THE PREVIEW

with Lachy MacCorquodale

After a round one upset by the Brisbane Broncos, the Penrith Panthers will be determined to get their first win of the season as they host the South Sydney Rabbitohs in a rematch of last year's preliminary final.

Ivan Cleary and his side will be disappointed with how their opening match of the season turned out. They started well, scoring the opening try of the match but they had to wait another 69 minutes before adding more points onto the scoreboard. The absence of former hooker Apisai Koroisau was notable as Mitch Kenny failed to deliver any attacking prowess out of dummy-half, which was expected (more of a defensive hooker), however, when Soni Luke came from the bench, the Panthers started to look a better attacking side. His presence was felt immediately with a dangerous dart out of dummy-half in the first few minutes of his time on the field. It will take some time for Ivan Cleary to work out the right rotation for Kenny and Luke and they've probably come out of Friday nights match noting that Luke will need to come into the game earlier than he did against the Broncos.

On the brightside, their defence was excellent as we've come to expect, completing 90.6 per cent of their tackles for the match. The Broncos managed to score two tries in quick succession early in the first half but the opportunities were scarce after that. The Panthers defence will be a key for them restricting the potent Rabbitohs' attack on Thursday night. Penrith's back five will be crucial in getting them out of their own end and into good yardage positions which they did excellently on Friday night with the back five combing for 914 run metres. So, two crucial parts of their game were sound in the opening fixture, it's just the attacking cohesion that needs discovering, once they do that, they'll be back to their old ways. You can expect them to be fired up for this outing as they one, want to put their first win on the board and two, want to keep the wood over the Rabbitohs' after eliminating them in each of the last three finals series. After their loss last weekend, the Panthers have been required to make one change with the omission of Scott Sorenson to concussion who is replaced by Matt Eisenhuth.

Contrary to Penrith, the Rabbitohs' started the season with a comprehensive win in their opening fixture in Cronulla. It was tied heading into the break, but the Rabbitohs came out firing in the second half, winning that term of football 15 points to six. They were cohesive and dangerous in attack, breaking 52 tackles and were able to move the ball down the field with relative ease. Halfback Lachlan Ilias was excellent for the Rabbitohs as he opened the scoring for the home side, assisted one later on and saved a certain try for good measure. The 22-year-old looked extremely confident, and he's got a big test ahead of him this Thursday against the reigning premiers. Ilias' link up play with Walker will be key for the Rabbitohs as they're going to have to create some Penrith defensive errors if they're to put some scoreboard pressure on the Panthers.

Hopefully Souths' will have their full 17 players available for the entire match, unlike Saturday night where they played the final 60 minutes with 15 players after losing Tevita Tatola and Jai Arrow to injury in the first half. Losing two players that early against a Penrith side might make the going tough but let's hope that this isn't the case on Thursday night. Despite the lack of bench players, The Rabbitohs' defence was excellent for most of the game, making 91.4 per cent of their tackles, something that they'll need to replicate again this weekend if they're to continue their unbeaten start to the season.

The aforementioned injuries to Tatola and Arrow have ruled them out this week with Daniel Suluka Fifta starting at prop and Jed Cartwright joining the pine.

WHO TO WATCH: This game has plenty of players to keep an eye out for as many of them have the ability to influence the result of this game. It's hard not to mention Nathan Cleary who will be extremely sour after their performance in round one and will be determined to deliver a win in front of their home crowd this Thursday. Cleary missed Koroisau's presence last week and Brisbane's defence did a good job at containing his ball playing, however, the halfback still threatened with his ball running and he'll be expecting to influence the game more than he did last week. One of his dummy-halves, Soni Luke is one to watch this week as he was explosive in his 26-minute stint against the Broncos, scoring a try, running for 65 metres, breaking the line once and making 13 tackles. His sleight of hand out of dummy-half will be key this weekend if they're to perturb Souths' middle defence.

Lachlan Ilias is another to keep an eye on this weekend, it'll be interesting to see whether he can back up his round one performance as the halfback seems destined to have a breakout year but it's fullback Latrell Mitchell who'll draw the most attention from Penrith's defence. Mitchell carried the ball for 127 metres on the weekend, assisted a try and broke four tackles as he kicked off 2023 with a bang. One player who benefited from the ball-playing of Mitchell on the weekend was Campbell Graham who fresh off a winning World Cup campaign, grabbed a double to kick off his season. The 23-year-old centre was damaging with his three line breaks, 198 metres (60 of those after contact), five tackle breaks and 19 tackles. If Souths' can give Mitchell and Graham time and space on that right edge, it could cause some headaches for Penrith's opposing edge.

FAVOURITE: Despite their loss in round one, the Panthers are still the slight favourites. It took a great performance from the Broncos to get the two points and given the track record between these two sides, the Rabbitohs will need to do the same to secure the win. Panthers losing two in a row at home? It could happen, but they'll be incredibly determined to make sure it doesn't come to fruition.

MY TIP: This should be a cracking match, with the Panthers being brought down a peg, the two teams are incredibly even. I think Penrith are going to sneak home here but that depends on a better attacking performance than last week. The Bunnies will throw everything at the defending premiers and they want revenge from their last outing. It should be a cracker. Penrith by 1.

THE PREVIEW

with Rob Crosby

Competition contenders look to bounce back

The Parramatta Eels and the Cronulla Sharks will be determined to open their 2023 accounts by bouncing back from first round losses on Friday evening.

Opening the season with consecutive matches on home soil for the first time in seven years, the Parramatta Eels will be aiming to improve their execution after squandering opportunities during last Thursday's season opener.

Leaving Commbank Stadium empty handed after leading for almost the entirety only to concede a try in golden point, Eels coach Brad Arthur will be hoping to put aside the disappointment of last week's 16-12 loss to Melbourne by commemorating two major milestones.

In-demand halfback Mitchell Moses is set to line up for his 200th appearance in first grade and co-captain Junior Paulo will play his 150th match in blue and gold colours.

Sean Russell will play his first match in over a year replacing Isaac Lumelume on the wing, while Makahesi Makatoa will be hoping to get onto the field after spending the duration of last week's loss on the bench.

Hitting the road for the first time in 2023 following a first round defeat, the Cronulla Sharks will be looking to post consecutive wins over their opponents for the first time in five years.

Unable to go the distance with South Sydney during last Saturday's 27-18 defeat at home, Braydon Trindall has been retained at halfback with Nicho Hynes once again unavailable due to a calf injury sustained in the pre-season.

Coach Craig Fitzgibbon has been forced into changes with Royce Hunt replacing Jack Williams on the bench. Wade Graham is contesting a reckless high tackle charge at the judiciary which sees Connor Tracey come onto the bench.

History shows the Sharks have lost their opening match of the season eight times during the past decade; the side has bounced back with a win the following week on four occasions, including a last-gasp victory over the Eels last season.

WHO TO WATCH: Lining up for a milestone match on Friday evening, Parramatta co-captain Junior Paulo will be aiming to lift his side to victory with another strong showing on the field. Running for over 200 metres and snaring a try during last week's loss at home, the 29-year-old front-rower has developed into a formidable on-field leader, enhanced by his inspirational campaign with Samoa at last year's World Cup. Joining exclusive company as only the 27th man to play 150 games for Parramatta in first grade, Paulo will be playing to look back on his milestone with fondness rather than regret.

Playing with distinction after earning an unexpected call up last week, Cronulla playmaker Braydon Trindall will be looking to establish a permanent place in the Sharks top 17 this season. Starting at halfback in place of Nicho Hynes after the reigning Dally M winner was ruled out with injury, the 23-year-old performed admirably by scoring a try, having a hand in another as well as nailing a 40/20 against South Sydney. Playing 39 games since debuting midway through the first year of the pandemic, Trindall remains contracted to the club for a further two seasons.

FAVOURITE: Gaining the benefit of the doubt after falling short in extra time last week, the Eels are favoured to maintain an impressive record of never losing consecutive matches at Commbank Stadium.

MY TIP: The last two times the Eels lost their opening two matches occurred in 2018 and 2012. The last two times the Eels claimed the wooden spoon occurred in 2018 and 2012. Player milestones be damned - the Eels will be playing to avoid tempting history on Friday night! Eels by 12.

THE PREVIEW

with Adam Huxtable

Queensland Rivals to Face Off In Pursuit Of Consecutive Wins To Start The Season

For years, the Broncos versus the Cowboys was as good as it got in the NRL. From 2015-2017, they played five times, and on four of those occasions the match was decided by a singular point.

Since then, both sides have had a tough time remaining competitive, the Cowboys finishing in the bottom four every year from 2018-2021 while the Broncos collected their first ever wooden spoon in 2020 and followed it up with a 14th placed finish in 2021.

It would appear, however, that both of these storied clubs are on their way to consistent relevance once again, with the Cowboys following up their top four season with an opening round victory last week, while the Broncos shocked the world by defeating defending premiers the Panthers in their own back yard.

While the end result was a one-point victory for both teams, the path to getting there was extremely different. The Broncos streaked to an early 12-6 lead in the first half and were able to defend it with extremely tight goal line structure and a superb long kicking game from Adam Reynolds, who also added what would ultimately be the match winning field goal in the 70th minute.

The Cowboys, however, enjoyed an unprecedented share of possession in the first half and were able to give themselves an 18-point cushion over the Raiders as a result. When things evened up, the Raiders came storming home, tying it up at 18 apiece with over 20 minutes to play and looking like the better team. The Cowboys were able to dig deep though, forcing errors at opportune times and allowing Chad Townsend an opportunity to go one up with a field goal in the 75th minute, which he did like a seasoned veteran.

With both teams round 1 game so tightly contested, it sets up their encounter at Suncorp Stadium on Friday as one that has the potential to match the classics of yesteryear. Will the Broncos be able to back up a performance which would've required the use of every last drop of gas in the tank? Will the Cowboys impressive first half attack be able to produce similar results with a more even possession share? Read on as I attempt to answer these questions and more.

The result last week is one that the Broncos of 2022 would not have been able to pull off, plain and simple. Their collapse to miss the finals altogether was as embarrassing as any that I can remember and showed a concerning lack of resilience amongst the playing group. While it remains to be seen whether the Panther's attacking woes last week were primarily caused by changes in Penrith or changes in Brisbane, they one thing they did show is that the Broncos have the capacity to defend several sets on their own line when the momentum is against them.

This should be of concern to the Cowboys. All three of their tries were scored in a first half in which they had 72% of possession and 81% of the game played in the Raiders half. Aside from this abnormally large passage of play, they didn't really look like scoring a try. The first time the Raiders got the ball in decent attacking position (which was 39 minutes into the match), they ran a basic crash play which the Cowboys were unable to defend, and in the second half, when the stats were much more even, they conceded two tries in the first 18 minutes.

Usually, it's unwise to use statistics from previous years to assess how a team may perform in the present, but considering the Cowboys have an identical starting 13 to last year's finals series I think it's appropriate. In their last 5 games against top 8 opponents (excluding the Panthers reserves in Round 25), they conceded 26.4 points per game, which doesn't include games against the Sea Eagles, Broncos and Tigers in which they conceded 26 points each time.

It will be interesting to see whether the Cowboys have moved on from this concerning trend, or if the Broncos can showcase what their attack is capable of against a defence that hasn't done much against quality opposition recently.

WHO TO WATCH: Both forward packs and benches are relatively even in quality, so it isn't a stretch to say that this game may come down to who wins the halfback duel between Adam Reynolds and Chad Townsend.

Both veteran number 7's had games to remember in Round 1, with Reynolds throwing a beautiful pass close to the line to put Herbie Farnworth over for a try, avoiding an intercept attempt from Stephen Crichton in the process. His long kicking game was exceptional, consistently finding the turf in a game where field position was dominated by the opposition. The match winning field goal was the icing on the cake that gave Broncos fans the all clear to get excited about what may be to come in 2023.

The Chad had moments that were equally as impressive against the Raiders. His broken-field grubber on the inside to set up Scott Drinkwater's first try in the 18th minute was up there with the best play of the round, and he was able to force a further two goal-line dropouts, including one that came on a scrambling fifth tackle play that looked certain to end in the Cowboys giving up possession. His field goal in the 75th minute was also a textbook display of how to execute in close games.

FAVOURITE: The Broncos are 2-point favourites over the Cowboys at the time of writing.

MY TIP: If Round 1 is anything to go by, both these teams are in for big years. For me, it's hard to go past the Broncos in this one, they will have had an extra day of recovery and the Cowboys defence is too suspect for me to pick them against a good team with any confidence. Broncos by 10.

THE PREVIEW

with Josh Robertson

Saturday afternoon rugby league returns to Moore Park where the Sydney Roosters will look for a major bounce back to form after their historic defeat to the Dolphins, as they host first round winners in the Warriors.

Comprehensively outplayed by the Dolphins, the Roosters looked a shadow of their former selves in their 28-18 defeat at Suncorp. The Roosters had injury issues during the lead up and these were exacerbated during the game with both Victor Radley and Brandon Smith sidelined at stages during the game.

Injuries aside, the Tricolours performed poorly in the contest and no doubt will be expecting much better of themselves, particularly in the way of ball security. They could only manage a 68% completion rate on Sunday, which kept putting them on the back foot, regularly coughing up possession to the NRL's newest side. They are going to need to hold the ball better to avoid putting themselves under pressure again.

The good news for the hosts is the boost gained by the return of Joseph Manu to the side. This sees Drew Hutchison dropping back to the bench and Corey Allan - who didn't get to step onto the field - off the bench last weekend - moving to 18th man. Fletcher Baker comes into the side for Matt Lodge who is having surgery on a facial fracture, while Radley and Smith are expected to play. The pair will have to pass the return-to-play protocols following concussions last week.

The Warriors ushered in the Andrew Webster era with a victory last weekend, a tense 20-12 win over the Newcastle Knights in Wellington. Whilst the performance was far from the crispest, they looked like a Warriors team of old, playing with confidence and taking the few chances that they got to score.

The Kiwi-based side looked the stronger of the two last weekend and this was evident in their high completion rate of 89% percent. As a result they were able to make more metres on the whole than the Knights, despite having less sets. The Warriors' attack was strong but will need to ensure they are as strong - if not stronger - against a quality outfit such as the Roosters.

WHO TO WATCH: If he plays this weekend then Brandon Smith is the player to watch. One of the biggest signings in the NRL for 2023, Smith wasn't able to make much of an impact despite playing for 50 minutes on Sunday. The way the game unfolded, the Cheese wasn't able to make the difference that has become expected of him but being substituted off for HIA was also a killer of opportunity for Smith, and he will be looking for a good showing for his first game in front of new home fans.

Warriors fullback Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad had a solid debut, getting on the scoresheet as well as notching up a try assist and running for over 200m last Friday. The impact that 'CNK' had was strong but up against the Roosters it will need to be as strong to get the Warriors on the front foot and set up their attack.

FAVOURITE: The Roosters are the heavy favourites for the contest, the line-ups and 2022 form would have them down on paper as the much stronger side.

MY TIP: It's hard to go past the Roosters for this one, even though their performance was poor against the Dolphins it's hard to think that they could be that bad again - although the game might not be the blow out that people think it is, especially with a Warriors side that are going to come out with confidence after a first-up win. Roosters by 10.

with AJ Lucantonio

Dolphins aim to keep their Phins Up

The NRL's newest franchise the Dolphins will play their first match at Kayo Stadium when they go head to head with the Canberra Raiders on Super Saturday.

The Dolphins definitely surprised many when they were able to make lightwork of competition heavyweights the Roosters in front of a raucous crowd at Suncorp Stadium. Despite only being together for one off-season, they were at their scintillating best tearing apart a woeful opposition and taking control of the contest in the middle third once the Roosters starting forwards came off the ground. Felise Kaufusi made his impression known with several big hits turning momentum towards the Dolphins, while rookie Isaiya Katoa showed the leap to first grade wasn't beyond him with an impressive debut.

This week they go head to head with the Raiders who showed signs of vulnerability under the high ball last week with Seb Kris at the back. They should face forward resistance with Josh Papali'i still out with a calf injury. However, they'll be on their game for the full 80 minutes just like they did against the Roosters. Jeremy Marshall-King's ability to control the ruck will cause the Raiders middle problems.

As far as the team-list is concerned. The starting 13 will line-up as it did against the Roosters, there is another change on the bench. St Dominic's College graduate and Penrith junior Mason Teague is set to make his first grade debut from the pine. He has a phenomenal work-rate and has impressed in the pre-season, he replaces Ray Stone on the bench.

Turning our attention to the Raiders and their plans for the season were thrown into disarray following Xavier Savage's broken jaw in the pre-season challenge. Kris is a stop-gap measure at best but is doing a commendable job. Last start against the Cowboys, they were poor in the first half as they were forced to do a lot of defending in that first 40 and as a result they conceded three tries on the bounce before bouncing back to level up, however the Cowboys escaped with the one point verdict.

Looking to the match-up against the Dolphins. There is a lot of favourable match-ups here especially in the backs that could swing the Raiders way and get their first win of the season. However, the match-up lies up front. The Raiders have invested a lot of development of their forwards in the last few seasons with great results. Joe Tapine had a breakout 2022 and looks set to go again, easily leading the numbers for the Canberra pack last start. His duel with Jesse Bromwich will be a highlight of this fixture.

Canberra are dealt a blow with star winger Jordan Rapana sidelined (again) for the next few weeks following a shoulder charge in the loss to the Cowboys. Albert Hopoate will come onto the wing as his replacement. Elsewhere, Josh Papali'i is still sidelined with a calf injury so Pasami Saulo gets a chance to press his claims up front.

WHO TO WATCH: Fresh off a World Cup year with Tonga and the immense wraps under his belt. It's safe to say that Isaiya Katoa was as close to a home run signing as it came for the expansion club. After outperforming Anthony Milford in the trials, Katoa was given the keys to the Dolphins attack in the season opener. After a quiet first half and getting rocked by a hit from Joseph Aukoso-Suaali'i, Katoa showed his toughness by laying his hands on Dolphins tries in the second half. If this form continues, Katoa will be the franchise player the Dolphins were longing for.

After losing his Origin spot due to an untimely COVID infection, Jack Wighton was unable to continue the form pre-infection. However, the Raiders were able to get home and run the table due to their forwards carrying the load. Wighton needs a big 2023 and his challenge only gets harder without Savage in the line-up. His greatest asset is his running game and looking back at the Dolphins' debut game, Luke Keary and Sam Walker were able to split the defence a couple of times so look for Wighton to run the football and cause some nervous moments for Dolphins fans.

FAVOURITE: Despite opening round results, the Raiders are better favoured by the bookies in this contest.

MY TIP: Well I see the Dolphins facing a tougher test than the one the Roosters put in front of them last Sunday considering the Roosters gave them that game on a silver platter. However, the Raiders will be keen to stifle the opposition in the warm conditions. That being said, this is the Dolphins first official game in Redcliffe, and we all know how they like first impressions. Dolphins by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with Andrew Jackson

A team that is supposed to be on the slide against one that is meant to be on the rise

For both the Storm and Bulldogs last week it was more of the same. Although that meant very different things.

For Melbourne, it meant another gritty victory built on pure effort and willpower, even in the face of a growing injury toll.

"Just being so gutsy through the whole 80 minutes," as coach Craig Bellamy put it after the 16-12 win over Parramatta.

"I don't think we've been like that for the past 12 months. I thought we made some steps forward in that area, and hopefully we can keep that up."

As for the Bulldogs, a season that promises so much opened in underwhelming fashion, going down 31-6 to the Sea Eagles.

Obviously it's far too early to make any broader assessments on whether the new-look Bulldogs will eventually click or end up fading into insignificance.

After all, as coach Cameron Ciraldo said after that defeat, the Bulldogs did have three NRL debutants on Sunday while four other players were running out for the first time in blue and white.

Injuries up front in particular have taken their toll on Canterbury-Bankstown early in the season, seeing the likes of Jayden Tanner and Jacob Preston rewarded with spots on the interchange.

The pair have retained their spots on the bench this week, with Ciraldo naming the same 17 that went down to Manly, giving his side another week to build on combinations and cohesion.

As for Melbourne, the loss of Cameron Munster to a finger injury has Tyran Wishart injected into the starting side at five-eighth and Aaron Pere returning from a rib issue in his place on the bench.

Xavier Coates may be in some doubt after picking up a shoulder injury last week against Parramatta, although he has been named with Grant Anderson offering Bellamy cover on the extended bench.

AAMI Park has not been a happy hunting ground for the Bulldogs, who have not won at the venue since 2016.

Irrespective of venue though, the Storm have dominated recent meetings between the two sides, winning their past seven games against the Bulldogs.

WHO TO WATCH: With Munster sidelined there will be even more pressure on halfback Jahrome Hughes to create for Melbourne while also directing the team around alongside the more inexperienced Wishart.

The versatile 23-year-old has 16 NRL appearances to his name but has often operated as Mr. Fix It for Melbourne, filling the void left in the halves for the next few weeks.

Being in and out of the team and in different positions though means Wishart will be looking for Hughes to take on added responsibility at halfback and as the more experienced of the two.

While not the most traditional halfback, Hughes has been able to find a perfect balance in his game, kicking to corners when needed and also taking the line on if the opportunity presents itself. This week though, Hughes will have to be even more diligent in his decision-making.

It may have been a relatively quiet debut for hyped local junior Paul Alamoti but it won't be too long before the 19-year-old announces himself on the NRL stage.

After all, Alamoti didn't really have much of an opportunity in last week's loss to Manly. In other words, he was a victim of his team's inability to hold onto the ball and as a result build pressure, in turn creating points-scoring opportunities.

Even with limited chances, Alamoti finished the game with a solid 11 runs for 96 metres and could benefit from getting early ball in space to make the most of his power and speed.

FAVOURITE: The Storm are clear favourites but it's not that one-sided given Munster's injury.

MY TIP: While the revamped Bulldogs are still a long way from figuring out their identity, the Storm also looked disconnected at times in attack last week.

No Munster hurts but you simply have to trust Bellamy will be able to get the job done with a simplified game plan. Storm by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with Lachlan McIntyre

The Wests Tigers and the Newcastle Knights will be looking to bounce back from their respective disappointing first round performances when they clash on Sunday afternoon at Leichhardt Oval.

It's the second straight Sunday afternoon game at Leichhardt Oval for the Wests Tigers, but they will be hoping to put on a better showing this week. Despite controlling possession and territory in round one against the Gold Coast, they struggled in attack and simple errors led to points being leaked. The 22-10 loss was an unexpected one for the merger, with excitement surrounding the club during trials.

In a controversial move, Tim Sheens pulled Api Koroisau on to the bench to begin the game last week, giving Jake Simpkin the go-ahead in the starting 17. Despite the success that Penrith experienced when employing this strategy last season, question marks remain over whether this move was the right one for the Tigers. It'll be a difficult decision for the coaching staff that could go either way come game day.

Despite failing his HIA last weekend, Shawn Blore was named in the team released on Tuesday afternoon. Appearing to suffer from leg issues in round one, Tommy Talau has still been named. Charlie Staines will get another chance to show his worth in a Tigers jersey with Ken Maumalo sidelined through injury.

Joe Ofahenghaue has been promoted into the starting side at the expense of Alex Twal, while Alex Seyfarth will take to the field off the bench in his first NRL game of 2023. Promising youngster Fonua Pola has been left out of the 17, as has John Bateman who continues his preparation for a Tigers debut in the near future.

The Knights will be ruing missed opportunities from their opening clash with the Warriors across the ditch last Friday. Attempting to stage a comeback late on in the game, Kalyn Ponga was removed from the field for a HIA, causing a backline reshuffle. Newcastle never really looked in control, and were ultimately comfortably beaten 20-12.

Knights number nine Jayden Brailey demonstrated his class in a shining performance for the defeated Newcastle side. His impressive statistics from the full 80 minutes - notably 49 tackles and zero missed tackles - show that he will be a significant player throughout the season that will have a big impact on Newcastle's final result. Up against NSW hooker Api Koroisau in this game, he'll need to have another big performance to get Newcastle over the line.

Dane Gagai is the big in for the Knights, recovering from a hamstring injury. Jack Johns has been given a bench spot with Adam Elliott dropping out, while Tyson Frizell has been named despite concerns around a head injury. Greg Marzhew is amongst the reserves while he continues to suffer from a hip injury.

The Wests Tigers and Newcastle Knights have faced each other 34 times, with the wins split evenly at 17 apiece. Newcastle have won their past two matches head-to-head, and will want to make it three at the 8th Wonder of the World on Sunday

WHO TO WATCH: These two sides engaged in a swap deal over the off-season, with both Jackson Hastings and David Klemmer lining up against their former clubs this weekend. Both will be eager to prove their worth to their new club and fan base, while also showing their old club what they're missing. Expect a passionate game from both of these players, especially in front of the diehard Leichhardt Oval supporters.

FAVOURITE: The Wests Tigers are small margin favourites heading into this one.

MY TIP: Unlike the Knights, the Tigers showed promise when they weren't dropping the ball in round one. If they hold onto it, they'll win. Tigers by 10.

THE PREVIEW

with Hamish Parker

Dragons start campaign as Titans look to keep momentum rolling.

One of these two teams will come out of round 2 with the best possible culmination of competition points. St. George Illawarra are looking to kickstart their season after drawing the bye last weekend, whilst the Gold Coast are fresh off a superb display against the Tigers at Leichardt.

A lot has been said about the Dragons in pre-season, with plenty of pundits tipping them for the wooden spoon after a string of off-field incidents and some putrid displays in the trials. The Red V have a chance to silence all of those critics for at least another week and show that they mean business in 2023.

The Saints do need a confidence boost given their tough next few games where they will play Brisbane at Suncorp and Cronulla in a local derby. They will be hoping that the extra week off they got from the bye can translate into something good come Sunday afternoon at Kogarah.

The Titans are certainly not going to make it easy for the Dragons though. They were able to win comfortably at the weekend and had a number of standout performers in their team. New signing Kieran Foran was everything Titans fans had hoped for and David Fifita was a barnstorming threat on the edge.

The Gold Coast will be sweating on Foran's fitness ahead of the Sunday clash after a knock to his knee that he suffered during the game against the Tigers. In positive news, David Fifita has re-signed with the club during the week, ending all of the speculation surrounding his future and meaning fans can breathe a little easier.

Team wise, coaches Anthony Griffin and Justin Holbrook named their sides on Tuesday afternoon ahead of the clash.

For the Dragons, Jack de Belin is out after failing to overcome a calf complaint that kept him out of the Pre-Season Challenge. Francis Molo is to start alongside Blake Lawrie in the front row, whilst promising teenager Toby Couchman comes onto the bench to make his NRL debut, something Dragons fans are very excited to see. Jayden Sullivan has won the race for the number six jersey, although Talatau Amone has been named in the reserves and will be hot on Sullivan's heels for the five-eighth spot after his stand down from the NRL was lifted. Jack Bird will start at lock, whilst interestingly Moses Mbye will start at hooker, pushing Jacob Liddle to the bench.

Justin Holbrook has named no changes to the seventeen that beat the Tigers in round one. However, there is an injury cloud over star recruit Kieran Foran, with Toby Sexton named in the reserves and expected to come in if Foran is unable to take the field.

WHO TO WATCH: There are a plethora of players to choose from to keep an eye on for St. George Illawarra, mainly because we haven't seen them play yet this season. One in particular to keep an eye on though is Jayden Sullivan. Sullivan will get just his third chance to start in the halves in the NRL, and this will be the first time he does it alongside club captain Ben Hunt. Sullivan was touted as the most talented player to come from the 2019 Steelers' SG Ball winning team. Hampered by injury over the last couple of seasons, Sullivan gets his chance to prove what he can do on the big stage. With tenacity, speed, sharpness and a clever short kicking game, Sullivan could act as a real point of difference for the Dragons who need some energy and creativity in their side.

For the Titans, it's hard to go past Sam Verrills. It's no secret that the Dragons' weakness lies in their forward pack. At points during the game, it is inevitable the Titans' pack will get a roll on, and how Verrills capitalises on that dominance will be crucial to the chances of the Gold Coast in this one. There could be holes everywhere in the middle of the park and if Verrills can continue that momentum through some quick darts from acting half, the Titans could be hard to stop.

FAVOURITE: The Dragons are slight favourites to win this one at home.

MY TIP: It's a hard one to pick really. The Dragons starting Mbye over Liddle is questionable at best, given Mbye isn't a noted defender by any stretch. But the Titans may be without Kieran Foran who is absolutely crucial to the structure and direction of that team.

The Dragons defence based on the trials doesn't seem to have improved. Simple defensive errors and racing out of the line indicates that they still aren't learning the basics. Yet, the Titans are notoriously inconsistent and known for their defence not being crash-hot either.

I'm going to go with the Dragons in this one. I think the game plan just writes itself with the Titans. The Dragons, at home, will have two big and strong second rowers likely running at Toby Sexton and Tannah Boyd. Fifita and Stimson will have to come in to help the smaller halves, which then exposes space around the ruck and on the fringes, which I will back the likes of Hunt, Sullivan, Liddle and Sloan to take advantage of. Dragons by 8.

NRL 2023 ROUND 1

THURSDAY 2 MARCH, 8:00pm

MELBOURNE 16 PARRAMATTA 12

MATCH FACTS: MELBOURNE 16 (H. Grant, N. Meaney, Y. Tonumaiepa tries; N. Meaney 2 goals) defeated PARRAMATTA 12 (J. Paulo, W. Penisini tries; M. Moses 2 goals) at CommBank Stadium. Date: Thu, 2nd March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Parramatta 6-0. Penalties: 6-all. Referee: Ashley Klein. Crowd: 17,301 THE TEAMS: PARRAMATTA: Gutherson (C), Sivo, Penisini, Blake, Lumelume; Brown, Moses; Campbell-Gillard, Hodgson, Paulo (C), Cartwright, Doorey, Hopgood. Int: Momoisea, Murchie, Greig. MELBOURNE: Meaney, Warbrick, Smith, Tonumaiepa, Coates; Munster, Hughes; Asofa-Solomona, Grant, Welch (C), Loiero, Katoa, King. Int: Wishart, MacDonald, Grant, Garlick.

A try by Harry Grant in the first period of Golden Point has secured victory for the Melbourne Storm over a tenacious Parramatta Eels by 16-12 in the first match of the 2023 Telstra Premiership.

Parramatta put its first points on the board this season in the fifth minute of play after Mitch Moses was fouled illegally by Eli Katoa. Moses promptly added a penalty goal to give the Eels the early 2-0 advantage. The rest of the opening twenty was both sides bombing good chances. Parramatta went closest to scoring when Maika Sivo thought he had yet another try at CommBank Stadium. But it was denied when Ash Klein found the last pass to be forward. Melbourne must suffer a major blow when Cameron Munster went off with a compound dislocation to his wedding ring finger and would depart midway through the first half but would return after half-time. Parramatta would cross for the first try with eight minutes remaining in the first half where they capitalised on a Melbourne error. Clint Gutherson summed it up and drew in the suspect Melbourne left edge to find Will Penisini to cross for try 1 of 2023. Moses hooked the kick to keep the margin at six. The Storm had plenty of try-scoring chances but kept failing at the final moment and was facing an uphill battle, but they were only down 6-0 at the change of ends.

Melbourne started the better of the two sides in the second forty minutes. Off the back of back-to-back penalties. The Storm struck back six minutes in the half. Off Harry Grant, it was a clever pass from Josh King and Nick Meaney crossed for the Storm's first try of 2023. The scores were level for just twelve minutes. Following a crushing tackle from Maika Sivo on Jahrome Hughes, it was a clever short ball from new buy Josh Hodgson to Junior Paulo who runs the best part of 20 metres to score Parramatta's second. Moses converted to keep the margin at a converted try. More problems developed for the Storm when Xavier Coates left the ground with a shoulder injury. The margin was reduced shortly after when Isaac Lumelume was crushed by big Nelson Asofa-Solomona. Off the ensuing scrum, it was Munster magic to find Young Tonumaiepa out wide, Meaney's kick from touch was successful and it was 12-12. What can only be described as a chaotic final fifteen minutes took place with both sides bombing opportunities to take the first victory of 2023 which saw us head to Golden Point.

Both sides had opportunities but a spillage inside Parramatta's half gave Melbourne a golden opportunity. Instead of shooting for the victory, Harry Grant ran out of acting half to give Melbourne a Round 1 victory and keep their impressive opening round streak alive. AJ LUCANTONIO

WARRIORS 20 NEWCASTLE 12

MATCH FACTS: WARRIORS 20 (B. Afoa, W. Egan, E. Kosi, C. Nicoll-Klokstad tries; S. Johnson 2 goals) defeated NEWCASTLE 12 (L. Fitzgibbon, H. Hunt tries; J. Hastings 2 goals) at Sky Stadium. Date: Fri, 3rd March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Penalties: 8-all. Referee: Chris Sutton. Crowd: 16,676. THE TEAMS WARRIORS: Nicoll-Klokstad, Kosi, Wiliame, Pompey, Montoya; Martin, Johnson; Fonua-Blake, Egan, Barnett, Ford, Niukore, Harris (C). Int: Walker, Afoa, Curran, Ale. NEWCASTLE: Miller, Hunt, Tuala, Best, Young; Ponga (C), Hastings; Saifiti, Brailey, Saifiti, Fizzell, Fitzgibbon, Mann. Int: Crossland, Elliott, Hetherington, Thompson.

Sheer grit and determination in defence has handed the New Zealand Warriors a 20-12 win to open their account in season 2023 in front of a Wellington home crowd.

The game started in the worst way possible for the home side, with an error from Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad in the first minute allowing Newcastle the first attacking set of the game. Lachlan Fitzgibbon crossed for the first points for the Knights just a few tackles later, and the Hastings conversion took the score to 6-0.

The momentum swung back and forth over the next 20 or so minutes, with both teams receiving significant amounts of penalties and six agains. However both teams' defence were up to the challenge, so it wasn't until the 27th minute that the scorekeeper was needed again. A strong run for Mitchell Barnett against his old club put the Newcastle defence in scrambles, and some good hands on the right edge gave the Warriors their first points of 2023 through Edward Kosi. Lachlan Miller's restart then went out on the full, gifting the Warriors another attacking set off the back of their try. It was only a few minutes before Bunty Afoa made Newcastle pay, going straight through some tired forwards to give New Zealand the lead for the first time. Johnson's successful conversion took the scoreline to 10-6, which it would remain into the half-time break.

Newcastle sprinted out of the blocks to start the second half, and they converted on some poor Warriors discipline to cross over on their left edge through Hymel Hunt. Jackson Hastings showed that he has brought his kicking boots over from the Tigers, giving his side a two point lead after nailing the sideline conversion in very windy conditions. The Knights kept the pressure on, but it would be the Warriors who would cross the stripe next. Very much against the run of play, Brayden Wiliame made a great run and found his fullback backing up on the inside. The Nicoll-Klokstad try was failed to be converted by Shaun Johnson, leaving the Warriors with a two point lead at 14-12 in the 54th minute. Suddenly, the tide turned. The Warriors went very close to scoring twice more in the next few minutes, but the Knights were consistently giving away penalties and six against whilst defending their own line. Ultimately, Phoenix Crossland was sent to the sin bin, but despite this the Warriors couldn't turn their ten minutes of line attack into any points. Kalyn Ponga looked to have scored for Newcastle in the 68th minute, but Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad managed to hold him up with a great try-saving tackle. Just a few minutes later, the independent doctor ruled that Ponga had to leave the field for a HIA, much to his frustration. Newcastle would have a few more repeat sets on the line, but some frantic defence from the Warriors somehow kept them out.

Wayde Egan closed the game out in the 75th minute with a great display of eyes up footy, scooting straight out of dummy half and over the line. With the scoreline at 20-12, the Knights needed some magic to steal the points, but instead they dished up a few more handling errors to close out the match. LACHLAN MCINTYRE

BRISBANE 13 PENRITH 12

MATCH FACTS: BRISBANE 13 (H. Farnworth 2 tries; A. Reynolds 2 goals; A. Reynolds field goal) defeated PENRITH 12 (S. Crichton, S. Luke tries; N. Cleary 2 goals) at BlueBet Stadium. Date: Fri, 3rd March. Kickoff: 8:05 PM. Penalties: Brisbane 5-4. Referee: Gerard Sutton. Crowd: 17,125. THE TEAMS PENRITH: Edwards, Turuva, Tago, Crichton, To'o; Luai, Cleary (C); Leota, Kenny, Fisher-Harris, Garner, Martin, Yeo. Int: Luke, Sorensen, Leniu, Salmon. BRISBANE: Cobbo, Oates, Staggs, Farnworth, Arthars; Mam, Reynolds (C); Jensen, Walters, Haas, Capewell, Riki, Carrigan. Int: Paix, Palasia, Flegler, Taupau.

Brisbane Broncos have produced the first upset of the 2023 NRL season with a 13-12 win over reigning premiers Penrith Panthers tonight in Penrith.

It was a rearguard display from the Broncos, who tackled their way to the points tonight. Halfback Adam Reynold weaved some magic with the late field goal which led them to a first win in the west in 15 years.

From the opening whistle, both sides ripped into each other in some slippery conditions in Sydney's west. Both kicking games were key to the contest with two key exponents in Adam Reynolds and Nathan Cleary. Panthers buoyed by a bumper crowd were the first to find the stripe. Stephen Crichton started the move in his own half before it linked up down the right before the centre strode away from the defense to make it 6-0. The Broncos were bright in their work early and probed the line well. They responded with a four-pointer themselves through their strike centre. Herbie Farnworth sliced through from an Reynolds pass to level the game up at six. Quickly, it was double delight for the visitors. Ezra Mam weaved past the Panthers, toed it ahead for himself before he was shouldered away. Farnworth showed his speed and beat the Panthers defense to the ball to make it 12-6.

On a slick surface, kicking games were key. Cleary piloted a kick which rebounded right from the upright and fell into the lap of Liam Martin. The representative backrower was unable to ground the ball on a frustrated night for the premiers. Near misses and communication errors were the Panthers downfall tonight. Their usual slick attack was stunted and it wasn't until interchange hooker Soni Luke came on which gave them a spark late in the contest. Panthers piled on the pressure with dropouts galore in the second half. Broncos remained stout and held their line well and made some superb last ditch tackles to deny the Panthers any points with a baying crowd behind them. Reynolds pushed the advantage to seven in the 69th minute. He forced the Panthers defense to play at the ball to get six more then cool as a cucumber slotted the field goal to make it 13-6 in the wet. Luke gave the hosts a brief thought of a comeback. He scooted from dummy half to reduce the margin to one but the premiers left it too late and were unable to will themselves to a win against a spirited Broncos side. JUSTIN DAVIES

MANLY 31 CANTERBURY 6

MATCH FACTS: MANLY 31 (D. Cherry-Evans 3, R. Garrick, T. Trbojevic tries; R. Garrick 5 goals; D. Cherry-Evans field goal) defeated CANTERBURY 6 (R. Mahoney try; M. Burton goal) at 4 Pines Park. Date: Sat, 4th March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Manly 12-6. Penalties: Manly 9-4. Referee: Grant Atkins. Crowd: 17,217. THE TEAMS MANLY: Trbojevic, Tuipulotu, Parker, Koula, Garrick; Johns, Cherry-Evans (C); Paseka, Croker, Trbojevic, Olakau'atu, Tuilagi, Aloia. Int: Keppie, Weekes, Trbojevic, Bullemor. CANTERBURY: Perham, Kiraz, Averillo, Alamoti, Addo-Carr; Burton (C), Flanagan; King, Mahoney, Sutton, Kikau, Faitala-Mariner, Brown. Int: Tanner, Waddell, Pele, Preston.

Manly-Warringah have picked up their first opening-round win since 2013, comfortably accounting for an error-prone Canterbury side 31-6 at Brookvale on Saturday.

A packed house - 17,217 fans - at 4 Pines Park were treated to a messy opening 15 minutes before Tom Trbojevic pounced on a DCE grubber to start the scoring for the afternoon.

Despite a sloppy opening quarter of the contest, Canterbury managed to turn the tables, scoring a try with a bit of luck for Reed Mahoney, snapping up his own grubber kick off the post to ground it and level scores. The turning point for the contest arguably came at the 35 minute mark, when Manly looked likely to score, but a Bunker review resulted in a sin-bin for Kyle Flanagan for a professional foul which came in for plenty of criticism from commentators and fans alike. Manly took full advantage of the additional player on the park, Reuben Garrick breaking the deadlock just a minute later, allowing Manly a 12-6 half time lead. Cherry-Evans scoring three minutes after halftime denied any hopes the Bulldogs had of a solid start to the second forty.

By the time Flanagan returned, the rot had set in. Matt Burton was having a shocking afternoon with the boot and handling errors were common for a range of players. Around the hour mark, the captain had a double for Manly and a 24-6 lead just about had the game won for the hosts. The Sea Eagles were comfortable enough to take Tom Trbojevic after this point (although he would return to the field later). Eight minutes from the end of play Cherry-Evans added to his personal scoresheet with a field goal, before plucking an intercept off a lazy Bulldogs attacking string on fulltime to deliver the final scoreline of 31-6. TIM COSTELLO

SATURDAY 4 MARCH, 5:30pm

NORTH QLD 19 CANBERRA 18

MATCH FACTS: NORTH QLD 19 (S. Drinkwater 2, M. Taulagi tries; V. Holmes 3 goals; C. Townsend field goal) defeated CANBERRA 18 (E. Guler, T. Starling, J. Wighton tries; J. Fogarty 3 goals) at Queensland Country Bank Stadium. Date: Sat, 4th March. Kickoff: 4:30 PM. Halftime: North QLD 18-6. Penalties: North QLD 6-4. Referee: Adam Gee. Crowd: 19,855. THE TEAMS NORTH QLD: Drinkwater, Feldt, Holmes, Hiku, Taulagi; Dearden, Townsend (C); McLean, Robson, Cotter, Hess, Nanai, Taumalolo. Int: Granville, Neame, Taunoa-Brown, Tamou. CANBERRA: Kris, Cotric, Timoko, Smith-Shields, Rapana; Wighton, Fogarty; Saulo, Levi, Tapine, Young, Whitehead (C), Harawira-Naera. Int: Starling, Mariota, Horsburgh, Guler.

A 76th-minute field goal has saved the Cowboys on a night where Canberra nearly came back and won at Queensland Country Bank Stadium; North Queensland 19-18 winners in the first round.

The home team absolutely dominated early proceedings, and although they didn't have it all their way at first. After several false dawns (including a missed penalty goal from Holmes in the 11th minute), the Cowboys finally crossed out wide through Murray Taulagi after 15 minutes and for the rest of the half, the Raiders found themselves on the back foot. Scott Drinkwater backed up the Taulagi try just two or three minutes later; and with Holmes' conversion the momentum was well and truly with the home team. At the 24 minute mark, on the back of mounting pressure it was a Val Holmes penalty goal which pushed the lead to 12 points. A second try for Drinkwater six minutes from halftime saw the lead extend further and further dented the Raiders' hopes of getting into the contest, but only minutes later an error from the Cowboys, compounded by a six-again call saw the Raiders push deep into North Queensland territory for the first time since the early minutes. On the back of that possession, Emre Guler stumbled over some pretty feeble defence and in the shadows of halftime, a glimmer of hope was restored for the Green Machine.

The second half was a mirror of the first - Canberra dominated possession and field position, but couldn't crack the Cowboys' line until the 53rd minute when Tom Starling collected a rebound from his own grubber and dodged defenders to narrow the margin to six. Five minutes later scores were level after a poorly received bomb ended up in Jack Wighton's arms near the Cowboys line, the Canberra five-eighth sprinting a short distance to score in the corner. The next 15 minutes were a war of attrition, the Raiders largely with the upper hand, but with five minutes remaining, Chad Townsend found himself in front of the Canberra posts and potted a one-pointer to sneak the home team ahead.

Try as they might, the Raiders were unable to level proceedings in the minutes remaining, or pull ahead, and the Cowboys hung on for victory. TIM COSTELLO

SOUTH SYDNEY 27 CRONULLA 18

MATCH FACTS SOUTHS 27 (C. Graham 2, L. Ilias, K. Koloamatangi tries; L. Mitchell 5 goals; L. Mitchell field goal) defeated CRONULLA 18 (S. Katoa, B. Trindall, T. Wilton tries; B. Trindall 3 goals) at Pointsbet Stadium. Date: Sat, 4th March. Kickoff: 7:35 PM. Halftime: 12-all. Penalties: 5-all. Referee: Todd Smith. Crowd: 12,757. THE TEAMS CRONULLA: Kennedy, Katoa, Ramien, Talakai, Mulitalo; Moylan, Trindall; Rudolf, Brailey, Hamlin-Uele, Nikora, Wilton, Finucane (C). Int: McInnes, Graham, Kaufusi, Williams. SOUTHS: Mitchell, Johnston, Tass, Graham, Thompson; Walker, Ilias; Tatola, Cook, Moale, Koloamatangi, Chee-Kam, Murray (C). Int: Burgess, Arrow, Taaffe, Mitchell.

The South Sydney Rabbitohs have started the 2023 season in strong style with a 27-18 victory over the Cronulla Sharks at Shark Park.

The clash started in one of the worst possible situations for the Rabbitohs, with their big man Tevita Tatola ruled out of the match from the very first tackle of the game after showing Category 1 concussion symptoms after a head clash.

Ronaldo Mulitalo learnt a hard lesson at the ten-minute mark to never think anything - especially a try - is a certainty. The Sharks winger was put into space as he charged towards the line before slowing down with a smile on his face thinking it was a fait accompli, only for Lachlan Ilias to knock the ball out in a desperate tackle. After saving the try down the other end, Ilias was able to open the scoring when he looked to dummy the ball out to the right, but elected to go himself - bouncing out of a tackle and getting his way to the line to score. The Sharks were able to level the scores through some bizarre work when Will Kennedy got himself into space and put a kick through, which he grubbered again before Braydon Trindall had to soccer through a couple of times himself to score and convert. It wasn't just the Sharks who bombed tries though, Isaac Thompson lost the ball short of the line when he got into space, and then Keaton Koloamatangi lost the ball chasing through an Ilias kick. It was second time lucky for the Rabbitohs big man Koloamatangi though, when he put the Sharks defence in two minds and he went through to score. Cronulla were able to level the scores on the stroke of halftime and get their confidence levels up as they looked to shift the ball left before going right to put Sione Katoa over in the corner.

If the Sharks got a confidence boost from the try at halftime, then whatever happened during the break must've brought the confidence down, because they looked like a team devoid of any confidence. Errors killed any momentum that they took into the half, and even though it took Souths time to capitalise - capitalise they did. The Bunnies finally took advantage just shy of the 50-minute mark when Ilias put Campbell Graham through for his first effort of the night. Errors continued to hamper any efforts that were made by the Sharks to wrestle the momentum back, and a Latrell Mitchell penalty goal pushed the score out to 20-12 after Briton Nikora was penalised for a late tackle on Cam Murray. More errors and ill-discipline hampered the hosts after Braden Hamlin-Uele was put on report for a high shot and then from the ensuing set, Graham was put through by Ilias in a carbon copy of his first try. Things went from bad to worse for Cronulla after the try was awarded, with Wade Graham sent for 10 minutes by referee Todd Smith for what was deemed a high shot earlier in the set by the Bunker.

Cronulla did get a late try when Teig Wilton chased through a Matt Moylan kick, and was able to close the gap to just 8 points but errors again scuttled the momentum. A late Mitchell field goal put the icing on the cake for Souths. JOSH ROBERTSON

SUNDAY 5 MARCH, 4:05pm

DOLPHINS 28 SYDNEY 18

MATCH FACTS DOLPHINS 28 (J. Isaako 2, C. Lemuelu, M. Nicholls, H. Tabuai-Fidow tries; J. Isaako 4 goals) defeated SYDNEY 18 (D. Hutchison, J. Sua'ali'i, D. Tupou tries; S. Walker 3 goals) at Suncorp Stadium. Date: Sun, 5th March. Kickoff: 3:05 PM. Halftime: 12-all. Penalties: Dolphins 7-2. Referee: Chris Butler. Crowd: 32,177. THE TEAMS DOLPHINS: Tabuai-Fidow, Isaako, Aitken, Lee, Niu; Katoa, O'Sullivan; Bromwich (C), Marshall-King, Wallace, Kaufusi, Bromwich, Gilbert. Int: Nicholls, Stone, Donoghoe, Lemuelu. SYDNEY: Tedesco (C), Tupou, Sua'ali'i, Hutchison, Paulo; Keary, Walker; Collins, Smith, Lodge, Butcher, Butcher, Radley. Int: Whyte, May, Turpin.

The Dolphins have made a statement in their premiership debut after stunning the Sydney Roosters 28-18 at Suncorp Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

Defying pre-season expectations to go toe-to-toe with their more heavily favoured opponents during the first half, Wayne Bennett's men romped to victory after halftime to the delight of 32,177 supporters in attendance.

Withstanding an early scare which saw Tesi Niu denied a try due to a forward pass, the Roosters opened the scoring through Joseph-Aukuso Suaalii (11th minute), who managed to narrowly ground the ball despite interference from Brenko Lee. Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow (16th minute) wrote his way into the record books to score the first try for the league's 17th club; the former North Queensland speedster supported an incisive run from Jeremy Marshall-King to touch down underneath the black dot. The Roosters took advantage of an error from the ensuing kick-off with makeshift centre Drew Hutchison (19th minute) finishing off a skilful piece of footwork and passing from James Tedesco. Refusing to wilt in the face of their opposition, the Dolphins inspired by several damaging hits from inaugural signing Felise Kaufusi, struck a blow late in the half with Mark Nicholls (36th minute) crashing over from close range to send both teams to the sheds locked at 12-all.

Dominating possession with multiple line drop outs early in the second half, Connelly Lemuelu (46th minute) demonstrated his transition from the backline into the forwards with a powerful run to give the Dolphins the lead for the first time. Striking a major blow after debutant playmaker Isaiya Katoa opted to run the ball close to the try line, a right side shift allowed Jamayne Isaako (50th minute) to establish a double-digit lead. The Roosters endured further misery with the bunker ruling Daniel Tupou lost the ball over the try line; a subsequent error from Matt Lodge saw Katoa and Tabuai-Fidow combine from a scrum to send Isaako (56th minute) over for his second try of the afternoon. Trailing 28-12 midway through the final quarter, Luke Keary produced an impressive break and kick, which allowed Tupou (67th minute) to atone for his earlier blunder and move within five tries of the club's all-time try-scoring record. Capping a dream debut for the league's newest club, inaugural signing Felise Kaufusi was awarded the Arthur Beetson Medal, in recognition of the rugby league immortal's ties to both Sydney and Redcliffe. ROB CROSBY

GOLD COAST 22 WESTS TIGERS 10

MATCH FACTS: GOLD COAST 22 (P. Sami 2, A. Brimson, S. McIntyre tries; T. Boyd 3 goals) defeated WESTS TIGERS 10 (A. Doueih, D. Laurie tries; A. Doueih goal) at Leichhardt Oval. Date: Sun, 5th March. Kickoff: 6:15 PM. Halftime: Gold Coast 12-2. Penalties: Wests Tigers 9-3. Referee: Peter Gough. Crowd: 14,667. THE TEAMS WESTS TIGERS: Laurie, Nofoaaluma, Naden, Talau, Staines; Doueih, Brooks; Utoikamanu, Simpkin, Klemmer, Papali'i, Blore, Twal. Int: Korosau (C), Ofahengauae, Pole, Kepaoa. GOLD COAST: Brimson, Khan-Pereira, Schoupp, Sami, Fifita; Foran, Boyd; Jolliffe, Verrills, Fa'asuamaleau (C), Fifita, Stimson, Liu. Int: Campbell, Clark, Fotuauka, McIntyre.

The Gold Coast Titans have opened their 2023 season with a win, beating a new-look but ultimately disappointing Wests Tigers 22-10 at Leichhardt.

The locals rolled down the field courtesy of a penalty and promptly forced a dropout. Tanah Boyd kicked it out on the full in attempting to go short, and the Tigers didn't turn down the 2 points on offer to get out to an early lead. It was immediately clear that the Tigers game-plan would be to throw the ball around and use the full width of the field. It was an effective strategy to get them down the field, but once they got there they simply didn't have the polish necessary to turn their opportunities into tries. The Titans didn't have much possession, but were able to score a long range try that put a stop to the Tigers momentum. Tanah Boyd put David Fifita into a hole, the big second rower linking up with Phillip Sami in support, who scored the try. With the Tigers' new expansive style came an increase in handling errors, and the Titans were able to make them pay in the 23rd minute. David Nofoaaluma dropped it while making a run out of his own end, gifting the Gold Coast prime field position. AJ Brimson put an early grubber in, which Sami won the race to, and despite having a much lesser share of possession the Titans had a 10-point lead. The home crowd was growing increasingly frustrated with the lack of points scored by the Tigers, who went into the sheds with just 2 points to their name despite an influx of field position. The feelings were compounded when the Titans went upfield courtesy of a penalty to start the second half and Daine Laurie was caught ball watching on the attacking kick. Sam McIntyre, the former Tiger, picked the ball up and scored, making it 18-2 to the visitors. The Tigers finally broke through a few minutes later, with Doueih accelerating through half a gap and putting the ball down for a try, making it a two score game.

There's no doubt that the Tigers were on top for much of the match, but a combination of great goal line defence from the Titans and momentum killing mistakes from Wests meant that the scoreline was what it was. In the 65th minute, the Titans dropped it out on the full once again, and another Tigers try followed. Doueih was heavily involved, getting the try assist to Daine Laurie. Doueih couldn't convert, meaning the deficit remained beyond a converted try. The crowd was energised, but it didn't last long, as AJ Brimson cut right through the defensive line off a scrum play 3 minutes later, scoring the try and shushing the Leichhardt faithful in the process. Tanah Boyd missed the conversion, leaving a faint bit of hope for the Tigers to mount an unlikely comeback. They weren't without their chances in the final minutes, but the Titans defence kept on turning the Tigers attack away, and 22-10 was where the scoreline remained as the full time siren sounded. ADAM HUXTABLE

ROUND 3 WRAP Match wraps by AJ LUCANTONIO. Times are GMT.

Thu 2 Mar 8pm

A 30-0 second half surge from the Warrington Wolves has seen them taste victory over the Salford Red Devils in a back and forth opening clash to Round 3 of the Super League season.

The Wolves went ahead through Ben Currie's try inside the first ten minutes and it was set to be their night. But the Red Devils hit back with 20 unanswered points through tries from on-loan debutant Ellis Longstaff against his parent club, Ryan Brierley and Marc Sneyd, who converted all three and slotted over a penalty. This gave Salford a three possession lead going into the change of ends.

Their lead was going to be short-lived. Warrington hit back shortly after half-time when Matty Ashton dived over for a spectacular one-handed finish, sparking a turnaround in fortunes which continued for the home side after Salford's number 1 Brierley was sent to the sin-bin. New buy Tom Mikaele continued his strong start to the year crashing over to reduce the gap back down to two.

Josh Thewlis crossed after the hour mark to give the Wolves their second lead of the match, which was extended to six points following a foul in the act of scoring. It seemed Salford were running out of steam and after an explosive start, they were guilty of imploding in the final third. George Williams and Matt Dufty crossed with the latter's effort being deemed worthy of another eight point try due to foul play.

CATALANS DRAGONS (38) Tries: Tom Johnstone, Paul Séguier, Mickael Goudemand, Siva Taukeiaho, Adam Keighran, Benjamin Garcia; Goals: Adam Keighran 7 def HULL FC (6) Tries: Andre Savelio; Goals: Jake Clifford 1 at Stade Gilbert Brutus, Perpignan; Crowd: 6933 // CATALANS: Mourgue, Davies, Keighran, Romano, Johnstone; Rougé, May; Navarrete, McClorum, Bousquet, McMeeken, Séguier, Garcia. Int: Goudemand, Taukeiaho, Dezaria, Chan. HULL FC: Hoy, Swift, Sutcliffe, Scott, McIntosh; McNamara, Clifford; Evans, Dwyer, Satae, Griffin, Lane, Fash. Int: Sao, Savelio, Lovodua, Brown.

A ruthless display of attacking football has seen the Catalans Dragons thrash Hull FC by 38-6 in their Round 3 clash in the Super League.

After a slow opening to the game which saw a sole Adam Keighran penalty goal, the Dragons had the first try in the eighteenth minute of play when Tom Johnstone crossed for the first try.

Four minutes later, Paul Séguier strolled over the line to give the Dragons a 14-0 lead at the change of ends.

Three minutes after the resumption of play, Mickael Goudemand went over to extend the lead to 20 points.

Further tries to the former Roosters connection of Siva Taukeiaho and Keighran extended the game further away from Hull FC. Hull finally got on the scoreboard inside the final five minutes when Andre Savelio crashed over to give Hull some scoreboard credibility.

However, the Dragons had the final laugh in this clash. Ben Garcia crossed in the final minute of play to give Catalans a 38-6 victory.

Fri 3 Mar 7:45pm

HUDDERSFIELD GIANTS (8) Tries: Joe Greenwood; Goals: Tui Lolohea 2 def WAKEFIELD TRINITY (0) at Be Well Support Stadium, Wakefield. Crowd: 4155 // WAKEFIELD: Kay, Kershaw, Langi, Taufua, Murphy; Gaskell, Lino; Whitbread, Hood, Atoni, Pitts, Ashurst, Crowther. Int: Smith, Battye, Proctor, Eseh. HUDDERSFIELD: Lolohea, McGillvary, Marsters, Bibby, Cudjoe; Pryce, Fages; Hill, Peats, Wilson, McQueen, Jones, Yates. Int: Greenwood, Golding, English, Trout.

Despite fears over the safety of the pitch, Wakefield and Huddersfield went head to head in a scrappy game of football with the Giants holding on for a narrow 8-0 victory.

Both sides exchanged sets for large periods of the opening 40, with Trinity losing key winger Lewis Murphy halfway through the first half but the score remained at 0-0 at the break.

Minutes into the second half, the first points came from the boot of Tui Lolohea, as Theo Fages was taken late, with the scores at a duck egg, the Giants immediately pointed for the two. The Tongan international did the rest and slotted over the penalty goal.

It felt like an eternity, but the first try did eventually come, as smart play from Will Pryce and Tui Lolohea, saw the ball pass through hands, and end up with Joe Greenwood who powered over to score.

Huddersfield then continued to dominate, with Pryce dancing and coming close to the line, yet again was held up short, with Leroy Cudjoe also coming close. Wakefield's attack was repelled at every turn and were held to their second consecutive duck egg in 2023, alarm-bells for the Wildcats would be ringing early on.

Fri 3 Mar 8pm

WIGAN WARRIORS (36) Tries: Liam Marshall 3, Ethan Havard, Toby King, Jai Field; Goals: Harry Smith 6 def CASTLEFORD TIGERS (0) at Mend-A-Hose Jungle, Castleford; Crowd: 7565 // CASTLEFORD: Evalds, Eden, Fonua, Broadbent, Faraimo; Widdop, Miller; Vete, McShane, Lawler, Edwards, Mellor, Westerman. Int: Massey, Milner, Matagi, Watts. WIGAN: Field, French, King, Wardle, Marshall; Cust, Smith; Singleton, Powell, Cooper, Isa, Farrell, Smithies. Int: Havard, Ellis, Mago, Pearce-Paul.

Despite a slow start, Wigan got themselves into gear to shut-out Castleford by 36-0 with winger Liam Marshall collecting a hattrick.

The opening half was one to forget for both sides with attacking chances coming at a premium. Marshall crossed for the first of his three tries three minutes prior to half-time, the conversion was missed but it was made up for with a penalty goal by Harry Smith on the half-time buzzer for a 6-0 lead.

Three minutes after the resumption, a fantastic piece of play by Bevan French who sent a lofted kick on the last, which was fumbled by the Castleford man on the try line, with Ethan Havard on hand to put the ball down to lead 12-0, Smith added a penalty five minutes later to lead 14-0.

Marshall crossed for his second when he intercepted a pass to run 70 metres to score and extend the margin to 20 points. Seven minutes from time, Toby King got through two defenders to cross and push the margin out to 26.

Two minutes from time, Jai Field sped his way through to rub salt into the wound before Marshall completed his hattrick to secure the 36-0 victory.

Fri 3 Mar 8pm

LEIGH LEOPARDS (30) Tries: Tom Briscoe 2, Josh Charnley 2, Tom Amone; Goals: Ben Reynolds 5 def HULL KR (25) Tries: Shaun Kenny-Dowall, Mikey Lewis, James Batchelor, Jordan Abdull; Goals: Will Dagger 4; Field Goals: Jordan Abdull 1 at Sewell Group Craven Park, Hull; Crowd: 8448 // HULL KR: Dagger, Ryan, Opacic, Kenny-Dowall, Hall; Lewis, Abdull; Sue, Litten, Kennedy, Batchelor, Linnett, Minchella. Int: Parcell, King, Halton, Luckley. LEIGH: O'Brien, Charnley, Hardaker, Leutele, Briscoe; Reynolds, Lam; Amone, Davis, Mulhern, Shorrocks, O'Donnell, Asiata. Int: Nakubwai, Seumanufagai, Chamberlain, Ipape.

A last minute try by Josh Charnley has given the Leigh Leopards their first victory in their return to the Super League in a back and forth encounter.

Hull KR opened the scoring in the third minute when Shaun Kenny-Dowall crossed following a bat back by Kane Linnett. Eleven minutes later, captain Tom Amone crashed over from short range and we were set for quite the back and forth affair. Three minutes later, Rovers hit back when Mikey Lewis crossed from the scrum, but you guessed it, the lead was short lived.

Tom Briscoe crossed out wide for the first of his two tries to level us up at 12. However, Rovers had the final say on the buzzer when James Batchelor took a short ball from Sam Luckley's and barged over to score. Following a big set after points, Jordan Abdull landed a field goal to give Rovers some further security in the contest. This made it 19-12 to Rovers at the change of ends.

Leigh crossed first nine minutes after the resumption when Charnley crossed off Rovers' own mistakes to reduce the gap to 1. Abdull had a try of his own just before the hour mark when Lewis broke through and linked up with his man to put the margin back out to seven points.

The Leopards made the game tighter in the final ten minutes when Briscoe added a second to reduce the gap to one point. However, the Leopards found a way to the line and crossed on the final play of the game when Charnley crossed to give Leigh their second away win in Super League history.

Fri 3 Mar 8pm

LEEDS RHINOS (25) Tries: Rhyse Martin 2, Ash Handley, Cameron Smith; Goals: Rhyse Martin 4; Field Goals: Blake Austin 1 def ST HELENS (24) Tries: Lewis Dodd 2, Joey Lussick, Mark Percival; Goals: Tommy Makinson 4 at Totally Wicked Stadium, St Helens; Crowd: 15148 // ST HELENS: Welsby, Makinson, Hurrell, Percival, Bennison; Lomax, Dodd; Walmsley, Lussick, Lees, Mata'utia, Sironen, Knowles. Int: McCarthy-Scarsbrook, Wingfield, Bell, Royle. LEEDS: Myler, Fusitu'a, Macdonald, Handley, Olpherts; Austin, Sezer; Holroyd, O'Connor, Tetevano, McDonnell, Martin, Smith. Int: Leeming, Sangaré, Walters, Donaldson.

The Grand Final rematch promised fireworks and it was a Blake Austin field goal that separated the two sides in this one.

The first try came to the Leeds side in the 11th minute of play. The visitors got possession close to their own line, but worked it wide for Nene Macdonald to race down the touchline before the ball ended up in Ash Handley's hands to cross for the first try.

Five minutes later, Joey Lussick bounced back for the Saints burrowing his way over out of acting half to tie the game up. It was bang bang for the Saints four minutes later, with Lewis Dodd bursting through the defence to give St Helens the early 12-6 lead. The lead didn't last long when Rhyse Martin won the race to an Aidan Sezer grubber to lock the game back up at 12.

The game was only level for three minutes as Saints hit the front when Dodd collected his second following a disastrous in-goal mix up from Leeds and it was 18-12 where it stayed at the break. 5 minutes into the second stanza, Mark Percival won the race to a Jack Welsby grubber and it appeared the Saints found their groove.

Curtis Sironen was given a yellow card on the hour mark in the first of many controversial decisions in this fixture. Leeds capitalised on the man advantage and Cam Smith crossed from short range to reduce the gap to just six points. With ten minutes to go, Martin crossed for his second from short fire range and the Rhinos were locked up at 24.

Refereeing controversies had a profound impact on the final result. What appeared to be a shoulder charge by Leeds's Sam Walters was deemed a fair shot by the referee and Saints were penalised for the overreaction by Welsby. A late shot on Myler by Konrad Hurrell was deemed to be direct contact to the head by Chris Kendall and he was shown red. Off the ensuing set, a field goal by Blake Austin sailed over the posts to give the Rhinos an upset one point victory and got revenge on the Saints.
