THE PREVIEW

with Lachy MacCorquodale

Fresh off the bye, the Sydney Roosters return to action this Thursday night as they host the Parramatta Eels at Allianz Stadium.

The Roosters took some solid form into their bye after victories over the Warriors and South Sydney Rabbitohs in the two games prior. Despite no football over the weekend, the Roosters were a big topic of conversation with the announcement that Joseph Suaalii will sign on with Rugby Australia when his contract with the Roosters concludes at the end of 2024. However, don't expect that news to distract Suaalii and the Roosters who look to secure their third win of the season against an Eels side that has just knocked off the defending premiers. Winning on Thursday night will send a message to the competition that the Roosters are going to be right in contention for a top four spot, something that they've failed to do in recent seasons.

Their forward pack will be rested and ready to go with the likes of Jared Waerea-Hargreaves, Brandon Smith and Victor Radley the most likely to bring aggression towards a good Parramatta forward pack. They'll aim to lay the platform for Luke Keary and Sam Walker who will utilise the Roosters dangerous backline to create attacking opportunities for the tricolours. They did this so well against the Rabbitohs a fortnight ago where they scored four tries in the space of 30 minutes to take the lead. Keary, Walker and James Tedesco will look to attack Parramatta on the edges, where they look their weakest but if the Eels played like they did against the Penrith Panthers last Thursday, it may be hard to do so.

The Eels landed their first win of the season in that outing, knocking off the defending premiers in a Grand Final rematch by a point. Mitchell Moses' field goal in golden point was a moment of justification, hours after reports of his re-signing with club surfaced. The halfback was instrumental, kicking for 1,006 metres as they forced the Panthers to start from their own 20 all night. They were excellent at this and a similar tactic against the Roosters could produce similar results. However, this was dependent on a completion rate of 95 percent which is utterly absurd and will be hard to replicate. Their forward pack was a big contributor to this with all five starting forwards running for over 140 metres including monster efforts from Reagan Campbell-Gillard (255 metres) and Junior Paulo (244 metres).

This pack has another tough challenge ahead of them, facing a fresh and aggressive Roosters pack that was excellent against the Rabbitohs a fortnight ago. Paulo is out for the clash through suspension and Wiremu Greig will get his first start of the season after limited opportunity from the bench.

Parramatta have been handed a tough draw to start the season and it has resulted in the 2022 runners-up starting 1-3 through their first four games and they'll be desperate to turn that one into a two.

Paulo is the only omission for Parramatta which allows for Jack Murchie to return to the bench after missing Round four with a concussion.

The Sydney Roosters had made two changes to their side from two weeks ago with Joseph Manu spending a week on the sidelines for his high tackle on Isaiah Tass. Drew Hutchinson gets the start in the centres whilst Corey Allen joins the bench. The other change is Naufahu White coming in for Terrell May.

WHO TO WATCH: There's plenty of big names lining up for another cracker of Thursday night footy. The Roosters fullback and Australian captain, James Tedesco is obviously one of the best players in the competition, let alone this match. The New South Wales fullback is yet to score a try in 2023 but he has assisted one in each of their three outings whilst averaging 168 metres and 4.3 tackle breaks per game. In his forward pack is 34-year-old Jared Waerea-Hargreaves who was exceptional coming off the bench in his first game of the year against the Rabbitohs. In 38 minutes, the New Zealand international ran for 174 metres and made 23 tackles.

In the blue and gold, it's the man of the moment from last Thursday, Mitchell Moses who was outstanding against the Panthers. Two tries and two try assists to begin the season is a solid start for the Parramatta halfback, but he'll be kicking himself that they've only won the one game to start the season. There's another two points available on Thursday and he'll be dying to take it. His front-rower Reagan Campbell-Gillard was outstanding last week and has had massive performances throughout the season. Campbell-Gillard is averaging 191 metres per game this year and just shy of 30 tackles, highlighting the mountain of work he gets through.

FAVOURITE: The Roosters are the favourites heading into this fixture given their form and the week off to rest their bodies. This contest is a two apiece in their last four outings with each side winning one last year.

MY TIP: It'll be tough for Parramatta to back up from last week's efforts, especially against a rested Roosters side, I think that may be enough to get the Roosters over the line in a tight affair. Roosters by two points.

THE PREVIEW

with Lachlan McIntyre

Defending Premiers Penrith travel to Canberra looking to bounce back.

The Canberra Raiders will host the Penrith Panthers on Friday evening, with both teams coming off shock previous round losses.

Ricky's Raiders are facing an uphill battle if they want to play finals this season. Sitting in 16th currently and with just one win against their name, they need to get their season back on track, and they need to do it quickly. Last week they faced the Knights away in front of over 15,000 fans and were ambushed, going down 24-14 at the final siren.

Jack Wighton got himself in hot water for a high shot on Jackson Hastings, and he copped a two game suspension. Reports that Wighton has placed himself on the market have been circulating, with Parramatta reportedly looking for his signature.

With no Wighton this week, it's Matt Frawley and Jamal Fogarty who pair up in the halves for the Green Machine. James Schiller misses out with experienced winger Jordan Rapana making his return from suspension.

The Penrith Panthers have not had the breezy season start that some may have expected from the back-to-back premiers. With one win from three games, they find themselves in 7th with some help from the bye.

Both of their losses have been by just one point, so Panthers fans will be hoping to not have their hearts broken at the death yet again this Friday.

Despite the loss at Parramatta last weekend, it was their star halfback's clutch two point field goal to level the game in the last play of regular time which caught all the headlines.

But it wasn't to be for the Panthers, going down 17-16 early into golden point. It was a hard fought battle for both clubs, with the sides tied at two tries a piece in the grand final rematch.

Luke Garner won't take to the field citing injury, so Lindsay Smith will get his opportunity off the bench. Soni Luke is out through concussion protocols, with experienced utility Tyrone Peachey earning a bench spot. Still no sign of the injured Liam Martin.

Expect a passionate match-up, but in the end it's going to be a very tough ask for Canberra.

Panthers have won the past four meetings between these two clubs.

WHO TO WATCH: Sebastian Kris will start his 5th game at fullback in 2023 this weekend. Following the fractured jaw of young star Xavier Savage, and the off-season release of Charze Nicoll-Klokstad to the Warriors, Kris was more or less thrown into the number one jersey. The New Zealand international centre carries a lot of responsibility at fullback, and he needs to keep learning and adapting week by week as Savage works his way towards a return.

Sunia Turuva is well on his way to nailing down a spot in the Panthers starting 17. This weekend will mark his fourth straight appearance on the wing for Penrith, and with just six NRL games to his name Turuva still has plenty of experience to gain. After a successful World Cup campaign with Fiji in the off-season, expect Turuva to keep improving over the coming seasons, and possibly to grab his first try of the season this Friday.

FAVOURITE: The Penrith Panthers are the strong favourites to get the victory away from home.

MY TIP: The Panthers will be looking to prove a point after their dramatic loss to Parramatta, and the defending premiers will be too much for Canberra to deal with. Panthers by 14.

THE PREVIEW

with Beth Nicholls

Both teams are coming off a win and hope to keep the momentum going in this Friday night clash.

South Sydney have had an up and down season so far, currently sitting in 8th position with an equal number of wins and losses. They managed to gain a win against Manly last week, where Lachlan Ilias kicked his first field goal in golden point.

Melbourne have also lacked the usual energy surge that the side has possessed in past seasons, however after 2 back-to-back losses, the side managed to claim victory over the West Tigers last week, with the return of Cameron Munster providing a much-needed boost.

Rabbitohs prop Hame Sele returns this week after missing last round due the new 11-day concussion protocol and will join the team on the bench. Alex Johnston suffered a thigh cork against Manly last week but will be good to go, leaving the starting side unchanged.

With Melbourne halfback Jahrome Hughes still missing from the side due to suspension, Jonah Pezet will continue to play in his place. Tom Eizenhuth joins the starting 17 side, after being 18th man last week, with Tyran Wishart being dropped to the reserves.

Come Friday night these teams both have something to prove, and it'll be interesting to see which side claims victory. Over the opening 4 rounds both the Rabbitohs and Storm have had their fair mix of excellent attack and plays mottled with poor line defence, and this game might just come down to the closing minutes

WHO TO WATCH: I'm excited and curious for the battle between the two counterpart five-eighths.

Cody Walker is a player driven by emotion, and it has been proven that this emotion impacts the end score for the Rabbitohs. He had an excellent game last week against Manly, where he scored his 13th career double, and I am really hoping to see him continue with these strong attacking plays.

After battling a finger injury suffered in Round 1, Cameron Munster returned last week to put Melbourne over the edge, where he assisted with one try and scored a four-pointer himself. I'm looking forward to seeing some more Munster magic on Friday night, hoping to see him score another try or two.

FAVOURITE: The home side are slightly favoured to claim victory against the visiting Melbourne side.

MY TIP: I think it'll be a close game, with both sides sitting in similar situations with spotty defence and attack, and both still unable to play a full flawless 80 minutes of footy. However, I believe with Munster back in the side, Melbourne will just have the edge to defeat the Rabbitohs. Melbourne by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with AJ Lucantonio

Manly look to bounce back v rejuvenated Knights

The Manly Warringah Sea Eagles will be looking to bounce back following their first loss of the season when they take on the Newcastle Knights at Glen Willow Regional Stadium in Mudgee.

Manly were very unfortunate to go down last start against South Sydney after they were left to rue a controversial forward pass call that went against the Sea Eagles. However, they can take a lot away from this golden point heartbreaker which leaves the Manly side better off as the season continues on.

Heading into this clash with the Knights, there are weaknesses that I believe can be explored. The impact Tommy Turbo can have in the red-zone. South Sydney were able to nullify Turbo last week and his ability to get on the ball wasn't at the same levels it was against Parramatta. I expect Anthony Seibold to get him involved more on set plays.

Elsewhere, Josh Schuster needs to be more involved in the attacking phase of play. Schuster gave many fans a front row seat to his highs and lows last season and if his first two games are any indication, it could be a bumpy ride if his touches in the red-zone drop away.

On the teams front, Tolu Koula is out for the next 6-8 weeks with an MCL injury which is a blow to that right edge of Manly which has looked on shaky ground recently. It's going to get shakier with Morgan Harper replacing him. Lachie Croker does return with Lawton dropping to the reserves.

Newcastle have shown some improvement in year 4 of the Adam O'Brien era. Already having to use players outside his top 30, the Knights boss must be commended for the way he has rallied the troops to a surprising 2-2 start to the season.

Last start against Canberra was another example of this with Lachie Miller finding his feet as the number two playmaking option while Kalyn Ponga is in Canada getting advice on his playing future. Also to impress was new buy Greg Marzhev. While criticised for his defensive reads, his attacking phase makes him one of the better wingers in the competition. Elsewhere, the forwards lifted in the continued absence of Jacob Saifiti with Jack Hetherington and Mat Croker making their desired impact.

To beat Manly, the Knights need to target the right of Manly. As mentioned, that edge defensively is an accident waiting to happen. Bradman Best was able to exploit the Raiders a couple of times down that side of the field and with Manly looking suspect, it's the perfect time to strike. Elsewhere, Manly's middle lacked punch when their rotation kicked into gear and it's yet another opportunity for guys like Hetherington and Croker to show their worth.

On the teams front, you don't change a winning formula unless forced to. Adam O'Brien has named a near identical lineup. The only change is Kurt Mann is out with concussion and Jack Johns replaces him.

WHO TO WATCH: I'm going to go a little deeper on Josh Schuster. A lot was made about his weight loss and his move to 5/8 and his first game back saw some changes. But, Manly went away from getting Schuster involved against Souths for some reason and it brought dire consequences.

A Schuster without the footy is a disinterested one, and at times he looked it against Souths. Look for Seibold to allow Schuster to get good quality ball in this one.

As mentioned before, the swap deal to bring Lachlan Miller to the Knights might become one of Adam O'Brien's big legacy marks on Newcastle. Miller is getting more and more comfortable with every passing week and with his confidence building, the Knights will be a better side.

His start to the season was a little slow, but in the last two weeks, his attacking skills are showing rapidly and it's why he's the man to inspire Newcastle to victory on Saturday.

FAVOURITE: On the markets, Manly start slight favourites here. Manly have also won their last two games in Mudgee by 13 points or more.

MY TIP: It's hard to tip this one, as it's a match that could easily go either way. However, I see Manly rising to the occasion in Mudgee in front of the country fans to redeem themselves for last week's loss. But I will concede it will be closer than Manly's other matches in the regional city. Manly by 6.

THE PREVIEW

with Josh Robertson

A return to Wollongong will be something that the Dragons hope that can re-spark their start to the season as an injury hit Dolphins sides heads to the NSW South Coast to keep their strong start to their inaugural season going.

The Dragons showed so much promise in their opening match of the season in Round 2 against the Titans where they looked as if they had turned the corner of previous seasons as they were super strong.

The past fortnight though has seen that there isn't a full tank of fire for the Dragon as in both their loss to the Broncos and Sharks, the Red 'V' have collapsed faster than the Berlin Wall coming down.

Last weekend, the Dragons looked extremely sharp during the first half of their game against the Cronulla Sharks where they were matching and surpassing the Sharks at times during the opening forty minutes with some swift plays and a high completion rate. The second half was a total 'dogs breakfast' for the Red V with basic handling errors coming out of trouble and defence that just didn't look interested at all as the Sharks sensed blood in the water and took advantage putting 28 unanswered points on the Dragons.

Changes could be on the cards for the home side with Jack De Belin tipped to return from a calf injury despite only being named in the reserves. The main 1-17 is unchanged as named last week by coach Anthony Griffin.

The "Redcliffe" Dolphins tasted defeat for the first time in the NRL last weekend as they were far from disgraced in their 18-12 loss to table toppers the Brisbane Broncos. The Dolphins have been impressive across the opening four rounds as many people didn't give them much chance but a strong team dynamic has helped them significantly.

Outside of Round 1, the Broncos proved the biggest test for the Dolphins so far in 2023 and they were far from as they were able to come from 8-0 down at one state to lead 12-8 mid-way through the second half. The lead wasn't to be as the Broncos came back to win but the proof was there that even key outs and bumps in the game plan the Dolphins can match it with the best teams in the comp.

The Dolphins have been forced into a major change with halfback Sean O'Sullivan disappointingly suffering a torn pectoral muscle an hour into last week's game. Anthony Milford is moved into the halfback role after replacing Isaiya Katoa at five-eighths when the ex-Panther was ruled out last week.

Katoa returns into the six jersey whilst the Dolphins have also lost Tesi Niu to a knee injury. Jack Bostock is expected to make his debut and Jeremy Marshall-King returns to the hooker role with Mason Teague heading to the bench.

3 points - Jeremiah Nanai (Cowboys), William Kennedy (Sharks), Josh Schuster (Sea Eagles), Ben Hunt (Dragons), Tyson Gamble (Knights), James Tedesco (Roosters), Sam Walker (Roosters), Sean O'Sullivan (Dolphins), Reece Walsh (Broncos), Jeremy Marshall-King (Dolphins), Reed Mahoney (Bulldogs), Tohu Harris (Warriors), Lachlan Miller (Knights), Cameron Munster (Storm), Chad Townsend (Cowboys), Corey Horsburgh (Raiders), Mitchell Moses (Eels), Damien Cook (Rabbitohs), Lachlan Ilias (Rabbitohs), Nicho Hynes (Sharks)

2 points - Cameron Murray (Rabbitohs), Jacob Liddle (Dragons), Joseph Tapine (Raiders), Tesi Niu (Dolphins), Wayne Egan (Warriors), David Fifita (Titans), Jared Waerea-Hargreaves (Roosters), Brandon Wakeham (Wests Tigers), Tino Fa'asuamaleaui (Titans), Haumole Olakau'atu (Sea Eagles), Luke Keary (Roosters), Campbell Graham (Rabbitohs), Jamayne Isaako (Dolphins), Felise Kaufusi (Dolphins), Latrell Mitchell (Rabbitohs), Scott Drinkwater (Cowboys), Harry

WHO TO WATCH: After some pretty brash words about his sides efforts last week, there is going to be a lot of focus on the performance of Ben Hunt who was about the only player to put his hand up for the entire 80 minutes last week. Hunt is a world class performer but he has struggled at times and it's down to the lack of quality around him. Hunt needs to ensure that the Dragons are on the same page if they want to get past the Dolphins.

An individual match winner, Isaiya Katoa has a calm head on his shoulders as seen during the 2022 Jersey Flegg grand final, but the pressure has stepped up from that effort for the Panthers to the NRL which in his 3 games he has handled well but without the dominant leader Sean O'Sullivan there, Katoa will need to play a controlling game. The poise and footballing smarts of Katoa are going to be important for the Dolphins this week and right through the season without O'Sullivan there to do most of the work. Katoa needs to be the dominant half if the Dolphins are to win.

FAVOURITE: The Dragons have been put as favourites for the contest but it's not by a huge margin and with a lack of past head to head football, it's hard to make a judgment on the teams against each other.

MY TIP: It's a coin flip of a game, it could go in about four different directions with the Dragons firing and running up a score or they could make their fans want to jump into the Wollongong Ocean (as called by Paul Vautin once) next to the hill. The loss of Sean O'Sullivan puts the game into the Dragons favour but I can't see this game being that big of a blowout. Dragons by 2.

Grant (Storm), Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad (Warriors), Tolutau Koula (Sea Eagles), Daniel Saifiti (Knights), Greg Marzhev (Knights), Jackson Ford (Warriors), Tom Gilbert (Dolphins), Jacob Preston (Bulldogs), Phillip Sami (Titans), Jonah Pezet (Storm), Matt Moylan (Sharks), Ezra Mam (Broncos)

with Rob Crosby

First plays last in 'joke' of a fixture

A clash of contrasting fortune awaits on Saturday evening as the first-placed Brisbane Broncos host the last-placed Wests Tigers at Suncorp Stadium.

Sitting atop the premiership ladder as the only undefeated side after the opening month of the season, the Brisbane Broncos will come into the clash as overwhelming favourites.

Rallying from a second half deficit to record an 18-12 victory over the Dolphins in the inaugural battle of Brisbane last Friday, coach Kevin Walters will be hoping his side can become the first Broncos outfit to open a season with five consecutive victories since 1998.

Retaining the same squad that prevailed on home soil last week, edge forward Jordan Riki will make his 50th first grade appearance after debuting with the club during the ill-fated 2020 campaign.

Languishing at the bottom of the ladder as the only club without a win so far this season, the Wests Tigers will be hoping a strong recent record against their weekend opponents continues.

Unable to claw back a halftime deficit during last Friday's 24-12 loss to the Storm in Melbourne, coach Tim Sheens has once again altered his line up by naming Jake Simpkin, Justin Matamua and Starford To'a on the bench in place of Daine Laurie, Shawn Blore and Alex Seyfarth.

While the Tigers hold a poor overall record against the Broncos with nine wins from 31 previous encounters, the joint venture has won the past four clashes between the two sides in succession.

WHO TO WATCH: Patrick Carrigan will be out to make amends after incurring a season-derailing suspension when the two sides faced off late last season. Spending four weeks on the sidelines which coincided with the side spiralling from fourth all the way out of the top eight by season's end, the 25-year-old has been in fine form this season averaging 165 running metres and 36 tackles each week. Making his first grade debut against the Tigers back in 2019, Carrigan will be hoping to capitalise on the lowly opposition and claim his first try in the top grade.

Enjoying the best form of his career since beginning the transition from the backline to the forwards, Asu Kepaoa has been a rare shining light in trying times for the joint venture. Beginning his time in the NRL on the wing before spending time in the centres last season, the Auckland-born 23-year-old has offered a much-needed point of difference in attack this season, especially as an edge back-rower. Named in the backline once again after snaring a try in last week's loss to the Storm, look for Kepaoa to create havoc with the ball in hand.

FAVOURITE: It should come as no surprise to see the Broncos installed as overwhelming favourites to extend their winning run to five in a row.

MY TIP: Saturday may be April Fools' Day but it will be no laughing matter at the end of 80 minutes for the visitors. Broncos by 28.

THE PREVIEW

with Tim Costello

Finally, a Sunday afternoon Free-To-Air game that lives up to the hype.

After Round 1's exciting Sunday afternoon clash between the Dolphins and Roosters, we've had a pretty lean run of Sunday 4:05pm matches, if we're being honest. With respect to the Knights, Tigers, Raiders and Bulldogs, none are high-flying sides, nor could you describe any of the contests involving the four clubs over the last three Sundays as high quality.

And so it is that we arrive at Pointsbet Stadium on Sunday with a clash between two teams who are in a solid run of form.

Cronulla appear to have hit their stride after a shaky opening month, Nicho Hynes' return at half helping them put the cleaners through local rivals St George Illawarra on Sunday night at Kogarah.

The Warriors are in a rich vein of form themselves. Andrew Webster's side has stayed in every battle this season, losing only to the Roosters at Allianz Stadium in Round 2. At times, veteran halfback Shaun Johnson has turned back the clock, with his class most evident in last weekend's nail-biting win over Canterbury at Mt Smart Stadium.

Both sides had different key strengths in their Round 4 contests - the Sharks-Dragons contest was relatively scrappy in terms of handling, with both sides only completing at 75%, but Cronulla's running metres were off the charts, outpacing their opposition by some 500+ metres across the evening.

The Warriors topped the Bulldogs in those statistic areas last week themselves - albeit by a much smaller margin. Where the NZ side excelled was in completion rates, 88% with 37 from 42 completed.

Cronulla are further boosted ahead of this contest by the return of Braydon Trindall, who missed last Sunday's clash due to an ankle injury. He replaces Oregon Kaufusi on the interchange.

The news isn't as good for the travelling side. Te Maire Martin (concussion) is out, which offers Ronald Volkman a chance in the halves alongside Johnson. There is some joy further down the teamlist with Wayde Egan returning at hooker, pushing Freddy Lussick out of the 17, and Tohu Harris is named in the initial teamlist despite suffering an ugly-looking knee injury in Sunday's win over Canterbury.

A quick look back over the recent history between these sides shows Cronulla exerting dominance - they won both clashes in 2022 quite comfortably - with the Warriors only managing two wins from the last twelve clashes dating back to 2015. In fact, when it comes to Sunday's venue - Pointsbet Stadium - the New Zealand-based side has only recorded 5 wins from 19 clashes at the venue.

WHO TO WATCH: The man who replaced Shaun Johnson hasn't done too badly for himself.

Nicho Hynes picked up the Dally M player of the year award in 2022, an outstanding addition to the Sharks side last year after his departure from Melbourne.

In last week's win over the Dragons he was pivotal as always, with three try assists and five line-break assists, as well as booting five of the side's six goals as they cruised to a decisive victory over their neighbours.

For many, the jury is still out on the 'return of the prodigal son'. Shaun Johnson returned to the Auckland-based outfit after three seasons at Cronulla, but it didn't result in any kind of acceleration up the table. Of his 25 games since returning to the Warriors, he's only seen victory on 8 occasions - three of those being this season.

While early indications are that the Warriors looks like they're on the up, he'll need to maintain that positive form to give the side a chance of finals action.

FAVOURITE: Home ground advantage, Nicho in the side and injuries aplenty for the visitors = Cronulla strong favourites.

MY TIP: This will be another low scoring grind for mine, but unlike previous weeks, the Warriors won't have the petrol in the tank. Cronulla are on the up and will win this one. Sharks by 6.

THE PREVIEW

with Andrew Jackson

Two sides with high expectations but struggling for consistency battle on Sunday night

For both the Bulldogs and Cowboys, 2023 promised bigger and better things.

Sure, there was no guarantee of a top-eight finish for Canterbury-Bankstown but a star-studded recruitment drive and the hiring of coach Cameron Ciraldo gave fans reason to believe.

As for North Queensland, having fallen just one game short of the grand final last season, it was expected that another year of experience could see Todd Payten's side go one better.

It's too early to put a line through either team so far but it's also just incredibly hard to get a read on both the Bulldogs and Cowboys as the competition enters April.

The Bulldogs flashed their enormous potential in a comprehensive win over the Storm but last week's 16-14 loss to the Warriors showed there is also still plenty of room for improvement.

The Cowboys, meanwhile, snapped a two-game losing skid last week but were hardly convincing as they took advantage of a depleted Titans team 24-12.

In team news, fan favourite Josh Reynolds returns in his first game for the club in six years as the utility replaces Fa'amanu Brown (dislocated elbow) on the bench.

Meanwhile, Franklin Pele also joins the bench with Jayden Tanner pushing to the reserves but there is still no Tevita Pangai Junior, with the dynamic forward sidelined by a calf injury.

There are plenty of changes for North Queensland too, with winger Murray Taulagi (knee) and centre Gehamat Shibasaki (hamstring) both unavailable, causing a reshuffle.

It sees Peta Hiku return from suspension to fill the void left by Shibasaki while Brendan Elliott is the man to line up on the wing in Taulagi's place.

Jeremiah Nanai is also sidelined after being suspended for a dangerous throw, with Heilum Luki joining the starting side and Mitch Dunn coming onto the bench for his first game of the season.

Meanwhile, Riley Price – son of Queensland and Australian prop Steve and nephew of Cowboys great Brent Tate, makes his NRL debut off the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: After a relatively quiet outing against the Warriors, look for star Bulldogs recruit Viliame Kikau to really explode on the Bulldogs' left edge. How big a night

Kikau has could depend on how North Queensland lines up on its right side, with Nanai and Shibasaki both unavailable and causing a reshuffle on that edge this weekend.

While both Hiku and Luki are both solid individual players, any indecisiveness in defence could see Bulldogs five-eighth Matt Burton capitalize by giving the hulking Kikau early ball. Kikau didn't have a single tackle bust last week but look for that to change on Sunday.

As for North Queensland, this is the sort of game where Chad Townsend's calming influence and leadership needs to come to the fore. The Cowboys halfback also plays on that new-look right edge and so it will be on him to get the attack rolling and try simplify the game a touch so as to not over-complicate things unnecessarily.

Otherwise, Payten's side risks gifting the Bulldogs field position like the Storm did earlier this season – and we all know how that ended. Burton and halves partner Kyle Flanagan are still finding their feet in the NRL and Townsend – and the Cowboys by extension – have a clear advantage there.

FAVOURITE: Home ground advantage may be just enough to see the Bulldogs installed as slight favourites.

MY TIP: This is definitely a close one to call but the Cowboys' omissions will have a bigger impact and tip the scales in favour of the home side. Bulldogs by 8.

The 2022 NRL Grand Final rematch took place on Thursday night and produced a stunning contest that went into Golden Point before a Mitch Moses field goal handed the Eels a hard fought first victory for 2023.

The match began being fought predominantly through the middle and it wasn't until the 14th minute that the scoreboard attendant was required to do some work. Parramatta shifted the ball left to Dylan Brown who put in a grubber behind the Panthers line where Bryce Cartwright following through regathered and scored a clever try. Mitch Moses converted. Across the next 15 minutes, the Eels dominated both possession and field position, but the Panthers defence were equal to the task, none more so than fullback Dylan Edwards, who diffused a number of clever attacking kicks from Moses, as did fellow Panthers winger Sunia Turuva. After Izack Tago tapped one of Moses' grubbers dead, Nathan Cleary attempted a short drop out, but it didn't travel the minimum 10 metres. Mitch Moses then landed a penalty goal to give his side an 8-0 lead. A rare attacking set by the Panthers began on halfway when Isaaq Yeo stepped back off his left foot, straightened his run and then broke through the Eels middle defence, offloaded to Scott Sorensen who then passed back inside to Edwards in support, who ran 30 metres to score under the posts. Cleary converted. This try spurred the Panthers attack and defence and the momentum started to finally swing their way to end the half. A high tackle allowed Nathan Cleary to level the scores with a penalty goal right on halftime.

The second half started much the same like the first, with points being hard to come by as both sides struggled to get the upper hand, but it was the Panthers who were the stronger. But in the 58th minute Parramatta sent the ball right with players standing in tackles and getting passes away before debutant Brendan Hands got the ball in space and he raced 30 metres to score a good team try. Moses again converted. 7 minutes later, Moses Leota was penalised for a late challenge on Moses after he kicked and Moses kicked another penalty goal. The Panthers reduced the margin to just 2 points in the 72nd minute when Cleary, on the last tackle, dished a short ball to the lead runner Zac Hosking, who pushed through the line and scored under the posts. Cleary converted. With just 30 seconds left in the game Junior Paulo was sin binned for a high tackle, 40 metres from the Panthers line. Cleary kicked for touch and the Panthers started their set 10m inside the Eels half, with just 12 seconds left in the game. From the tap, the ball went to Cleary who landed an astonishing 45 metre, 2 point field goal to level the scores again as the half ends, sending the game into golden point. Inside the first minute of golden point, Mitch Kenny was penalised and sin binned for a high tackle and in the ensuing set, Parramatta went deep into the Panthers half where Moses calmly potted the match winning field goal. ANDREW FERGUSON

MELBOURNE 24 WESTS TIGERS 12

MATCH FACTS: MELBOURNE 24 (N. Meaney, C. Munster, J. Olam, W. Warbrick tries; N. Meaney 4 goals) DEFEATED WESTS TIGERS 12 (A. Kepaoo, A. Koroisau tries; A. Doueihii 2 goals) AT

AAMI PARK. Date: Fri, 24th March. Kickoff: 6:00 PM. Halftime: Melbourne 22-6. Penalties: Melbourne 7-6. Referee: Ben Cummins. Crowd: 11,669.. THE TEAMS: MELBOURNE: Meaney, Warbrick, Smith, Olam, Coates; Munster, Pezet; Kamikamica, Grant, Welch (C), Loiero, Katoa, King. Int: Laurie, Twal, Blore, Seyfarth.

Melbourne Storm returned to the winners circle tonight to defeat the Wests Tigers 24-12 at AAMI Park.

The return of star five-eighth Cameron Munster was key for the home team, who never trailed after going ahead from an early Nick Meaney penalty goal in the sixth minute. Will Warbrick opened the tryscoring for the evening near the quarter-mark of the game, taking advantage of a solid breakaway down the Storm's right edge to open his NRL account after transferring from rugby over a year ago. Jonah Pezet - stepping into the halves with Jahrome Hughes' suspension looming large - stepped up again after helping set up Warbrick's try, finding 50-gamer Eliesa Katoa in support who in turn supplied Nick Meaney the Storm's second four-pointer of the contest. Melbourne led 12-0 and were looking comfortable. The Tigers did manage to strike back at the 30-minute mark, John Bateman getting past several defenders before Isaiha Papalii put Asu Kepaoo over, and the Doueihii conversion narrowed the gap back to six points. The Storm put the foot down though, and dashed the visitors' hopes not long after. Olam pounced on a bounce back from Xavier Coates who'd successfully contested a Munster high-ball. Munster got one of his own just before the break, fooling the defenders to cross himself and a 22-6 halftime lead ensued.

It was a quiet start to the second half, but eventually the Wests Tigers made hay while the sun shone at the 55th minute, Koroisau grubbering for himself and scoring, reducing the margin to ten points following Doueihii's conversion. The only remaining score of the night came from Nick Meaney's boot, a penalty goal 14 minutes before the end of the contest and Melbourne then hung on for a 12-point victory, propelling them - for now - back into the top eight and leaving the Tigers as the only winless club in the 2023 premiership. TIM COSTELLO

BRISBANE 18 DOLPHINS 12

MATCH FACTS: BRISBANE 18 (J. Arthars, K. Capewell, S. Cobbo, K. Staggs tries; A. Reynolds goal) DEFEATED DOLPHINS 12 (H. Tabuai-Fidow, J. Wallace tries; J. Isaako 2 goals) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Fri, 24th March. Kickoff: 7:00 PM. Halftime: Brisbane 4-0. Penalties: Brisbane 5-4. Referee: Adam Gee. Int: Paix, Palasia, Jensen, Taupau.

It was a win for big brother, as the Broncos defeated the Dolphins by 18-12 in a thrilling Battle of Brisbane derby in front of 51,047 fans at Suncorp Stadium tonight.

It was a scrappy first half from both sides with plenty of dropped ball in humid conditions, before the second half saw some entertaining tries with only a Kotoni Staggs length of the field try at the death sealing the first of what will be a long and fierce rivalry between the sides. The loss for Wayne Bennett's men was further soured with news that halfback Sean O'Sullivan suffered what is being reported as a torn pectoral injury, which could see the plucky number seven miss the rest of the season. The city of Brisbane had been waiting for this moment for a long time and a vocal crowd welcomed both sides to the Cauldron. It was Broncos winger Jesse Arthars who scored the first try, after he latched onto the end of a slick backline play involving Reece Walsh and Herbie Farnworth. Adam Reynolds missed from the touchline and it was 4-0 early lead to Brisbane. Brisbane continued to dominate possession in the first half, but multiple handling errors cost them from extending their lead before halftime. The Dolphins also had their chances and went with in a whisker of evening up the game when winger Jamayne Isaako just couldn't get the ball grounded inside the corner post just before the break.

Brisbane struck first in the second half, when winger Selwyn Cobbo scored in the corner following a sublime cut-out ball from Reece Walsh. Reynolds again missed the conversion from out wide and Brisbane led 8-0. The Phins needed some luck and they received some of a bizarre error from Brisbane winger Cobbo, who initially baulked at catching a kick on the last, with the Queensland winger then soccering the ball into touch like he was avoiding a corner. That was the chance the home side needed, when unlikely hero Jarrod Wallace scored off a crash ball close to the line, carrying three Broncos defenders over with him. Isaako converted to narrow the lead to 8-6. Cobbo then looked to have redeemed himself moments later, when he leapt over the tryline, only for Dolphins front rower Mark Nicholls managing to strip the ball at the last moment to save a certain try. Redcliffe then brought the sold-out crowd to their feet, when Anthony Milford put in a neat kick on the last for Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow who came from the clouds to get the ball down and give his side the lead for the first time in the match. Broncos skipper Adam Reynolds then put Kurt Capewell into a huge gap and the backrower charged towards the corner to score a superb try and lock up the scores. Reynolds then nailed the conversion to give his side a 14-12 lead with ten minutes remaining. Kotoni Staggs then sealed victory for the Broncos when he picked up a kick in his own in goal and raced past four Dolphins defenders and go the length of the field to score a superb try and claim Suncorp Stadium as the Broncos and hand the Phins their first defeat. SAM BOURKE

NORTH QLD 24 GOLD COAST 12

MATCH FACTS: NORTH QLD 24 (T. Chester, V. Holmes, J. Nanai, J. Tamou tries; V. Holmes 4 goals) DEFEATED GOLD COAST 12 (A. Khan-Pereira 2 tries; T. Boyd 2 goals) AT QUEENSLAND COUNTRY BANK STADIUM. Date: Sat, 25th March. Kickoff: 4:30 PM. Halftime: Gold Coast 8-6. Penalties: Gold Coast 8-6. Referee: Chris Butler. Crowd: 16,426. THE TEAMS: NORTH QLD: Chester, Feldt, Holmes, Shibasaki, Taulagi; Dearden, Townsend (C); McLean, Robson, Neame, Hess, Nanai, Taumalolo. Int: Granville, Luki, Taunoa-Brown, Tamou. GOLD COAST: Brimson, Khan-Pereira, Kelly, Schoupp, Sami; Foran, Boyd; Fotuauka, Randall, Fa'asuaumaleaui (C), Fifita, Stimson, Liu. Int: Campbell, Vuna, Clark, Fa'asuaumaleaui.

The North Queensland Cowboys have returned to the winners circle with a tough 24-12 victory over a brave Gold Coast Titans side in Townsville.

The Gold Coast opened the scoring early as David Fifita showed his class getting on the outside of the defence and drawing in the defence before getting a pass out to Alofiana Khan-Pereira to score out in the corner. The Titans extended their lead after Tanah Boyd added a penalty goal to push the lead out to 8-0. Disaster was striking for the Titans as they lost both Kieran Foran and AJ Brimson to injuries within quick succession that put pressure on the Gold Coast. The Cowboys attack was putting consistent pressure on the Titans defence who were holding it out and the North Queenslanders were denied by the bunker twice. Just shy of the half time siren, Jeremiah Nanai got over after the pressure mounted on the Titans and some good work drew the defence in and put the Cowboys over.

Trailing by two points, the North Queenslanders had momentum and it was James Tamou turning back the clock when he was able to get the defence in two minds as he changed the direction of the attack and he was able to stroll through. Val Holmes converted from close range and the Cowboys hit the lead. The pressure was then on the Cowboys defence but one play by Val Holmes took the ball out of the air and raced 100m away to score and extend the lead out to 24-12. David Fifita was causing issues for the Cowboys defence alongside Alofiana Khan-Pereira and the pair combined again when Fifita again drew defence in and found the Titans flyer to score in the corner. The Titans had gained momentum and it grew when Jeremiah Nanai was sin binned for a dangerous throw tackle but the Gold Coast were never able to take full advantage despite the field position with some messy play. It was messy play that gave the Cowboys their final match deciding try when a loose offload bounced off Tom Chester's head then his foot causing chaos at the back for the Titans who couldn't clean up the ball and Chester was just able to get to the ball first for a try. The conversion pushed the lead out to 12 and it was unassailable late for the Gold Coast. JOSH ROBERTSON

SOUTHS 13 MANLY 12

MATCH FACTS: SOUTHS 13 (C. Walker 2 tries; L. Mitchell 2 goals; L. Ilias field goal) DEFEATED MANLY 12 (D. Cherry-Evans, H. Olakau'atu tries; R. Garrick 2 goals) AT ACCOR STADIUM. Date: Sat, 25th March. Kickoff: 7:35 PM. Halftime: Manly 12-6. Penalties: Manly 7-4. Referee: Chris Sutton. Crowd: 18,379. THE TEAMS: SOUTHS: Mitchell, Johnson, Tass, Graham, Thompson; Walker, Ilias; Chee-Kam, Cook, Burgess, Koloamatangi, Host, Murray (C). Int: Suluka-Fifita, Moale, Cartwright, Lovett. MANLY: Trbojevic, Tuipulotu, Parker, Koula, Garrick; Schuster, Cherry-Evans (C); Paseka, Lawton, Trbojevic, Olakau'atu, Tuilagi, Aloia. Int: Weekes, Trbojevic, Bullemor, Keppie.

A Lachlan Ilias field goal in golden point has secured a much needed victory on an emotional night for the South Sydney club, as they honoured iconic club legend John Sattler, who passed away during the week.

The game was played largely in the middle for the whole 82 minutes with both sets of forwards getting through a mountain of work. Souths opened the scoring in the 23rd minute in remarkable fashion when Cody Walker chased a kick that Tom Trbojevic followed and was allowing to roll dead, but just before it did, Walker got a finger on the ball just in time before the ball went dead and scored an amazing try. Latrell Mitchell converted. Manly hit back just 2 minutes later when Daly Cherry-Evans put up a shallow cross-field kick which Haumole Olakau'atu caught brilliantly with one hand before falling over the line to score a great try. Reuben Garrick converted to level the scores. Manly looked to have added another good try just 2 minutes later, but only for the referee to controversially rule that one of the passes in the lead-up was forward. Things briefly got heated just 3 minutes before halftime, but everything was quickly settled and play resumed. Souths went on the attack in the final minute of the half before Cherry-Evans rushed up out of the line and took a perfectly timed intercept on halfway and then raced all the way to score a good try. Garrick again converted. At halftime Manly lead 12-6.

Manly came out looking the better of the two sides but they were soon put on the backfoot when Cody Walker sliced through the defensive line on the left side and muscled his way over the line to score a strong solo try. Mitchell very narrowly missed the sideline conversion. Mitchell though kicked a penalty goal in the 66th minute to level the scores. From this point on both sides were defensively brilliant, but their attack, outside of their forwards who were tremendous, failed to produce repeat sets or points. In the 78th minute Latrell Mitchell had a shot at field goal but it was a poor strike and missed. Cherry-Evans then had a shot with 3 seconds remaining in the game but Damien Cook charged it down. Souths kicked off in golden point and on the third tackle, Josh Aloia dropped a pass deep inside the Manly half. A poor pass to Mitchell on the third tackle meant he had to abort his field goal attempt. Two passes later, he was set for a shot, but the ball went to Lachlan Ilias who struck his kick sweetly and nailed the match winner in the 82nd minute. ANDREW FERGUSON

WARRIORS 16 CANTERBURY 14

MATCH FACTS: WARRIORS 16 (S. Johnson, M. Montoya, V. Vailea tries; S. Johnson 2 goals) DEFEATED CANTERBURY 14 (J. Addo-Carr, J. Kiraz tries; M. Burton 3 goals) AT MT SMART STADIUM. Date: Sun, 26th March. Kickoff: 4:00 PM. Halftime: Canterbury 8-6. Penalties: Warriors 5-3. Referee: Peter Gough. Crowd: 18,595. THE TEAMS: WARRIORS: Nicol-Klokstad, Kosi, Vailea, Pompey, Montoya; Martin, Johnson; Fonua-Blake, Lussick, Afoa, Ford, Niukore, Harris (C). Int: Walker, Sironen, Tevaga, Ale. CANTERBURY: Perham, Kiraz, Averillo, Alamoti, Addo-Carr; Burton (C), Flanagan; King, Mahoney, Sutton, Kikau, Preston, Faitala-Mariner. Int: Okunbor, Waddell, Tanner, Brown.

The New Zealand Warriors have fought back from multiple 8-point deficits to outlast the Canterbury-Bankstown Bulldogs, winning 16 points to 14 in a hard fought encounter in Auckland.

It was the dream start for the Bulldogs, who after seeing off the opening set from the Warriors were marched upfield courtesy of a penalty and didn't put the early attacking opportunity to waste, spreading the ball right to Averillo who did well to bump off a Warriors defender and flick it out to Kiraz, who went over the first try. The strong start continued for the visitors, getting another penalty in good attacking position that prompted the Warriors into wasting their challenge. They took the gift two points on offer and had an 8-0 lead after 8 minutes. From there it was all the Warriors, who themselves got a flurry of penalties and set restarts to find themselves in good attacking position, but the Bulldogs did well to repel the initial attacking raids, and were on the verge of breaking the game open when Reed Mahoney kicked a superb 40/20. It wasn't to be though, with Edward Kosi taking a spectacular intercept that involved him tipping the ball up into the air and catching it. Their strong defensive pressure forced a forward pass from the Bulldogs, and they weren't to be denied this time. Shaun Johnson played nice and direct from the scrum win and sent a rampaging Villami Vailea over the line to score. The score was 8-6, and both teams trading errors in the final 10 minutes of the first half meant it would remain that way at the break.

The tone was set for the second half quite early on, with Adam Pompey appearing to score a try on the Warriors first opportunity. The ball came out and he regathered it, and it was controversially deemed not to be a strip, a call which proved consequential on the very next play, with Addo-Carr getting on the outside of Kosi and going the length to make it an 8-point lead once again. The chaos continued, with Addo-Carr trying to avoid conceding a dropout by passing in his own in goal. It almost ended in disaster, but Jackson Ford dropped the ball, bombing a certain try. A few minutes later, the Warriors would finally get over, finding an overlap and sending Marcelo Montoya over in the corner. Johnson missed the kick, keeping it 14-10 to the Dogs. The Warriors defence was tested multiple times in the second half, but as has been the case so far in 2023 they held firm every time. They forced Reed Mahoney into a grubber that ended up going dead, and would score off the resultant 7 tackle set, Shaun Johnson dummieing his way over the line. The try also had a touch of controversy about it, with Addin Fonua-Blake appearing to deny Reed Mahoney a chance to make a play at Johnson. It was confirmed by the bunker though and the Warriors had their first lead of the match. The Bulldogs would get a penalty on their next possession and would launch an attacking raid on the Warriors, but once again they showed how much their defence has improved, turning Canterbury away for 12 straight plays. Time was running out for the Dogs, and it showed when Burton tried an early tackle kick in his own half that didn't come off. The Warriors would hold on for an impressive win from there, improving to 3-1 and keeping their spot in the top 4. ADAM HUXTABLE

MATCH FACTS: NEWCASTLE 24 (G. Marzhev 2, B. Best, T. Frizell, D. Gagai tries; L. Miller 2 goals) DEFEATED CANBERRA 14 (J. Wighton, H. Young tries; C. Harawira-Naera 2 goals; M. The Newcastle Knights have produced a rapid fire start to the second half to beat the Canberra Raiders 24 points to 14 at McDonald Jones Stadium on Sunday.

Despite the final result, the game didn't start well for the Knights, making an error in the 3rd minute that gave Canberra a golden opportunity to strike first. They did exactly that, late inclusion Matt Frawley throwing a peach of a pass to Hudson Young, who touched down under the posts. The Knights were there to play though, and off the back of a set restart they hit right back. They had an overlap on the right and were able to spread the ball to Greg Marzhev in plenty of space, the winger scoring a try in his club debut. Matt Frawley dropped the ball on the Raiders next possession, and another set restart for the Knights allowed them to get Bradman Best one on one with Matt Timoko, Best the one coming out on top and giving Newcastle their first lead of the day. The Raiders were quick to respond. Jayden Brailey made a terrible error out of dummy half and just as Josh Papalii was about to come on, Jack Wighton sliced right past Daniel Saifiti to give the Raiders the lead once more. Right on the stroke of half time, Matt Frawley slotted a two point field goal to make it a 6 point buffer for the visitors at the break.

The Knights appeared to be the only team to come out to play in the second half, and it was made clear from the outset. The Raiders immediately gave away a penalty, and in their first set in good ball of the half Tyson Gamble threw a brilliant cutout pass to put Marzhev over for his second of the day. Miller converted, erasing the Raiders lead. Newcastle then went the length of the field in the set after points, Hetherington running onto an inside ball and breaking tackles while the Raiders defensive line struggled to recover. Dane Gagai got some early ball and dived over in the corner, and just like that a Raiders 6 point lead had become a Knights 6 point lead in 8 minutes. The horror period continued for the Raiders, Jack Wighton heading to the sin bin for making late and high contact with Jackson Hastings after a kick. The Knights took immediate advantage, this time it was Tyson Frizell crashing over for a four pointer. That was all the scoring there was for the game, the Raiders having countless opportunities but finding no way through the brick wall that was the Newcastle defence. ADAM HUXTABLE

Cronulla Sharks took bragging rights in the local derby with a 40-8 win over a disgraceful St George Illawarra Dragons side in front of 15,126 fans at Kogarah Oval on Sunday night.

Nicho Hynes stamped his return game with authority. The halfback had a hand in a majority of the Sharks seven tries and the reigning Dally M medalist helped turn around an inconsistent Sharks side and decimate their local rivals. A bumper crowd rolled up to Kogarah, as the two rivals locked horns. The start was typically intense and both sides didn't give an inch. Sharks opened the scoring with Hynes sublime pass sending Ronaldo Mulitalo free then a kick inside for William Kennedy made it 6-0. Dragons showed some fight through their skipper. Ben Hunt with the dummy to beat his opposite number and get the Dragons on the board. The host took the lead soon after when Jaydn Su'A sliced through for an 8-6 lead. On the hour mark the Sharks retook their lead. A high kick was spilled back to the visitors then Jesse Ramien and Sione Katoa exchanged passes for the former to make it 12-8 at half-time.

Coming out the break, Sharks felt just fine. They piled on 28 points in a one-sided affair which gave them bragging rights over their rivals. It started in the first minute when Dragons knocked on and quick hands from the Sharks saw Mulitalo dive over. Hynes showed all the aspects of his game in the drubbing with a sublime short pass which sent Briton Nikora, who was playing his first game of the season, over right under the sticks as the vocal cords warmed up. Once again, the halfback was involved in the action. He kicked ahead, regathered and then sent it left for Mulitalo to make it a double. Next, Ramien got into the double act when he was the end of a long range move to make it 32-8. Dragons were diabolical in the second half which saw them fumble and bumble the ball at every opportunity. They let their frustration get to them with five-eighth Jayden Sullivan put on report twice and the whistle given a heavy workout with infringements. The Sharks put the icing on the victory cake late in the contest. Hynes again had his hands all over the work and he sent the Sharks other winger Katoa over in the right corner to make it 38-8 then Siosifa Talakai punted over a late penalty goal to make it 40. JUSTIN DAVIES

St Helens won back-to-back games in their 14-12 win over a gallant Huddersfield Giants side on Thursday night at John Smith's Stadium.

Both sides took their time to settle into the contest with some errors in the first half kept the score locked at 0-0 through the first 20 minutes. It was the World Champions who struck first, aided by a six again call. They mowed down the field then a short pass to a rampaging Konrad Hurrell saw the centre go over. The action returned to the right side for the Saints again for the Saints second. This time it was quick hands with the last pass from Hurrell saw Tommy Makinson dive over for 12-0. Huddersfield Giants did halve the deficit just before half-time. Ashton Goulding spied the defense backtracking and scooted over the line to make it 12-6.

Once again, the game settled into the groove in the second half and points were at a premium. Saints extended their lead to eight after a high tackle on Hurrell gave Makinson an easy two points. The Giants weren't going away and set up for a grandstand finish in the 65th minute. From a scrum, the ball went to Innes Senior who touched down in the left corner for 14-12.

Warrington Wolves continue their work at the top of the Super League ladder with a 38-0 win over Castleford Tigers on Friday night.

The Wolves got the scoring started quickly through Sam Kasiano. The big forward rumbled onto an inside pass from Daryl Clarke to make it 6-0. Things went from bad to worse for the Tigers when an errant pass on their own line ended up Matty Russell having the easiest passage to the line. It was a front rower party for the Wolves. Next, Thomas Mikaele took the short pass and sliced through some feeble Tigers defense for the third try. Matty Russell made it a first half double with a finish out on the right wing. He flew high and touched down to make it 24-0 for Warrington Wolves at the break.

Much like the first half, a forward got the first four-pointer in the second half for Wolves. This time, it was former Dragon Paul Vaughan who crashed over from close range. Rounding off the win was a pair of tries from the spine players. George Williams dived over from a support run then Matt Dufty popped up to get his own four-pointer to make it 38-0.

HULL KR 34 (T. Opacic 2, M. Lewis, K. Linnett, E. Minchella, L. Senior, S. Wood tries; L. Cootie 3 goals) DEFEATED WAKEFIELD (TRINITY) 6 (J. Whitbread try; M. Lino goal) AT BE WELL SUPPORT STADIUM. Date: Fri, 24th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Hull KR 18-0. Penalties: Hull KR 6-4. Referee: Aaron Moore. Crowd: 4,705. WAKEFIELD (Trinity): Butterworth, Kershaw, Lyne, Hall, Taufua; Langi, Lino; Atoni, Kay, Whitbread, Hewitt, Ashurst, Pitts. Hull KR got back in the winner's circle after their 34-6 win over Wakefield Trinity at Belle Vue on Friday night.

The Robins flew out to an early lead from a high kick. It bounced back the visitors and ended in the hands of Sam Wood to cross the line. For the second try, Hull KR switched to their right side and touched down. Louis Senior was on the end of the backline move to make it 8-0. It continued to be one way traffic for the visitors in the first half. Former Eel Tom Opacic crossed on the right side before forward Kane Linnett crashed over from close range. Robins five-eighth Mikey Lewis got himself in the act with a solo effort. He ducked under the Wakefield defense before he eventually got the ball down.

It was party time for the traveling Robins fans after their fifth try. They made another break and Elliot Minchella was there in support to make it 30-0. Wakefield Trinity did find some late consolation through Jai Whitbread. He did a runaround play with Samuel Eseh to get the hosts on the board. Hull KR had the final say in the contest with a sixth four-pointer. Opacic was involved again and sliced through some feeble defense for the 34-6 final score.

WIGAN 20 (B. French 2, T. King tries; H. Smith 4 goals) DEFEATED SALFORD 16 (K. Sio 2 tries; M. Sneyd 4 goals) AT DW STADIUM. Date: Fri, 24th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: 8-all. Wigan Warriors triumphed in a thriller 20-16 over a game Salford Red Devils side at the DW Stadium on Friday night.

The first points came from the tee in this contest when Warriors half Harry Smith piloted over a penalty goal for an early lead for the hosts. Salford Red Devils built pressure on Wigan with a dropout then struck for their first score. Ryan Brierley kicked ahead for Ken Sio to touch down for 6-2. Last year's top try scorer showed off his skill in putting Wigan back ahead. Bevan French took the ball on the bounce, cut inside twice before he burnt the defense for a four-pointer. The game would be locked up going into the break after Marc Sneyd kicked a penalty goal for the Red Devils. It came after a long break from former Warrior Joe Burgess which caught the hosts offside.

Buoyed by the late goal, Salford took the lead again early in the second half. Ken Sio picked up his second four-pointer of the night from a wonderful long pass for 14-8. Salford extended their lead to eight after a late hit on Chris Atkin. Sneyd stepped up for the penalty goal and piloted it through again. The Warriors looked to French again to get back in the game. He had switched to fullback and sliced through the Red Devils defense for his second try of the night. Wigan went bang again to take the lead and win the contest. Jai Field poked his nose through the line before he unfurled a long pass to Toby King to dive over for 20-16.

LEEDS 32 (H. Newman 2, T. Holroyd, R. Martin, R. Myler, J. O'Connor, D. Olpherts tries; R. Martin, A. Sezer goals) DEFEATED CATALANS 22 (T. Davies, A. Keighran, M. Pearce, P. Séguier tries; A. Leeds Rhinos produced a stirring comeback in their 32-22 win over Catalans Dragons at Headingley Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

The comeback win handed the French side their first loss of the season and moved the Rhinos just outside the top six. It was a pair of wonderful winger finishes that got the game underway in the afternoon soon. Dragons winger Tom Davies opened the scoring before Harry Newman responded for the hosts. Leeds took the lead through a wonder try from Rhyse Martin. He picked up the scraps from the hosts first kick, toed away himself and got the ball just on the line for 8-6. The rest of the first half was all Dragons. Adam Keighran went over in the left corner before a vintage run from Mitch Pearce made it 16-8.

Dragons got a gift to hold a 14-point lead at the break. Some stifling defense forced an errant offload from the Rhinos and Paul Segulier was the recipient. The Rhinos were down to 12 men when Newman was sin binned but they still managed to cut open the Dragons defense and Richie Myler finished off the move. Stuningly the Rhinos scored a second during the sin bin time. Jarrod O'Connor spotted a gap in the Dragons line and touched down to make it 22-16. Riding the wave, Rhinos levelled up from another Dragons error. Blake Austin went down the left side before he sent Derrell Olpherts across to get within two. Headingley Stadium was rocking at this point and the comeback being complete seemed inevitable. Austin was involved heavily again with a pass to Tom Holroyd to capture the lead. Newman put the icing on the win for the Rhinos late on. Myler sliced through from a Dragons kick before he found the winger in support to run away for the try.

LEIGH 24 (J. Charnley 3, K. O'Donnell tries; B. Reynolds 4 goals) DEFEATED HULL FC 16 (J. Clifford, D. Litten, L. Sutcliffe tries; J. Clifford 2 goals) AT MKM STADIUM. Date: Sat, 25th March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM.

Halftime: Leigh 16-6. Penalties: Leigh 11-5. Referee: Ben Thaler. Crowd: 10,952. HULL FC: Hoy, Swift, Tuimavave, Sutcliffe, Litten; Lovodua, Clifford; Brown, Dwyer, Satae, Savelio, Griffin, Fash. Int: Sao, Cator, Scott, Taylor. LEIGH: O'Brien, Charnley, Leutele, Hardaker, Briscoe; Reynolds, Lam; Amone, Ipape, Mulhern, O'Donnell, Shorrocks, Asiata. Int: Nakubwai, Seumanufagai, Davis, Holmes.

Three tries in the opening 15 minutes helped Leigh Leopards to a 24-16 win over Hull FC at MKM Stadium on Saturday afternoon.

Looking to get back in the winner's column after their loss last week, Leigh were able to pounce early on the hosts who were on a bad run of form. Papua New Guinea international Lachlan Lam laid on the first four-pointer for the Leopards when he sent Kai O'Donnell over for the score. Leigh put together a quickfire double for Josh Charnley to make it 16-0 for the visitors. He was on the end of a pair of backline movements to touch down. Hull FC got themselves on the scoreboard in style. It was a raid from their own half which ended with Davy Litton scoring in acrobatic fashion for 16-6.

The Leopards added to their advantage in the second half quickly. Ben Reynolds added two from the tee before Charnley completed his hat-trick with a strong effort. Once again, Hull FC hit back with a long range effort. Andre Savelio brushed off the defense several times before he found Jake Clifford to slide over for 22-12. The hosts got themselves within a score and set up a grandstand finish. Liam Sutcliffe charged over from close range which got them to 22-16 with ten to go. Leigh had the final say after a forward pass from Hull FC working it from their own line. Reynolds piloted through the conversion for the 24-16 final.
