footwork to avoid the Trinity defenders and dive over under the sticks. Trinity did find a late consolation score through Matty Ashurst. He was able to streak past a few defenders and touch down late.

MATCH FACTS: HULL KR 28 (J. Batchelor 2, R. Hall 2, T. Opacic tries; R. Milnes 4 goals) DEF HUDDERSFIELD 0 AT SEWELL GROUP CRAVEN PARK. Date: Fri, 5th May. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Hull KR posted a commanding 28-0 win over Huddersfield Giants down at Craven Park on Friday night.

Both teams had chances to open the scoring but the final touch went awry for both close to the line in a tight contest. It was the Robins who struck first. Prolific try scorer Ryan Hall was on the end of a run-around grubber to plant the ball down in the left corner. Rowan Milnes added two from the tee before it was double delight for Hall. He intercepted the ball in his try line and ran the remainder to make it 12-0. He again brought on the tee for his second penalty goal to stretch the advantage to 14. Hull KR looked ready to bank another two points. Hull KR continued to keep the foot on the throat with three tries in the second half. James Batchelor picked up a grubber to score then he laid on the four-pointer for Tom Opacic from a kick. Batchelor got the final rose for Hull KR in their win. He was once again on the end of a low kick and touched down for his second four-pointer of the night.

Leigh Leopards poured on the points in the second half in a 30-6 win over Castleford Tigers at Leigh Sports Village on Friday night.

It was a tight opening between these two sides fighting for the top six with chances going begging for both from the boot. The Tigers were the first side to get on the board. Joe Westerman kept the legs pumping and bounced over the line to make it 6-0. Leigh levelled the score with some slick passing. The chain of passes ended up with forward Ben Reynolds diving over for a tie game. In the second half, it was all Leopards. Kai O'Donnell sliced through to touch down then forward Ava Seumanufagai got low, low low and made it 18-6. They added two more scores to round the score off to 30-0. Ricky Leutele was on the end of a low kick then Matt Davis supported the ball carrier well to dive over close to the sticks.

MATCH FACTS: SALFORD 22 (E. Longstaff, S. Stone, R. Williams tries; M. Sneyd 5 goals) DEF LEEDS 12 (J. Bentley, R. Myler tries; R. Salford Red Devils made it four on the bounce in their 22-12 win over Leeds Rhinos at Headingley Stadium on Friday night.

The visitors had the best of the opportunities early in the contest but lacked a finishing touch on any of the moves to open the scoring. Salford did find the opener through Rhys Williams. The Welsh winger was on the end of the backline movement to make it 6-0. Their next score came in a more robust fashion. A nice short pass saw Sam Stone brush off the defenders and extend his arm to touch down. Leeds started to find their groove with a long range break ending with the ball going over the sideline but it got the locals engaged. It was another break which created the Rhinos four-pointer. The exchange of passes opened up the field and fullback Richie Myler was there to support for a 12-6 half-time score. The Red Devils pushed their advantage to eight from a penalty goal from Marc Sneyd after a dropout from Leeds went out on the full. It was all Salford in this contest with Ellis Longstaff getting the third from a grubber then Sneyd piloted home another penalty goal to make it 22-6. The hosts did find some consolation when James Bentley cleaned up the scraps from a high kick and scored in the left corner.
