THE PREVIEW

with Lachy MacCorquodale

Another Thursday night football match, another pearler. The NRL has once again gifted us another enthralling match up for Thursday night football this week, with the Manly Warringah Sea Eagles hosting the Parramatta Eels at 4 Pines Park.

The home side are going to be ready and fresh for this fixture after sitting out of the second round of the competition with the bye. Their only game this season was their opening round 25-point victory over the Canterbury Bankstown Bulldogs and they looked red hot in that affair. Captain Daly Cherry-Evans grabbed a career first hat-trick as he kicked off his 2023 campaign with a bang.

Coach Anthony Seibold and Cherry-Evans will be keen to put the sword to the Eels, last year's runners-up, to send a message out to the rest of the competition that the Sea Eagles are here and ready to compete in 2023. At this stage of the season it's hard to tell if that's the case which gives this clash all the more excitement. Even more so considering Parramatta's 0-2 start to the season which they'll be determined to put right this Thursday.

To make things even more difficult for the Eels is the fact that this is the beginning of a three-week run of playing teams fresh off a bye. They face Penrith and Sydney in the following weeks and there's a genuine possibility that they find themselves winless after five rounds. The promising sign for the Eels is that they've played well early in their two opening fixtures and doing so against Manly will be extremely beneficial. If Manly get on a roll, they can be one of the harder teams to stop.

On the flip side of Parramatta's good starts to their first two games is what came after those periods. Coughing up a six-point lead to lose to the Storm in golden point and falling apart after taking a 10-point lead after five minutes against the Sharks. This is certainly something that Brad Arthur and his staff will be looking to address because if they can't fix this soon, they could be in for an arm-wrestle for the rest of the season.

A genuine question that needs to be asked about Parramatta is regarding their use of their bench this season. Their bench minutes have failed to crack 80 minutes in both contests with one player not coming on the field at all. They've played both games with 16 players essentially. I can't wrap my head around it. It's put undue pressure on Junior Paulo and Reagan Campbell-Gillard, who are playing big minutes, to perform for 60-70 minutes each week.

Despite all the mentioned negativity surrounding the Eels, their ability to conjure points last weekend was quite good. They managed to score 26 points with a low completion rate of 66 per cent on top of making 15 errors. If they can hold the ball better this week, there's no reason they can't remain a dangerous threat to Manly especially with the emergence of J'maine Hopgood who will make life easier for Mitchell Moses and Dylan Brown, who both had good games against the Sharks.

It's unsure how the Sea Eagles defence would handle such dangerous attack, but we do know that they're also extremely potent in attack with the likes of Cherry-Evans, Tom Trbojevic and Haumole Olakau'atu. They caused havoc against the Bulldogs in the second half and famously did so during the 2021 season. The Sharks laid out the blueprint for scoring points against the Eels and there's no doubt that the Sea Eagles had a look at that this week as they put together their match plan to potentially send Parramatta to an 0-3 start. However, there is every possibility that the Eels come out fired up this Thursday night and break the Sea Eagles apart, reminding everyone of their excellent 2022 season. Either way, it should be an interesting clash.

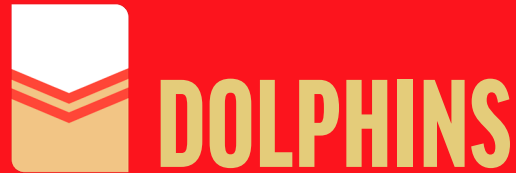

To make things even more interesting, Josh Schuster has been named to make his first appearance for the season in the number six jersey, forcing Cooper Johns out of the side. That's the only change for this match as the Eels are running out the same 17 from round two.

WHO TO WATCH: Can there be any other player from the northern beaches to watch than Tom Trbojevic? Injury free for the moment (fingers crossed), the fullback had a nice outing in round one to make his return to the NRL. The New South Welshmen scored a try, assisted a try, broke five tackles, made two line breaks and ran for 173 metres to show everyone that he still has it. A week of rest under his belt will no doubt be beneficial for the 26-year-old as he works his way back from injury. As always, Daly Cherry-Evans will be influential in the result of this game as he was in round one, scoring a hat-trick in his first match after a World Cup winning campaign with Australia.

For the opposition, it's worth keeping an eye on J'maine Hopgood, who will be playing his twelfth game of his NRL career on Thursday but has already made his presence felt in his two games for the Eels this season. The first outing demonstrated a workman-like effort against the Storm as he accumulated 57 tackles and ran for 172 metres in his club debut. He backed that up in round two with 47 tackles, 145 metres, two try assists and a line break as he quickly becomes the favourite for the signing of the season. His ball-playing at lock will be a feature this Thursday as he looks to dig into Manly's line, creating space for his halves on either side of the ruck. One of those halves, Mitchell Moses, will be fired up after the combination of losing in his 200th NRL match and starting the season with two losses. The 28-year-old was excellent last week, scoring two tries and running for 138 metres in their four-point loss. It's a big battle for Moses lining up against Cherry-Evans and I for one can't wait for it.

FAVOURITE: The Sea Eagles are the favourite for this outing due to their performance in round one in combination with the Eels poor start to the season. Manly coming out fresh off a bye round will only help their chances.

MY TIP: Manly were great in their first game of the season. That was at 4 Pines Park which hosts this clash too, it makes it a difficult prospect for the Eels when you add in the fact that the Sea Eagles are fresh after a week off. Although, Parramatta are going to be determined to register their first win of the season. Manly by 4.

THE PREVIEW

with Adam Huxtable

Dolphins Look To Continue Strong Form Against Injury Struck Knights

This week's matchup between the Knights and Dolphins should be a hard fought encounter, with the Knights keen to put on a good show for the Red and Blue faithful in their first home game of the year, while the Dolphins will be looking to prove they can continue their surprising strong form in a hostile environment on the road.

Both teams have shown glimpses of their potential so far this season. The Knights, despite facing a flurry of setbacks both inside and outside their control, were able to hold on for a gritty victory over the Tigers in a dour affair. The main hurdle was Daniel Saifiti being sent from the field with 15 to go, an occurrence which mirrored Mitch Barnett being given his marching orders in Round 3 of 2022. On that occasion, the Knights folded, and it should be seen as encouraging that they were able to dig deep and defend their line for the remainder of the game this time around.

To say the Dolphins have been the surprise packets of 2023 so far would be an extreme understatement. There were many people, myself included, who questioned not only where their first win was going to come from, but also whether they were even going to be competitive in their losses. They have well and truly silenced this noise and made the doubters look ridiculous in their first two games, destroying the Roosters and coming back against the Raiders.

While the Dolphins have most certainly already shown that they belong in the NRL and have a bright future, the question now is will they be able to keep this momentum going on the road. The players would've had no trouble getting up for their inaugural clash at Suncorp in front of a packed house, while it would've been a similar scenario for their first game in Redcliffe last week. The next tests involve maintaining the same performances on the road to ensure that the dream start continues and turns into a dream season.

In team news, Newcastle five-eighth Kalyn Ponga is out after sustaining a concussion against the Tigers. He is replaced by Tyson Gamble, while Jayden Brailey is out for the same reason, replaced at hooker by Phoenix Crossland. Brodie Jones comes in to the second row to replace Tyson Frizell who has an ankle injury, while Jack Hetherington comes into the starting front row for the suspended Jacob Saifiti. The new faces on the bench are Mat Croker, Ryan Rivett and Dylan Lucas.

For the Dolphins, hooker Jeremy Marshall-King is suspended and will be replaced at hooker by Kodi Nikorima, while Ray Stone is back on the interchange bench, replacing Mason Teague.

WHO TO WATCH: In the absence of Ponga and Brailey, expect Newcastle five-eighth Jackson Hastings to have an increased role in running the attack for the Knights on Friday. Last year while playing for the Tigers, Hastings touched the ball more than any other player in the competition on a per game basis, so he has experience in being the main playmaker. While the Knights last game against the Tigers wasn't exactly the textbook example of what good Rugby League should look like, the Knights were able to find attacking success by spreading the ball to the edge of Dane Gagai and Dom Young, scoring two tries by doing so. Those two will be matched up against Brenko Lee and Tesi Niu, who each have defensive question marks over them. It will be interesting to see whether Hastings decides to run the bulk of the attack down this right edge or if he opts for a more balanced approach.

Before the season kicked off, Wayne Bennett decided to adopt a sink or swim approach with young five-eighth Isaiya Katoa, and so far he has been keeping his head above the water with ease. While Sean O'Sullivan has been doing most of the game managing in general play, Katoa has chimed in when necessary, last week notching up his first try assist in the top grade to go along with a line break assist and a forced drop out. He has also been up to the task defensively so far, last week making 21 tackles at an 87.5% efficiency rate. Anyone who's watched Katoa in the lower grades knows that he has serious talent, and it feels like a matter of when and not if we see it shine through at the highest level.

FAVOURITE: The Dolphins are 5-point favourites in this one at the time of writing.

MY TIP: The Dolphins have been extremely impressive so far, but I think on the road on Friday at 6 o'clock against a gritty Knights team has all the markings of a letdown performance. It wouldn't be the first time they've proven me wrong should they win, but for now I think it'll be the Knights by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with Josh Robertson

If there was a battle between two NRL teams that never needed anything to ignite, it's the battle of the Roosters and Souths. But after 2022's sin-bin spectacular, this season's first contest could see both sides fired up.

The Sydney Roosters notched their first win of 2023 last weekend with a 20-12 triumph over the Warriors on Saturday afternoon. The performance was yet again far from polished for the Tricolours, who struggled with combinations and couldn't find the right gear to step up when needed.

While fans of the Bondi club would no doubt be happy with the two competition points, they are still yet to find the perfect rhythm across the opening fortnight. This hasn't been helped by the lack of game time for key players through an injury crisis that has plagued the side. And while yes, injuries impact performance, there should be enough quality in the Roosters side to get them through - and they will need to be firing hard against a Souths side that has already proven they can be ruthless at times.

A big relief for the Roosters has seen new recruit Brandon Smith cleared of a rib injury that took him from the field after just 26 minutes last week, meaning he will take his spot in the 9 jersey. In another boost, Victor Radley and Jared Waerea-Hargreaves return to the Roosters side for some much needed experience and aggression. Fletcher Baker drops to the bench and Naufahu Whyte moves to 18th man.

South Sydney were dynamic in Round 1 and the plaudits had them flying high, but come Round 2 they were quickly brought back to earth following their 16-10 defeat to the defending premiers Penrith. The performance from the Rabbitohs was underwhelming to say the least, as star half Lachlan Illias seemed to go missing and it was only through late momentum that the Rabbitohs put themselves in with a chance of claiming the Panthers' scalp.

The Bunnies' performance probably had the scoreboard flatter them, with the Panthers denied a couple of four-pointers of their own in what was a testy game that saw both teams get frustrated - which could be a sign of how Souths could feel this week if things don't go their way.

The visitors have also received a boost on the teamsheet, with Tevita Tatola returning from his head knock suffered in Round 1, while Hame Sele returns from a calf injury. This pushes Davvy Moale to the bench with Daniel Suluka-Fifita out of the 17 and Jed Cartwright is 18th man.

WHO TO WATCH: Joseph-Aukuso Suaalii is the player to watch for the Roosters because there has been a lot of discussion about his spot in the Roosters side, and his supposed desperation for the fullback spot of James Tedesco. The media talk shouldn't play mind games on one of the most talented players seen in a very long time but with these conversations comes pressure - so it will be interesting to see how it affects his performance.

All eyes will be on Latrell Mitchell as he turns up to Allianz Stadium on Friday night, and how his emotions will play out following last week's racism controversy. A week with his name across the media after the events of Thursday night will no doubt have an effect on the Souths fullback and yet again he will be the target of ire of the Roosters fans. There is no doubt that any game that brings out emotion can backfire - as it has in the past for Mitchell - so how his mentality is faring will be a major part of Souths chances on Friday night.

FAVOURITE: A lot of the markets and tips see South Sydney as favourites given their form, though it is a pretty even contest as always between the two rivals.

MY TIP: This is a game that I'm struggling to tip because ultimately it will be coming down to the side who could control their emotions the best. Both sides have talked about their efforts to not let a repeat of 2022 happen again. Souths showed last week that they can get frustrated easily if things aren't going their way and it could backfire on them. I'm tipping the Roosters but in a tight contest. Roosters by 4.

THE PREVIEW

with Robert Crosby

Last start losers look to bounce back

The Gold Coast Titans and the Melbourne Storm will be out to atone for poor last start performances during a Saturday afternoon encounter at CBUS Super Stadium.

Squandering a ten-point lead approaching halftime only to be handsomely beaten at the end of 80 minutes last week, the Gold Coast Titans will be eyeing greater consistency in their first home appearance of 2023.

Going down to the Dragons 32-18 last Sunday at Kogarah, coach Justin Holbrook has opted for experience in his backline by recalling Brian Kelly in a reshuffle that sees Phillip Sami shift to the wing and Jojo Fifita omitted from the squad entirely.

Chris Randall replaces injured Sam Verrills at hooker, while Iszac Fa'asuamaleaui will make his NRL debut off the bench alongside recalled forward Joseph Vuna.

Holding a poor overall record against their weekend opponents with six wins from 25 past meetings, the Titans last defeated the Storm at CBUS Super Stadium a decade ago.

Suffering a double-digit loss on home soil for only the second time in the pandemic era, the Melbourne Storm will be desperate to avoid back-to-back losses inside the first month of the season.

Left stunned by an attacking assault from the Bulldogs during last Saturday's 26-12 loss at home, coach Craig Bellamy has received mixed news on the injury front with Justin Olam, Xavier Coates, Tui Kamikamica and Tariq Sims returning from injury, while losing imposing front-rower Nelson Asofa-Solomona for an extended period due to a knee injury.

Highly-rated youngster Jonah Pezet will make his first grade debut off the bench; the son of former South Queensland and Parramatta halfback Troy Pezet was awarded player of the match honours in the Under 19s State of Origin contest last season.

WHO TO WATCH: Playing all bar ten minutes in the front-row last week, Gold Coast captain Tino Fa'asuamaleaui will be looking to get one over his former club on Saturday afternoon.

Winning a premiership with the Storm in 2020 before establishing himself as one of the premier forwards in the league at the Titans, the 23-year-old forward has averaged 150 running metres over the opening fortnight of the season, along with snaring a late try last week.

Coming up against a Melbourne side missing experience up front, expect Fa'asuamaleaui to be heavily involved if the Titans are to make an early season statement.

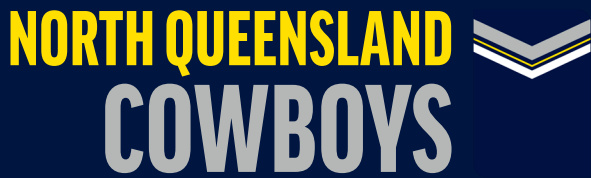

Set to become the latest in a long line of players to thrive in the Victorian capital, Eliesa Katoa appears on track to make the right edge position his own if the opening fortnight of the season is indicative of things to come.

Touted as a player of untapped potential during three years with the Warriors, the 23-year-old Tongan forward displayed glimpses of talent last week with three line breaks, three tackle breaks, 160 running metres and a denied four-pointer.

Set to line up opposite David Fifita in a key personal duel, Katoa will fancy his chances of snaring his first try in purple colours on Saturday afternoon.

FAVOURITE: Winning their past eight matches against the Titans in succession, the Storm are expected to prove too strong in the daytime conditions.

MY TIP: Having produced an uncharacteristically dismal performance last weekend, the Storm will be primed to make amends and get the job done away from home. Storm by 16.

with Andrew Ferguson

The Cowboys survived a Round 1 scare when the Raiders pushed them all the way before a 76th minute field goal from Premiership winning half Chad Townsend got the Cowboys home. They followed this performance up with a solid first half effort against the Broncos, before the Cowboys fell away after the break, giving Brisbane a 28-16 victory.

The Warriors came into the 2023 season with a lot of player turnover, another new coach and low expectations from pundits. But they opened their 2023 campaign with a solid 20-12 victory over the Knights and followed it up with a spirited effort against the more highly fancied Roosters, where the Bondi Boys scraped home with a 20-12 win.

It would then be fair to summarise that despite both sides coming into this Round 3 encounter with a win and a loss apiece, that the Warriors are in better and more consistent form. Will it be enough though? Likely not.

Simply put, the Warriors are performing above expectation, while the Cowboys are a touch below. The question now then is - will this be the game where both sides performances reflect how they should be performing?

The Cowboys forwards are an impressive lot with varied skillsets which compliment their gameplan so well. Jason Taumalolo, Reuben Cotter and Jamayne Taunoa-Brown will be punching big holes in the Warriors middle defence, likely targeting the impressive Tohu Harris and Addin Fonua-Blake so as to minimise their offensive impact up front, while Valentine Holmes and Jeremiah Nanai will be running hard and strong lines on both edges.

Dearden and Townsend will also be handing rookie Warriors fullback Taine Tuapiki a bevy of bombs and grubbers to try and create cheap scoring opportunities.

The Warriors wingers Edward Kosi and Marcelo Montoya need to support their rookie custodian all game to help take a lot of that pressure off him. But while Tuapiki will be heavily tested, no one is under more pressure in this Warriors side than Shaun Johnson. The former Test half looks to have lost his explosive speed and step, his decision making is not as crisp as it used to be, his kick options are at times confused and he rarely takes the line on. With a predominantly defensive hooker, a rookie fullback and a ball running five-eighth, Johnson is largely playing a lone hand running the Warriors attack. Martin particularly needs to get more involved in the playmaking and kicking duties to take that pressure off his halfback, but also to make their attack less predictable and to spread out the defensive line.

Both sides have a number of changes coming into this clash. For the Cowboys, Peta Hiku and Scott Drinkwater have both been suspended and will miss this game. Their places in the side have been taken by Tomas Chester at Fullback and Gehamat Shibasaki at centre.

The Warriors will see Taine Tuapiki make his NRL debut when he runs out at fullback, replacing Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad who suffered a concussion last week. Jackson Ford will also be rested following a concussion, which will see Bunty Afoa starting at prop and Bayley Sironen being added to the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: Tohu Harris is a genuine superstar in this Warriors side, he does so much of the hard yakka in the middle and on the edges, while also proving to be a vital link man on the edge of the ruck, especially with his ability to attract multiple defenders, draw and pass. Expect him to target Shibasaki before giving Williame an overlap to work with.

Reuben Cotter and Jason Taumalolo are the two most dangerous ball running forwards in this game. They have a powerful running game but also good footwork at the line and good offloads, making them the biggest threats to the Warriors in this game. With the likes of Coen Hess and Valentine Holmes always loitering about looking for an offload, expect these four to have some impact just on the edges of the ruck.

FAVOURITE: The Cowboys at home are always a tough prospect, even moreso when they are taking on a Warriors side that don't travel well.

MY TIP: Cowboys should be able to win comfortably here, however the backline changes could see this match played more prominently in the middle, thus keeping the scores a bit closer. The Warriors defence has been rather solid thus far. Cowboys by 10.

THE PREVIEW

with Beth Nicholls

Both teams are looking to continue their perfect starts to their seasons. Brisbane have won two from two games so far, as have St George won their one match, due to a bye in Round 1.

The Broncos are coming off a red-hot win against the Cowboys, where they had a slow start to the game but really dominated during the second half. If they successfully beat the Dragons, they will extend their 2023 lead to make it three wins from three games, something they haven't done since 2009.

On the other side, the Dragons have been among conversation to take home the wooden spoon in 2023, however they showed a strong side when rolling the Titans with a 32-18 win. They sit even with Brisbane on the ladder with 4 competition points, despite only having the opportunity to play one game so far, due to drawing a bye in Round 1.

Both teams are fortunate to not be affected by an extensive injury toll, with only minimal changes happening to each respective side.

After Corey Oates suffered a broken cheekbone in the second half of the game against the Cowboys, Jesse Arthurs is replacing him on the wing. Outside from this, the Broncos are looking to have an unchanged side for Saturday.

Dragons have an unchanged side, with the same 17 named to take the field. However, rookie Toby Couchman could be ruled out pending concussion protocol after he collided with Gold Coast second-rower Joe Stimson during the Titans match and was forced from the field for a HIA.

The Dragons have an impressive history against the Broncos, winning six of their seven matchups since 2018. However, Suncorp Stadium is not too kind to the visiting team, where they have lost their past 5 games at the stadium.

WHO TO WATCH: After an impressive debut in the maroon and gold, it'll be exciting to see what magic Reece Walsh can bring against the Dragons. Playing in fullback against the Cowboys, Walsh set up two tries and finished off the match by scoring a try of his own, which saw him named Player of the Match.

With the Dragons determined to beat the wooden spoon suggestions, Ben Hunt might just be the player to convince everyone of such. A stellar performance on Sunday left Ben Hunt with four tackle breaks, one try assist, alongside a 4-pointer of his own. I'm hoping to see Ben Hunt continue to dominate in the halves, especially when playing against the Brisbane Broncos, his former side.

FAVOURITE: The Broncos are slightly favoured to take the victory at home.

MY TIP: With both teams having excellent starts to their seasons, I see this game as a challenge for both sides. However, I believe that the Broncos have it in them to continue their winning streak and pull a win over the Dragons in the end. Broncos by 12.

THE PREVIEW

with Lachlan McIntyre

Sunday afternoon footy will see the Canterbury-Bankstown Bulldogs host the Wests Tigers at the iconic Belmore Sports Ground.

The Bulldogs are in good spirits following a comfortable upset win away in Melbourne against an admittedly weakened Storm team. The 26-12 win on Saturday night came much to the surprise of many, especially considering their shaky first round offering. Canterbury will be hopeful of carrying that performance into a very winnable home game this weekend, and of getting themselves back-to-back wins for the first time since July 2022.

Winning himself the fullback spot to start the season over the likes of Jake Averillo, Hayze Perham played the game of his life to help his team topple Melbourne. Running for almost 200 metres, 60 of which were post-contact, Perham provided plenty of energy and fire to the Bulldogs from the back. He will want to keep the good performances coming as he continues settling into his new club. The Bulldogs have named the same 17 that took on Melbourne.

Yet another train wreck performance from the Wests Tigers in round two has fans questioning all of their life decisions. Playing in front of a loyal and foolhardy Leichhardt home crowd, the Tigers had their whole season to play for against the lowly Newcastle Knights. What they served up was nothing short of abhorrent, going down by two points to a 12 man injury-struck Newcastle.

Fan-favourite forward Alex Twal served up another game of consistency in the pack for the Tigers, albeit in a losing side. Twal made 46 tackles in a 50+ minute performance off the bench, and his strong effort in defence finally gave him his reward in attack - almost. The Lebanese international crashed over the line for what appeared to be the first try of his NRL career, only for the ball to have been knocked free. The heartbreak will surely only fire him up more for this clash.

Charlie Staines will get an opportunity at starting fullback after playing decent minutes at fullback last weekend. Junior Tupou is rewarded for some stellar reserve grade performances with his first NRL jersey of 2023, taking Staines' spot on the wing. Starford To'a replaces the concussed Tommy Talau at centre. Blore and Pole are big inclusions in the forward pack, with Alex Seyfarth and the suspended Papali'i making way. Brandon Wakeham has been named on the bench in place of Jake Simpkin, while John Bateman has been named in the reserves.

The Wests Tigers have won four of their past six games against Canterbury-Bankstown, and this game might be their last chance to kick-start their season before an upcoming tough stretch in their draw.

WHO TO WATCH: Jacob Kiraz is coming into his own in the NRL. In his rookie season last year, he cemented his spot in the 17 before making his Rugby League World Cup debut with Lebanon to finish the year. At just 21 years old, and with under 20 NRL appearances, Kiraz has plenty of potential for growth over the next few seasons. Against Melbourne, Kiraz was a shining light, scoring a double and making a whopping 235 run metres. Racking up ten tackle breaks and five offloads singlehandedly further helped his team get the victory.

Brandon Wakeham arrived at the Wests Tigers just a few months ago, and he now finds himself in an intriguing position. While pressure to drop Luke Brooks, whether warranted or not, continues to build, Wakeham has been grinding away for the Magpies in the opening two rounds. He will now get a shot on the NRL stage for the first time since he left the opposition club, Canterbury-Bankstown. How he'll be used off the bench remains to be seen, but there's no doubt that he will be an energetic insertion into the game when his time comes.

FAVOURITE: The Bulldogs are comfortable favourites to see off the Tigers this weekend.

MY TIP: Tragically, the nightmare will continue for the Wests Tigers. Bulldogs by 20.

Green Machine look to re-group after horror QLD road-trip

The Canberra Raiders will be looking to end their winless start to 2023 when they take on the Cronulla Sharks to close out the NRL's Multicultural Round.

Canberra have followed a similar script to what they utilised in 2022, and that is turn up for 40 minutes. It's unfortunately not a clique anymore, it's cold heart facts. There's times where this Canberra side look like a well-oiled machine, and then there is their second half capitulation against the Dolphins, where they let a 12-0 lead slip from their grasp to lose 20-14 in agonising fashion.

Looking ahead, they've got a good bounce back game against one of the competition heavyweights in the Cronulla Sharks. Watching last week, Canberra's middle needs to run with Joe Tapine. Tapine is carrying this Canberra pack on his back and it's time someone took the initiative to help with the forward load. In the backs, Seb Kris continues to showcase his skills at the back with another strong performance and with a Cronulla defensive unit that has conceded 53 points across their first two outings, there could be some exploiting of the defence.

On the team front, Josh Papali'i is still another week or two away from returning so Pasami Saulo again has a chance to step up. However, Ata Mariota isn't so lucky. The big forward broke his hand in the six point loss and is out for 6-8 weeks. Trey Mooney gets his chance to replace him on the bench. The rest of the side is unchanged.

For the Sharks, the attacking phase of their game isn't a big concern going forward. We know that they can produce points when presented with an opportunity especially granted the way they were able to toy with Parramatta's edges. However, their defence has left a lot to be desired in recent weeks.

As already mentioned they have conceded 53 points across their first two matches and combined with the 70 they conceded in both their finals fixtures, it's an obvious flaw in the Sharks game at the moment but there's simply no easy fix for. The only missing piece in this side at the moment is Nicho Hynes and he doesn't fix their defence. The reality is for the Sharks, they need to muscle up and commit in defence. The quicker they turn it around, the better chance they have of re-emerging come September.

On the team front, the big question hanging around the Cronulla precinct is when Nicho Hynes will return. The news out of Cronulla suggests he's likely to miss at least one more week with a calf injury so Braidon Trindall will again deputise for Nicho. Elsewhere, Jack Williams is to return following his nasty head knock in the first round taking the place of Connor Tracey.

WHO TO WATCH: The focus for the Raiders needs to be front and centre on Joe Tapine. Tapine was the form forward of the competition last season and has begun 2023 in similar vein. Averaging 149 running metres and making 75 tackles across two matches, Tapine is approaching his peak and with the Raiders looking for win number 1 on the season, it's a safe bet that Tapine will be one of the big contributors.

Tasked with being the heir apparent to replace Wade Graham on the edge. Teig Wilton has enjoyed a solid start to the season. The 23 year old edge forward has played 80 minutes in the first two outings and has been a popular Supercoach pick up (get him in before price rises everyone). Wilton has run for over 100 metres and crossed the stripe in their home opener. However, he has missed 11 tackles across his two games, and although it was an improved defensive output against the Eels, Wilton will need to remain consistent if the Sharks hang on for victory.

FAVOURITE: Cronulla come into this fixture as favourites following their victory last week. However, Canberra isn't a happy hunting ground for the Sharks in recent years with their last victory coming in the nation's capital in 2018, but enjoyed a strong record at the ground prior to 2019.

MY TIP: One of the more intriguing matches of the round this one. Both sides were semi-finalists last year, but it's easy to say they've been well off the pace in one or aspects of play to start the 2023 Telstra Premiership. Cronulla look likely to get their defence in order especially considering Canberra's fadeouts in recent times, but it's a match that can easily go either way. Cronulla by 4.

NRL 2023 ROUND 2

THURSDAY 9 MARCH, 8:00pm PENRITH 16 SOUTHS 10

MATCH FACTS: PENRITH 16 (S. Crichton, I. Tago, B. To'o tries; N. Cleary, S. Crichton goals) DEFEATED SOUTHS 10 (A. Johnston, I. Tass tries; L. Mitchell goal) AT BLUEBET STADIUM. Date: Thu, 9th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Penrith 10-0. Penalties: Penrith 7-4. Referee: Grant Atkins. Crowd: 16,906. THE TEAMS: PENRITH: Edwards, Turuva, Tago, Crichton, To'o; Luai, Cleary (C); Leota, Kenny, Fisher-Harris, Garner, Martin, Yeo (C). Int: Luke, Eisenhuth, Leniu, Salmon. SOUTHS: Mitchell, Johnston, Tass, Graham, Thompson; Walker, Ilias; Moale, Cook, Burgess, Koloamatangi, Chee-Kam, Murray (C). Int: Suluka-Fifita, Taaffe, Cartwright, Mitchell..

The Penrith Panthers have resumed normal transmission with a narrow 16-10 victory over the South Sydney Rabbitohs to kick off Round 2 of the NRL season.

Penrith got off to a hot start, limiting South Sydney in the opening sets of the contest. Their defensive effort was rewarded in the first five minutes of play. It was a great kick from Nathan Cleary which was batted back by Izack Tago, and juggled by Moses Leota who got it onto James Fisher-Harris who flicked it out the back to Mitch Kenny who found Stephen Crichton who dived in the corner. Cleary's conversion was unsuccessful, and Penrith had an early 4-0 lead. Souths had opportunities but were outmuscled by Penrith's superior defence with Latrell Mitchell taken on the last and Tom Burgess losing the ball shy of the line. The Panthers were dealt a blow when Mitch Kenny was wobbly following a collision and was replaced by the independent doctor but would return to the action. Souths were struggling to hang on after sustained Penrith pressure. It was a great pass from Isaiah Yeo to find Luke Garner to crash over to score, but the Bunker spoiled the party and Mitchell's defensive efforts were rewarded. But they wouldn't be denied right on the bell as Garner went to offload, and it looked like the ball was lost. Jarome Luai played to the whistle and kicked ahead. Izack Tago won the race to the ball to score. Crichton converted to lead 10-0 at the break, but it was a sour lead with Cleary limping off at the break but would return in the second half.

Penrith began the second half the same way they attacked the first. A short kick-off backfired on Latrell and the Panthers shot two converted tries clear with a 12-0 lead. Five minutes later, a lovely pass from Cleary which found Crichton who got the 2 v 1 overlap and Brian To'o scored, with Cleary missing the kick to extend the margin to 16. Souths wouldn't die wondering. Michael Chee Kam did well to get the pass away to Latrell before getting it onto Cody Walker before finding Alex Johnston to score to reduce the margin back to 12. Mitchell's impressive streak of 26 straight conversions came to an end with the miss from the right of the sideline. It appeared Souths were going to fall away but the ball spilt out the back, Cook found Walker who got it onto Johnston who found Mitchell before finding Isaiah Tass who kicked ahead and won the race to the football. Mitchell converted for a 16-10 score and set up a grandstand finish. Souths fell agonisingly short on the final play. Penrith clear the cobwebs following an opening round horror show, while Souths are set to regroup ahead of a grudge match against the Roosters. The game is on a sour note for Panthers fans, with one of their own ejected following a racial slur directed at Latrell Mitchell. AJ LUCANTONIO

CRONULLA 30 PARRAMATTA 26

MATCH FACTS: CRONULLA 30 (W. Kennedy 3, R. Mulitalo, B. Nikora tries; B. Trindall 5 goals) DEFEATED PARRAMATTA 26 (M. Moses 2, M. Sivo 2, R. Campbell-Gillard tries; M. Moses 3 goals) AT COMMBANK STADIUM. Date: Fri, 10th March. Kickoff: 6:00 PM. Halftime: Cronulla 18-14. Penalties: 4-all. Referee: Gerard Sutton. Crowd: 16,663 THE TEAMS: PARRAMATTA: Gutherson (C), Sivo, Penisini, Blake, Simonsson; Brown, Moses; Campbell-Gillard, Hodgson, Paulo, Cartwright, Doorey, Hopgood. Int: Momoisea, Murchie, Greig, Makatoa. CRONULLA: Kennedy, Katoa, Ramien, Talakai, Mulitalo; Moylan, Trindall; Rudolf, Brailey, Hamlin-Uele, Nikora, Wilton, Finucane (C). Int: McInnes, Hunt, Kaufusi, Tracey.

The Parramatta Eels are zero from two to start their 2023 NRL campaign, going down 30-26 to Cronulla in front of their home fans on Friday evening.

It was Parramatta who shot out of the blocks, opening the scoring in just the 4th minute. A J'maine Hopgood offload set the 4-pointer up for his prop Reagan Campbell-Gillard, and Mitch Moses slotted the conversion in his 200th NRL appearance to take the score to 6-0. In just the next set, another Hopgood offload set up an overlap on the left edge for Maika Sivo to extend his side's lead early on. But Cronulla worked hard to turn the momentum back in their favour, and it paid off when Briton Nikora crossed the stripe in the 16th minute. Stand-in halfback Braydon Trindall popped Nikora the short ball close to the line, and just like that it was 10-6. A few minutes later, an error from Bailey Simonsson handed Cronulla another attacking set, which fullback William Kennedy took full advantage of, scoring his first of the night. After the chaotic opening 20, both teams went back into their shell a little. It was an error from try-scorer Kennedy that allowed the Eels onto the attack, and eventually it was Moses who crossed for the try in the 34th minute. His conversion attempt from the sideline missed, giving his team a 14-12 lead a few minutes out from the break. But the Sharkies weren't content with heading into the sheds just yet. Some brilliant eyes up footy from Matt Moylan in the 37th minute set up William Kennedy for his second try of the night, and the Trindall conversion gave Cronulla an 18-14 lead at the half-time siren.

It was all Parramatta to start the second half, with a handful of six agains helping them downfield in the opening minutes. They took full advantage in the 44th minute through an impressive display of force by their winger Maika Sivo, who rolled his way over the top of Sione Katoa. Moses kicked his toughest conversion attempt of the night to give the Eels the lead back. The next ten minutes was all Parramatta, with Cronulla consistently inviting them back on the attack. Maika Sivo went heartbreakingly close to his second try of the night, but the Sharks goal line defence held up well to a thorough Parra examination. Their hard work in defence paid off when Ronaldo Mulitalo plucked a pass out of the air in the 56th minute. The chase was on, but Mitch Moses was up to the task, reeling Mulitalo in over an 80 metre sprint. But the Eels didn't scramble hard enough to get back onside, and Will Kennedy strolled over on the next play to complete his first career hat-trick in the NRL. The subsequent conversion gave Cronulla a 24-20 lead with 20 minutes on the clock. Just two minutes later, Mulitalo proved that rugby league is very much a game of momentum, taking a stunning AFL catch off a Moylan kick to extend his side's lead. Trindall kept his impressive goalkicking performance going, nailing the conversion from the sideline to bring the Parramatta deficit into double digits. It would take the Eels to the 73rd minute to trouble the scorekeeper again, with another wonderful display of footy from J'maine Hopgood opening up the Cronulla defence for his halfback, Mitch Moses, to take full advantage of. Quickly converting his own try, the gap was brought down to four points with just six minutes remaining. Parramatta gave it their all in the final minutes, but the Sharks managed to hold onto their narrow lead until the final siren. LACHLAN MCINTYRE

FRIDAY 10 MARCH, 8:05pm

BRISBANE 28 NTH QLD 16

MATCH FACTS: BRISBANE 28 (E. Mam 2, K. Capewell, K. Staggs, R. Walsh tries; A. Reynolds 4 goals) DEFEATED NORTH QLD 16 (J. Nanai 2 tries; V. Holmes 4 goals) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Fri, 10th March. Kickoff: 7:00 PM. Halftime: 10-all. Penalties: 8-all. Referee: Ashley Klein. Crowd: 43,162. THE TEAMS: BRISBANE: Walsh, Oates, Staggs, Farnworth, Cobbo; Mam, Reynolds (C); Jensen, Walters, Haas, Capewell, Riki, Carrigan. Int: Paix, Palasia, Flegler, Taupau, Arthars. NORTH QLD: Drinkwater, Feldt, Holmes, Hiku, Taulagi; Dearden, Townsend (C); McLean, Robson, Cotter, Hess, Nanai, Taumalolo. Int: Granville, Neame, Taunoa-Brown, Tamou, Elliot.

Brisbane has remained undefeated in 2023, following a sensational 28-16 win over the Cowboys at Suncorp Stadium tonight.

Making his club debut, Reece Walsh was the star for the Broncos scoring the winning try and having a hand in three more in a memorable performance from the young fullback, who returns to the club after commencing his career at the Warriors. The Queensland Derby was not without controversy however, hitting a flashpoint post halftime when Walsh for the third time in the match put his winger Corey Oates in some space. The blockbusting winger looked certain to score, when he was collected by a lazy shoulder by Cowboys fullback Scott Drinkwater. Oates failed to score, but left the field with a suspected broken jaw, while Drinkwater was sent to the Sin Bin.

Drinkwater's absence proved pivotal as the Broncos ran in two quick tries to grab the ascendancy and go on with the match with a huge win for their season following their shock first round win over the Panthers last week. North Queensland opened scoring following back-to-back penalties early in the match. It was 2022 Rookie of the Year, Jeremiah Nanai who touched down, running a superb line off a deft pass from halfback Chad Townsend. Valentine Holmes converted and it was 6-0 after as many minutes. The Cowboys then extended their lead after 20 minutes, when back-to-back penalties saw Holmes with a gift penalty goal to extend the visitors lead to 8-0. After a mountain of possession, the Broncos finally looked to have scored their first try, however Reece Walsh was ruled to have obstructed the Cowboys defenders in the lead up. The Broncos didn't have to wait too long however, when Adam Reynolds put a neat kick behind the line for Kurt Capewell to score and open the home side's account. Reynolds converted and it was 8-6 nearing halftime. New Broncos recruit Marty Taupau was then penalised for a hip drop tackle right in front of the posts. Holmes then added a second penalty goal to extend the lead to 10-6. Brisbane however hit back on the stroke of halftime, when Walsh put his winger Corey Oates away down the left-hand side. The Queensland winger then kicked ahead for a flying Ezra Mam who scored an electric try to give the home side a share of the lead at the break.

Following the dramatic sequence of Drinkwater being sent to the Sin Bin and Oates leaving the field with a broken jaw, Walsh then came up with a classy kick for Kotoni Staggs to score to put his side in front. With the Cowboys a man down, Brisbane hit the accelerator with Ezra Mam scoring his second try after that man Walsh and Jesse Arthars (on as 18th man) combined for the Broncos number six to race away to score and all of the sudden it was the home side leading 20-10. With ten minutes remaining Adam Reynolds took an easy two points to extend the lead to twelve, when Cowboys hooker Reece Robson was penalised for being accidentally offside following an offload from Patrick Carrigan which touched a Cowboys hand. North Queensland then threatened a boilover, when Chad Townsend produced a marvelous grubber behind the line and the usual suspect in Jeremiah Nanai scored his second try, for the Cowboys to trail by six with minutes remaining. Brisbane then brought their home fans to their feet, when centre Herbie Farnworth made a bust and he found Man of the Match Reece Walsh, who scored under the posts to ice the game for the home side. SAM BOURKE

SATURDAY 11 MARCH, 3:00pm SYDNEY 20 WARRIORS 12

MATCH FACTS: SYDNEY 20 (J. Paulo 2, S. Walker tries; S. Walker 4 goals) DEFEATED WARRIORS 12 (W. Egan, A. Fonua-Blake tries; S. Johnson 2 goals) AT ALLIANZ STADIUM. Date: Sat, 11th March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Sydney 8-6. Penalties: Sydney 8-5. Referee: Adam Gee. Crowd: 16,267. THE TEAMS: SYDNEY: Tedesco (C), Tupou, Sua'ali'i, Manu, Paulo; Keary, Walker; Collins, Smith, Baker, Butcher, Whyte. Int: Turpin, Hutchison, May, Thomas. WARRIORS: Nicoll-Klokstad, Kosi, Wiliame, Pompey, Montoya; Martin, Johnson; Fonua-Blake, Egan, Barnett, Ford, Niukore, Harris (C). Int: Walker, Afoa, Curran, Ale..

Sydney Roosters picked up their first points of the 2023 season after a 20-12 win over New Zealand Warriors in front of 16,267 fans at Sydney Football Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The Roosters showed in flashes the form of the side which was tipped for big things this season. Sam Walker led the side around well with a four-pointer and a few try assists in a solid win for the tri colours. It was a hot afternoon in Sydney, and the action was fast from the start. Roosters looked to rebound after their shock loss against the Dolphins while the Warriors aimed to continue their strong start to the season. The Roosters were the first side to find the scoreboard. It was a simple exchange of passes on the right before Jaxson Paulo dived over the corner and Sam Walker converted to make it 6-0. A quick series of whistles gave the Roosters the chance to extend their lead to eight. Walker again stepped up, he piloted through the goal for an 8-0 lead as the teams headed for the drinks break. Warriors settled into the game and got some field position. They strung a lovely sequence of passes together of their own, with Shaun Johnson sending over Wayne Egan to make it 8-6.

The second half started with a few errors from both sides but once it got going, the Roosters struck again. This time, Joey Manu was the architect and Paulo collected a double. Roosters found their rhythm and started to cut open the Warriors defense. James Tedesco almost strode away from a Walker bust but spilled it. Minutes later, Luke Keary sent Joseph Suaalii through and he send Walker across for the 18-6 lead. The visitors weren't ready to have the sun set on their chase for two points. Marata Niukore sliced through then found forward partner Addin Fonua-Blake to get them back within six. Once the Warriors were back within six, they had some chances to level up. Dylan Walker kicked one dead and spilled the ball in good field position alongside a grave error of no getting to the play the ball for the Warriors. Roosters finished off the game with another two points. An escort penalty from a possible try-scoring position saw Walker step up, he made it 20-12 and get the Roosters their first win of the 2023 season. JUSTIN DAVIES

DOLPHINS 20 CANBERRA 14

MATCH FACTS: DOLPHINS 20 (H. Tabuai-Fidow 2, T. Gilbert tries; J. Isaako 4 goals) DEFEATED CANBERRA 14 (N. Cotric, J. Wighton tries; J. Fogarty 3 goals) AT KAYO STADIUM. Date: Sat, 11th March. Kickoff: 4:30 PM. Halftime: Canberra 12-6. Penalties: Dolphins 8-6. Referee: Todd Smith. Crowd: 10,023. THE TEAMS: DOLPHINS: Tabuai-Fidow, Isaako, Aitken, Lee, Niu; Katoa, O'Sullivan; Bromwich (C), Marshall-King, Wallace, Kaufusi, Bromwich, Gilbert. Int: Lemuelu, Nicholls, Teague, Donoghoe. CANBERRA: Kris, Cotric, Timoko, Smith-Shields, Hopoate; Wighton, Fogarty; Saulo, Levi, Tapine, Young, Whitehead (C), Harawira-Naera. Int: Starling, Mariota, Horsburgh, Guler..

The "Redcliffe" Dolphins have done something that nobody thought they would and something that history tells you is nearly impossible by winning their opening two matches of their debut season but they did just that with a 20-14 win over Canberra.

In very wet conditions, the Dolphins struggled to adjust early and the Raiders were able to take advantage of the errors from the home side when Jack Wighton was able to slide through after the home side's defence failed to number up under pressure. The pressure that was on the Red and Gold tonight was mounting and the Raiders took advantage again when the Dolphins defence struggled again to number up and Nick Cotric was able to get over in the wet conditions. Things looked to be going even worse for the Dolphins when Jeremy Marshall-King was sin-binned for a hip drop tackle though they managed to turn momentum their way despite a Raiders penalty goal when they finally got over just shy of half-time when Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow scored after a Sean O'Sullivan grubber kick couldn't be cleaned up by Seb Kris.

Canberra had all the momentum for the opening 20 minutes of the second half with all the attacking position and possession but it was a penalty to the home side that changed things and helped the Dolphins upfield. There was some controversy over the Dolphins next try when Tom Gilbert got over and despite looking to hold the shirt of Matt Timoko whilst trying to get the ball, common sense was used as Timoko was never looking to play at the ball whilst Gilbert was trying to get to the ball. A penalty and conversation starting sin bin against Hudson Young for what referee Todd Smith had deemed a professional foul after the Canberra second rower never got to marker and was ruled to have deliberately stopped the try. The ensuing penalty goal put the Dolphins in front 14-12. If the Young sin bin sparked discussion, a very contentious decision from Todd Smith again to deem that Sean O'Sullivan had made late high contact when it looked as if the penalty was milked by the Canberra player. The Raiders levelled the scores at 14 all with both sides down to 12. An error at the back from Canberra gave the Redcliffe side a big opportunity and it was down to Isaaya Katoa to step up and he did as he ran to the line drawing in the defence for the Hammer to seal the win with his try. The victory for the Dolphins sets them in high esteem as just the third team to win their first two games as an expansion side since 1910 and the first since the Storm. JOSH ROBERTSON

CANTERBURY 26 MELBOURNE 12

MATCH FACTS: CANTERBURY 26 (J. Kiraz 2, J. Addo-Carr, J. Averillo, J. Preston tries; M. Burton 3 goals) DEFEATED MELBOURNE 12 (N. Asofa-Solomona, J. Hughes tries; N. Meaney 2 goals) AT AAMI PARK. Date: Sat, 11th March. Kickoff: 7:35 PM. Halftime: Canterbury 16-0. Penalties: Canterbury 8-6. Referee: Chris Butler. Crowd: 17,248. THE TEAMS: MELBOURNE: Meaney, Warbrick, Smith, Tonumaiepa, Anderson; Wishart, Hughes; Asofa-Solomona, Grant, Welch (C), Loiero, Katoa, King. Int: Garlick, MacDonald, Grant, Bradley. CANTERBURY: Perham, Kiraz, Averillo, Alamoti, Addo-Carr; Burton (C), Flanagan; King, Mahoney, Sutton, Kikau, Faitala-Mariner, Preston. Int: Brown, Waddell, Pele, Okunbor..

The Canterbury Bulldogs have left many stunned as they have gone down to Melbourne and done what most teams can't do and win, as they ran out 26-12 winners over the Storm after leading 26-0 at one stage.

The Storm had the field position early but it quickly shifted to the Bulldogs and it was their fan-favourite rookie Jacob Preston who got over the line first and despite a live decision of No Try from referee Chris Butler, the bunker was quick to award the try. Melbourne were looking to put the pressure on the Bulldogs but couldn't and the momentum shifted off a poor Harry Grant kick that went dead and gave the Bulldogs a 7 tackle set. The Storm looked lost in attack and it was a poor few minutes for Young Tonumaiepa who handed over the ball on last tackle without an attacking yelp before being sin binned for taking out Jake Averillo who didn't have the ball in an attacking raid. The Bulldogs then took advantage with two quick tries first coming through Jacob Kiraz who scored in the corner after the Dogs were able to exploit the numbers whilst Josh Addo-Carr added the third when again Canterbury were able to exploit the extra man. This time it was going from side to side with mesmerising passing that left Melbourne shocked as the Fox pulled off a trademark dive for the corner. On the stroke of half time, the Bulldogs had a Viliame Kikau try called back when a kick through from Matt Burton was knocked on by Josh Addo-Carr in the lead up. Despite that overturn, the Bulldogs still had an unexpected 16-0 lead at the break.

If Craig Bellamy wasn't happy about the first half, he was going to be furious about the start to the second half when Jacob Kiraz picked up his second try of the night when the Melbourne defence looked so brittle as Reed Mahoney fooled them by looking left before going right and finding Kiraz. The final Bulldogs try was even worse when Jake Averillo just had a wide open gap to go through from dummy half and the Bulldogs lead 26-0. At that point it looked a mere formality but the Storm aren't ones to give up and they didn't when Nelson Asofa-Solomona crossed from close range to give hope. The Bulldogs seemed to go back into their shells and some ill-discipline gave the Storm a big chance of getting back into the game. The Bulldogs looked to be struggling with the momentum shift as Jahrome Hughes was able to get over as the Storm threw the ball around finding cracks in the Bulldogs defence. Neither side was then able to get on the board though the Storm were trying to get on the board but couldn't and the 26-12 scoreline stood for the last 20 minutes of the contest. The victory doesn't come without a potential cost for the Bulldogs with Viliame Kikau sin binned and placed on report for a blatant trip and could catch the ire of the Match Review Committee. JOSH ROBERTSON

NEWCASTLE 14 WESTS TIGERS 12

MATCH FACTS: NEWCASTLE 14 (D. Young 2, L. Fitzgibbon tries; J. Hastings goal) DEFEATED WESTS TIGERS 12 (A. Kepaoa, S. Utoikamanu tries; A. Doueihii 2 goals) at Leichhardt Oval. Date: Sun, 12th March. Kickoff: 4:05 PM. Halftime: Newcastle 10-6. Penalties: Wests Tigers 10-4. Referee: Peter Gough. Crowd: 13,214. THE TEAMS: WESTS TIGERS: Laurie, Nofaloama, Naden, Talau, Staines; Doueihii, Brooks; Utoikamanu, Korisau (C), Klemmer, Papali'i, Kepaoa, Ofahengau. Int: Simpkin, Seyfarth, Twal, Tumeth. NEWCASTLE: Miller, Hunt, Gagai, Best, Young; Ponga (C), Hastings; Saifiti, Brailey, Thompson, Frizell, Fitzgibbon, Johns. Int: Saifiti, Crossland, Hetherington, Gamble..

A gallant performance against the odds has seen the Newcastle Knights open their 2023 account following a 14-12 victory over the Wests Tigers at Leichhardt Oval.

Losing Kalyn Ponga and Jayden Brailey to early concussions, Tyson Frizell with a lower leg injury, along with Jacob Saifiti being sent from the field for a high tackle, the Knights found a way to hold on to the delight of a small contingent of the 13,214 supporters in attendance at Leichhardt Oval. Withstanding the loss of Ponga after 90 seconds and a wealth of early pressure on their defensive line, the Knights made the most of their first attacking opportunity with replacement playmaker Tyson Gamble and Dane Gagai shifting the ball right to send Dominic Young (10th minute) over for first points. Going further ahead despite losing Brailey minutes later, the Knights refused to wilt and were rewarded with Gamble firing a brilliant pass to send Lachlan Fitzgibbon (16th minute) over for a try in his 100th game for the club. The Tigers appeared to score through Asu Kepaoa midway through the half only for the bunker to rule an obstruction, while fan favourite Alex Twal was cruelly denied his maiden try in first grade due to desperate defence from Tyson Frizell. The Knights were forced to play the final ten minutes of the first half a man down after Young tackled Brent Naden off the ball; the Tigers were finally able to capitalise with Kepaoa (34th minute) sending the home side to the sheds trailing 10-6.

Losing Frizell to a lower leg injury shortly after halftime, the Knights withstood pressure on their goal line after a 40/20 from Luke Brooks and grew in confidence following a superb tackle from Leo Thompson which forced a turnover. Striking a crucial blow on the hour mark after sustained pressure on their opponents line, the Knights replicated the right side shift of their first try to send Young (61st minute) over for his second try. Reduced to 12 men for the final 15 minutes after

Jacob Saifiti was sent off for a high tackle on Jake Simpkin, the Tigers opted not to kick a penalty goal which would have narrowed the margin to a converted try. The Tigers set up a grandstand finish with Stefano Utoikamanu (79th minute) crashing over despite doubts over a double movement, however the Knights would not be denied with Brooks unable to execute a two-point field goal on the final play of the game. In addition to posting consecutive wins at Leichhardt Oval for the first time in a quarter of a century, the Knights retained the Allan McMahon Shield with the 14-12 victory. ROB CROSSBY

ST GEO ILLA 32 GOLD COAST 18

MATCH FACTS: ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA 32 (B. Hunt, B. Lawrie, J. Liddle, M. Ravalawa, T. Sloan tries; Z. Lomax 6 goals) DEFEATED GOLD COAST 18 (T. Fa'asumaleau, A. Khan-Pereira, S. Verrills tries; T. Boyd 3 goals) AT NETSTRATA JUBILEE STADIUM. Date: Sun, 12th March. Kickoff: 6:15 PM. Halftime: St George Illawarra 16-12. Penalties: St George Illawarra 8-7. THE TEAMS: ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA: Sloan, Feagai, Suli, Lomax, Ravalawa; Sullivan, Hunt (C); Molo, Mbye, Lawrie, Murdoch-Masila, Su'A, Bird. Int: Liddle, Musgrove, Couchman, Kerr. GOLD COAST: Brimson, Khan-Pereira, Schoupp, Sami, Fifita; Foran, Boyd; Clark, Verrills, Fa'asumaleau (C), Fifita, Stimson, Liu. Int: Campbell, Fotuaka, McIntyre, Randall.

The St. George Illawarra Dragons have emphatically defeated the Gold Coast Titans to begin their season with a 32-18 victory at Kogarah this evening.

The 14-point triumph for the predicted wooden spooners has surprised many pundits and fans as they clicked into gear after the opening 30 minutes of the game. The travelling Titans opened with two tries to Alofiana Khan-Pereira and Sam Verrills in the first 20 minutes and looked set to continue on and win their second game of the season. However, this wasn't to be as the Dragons started to use the ball well and put their mark on the game. The turning point came when Isaac Liu illegally stripped a Dragons player in the tackle which gave the Dragons the penalty and a free march up the field. They scored their first just after and didn't take their foot of the gas. That first try was scored by Jacob Liddle in his club debut and Mikaele Ravalawa grabbed one just before the half time break to give the Dragons the lead. It was an exciting finish to a fairly interesting half of football and it looked set to continue like that in the second half. The Dragons had other ideas.

The home side, playing in their first game of the season kicked off the second half as they left the first with a try to Tyrell Sloan early on thanks to some great halfback play from World Cup winner Ben Hunt. The momentum was all with the Dragons and the Titans' ill-discipline continued to keep them out of the game. The Dragons extended their lead with two penalty goals, keeping the scoreboard ticking over as they enjoyed the majority of the possession. In the first 20 minutes of the second half, the home side had 75 per cent of the ball compared to the 25 per cent for the Titans, and the Dragons made them pay. Blake Lawrie got on the board in the 66th and the game was effectively done. Tino Fa'asumaleau grabbed a consolation try for the Titans in the 70th minute but it was too little too late as the Titans head back home to the Gold Coast suffering their first loss of the season as the Dragons celebrate a great start to their 2023 campaign. LACHY MACCORQUODALE

ROUND 4 WRAP

Match wraps by JUSTIN DAVIES. Times are GMT.

Thu 9 Mar 8pm

CATALANS (18) Tries: Manu Ma'u 2, Arthur Romano; Goals: Adam Keighran 3 DEF WIGAN (10) Tries: Harry Smith; Goals: Harry Smith 3 Venue: DW Stadium, Wigan; Crowd: 11451 // WIGAN: Field, French, King, Wardle, Marshall; Cust, Smith; Singleton, Powell, Cooper, Isa, Farrell, Smithies. Int: Havard, Ellis, Mago, Pearce-Paul. CATALANS: Mourgue, Davies, Romano, Laguerre, Johnstone; Keighran, May; McMeeken, McIlorum, Bousquet, Ma'u, Séguier, Garcia. Int: Goudemand, Dezaria, Chan, Tison.

Catalans Dragons went four for four on the season after their 18-10 win over Wigan Warriors on Thursday night at the DW Stadium.

The Dragons have had a wonderful start to the year and continued it against one of the strongest teams in the Super League competition. It was the hosts who struck first. Arthur Mourgue went close on the right side before former NRL star Manu Ma'u crashed over from close range. Former Rooster Adam Keighran extended Catalans advantage to eight points before Arthur Romano further added to the lead which made it 12-0. Wigan Warriors were given a lifeline when try-scorer Ma'u was sent to the bin for a late tackle on a Warriors attacker. Harry Smith piloted home the conversion to give us a 12-2 score at the break.

The Warriors further cut into the deficit just after the break. Once again, Smith was involved taking a good offload to stride away which made it 12-8. All ten points for the hosts were scored by Smith. He added another penalty goal which got the Warriors back within two points and set up a grandstand finish. Catalans stretched their lead back to eight again with Tyrone May kicking through and man of the moment Ma'u was able to find his way to the line for 18-10.

HUDDERSFIELD (36) Tries: Chris McQueen 2, Leroy Cudjoe, Tui Lolohea, Jake Bibby, Will Pryce; Goals: Oliver Russell 6 DEF CASTLEFORD (6) Tries: George Lawler; Goals: Gareth Widdop 1 Venue: John Smith's Stadium, Huddersfield; Crowd: 4070 // HUDDERSFIELD: Lolohea, Golding, Marsters, Bibby, Cudjoe; Russell, Fages; Hill, Peats, Wilson, Jones, McQueen, Yates. Int: Greenwood, English, Ashworth, Pryce. CASTLEFORD: Broadbent, Eden, Sutcliffe, Fonua, Qareqare; Widdop, Miller; Massey, Lawler, Matagi, Edwards, Mellor, Westerman. Int: Milner, Mustapha, Smith, Watts.

Huddersfield Giants piled on the points in a 36-6 win over Castleford Tigers at John Smith's Stadium on a frigid Friday night.

The weather might have tried to get the game stopped but it was Huddersfield Giants who lit up the turf at John Smith's stadium on a cold Friday night. Castleford Tigers were the first side to find the scoresheet early in the contest. Hooker Josh Lawler had a solo effort which caught the Giants defense napping to make it 6-0. Otherwise, it was one-way traffic for the hosts. They led 20 points to six at the halfway mark and kept their foot on the pedal for a vital two points. The Giants levelled the scoring through a pair of Australians. Nathan Peats scooted from dummy half and linked up with Chris McQueen for a 6-6 score line. Peats was involved in the Giants second try from a scrum. He supplied the pass which saw Will Pryce slice through and give the home side the lead. Jake Bibby was the third Giant to find the line from a kick alongside a penalty goal from Oliver Russell gave them the 20-6 score at the break.

It was a similar story in the second half with the Giants the only side on the scoresheet. McQueen added his second after he sold the defense a dummy for an 18 point lead. Veteran Leroy Cudjoe laid on a four-pointer for Tui Lolohea before the winger found the line himself to help round out the 36-6 scoreline and an impressive win for the hosts.

Fri 10 Mar 8pm

LEIGH (20) Tries: Joe Shorrocks, Zak Hardaker, Tom Briscoe, Josh Charnley; Goals: Zak Hardaker 2 DEF ST HELENS (12) Tries: Jonny Lomax, Jon Bennison; Goals: Tommy Makinson 2 Venue: Leigh Sports Village Stadium, Leigh; Crowd: 7737 // LEIGH: O'Brien, Briscoe, Hardaker, Leutele, Charnley; Mellor, Lam; Amone, Davis, Mulhern, Shorrocks, O'Donnell, Asiata. Int: Nakubuawai, Seumanufagai, Chamberlain, Ipape. ST HELENS: Welsby, Makinson, Davies, Percival, Bennison; Lomax, Dodd; Paasi, Roby, Lees, Royle, Bell, Knowles. Int: Walmsley, Lussick, McCarthy-Scarsbrook, Wingfield.

Leigh Leopards claimed a big scalp in their 20-12 win over St Helens at Leigh Sports Village in an exciting game on Friday night.

It might be the biggest shock in the early part of the Super League season where newly promoted Leigh were able to take down the current world champions. In the early stages of the game, it looked like a routine game for the Saints. They scored first through Tommy Makinson who raised the flags with a penalty goal. They followed that up with the first four-pointer. Five-eighth Jonny Lomax was on the spot to take the bat back from a kick to make it 8-0. Lomax was involved in the next try through the hands this time. He linked well with Jack Welsby before they connected with winger Jonathan Bennison for a dozen point lead. The Leopards had a few chances to breach the Saints line in the first half but some stoic defense from the visitors repelled them and kept it at 12-0 going into the break.

Prolific try-scorer Josh Charnley was able to get the hosts on the board. He showed his eye for the whitewash and dived over in the left corner. They were given a further boost when Matty Lees was binned for a high tackle on a kick chase. Leigh profited instantly when Tom Briscoe snaffled the kick to make it 12-8. Leigh took the spoils with a pair of scores in the final ten minutes. Zak Hardaker sliced through for the eight point advantage then Joseph Shorrocks iced the victory cake with his late score.

Fri 10 Mar 8pm

LEEDS (26) Tries: David Fusitu'a 2, Nene Macdonald, Tom Holroyd, Harry Newman; Goals: Rhyse Martin 2, Aidan Sezer 1 DEF WAKEFIELD (0) Venue: Headingley Stadium, Leeds; Crowd: 11717 // LEEDS: Myler, Fusitu'a, Macdonald, Handley, Olpherts; Austin, Sezer; Tetevano, O'Connor, Holroyd, McDonnell, Martin, Smith. Int: Walters, Bentley, Newman, Lisone. WAKEFIELD: Kay, Kershaw, Langi, Lyne, Taufua; Gaskell, Lino; Atoni, Hood, Whitbread, Ashurst, Pitts, Crowther. Int: Smith, Batty, Proctor, Eseh.

Leeds Rhinos were comfortable in their 26-0 win over Wakefield Trinity in their Friday night delight at Headingley Stadium.

The first half was a tense struggle between the top sides. Chances were few and far between and neither side could break the deadlock so they went into the break at 0-0.

Coming out of the break, the Rhinos felt just fine. Former Warriors winger David Fusitu'a showed his ability to find the line to make it 4-0. The hosts went to the air for their next four-pointer. Fusitu'a batted the kick back right into the hands of Harry Newman who crossed from close range for a double-digit lead. From there, it was one way traffic for the Rhinos. Tom Holroyd ran a good line off the halves and sliced through to get on the scoresheet. It was double delight for Fusitu'a in the late stages of the contest. He had the line wide open from a wonderful cut-out pass to dive over for his second. Trinity tried their best to prevent the duck egg but the final pass wasn't there. It led to the Rhinos final score when former NRL star Nene Macdonald raced away to complete the 26-0 win.

Fri 10 Mar 8pm

WARRINGTON (18) Tries: Paul Vaughan, Matty Nicholson, Thomas Mikaele; Goals: Stefan Ratchford 3 DEF HULL KR (10) Tries: Frankie Halton 2; Goals: Lachlan Cootie 1 Venue: Sewell Group Craven Park, Hull; Crowd: TBC // HULL KR: Coote, Senior, Opacic, Wood, Hall; Lewis, Milnes; Luckley, Parcell, King, Halton, Batchelor, Hadley. Int: Sue, Litten, Kennedy, Storton. WARRINGTON: Dufty, Thewlis, Mata'utia, Ratchford, Ashton; Williams, Drinkwater; Mikaele, Clark, Vaughan, Currie, Nicholson, Kasiano. Int: Walker, Bullock, Minikin, Whitehead.

Warrington Wolves continued their strong start with an 18-10 success over Hull KR at Craven Park on Friday night.

The Wolves are one of two sides who are undefeated through the first month of the Super League competition after another away win over a gallant Hull KR side. It was the visitors who had much of the early attacks in the contest but it went awry at the final bounce. That allowed the Robins to strike first through Frankie Halton who brushed past the defense for the opener. Warrington did find their rhythm soon enough and got on the scoresheet. It was a sick interchange of passes in the middle before Thomas Mikaele dived over from close range for 6-6. The visitors took the lead on the half hour mark through Matthew Nicholson. George Williams piloted through the perfect kick for the forward to pick up and score. Hull KR got back within two points right after half-time. It was a delightful pass from fullback Lachlan Cootie which sent Halton across for his second which made it 12-10.

Former Dragon Paul Vaughan gave the Wolves an insurance score which secured the two points for them eventually. He swatted away the defense and slammed the ball down for the 18-10 win.

Sat 11 Mar 3pm

SALFORD (60) Tries: Shane Wright 2, Tim Lafai 2, Deon Cross 2, Marc Sneyd, Kallum Watkins, Tyler Dupree, Ryan Brierley; Goals: Marc Sneyd 10 HULL FC (14) Tries: Brad Fash, Adam Swift, Jake Clifford; Goals: Jake Clifford 1 Venue: MKM Stadium, Hull; Crowd: 11323 // HULL FC: Hoy, Swift, Scott, Griffin, McIntosh; Lovodua, Clifford; Taylor, Houghton, Fash, Sao, Savelio, Lane. Int: Satae, Evans, Brown, Dwyer. SALFORD: Brierley, Sio, Cross, Lafai, Williams; Croft, Sneyd; Ormondroyd, Ackers, Vuniyayawa, Watkins, Wright, Atkin. Int: Dupree, Sidlow, Longstaff, Bourouh.

Salford Red Devils rebounded from their defeat in a 60-14 thumping of Hull KR at MKM Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Looking to avoid back-to-back defeats after their strong start, Hull FC were the first to get on the board. Jake Clifford spied a gap in the defense and gave them a 4-0 lead. Salford Red Devils quickly kicked into gear and laid on five tries in the first half. It started with them stretching the field and ended with Deon Cross diving over. Both halves from the Red Devils were heavily involved in the points scoring. Marc Sneyd sent Shane Wright over before a break from Brodie Croft ended with Ryan Brierley scoring. Next it was a simple effort from Tyler Dupree which showed off the hosts soft defense. He brushed away from a couple of defenders to add the fourth. Once again, it was the Croft to Wright connection which had the Red Devils in pole position to take two points after the latter made it a double.

It was much the same in the second half for the Red Devils. Another play stretched from right to left saw Cross become the second player to register a double on the night. Kallum Watkins and Sneyd were another of the two Red Devils which found their way onto the scoresheet in the one-sided affair as the visitors partied all afternoon. They rounded out the result with a late double to Tim Lafai which helped the Red Devils past 60 points and continued their reputation as one of the most entertaining sides. Hull FC did get a pair of late consolation scores which helped ease some of their pain. Adam Swift and Brad Fash both found the try line to round out the 60-14 score line.

RUGBY LEAGUE CLUB GRADING CRITERIA RECOMMENDATIONS UNVEILED

via RFL, 10 MARCH 2023

IMG today presented to the RFL Council the recommended grading criteria to define how Super League, RFL Championship and League One clubs will be assessed starting from 2025, as part of the Reimagining Rugby League plans.

Based on a combination of on and off-field variables, the proposed grading criteria are designed to collectively increase clubs' fanbases, diversify revenues, drive investment into clubs and the sport in a sustainable manner, run clubs in a best-in-class way and ensure strong governance is in place.

The recommended grading criteria cover five areas, with each element contributing to a percentage of the overall weighting, including:

- Fandom (25%): encouraging clubs to attract more fans in stadia, both at home and digitally, and improve fan engagement, contributing to both club and central revenues.
- Performance (25%): incentivising clubs to perform on the field and drive fan awareness and engagement. Teams will be ranked between 1 and 36 based on where they finish in the leagues for the previous three seasons. Bonus points will be awarded to teams who win league and cup competitions in the previous season.
- Finances (25%): reflecting the success of fan engagement and business performance and rewarding sustainable investment, as well as diversified revenue streams and sound financial management.
- Stadium (15%): based on a number of factors, including facilities and utilisation, which add value to the fan and broadcast or digital viewer experience, and match or exceed competition from other sports and events.
- Catchment (10%): based on area population and the number of clubs in the area, with a view to maximising growth of the sport in the largest markets to generate new fan bases and incentivise investment.

RL Commercial, the RFL and IMG will conduct a series of grading criteria follow-up consultations with club representatives in March and early April, ahead of a vote which is set to take place on 19 April.

If voted through, illustrative grades for the 2024 season will be released at the end of the 2023 season and clubs will be provided with a dashboard outlining the areas they need to improve to attain a higher grade. Grading will then come into full effect from 2025, with the top tier league comprising of 12 clubs including all 'Category A' clubs and the highest-ranking 'Category B' clubs. All gradings will be re-assessed annually, meaning it is envisaged that promotion and relegation between the tiers would continue, but no longer wholly determined by on-field performance.

Frank Slevin, the Chair of RL Commercial, said: "After the overwhelming support provided by clubs to the Reimagining Rugby League recommendations when they were first presented last September, the clubs have now been provided with full details of the grading process which is an important part of those proposals. An immense amount of work has been done by IMG, as part of their long-term strategic partnership with Rugby League, to produce a blueprint which breaks new ground for British sport.

"It is important the clubs now have time to consider the proposals, and to provide feedback, in a series of meetings that have been arranged between now and the Special General Meeting of clubs next month," he continued.

"Our goal with the proposed criteria was to establish an objective, easily measurable and reliable framework that will drive long-term, sustainable growth for individual clubs and the sport as a whole," added Matt Dwyer, Vice President of Sport Management, IMG Media. "We, RL Commercial and the RFL believe improvement in each of these areas is possible for all clubs over time and is vital to transforming and future-proofing Rugby League. Ultimately, we want to be in position down the line where the top tier league is full of Category A clubs and being expanded."

The grading criteria recommendations were determined using a scientific, data-led approach powered by Endeavor Analytics, a leading data services provider which sits alongside IMG in the Endeavor network, combined with IMG's global expertise.

Seven League, IMG's digital team, are continuing to work with RL Commercial on the sport's digital strategy, running ongoing workshops with clubs, while continuing to develop new ways of working, commercial valuation models and digital practices within the RFL and RL Commercial teams.

Meanwhile, IMG sister company and cultural marketing agency 160over90 expects to complete the wider rebrand of the Men's and Women's Super League competitions later this year ahead of the 2024 season launch.

STATEMENT: RULING MADE ON ABANDONED HOSTPLUS CUP GAME

QRL statement

The Queensland Rugby League has today confirmed the abandoned match between the Redcliffe Dolphins and Brisbane Tigers at Kayo Stadium will not be replayed.

Sunday's Round 1 clash was called off just minutes into the game due to the state of the field following torrential rain.

"Due to the unavailability of venues and staff, as well as draw alignment, the match will not be able to be replayed," QRL competitions manager David Maiden said.

"As per the operations manual, the result will be a 0-0 draw with each team awarded a point for ladder purposes. Tries and conversions are not recorded for individuals (it was 6-0 when called off), but the match played is recorded for statistics purposes."
