THE PREVIEW

with Beth Nicholls

Two teams who have dominated the game in recent times are facing off, both only losing two games so far in the 2023 season.

Melbourne have had a rocky start to the 2023 seasons, mixed with injury and suspension, but finally bouncing back with a win against the Rabbitohs, making it now two consecutive wins after two consecutive losses to both the Bulldogs and Titans.

After opening the season with a loss against the Dolphins, the Roosters have had a solid season, boasting wins against the Warriors, Rabbitohs and most recently the Eels, where they fought hard for the win after losing Tedesco early in the first half.

Melbourne's halfback Jahrome Hughes returns from a two-week suspension, with Jonah Pezet dropped to reserve grade. Tariq Sims also claims a spot on the bench, with Grant Anderson being named the team's 18th man.

With James Tedesco suffering from a head knock last week, he has been stood down for 11 days following new HIA protocol. Joey Manu returns from suspension this week and will be filling in for Tedesco at fullback.

It'll be an interesting Thursday night clash, with both teams considered premiership heavyweights, and still gaining their bearings in the 2023 season. Looking forward to seeing a tight game, with each side boasting some impressive, key players in the game.

WHO TO WATCH: I'm looking forward to the battle of the 9's, especially with Brandon Smith being an ex-Storm player.

Harry Grant is a force to be reckoned with, currently leading the Dally M leaderboard in a 3-way tie. Averaging 50 tackles each game this season, alongside an always evolving kicking game, I'm excited to see what try-saving tackles he comes up with on Thursday night and potentially another 4-pointer for him.

On the opposing team, Brandon Smith has had a slow start to his season at the Roosters where he started on the interchange bench. However, as the season progresses, we are really seeing him fit into the team and make more impressive plays. I'm excited to see what he produces on Thursday night, coming up against his former club for the first time.

FAVOURITE: Melbourne are minorly favoured to beat the Sydney Roosters at home.

MY TIP: With both sides finally finding their footing for the season I think it'll be a close one, however the Roosters will be without their star fullback and the Storm will be playing with the return of their playmaking halfback. With the return of Hughes and the progression of Melbourne's footy over the past two weeks, I think they have it in them to claim victory at home. Melbourne by 12.

THE PREVIEW

with Andrew Jackson

A premiership heavyweight and contender on the rise meet in the latest instalment of NRL's annual Good Friday afternoon clash.

For the Bulldogs, it seems much of the fan base is largely resigned to defeat this week in the wake of a crippling injury toll to the team's forward pack.

Fortunately for Cameron Ciraldo's side, both Max King (eye) and Jacob Preston (hand) have been named and are a chancing of suiting up in a much-needed boost up front.

The good news stops there though, with Raymond Faitala-Mariner (head knock), Viliame Kikau (head knock), Jayden Okunbor (suspension), Tevita Pangai Junior (calf), Fa'amanu Brown (elbow), Chris Patolo (knee), Franklin Pele (arm), Luke Thompson (foot) and Bailey Biondi-Odo (ACL) all still sidelined.

Faitala-Mariner, Pele and Okunbor are the new faces unavailable this week, with Harrison Edwards starting at lock while Jackson Topine and Jayden Tanner figure on the bench.

It leaves the Bulldogs severely undermanned against a Rabbitohs side that had to overcome its own string of injuries up front earlier in the season, with Jai Arrow (hamstring), Siliva Havili (ankle), Liam Knight (knee) and Shaquai Mitchell (foot) all yet to return.

Winger Alex Johnston (head knock) joins them on the sidelines this week but prop Tevita Tatola is a welcome inclusion after being held out for a few weeks with a knee injury.

The Bulldogs enter Friday's game off a thrilling 15-14 golden point win over the Cowboys, with Matt Burton and Josh Addo-Carr heroics sealing a last-gasp win on Sunday night.

It's a short turnaround for Canterbury-Bankstown, who face a South Sydney outfit coming off an 18-10 loss to Melbourne last Friday.

Souths have won nine of the past 11 games between the teams, including a Good Friday win in Round 6 last year, and have scored 30-plus points in four-straight games against the Bulldogs.

WHO TO WATCH: If the Bulldogs are to pull off a Good Friday miracle, it will come on the back of a man-of-the-match performance from one of their big-name recruits. Matt Burton and Josh Addo-Carr, both brought to the club ahead of the 2022 season, had their moments last Sunday. The same goes for Reed Mahoney, who put Jacob Preston over with a clever pass from dummy-half. But the Bulldogs will need even more from the crafty hooker, who won't have the same platform to work with playing behind a depleted pack against Souths. It will only be more important that Mahoney picks his time to run the ball and also put in long clearing kicks to help the Bulldogs earn field position and be less reliant on the power game.

There has been plenty of talk about Latrell Mitchell increasing his involvement in attack, including from Rabbitohs coach Jason Demetriou and there may not be a more perfect opportunity for that to happen. South Sydney has the clear advantage up front, even with a few injuries of its own, and should be able to lay the kind of platform that will allow Mitchell to thrive. Mitchell starred the last time these two sides met, scoring a try to go with 137 run metres, one linebreak, three try assists and three linebreak assists. Even half of that output from Mitchell on Friday will be enough to see the Rabbitohs home on Friday.

FAVOURITE: Undermanned and off a short turnaround, the Bulldogs are clear outsiders for this game.

MY TIP: They should be able to keep it close early but look for the Bulldogs to fall away late as the Rabbitohs finish comfortable winners on Good Friday. South Sydney by 20.

THE PREVIEW

with Rob Crosby

A Good Friday for a Queensland derby

A premiership first will take place on Good Friday when the North Queensland Cowboys host the Dolphins in an all Queensland affair at Queensland Country Bank Stadium.

Hosting a match at home on Good Friday for the first time in history, the North Queensland Cowboys will be determined to bounce back after gut-wrenching defeat in extra time last Sunday.

Leading for 79 minutes against the Bulldogs only to go down 15-14 after conceding a late try and field goal, coach Todd Payten will welcome back dynamic fullback Scott Drinkwater after serving a three-match suspension.

Highly impressive young gun Tom Chester retains his place in the squad on the bench, while Reuben Cotter returns in the forward pack with Jordan McLean and Heilum Luki sidelined through injury.

This is the third time the Cowboys have played on Good Friday; on both previous occasions the side has gone down to the Sea Eagles (2014) and Broncos (2016) playing away from home.

The Dolphins will face their first sink or swim moment as a mounting injury toll threatens to derail a promising start to the season.

Producing their worst performance to date during last week's dismal 38-12 defeat at the hands of the Dragons, coach Wayne Bennett will be determined to put aside the disappointment of the Wollongong debacle and bounce back following consecutive losses.

Pairing Kodi Nikorima alongside Isaiya Katoa in the halves following injuries to Sean O'Sullivan and Anthony Milford, one-time Queensland representative Edrick Lee will make his club debut in place of Jack Bostock.

Kurt Donoghoe returns in place of fellow rookie Mason Teague to provide utility value off the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: Returning to Townsville for the first time since suffering an ACL tear more than a year ago, versatile forward Mitchell Dunn will be looking to resurrect his career with a strong showing. Playing his first game post-recovery during last week's golden point loss to the Bulldogs, the 26-year-old boasts a point of difference with the ability to play multiple positions across the forward pack and backline. Out of contract at the end of this season, look for Dunn to make an impression in the number eight jersey and press his case for a new deal.

Becoming the third player in as many weeks to partner Isaiya Katoa in the halves, experienced utility Kodi Nikorima will be hoping to get the premiership newcomers back in the winner's circle. Playing two matches over the opening five rounds off the bench, the former Brisbane, New Zealand and South Sydney player has played the majority of his career in the halves at club and international levels since debuting in 2015. Renown for his ability to provide impact through his diminutive size, the Dolphins will need Nikorima to offer a steadying influence in order to avoid a third loss on the trot.

FAVOURITE: Returning home following a golden point defeat last week, the Cowboys are expected to outclass their injury-hit opponents.

MY TIP: While many people initially gave the Dolphins little chance with a fully fit team, there was near universal agreement that the newcomers would struggle when the toll of injuries and suspensions inevitably occurred. As pressure begins to build, Friday night shapes as their most revealing match to date. Cowboys by 10.

THE PREVIEW

with AJ Lucantonio

Match of the round billing returns to Penrith

It's a battle of two of the NRL's biggest superstars as Nathan Cleary's Penrith Panthers return home to take on Tom Trbojevic's Manly Warringah Sea-Eagles from BlueBet Stadium to kick off an shortened Super Saturday.

The Panthers come into this one after a 53-12 masterclass against the Canberra Raiders. While they'll be the first to admit there were phases of the game that left a lot to points on the board, the attacking masterclass in the second forty was enough to suggest that there is still some hunger left to three-peat. Nathan Cleary continues to showcase his ability as the game's premiere seven, while the likes of Sunia Turuva, Zac Hosking and Izack Tago had their best games of the season. The major question for Ivan Cleary is how you can ignore the form of Hosking with Luke Garner set to return from injury in the coming weeks.

Heading into the clash with Manly, the major conundrum is how do you stop Tommy Turbo. Yes, it's easier said than done. But, when you look back a little to 2021 and the finals series. Melbourne and Souths showcased the best defensive mechanisms to shut down the Manly custodian. The first was to rush up hard on the Manly full-back, the second part was to push the full-back into designated parts of the field.

On the team front, Ivan Cleary has to make some changes. James Fisher-Harris is out with an MCL injury, with Matt Eisenhuth starting up front. Luke Garner and Liam Martin are still missing. The in-form Zac Hosking retains his edge role, with Scott Sorensen on the other edge. Soni Luke returns from the 11 day stand-down on the bench.

Manly were incredibly fortunate in their 32-32 draw with Newcastle in Mudgee. While their attack is getting back to 2021 levels, their defensive scheme is still very poor. Especially their left edge which was targeted several times by Newcastle on Saturday.

To beat Penrith, they'll have to go after Nathan Cleary early and provide effective kick pressure. If they can go after the form half-back in the game, they'll go a long way to victory. Another challenge is to win the forward exchanges, that task is easier with the absence of JFH, but they'll need to be ruthless for the full 80 minutes.

Onto team news, Christian Tuipulotu suffered a knee injury that will see him spend time on the sidelines, alongside Tolu Koula. Jason Saab makes an early return from an ACL injury. Josh Schuster returns at 5/8 replacing Cooper Johns. Karl Lawton is preferred over Tof Siple on the bench with the latter returning to the reserves.

WHO TO WATCH: In a game where two superstars are already getting the high billing. The player to watch takes a different route. Fresh off a contract extension, Moses Leota faces the task of leading the Penrith pack against Manly. With the aforementioned absence of JFH, Leota was strong in his absence against Canberra playing a season high 47 minutes running for 162 metres, he's also tackling at a high efficiency of 97% so expect Leota to be in for another big one.

For Manly, we're going to be focusing on Lachlan Croker. Through a series of events we won't rehash. Croker was planted in the 9 jersey and hasn't looked out of place holding the firm spot for Manly through the last few years of instability at the club. Although, in recent times he is facing challenges from Kaeo Weekes and Gordon Chan Kum Tong for his jersey.

Last week he was caught out in defence missing 9 tackles against the Knights. With the challengers foot steps coming closer, expect a bounce back from Croker.

FAVOURITE: Penrith are favourites with the bookies for this one. Penrith have a good recent record against Manly only losing two matches against the Sea Eagles since 2017 and only losing two matches against Manly at BlueBet since 2010.

MY TIP: The form the Panthers showed last week is a sign that they are getting back to their best no matter what way you look at it. If they can effectively nullify Turbo and target the weaknesses in defence which we know they can. This game will be over quickly, but we have seen a resilient Manly line-up come back at times this season and remain competitive throughout. Penrith by 10.

THE PREVIEW

with Andrew Ferguson

The top of the table Broncos are in strong form to keep their winning run, not just in 2023, but also at home against the Raiders, going strong, when the two sides meet in Round 6.

The Raiders have won just 9 games from 33 visits to Brisbane in their entire history, but even worse is that they've only had 3 regular season wins from 17 games against the Broncos at Suncorp Stadium.

The Broncos are enjoying their best start to a season while the Raiders are enduring one of their worst, this being just the seventh time in their 42 seasons that they have recorded 1 or less wins after their opening 5 games of a season.

The Broncos big men in the middle are boring holes in every opposition defensive line, racking up over 3000 post contact metres, over 200 more than the next best side (Parramatta) and on average, 100 metres more per game than the Raiders.

The Raiders are the second worst side for missing tackles as well as being one of the top 7 sides for conceding penalties. These areas all need to be improved markedly for the Raiders if they are to compete for the full 80 minutes against this impressive Broncos outfit.

Brisbane showed last week that they can score tries rapidly but they also do tend to push passes or get a little panicky/ ahead of themselves when on the attack and can sense that they might be able to score. The bombed a few tries against the Wests Tigers last weekend due to this.

The Broncos come into this game with their squad unchanged from last week while the Raiders welcome back Jarrod Croker at centre and Brad Schneider at five-eighth, with Harley Smith-Shields and Matt Frawley both dropping out of the 17.

WHO TO WATCH: Payne Haas has been unstoppable so far this season and he will be given opportunities to run wider of the ruck where the Raiders defence has been flimsy so far this year. If he doesn't get through the line, he has a magnificent offloading ability which is starting to find Reece Walsh more regular, as the young fullback is getting better at knowing who to hang off and when.

Adam Reynolds has been putting on an absolute masterclass in 2023 with his kicking game alone, while his calm head and game management is as good as it's ever been. This is allowing Ezra Mam to be free to play his natural game.

For the Raiders, Corey Horsburgh has been playing strong on the edge and has been getting more frequently involved in attacking raids.

The Raiders big men on the bench – Corey Harawira-Naera, Emre Guler and Pasami Saulo have the size, power and ability to match it with these Broncos forwards and they are vital to the Raiders chances in this game.

FAVOURITE: The top of the table and undefeated Broncos will be the favourites here, especially at home against an out-of-sorts Raiders side.

MY TIP: The Raiders defence is a worry and this Broncos side changed up a gear last week. Brisbane to win comfortably, by 24 points.

THE PREVIEW

with Josh Robertson

For the second time in five weeks, we are going to be treated to a Titans v Dragons battle as this time the Gold Coast will play host to the Red V, who will be looking for back to back wins for the first time in 2023.

The Titans have had an up and down run of things this season like most teams. With impressive wins and some very concerning losses. Sporting a 2-wins, 2-losses record, they head into Round 6 coming off a much needed bye.

Prior to their weekend off, the Titans were far from awful in their 24-12 defeat to the North Queensland Cowboys in Townsville. It was a strong performance at times, with David Fifita showing some strong form on the edge, especially in his combination with winger Alofiana Khan-Pereira who scored both the team's tries. Injuries to AJ Brimson and Kieran Foran hurt their performance in the key moments and ultimately saw them fall by twelve to the Cowboys.

Despite the week off, Brimson and Foran have failed to overcome their injury concerns, with Jayden Campbell named to start at fullback and Toby Sexton returning to the side in the five-eighth role. The Titans could be boosted by the introduction of new signing Krui Leeming who is named on the extended bench.

Another side with a rollercoaster ride of a season has been the St George Illawarra Dragons - they started their season in Round 2 with a big win over the Titans before capitulations against the Broncos and Sharks saw them brought back to earth. Last week though, a big second half with a strong wind at their backs saw the Dragons return to the form they displayed in the Round 2 victory.

The Red V used the conditions perfectly as they scored a very impressive 38-12 victory over a depleted Dolphins side in Wollongong. The game was going to be a tale of two halves - not just given the Dragons' inability of late at the back-end of games - but because of the strong winds in Wollongong. They blitzed the second 40, running in 26 points to run out big winners.

Coach Anthony Griffin has made no changes to the 17 that took apart the Dolphins last weekend, though that side was different to what was named the previous Tuesday. Jayden Sullivan and Zane Musgrove dropped from the side for Talatau Amona and Jack DeBelin's returns - the former pair are listed as reserves for this clash.

WHO TO WATCH: With no Foran or Brimson, the Titans' attack will be centred around the play of Tanah Boyd who, whilst being a solid performer, has never provided that real "wow" moment during his NRL career to date. The Titans halfback will have to take on a strong role to combine with Sexton and Campbell - which is not a new partnership by any measure, but it is one that will come up against one of the games most experienced halves.

The spotlight has been on Dragons five-eighth Talatau Amona for a long time this year, but not for any good reasons. After making his return to the NRL last week, he can now focus on bringing positives to his team. The Dragons lacked spark in their humbling defeat against the Sharks and last week their attack looked so much better with Amona pairing up with Ben Hunt in the halves. If the Dragons want to succeed then they have to Amona firing alongside Hunt to get the win.

FAVOURITE: The Titans are the favourites for the contest, a slight surprise given the respective performances of the two sides in their last games and the key outs for the Titans.

MY TIP: So much of me wants to tip the Titans but I have to go the Dragons. The losses of Brimson and Foran are the tipping point and the visitors this week looked super strong last time out against the Dolphins. The Gold Coast will want revenge but if it clicks for the Dragons again they'll run out winners. Dragons by 8.

THE PREVIEW

with Adam Huxtable

Big improvers of 2023 to do battle in Newcastle

It's certainly fair to say that neither the Newcastle Knights nor the New Zealand Warriors had much expectation about them heading into season 2023, both tipped to be in and around the bottom 4 of the ladder.

Through the first five rounds of the competition, both sides have done just about as much as they possibly could to disprove this notion, and their respective round 5 performances encapsulate all that has been great about the perennial strugglers so far.

The Knights, going into their game against Manly as heavy outsiders, fell to a 10-0 deficit inside 8 minutes. There is no question that the Knights of old fall into a heap and lose by 30, but this group were able to fight back and take a first half lead on their way to a gritty 90-minute draw.

The Warriors are coming off what many are calling their greatest win in the 29-year history of the club. They were down 20 to zip inside 18 minutes and were demonstrating extreme defensive inefficiency on their edges but were able to peg the deficit back to 14 at halftime and make adjustments during the break that put them in a position to win it in the last-minute courtesy of a Shaun Johnson penalty goal.

Considering how similar the Knights and Warriors seasons have been so far, and how they each came back against quality opposition last start, it's fitting they should both meet this round. While they have both been impressive, neither have been able to produce a solid 80-minute performance yet.

The fact both sides conceded 30+ suggests defence will be a strong point of emphasis for both coaches at training, setting up a low scoring, grind style match. However, it could just as easily be a shootout with both teams mirroring their round 5 performances. Newcastle and the Warriors have shown they can compete in both game types, so the one thing you can be relatively sure of is it'll be close, be it an 8-6 or 38-36 final scoreline.

In team news, Tyson Gamble is out with a concussion for the Knights, replaced at five-eighth by Phoenix Crossland. Kurt Mann returns as the bench utility in the only other change from the side that went the distance against Manly.

For the Warriors, Te-Maire Martin is back from injury and resumes his place at five-eighth, replacing Ronald Volkman, while Bayley Sironen starts in the back-row for the suspended Marata Niukore. Tohu Harris has been named to return from a knee injury, pushing Jazz Tevaga back to the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: It has been a running joke amongst Rugby League fans that Dane Gagai has two versions of himself – an average one that takes the field for his club and an elite one that takes the field in origin. This simply hasn't been the case recently; he was a crucial part of the Rabbitohs recent grand final appearance and so far in 2023 it isn't an exaggeration to say he's been the best centre in the competition. Two weeks ago against Canberra he embarrassed young Harley

Smith-Shields and recently did the same to Manly's outside backs, running 18 times for 214 metres while also notching up 2 line break assists, a try assist and a whopping 11 tackle breaks, the latter should be setting off alarm bells in Andrew Webster's head considering how poor the Warriors edge defence was in the opening 20 minutes last week. Overall this season he has been great defensively, making 70 tackles and only missing 7, but 5 of those misses did come last week, which is something he will no doubt be keen to clean up against a threatening Warriors attack.

The Warriors have one of if not the best benches in the NRL, and a big reason for that is having the luxury of playing Jazz Tevaga as an impact player. Tevaga's work and value to his team can be underappreciated in the media considering he plays in a different country, which is especially unfair when you look at performances like the one he had last week and realise they are a regular occurrence. He had 17 runs for 156 metres against Cronulla as well as 3 tackle breaks, playing a huge role in gaining momentum for the Warriors towards the end of the game, while also immense in defence making 41 tackles and only missing 1. Perhaps the most important part of Tevaga's game for the Warriors going forward is his ability to minimise the loss felt when Tohu Harris goes to the bench. While he doesn't have the same passing game as Harris, Tevaga can be just as impactful running the ball and brings an energy that ensures his side doesn't lose a step when their skipper has a rest.

FAVOURITE: The Warriors are 1.5 point favourites at the time of writing.

MY TIP: This is a contender for the match of the round this week, which in itself says a lot about where these teams are at the moment. Warriors by 4 in another classic.

THE PREVIEW

with Lachlan McIntyre

Public Holiday Footy for troubled Eels and broken Tigers

The Parramatta Eels and the Wests Tigers will clash in their annual Easter Monday fixture, to be hosted at Sydney Olympic Park this year. The first Monday game of the year, the 4pm kick-off is a lovely late Easter gift for all footy fans.

The Wests Tigers are the home team on paper, with the club spreading home matches very thinly across Sydney venues. They're winless to start the season, and sit alone in 17th at the bottom of the ladder. The club has countless fundamental problems, with scrutiny of the merger growing every week of failure. If scrutiny doesn't lead to systematic change, then the Wests Tigers have a very long road ahead before returning to the top eight, or even just until they get off the bottom spot.

The Tigers finally got the thrashing that they've deserved all season last week against the undefeated Brisbane Broncos. Playing up at Suncorp Stadium in front of nearly 30,000 people, they were defeated 46-12 by the home team. Held scoreless in the first half, the Tigers were lucky that the score didn't end up worse. Coach Tim Sheens deservedly earned the ire of fans after joking in the post-match press conference that he hopes "we'll win the bye anyways in a couple of weeks".

Tim Sheens has made a few significant changes to the Tigers line-up, with Adam Doueihi's stint at fullback ending in favour of him partnering Brooks in the halves. Charlie Staines will get his opportunity in the number one jersey, with Daine Laurie missing out on the 17 yet again. AJ Kepaoa slots into the leftover wing spot, with Brent Naden returning into the centres. With Tommy Talau injured, Junior Tupou maintains his spot on the wing. Joe Ofahengaue joins the bench at the expense of Justin Matamua.

The Parramatta Eels are facing their own struggles. With just the one win from their opening five rounds, the 2022 Grand Finalists find themselves in 15th with plenty of work to do. They have faced a tough draw to open their 2023 campaign, so the struggling Wests Tigers will be a welcome opposition. That being said, they can't afford to become complacent, or they may find themselves compounding their already disappointing position.

The Eels are coming off an eight point loss to the Sydney Roosters at Moore Park last week. They started off slow, getting blown away early on, and they found themselves facing a 14 point deficit at half time. To Parramatta's credit, they put up a strong fight in the second half, however it wasn't enough to steal the two points. The sin-binning of Will Penisini and Bailey Simonsson in separate first half incidents didn't help their cause, so they'll definitely need to watch their discipline in the coming weeks.

Shaun Lane will make his long-awaited return from a broken jaw this weekend, slotting into the back row. J'maine Hopgood, who has been enjoying a brilliant start to the season, will shift onto the bench. Bailey Simonsson is out through suspension giving Haze Dunster a shot on the wing, and Sean Russell makes an appearance at centre with Waqa Blake dropping to the reserves.

This is the ninth edition of the Eels vs Tigers Easter Monday clash, with the wins split at four apiece. Last year, the Wests Tigers came into the game winless and sprung an ambush to come out one point victors at Parramatta. The Eels will be wary of a surprise Tiger attack, and they'll want to regain the Easter Monday crown in 2023.

WHO TO WATCH: Charlie Staines will start at fullback for the second time this season on Monday. Signed by the Tigers over the off-season, Staines had work to do to assure his spot in the NRL 17. An injury to Ken Maumalo allowed Staines to nail down a wing spot, before a reshuffle in round three saw him start at fullback for the first time at the Tigers. He played a handful of games at fullback for Penrith towards the tail end of 2022, but he still has work to do. A good game this Easter Monday may see him cement his spot at fullback over the off-contract Laurie.

Sean Russell will take to the field for just his fourth NRL game this Monday, picked over Waqa Blake in the centres. The 20 year old has spent much of the past two years playing for Parramatta in reserve grade as a winger, with him yet to take to the field in 2023. This Monday will be his first NRL game since round one, 2022, and his first ever NRL game starting in the centres. Brad Arthur must see plenty of potential in him to give him this shot over the experienced and proven Waqa Blake.

FAVOURITE: The Eels are the strong favourites to deal with a struggling Tigers side.

MY TIP: There's no reason for the Tigers to play any differently to what they've been serving up in the past few rounds. Parramatta by 30.

THE WRAP

NRL 2023 ROUND 5

THURSDAY 30 MARCH, 8:00pm

SYDNEY 28 PARRAMATTA 20

MATCH FACTS: SYDNEY 28 (L. Keary 2, D. Hutchison, J. Paulo, D. Tupou tries; S. Walker 4 goals) DEFEATED PARRAMATTA 20 (C. Gutherson, B. Simonsson, M. Sivo tries; M. Moses 4 goals) AT ALLIANZ STADIUM. Date: Thu, 30th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Sydney 16-2. Penalties: 5-all. Referee: Grant Atkins. Crowd: 20,886. THE TEAMS: SYDNEY: Tedesco (C), Tupou, Sua'ali'i, Hutchison, Paulo; Keary, Walker; Waerea-Hargreaves, Smith, Collins, Butcher, Butcher, Radley. Int: Turpin, Whyte, Allan, Baker, Thomas. PARRAMATTA: Gutherson (C), Sivo, Penisini, Blake, Simonsson; Brown, Moses; Campbell-Gillard, Hodgson, Greig, Cartwright, Matterson, Hoggood. Int: Doorey, Hands, Murchie, Makatoa.

Despite losing James Tedesco to a concussion, the Sydney Roosters have cruised to a third straight victory, downing the Parramatta Eels 28-20 at Allianz Stadium.

It was a frantic start at Moore Park, and it was the Roosters who had all of the early running. Following a break from Lindsay Collins, Will Penisini was judged to be deliberately offside and sent for a stint in the sin bin. The Eels were nearly made to pay immediately when Luke Keary exposed the short right edge and finds Daniel Tupou who sprinted 25 metres before finding Joseph Suaalii before passing to Egan Butcher. However, the Bunker ruined celebrations when they determined Luke Keary to obstruct Bailey Simonsson. Parramatta quickly got another penalty which allowed Mitch Moses to take a cheap penalty goal to give the Eels a 2-0 lead. However, it wasn't long before the Tri-Colours got their try. Joseph Suaalii broke through before finding James Tedesco. Off the ensuing play, Luke Keary linked up with Sam Walker who got a magical cut-out ball to Jaxson Paulo before flicking it onto Drew Hutchison to score the first try. Walker's conversion gave them a 6-2 lead. Parramatta hung on for dear life with several try-savers denying the Roosters points. The game changed 15 minutes before half-time when James Tedesco was concussioned out of the game following a horror high shot from Simonsson. The winger somehow avoided being dismissed for the game but was also dispatched to the sin-bin. Daniel Tupou got another try closer to Anthony Minichello's all-time record of 139 tries when he crossed six minutes later. Parramatta tried to rally back before the break but made the mistake of giving the Roosters a seven-tackle set before the break. Brandon Smith exposed the markers before finding Sam Walker who drew and passed to Luke Keary for his first of 2023 to give the Roosters a 16-2 half-time advantage.

Parramatta hit back straight after the break with a run of consecutive sets after half-time. They were able to cross when Penisini got a magic offload away to Clint Gutherson and the 14-point advantage was cut down to 8. However, the Eels discipline got away from them conceding 4 set restarts in the space of 4 minutes and eventually was made to pay. A lovely set play saw Suaalii combine with Jaxson Paulo who continued his try-scoring run to extend the margin back to 12 points. After a sloppy period of play, the Roosters got beyond two converted tries when Walker added a penalty goal to extend the margin to 14. The match was sealed eight minutes from time when Tupou went on a mega kick return before linking up with Keary who got his second. Parramatta managed to grab two consolation tries when Gutherson and Maika Sivo but it was in vain as the Roosters were able to easily get the victory. The Roosters will most likely be missing Tedesco but will be pleased with the way Suaalii adapted at the back, however, Joey Manu returns and is likely to play in the 1 jumper. For the Eels, they again need to re-evaluate their defensive scheme, they've got 11 days to do it before the match with the Tigers on Easter Monday. AJ LUCANTONIO

PENRITH 53 CANBERRA 12

MATCH FACTS: PENRITH 53 (I. Tago 2, S. Turuva 2, N. Cleary, S. Crichton, Z. Hosking, T. Peachey, J. Salmon tries; N. Cleary 8 goals; N. Cleary field goal) DEFEATED CANBERRA 12 (E. Whitehead, H. Young tries; J. Fogarty 2 goals) AT GIO STADIUM. Date: Fri, 31st March. Kickoff: 6:00 PM. Halftime: Penrith 13-6. Penalties: Penrith 6-4. Referee: Adam Gee. Crowd: 15,334. THE TEAMS: CANBERRA: Kris, Hopoate, Timoko, Smith-Shields, Rapana; Frawley, Fogarty; Papalii, Woolford, Tapine, Young, Whitehead (C), Harawira-Naera. Int: Starling, Guler, Saulo, Horsburgh. PENRITH: Edwards, Turuva, Tago, Crichton, To'o; Luai, Cleary (C); Leota, Kenny, Fisher-Harris, Sorensen, Hosking, Yeo. Int: Peachey, Smith, Leniu, Salmon.

It has taken them a while to get going but the Penrith Panthers sounded a premiership warning on Friday, running over the top of the Canberra Raiders 53-12 at GIO Stadium.

The Raiders were well and truly in the contest at halftime, trailing 13-6, but fell away in the second period as the Panthers ran in seven tries. Halfback Nathan Cleary had a hand in pretty much everything while Izack Tago and Sunia Turuva combined for four tries in an electric display on Penrith's left edge. There was drama early in Friday night's game as Penrith was placed under immediate pressure after Cleary had his first kick of the game charged down by Zac Woolford. It gifted Canberra a full set on Penrith's line and with a chance to set the tone early but, as would become a theme throughout the first half, the Raiders barely threatened in the red zone. It was actually off a scrum near halfway that Canberra had its first genuine try-scoring opportunity, with Seb Kris finding a hole after poor defence from Stephen Crichton. He then tried to find speedster Albert Hopoate in support but the winger put the ball down, with the Panthers surviving a close call. It proved a crucial missed opportunity as Cleary, unfazed by the charge down, went back to the boot minutes later and this time his kick sat up perfectly for centre Tago. Tago then found winger Turuva in support for the opening try of the game, with Cleary then adding the extras to make it 6-0 after seven minutes. The execution wasn't always perfect for the defending premiers though and some physicality from Canberra saw the home side repel Penrith after multiple sets defending its own line. In fact, the Panthers' second try of the night came in unconventional fashion - going through 10 sets of hands before Turuva put in a grubber and pounced to push the lead out to 12-0. There was some adversity to come for Penrith though as repeated infringements saw Crichton binned after the centre was penalised for being offside off a scrum. Again, Canberra's attack inside Penrith's 20-metre zone left a lot to be desired but a smart kick from Woolford brought points as Elliott Whitehead dived on the ball to score. The Raiders almost made it two tries in a row as they went back to the left edge, with Hopoate burning the Panthers with his pace and kicking inside. Halfback Jamal Fogarty was chasing in support and had possession of the ball, only to lose it in a desperate tackle from Tago. In the end despite threatening late the Raiders would head into halftime with just the one try while a late Cleary field goal pushed Penrith's lead out to 13-6.

The Panthers were gifted an immediate chance to extend that lead when Jordan Rapana was unable to defuse the kick-off. But as has been the case through the opening round of the season, Penrith was a shadow of its clinical former self as Tago dropped the ball. Tago would make up for it soon after though. A penalty saw the Panthers march up the field and then go back to the left edge, with Cleary putting Scott Sorensen through a hole as Tago backed up in support. It was a quick double for Tago as a series of sets inside Canberra's red zone eventually told, with the Raiders' right edge opening up with ease for the Panthers centre to surge through. Cleary missed his first conversion of the night, leaving the score at 23-6 after 50 minutes. Suddenly the floodgates opened as the Panthers went back-to-back, riding the momentum of a charging run from Brian To'o to kick off the set after points. Raiders fullback Kris then bizarrely watched on as Lindsay Smith chased through to take possession and offload for Cleary to score. Canberra needed something fast and found it in the form of an uncharacteristic error from Panthers fullback Dylan Edwards, who failed to defuse a Hudson Young kick. Young himself was then on the spot to pick up the ball and score, giving the Raiders a glimmer of hope heading into the final 20 minutes. That hope quickly faded though when Rapana handed possession right back to Penrith off the restart and Edwards made up for his error as he put Zac Hosking over for a try. Tyrone Peachey then celebrated his Penrith return with a try in his first game for the club since 2018, embarrassing some meek Canberra defence in the 72nd minute. Some silky skills from Crichton and a storming run by Jaeman Salmon saw the Panthers score two more before fulltime as the visitors brought up the half-century in an emphatic win. ANDREW JACKSON

FRIDAY 31 MARCH, 8:05pm

MELBOURNE 18 SOUTHS 10

MATCH FACTS: MELBOURNE 18 (J. King, C. Munster, W. Warbrick tries; N. Meaney 3 goals) DEFEATED SOUTHS 10 (C. Graham, C. Walker tries; L. Mitchell goal) AT ACCOR STADIUM. Date: Fri, 31st March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Melbourne 12-6. Penalties: Souths 6-5. Referee: Todd Smith. Crowd: TBC. THE TEAMS: SOUTHS: Mitchell, Johnston, Tass, Graham, Thompson; Walker, Ilias; Suluka-Fifita, Cook, Burgess, Koloamatangi, Host, Murray (C). Int: Cartwright, Chee-Kam, Moale, Sele. MELBOURNE: Meaney, Warbrick, Smith, Olam, Coates; Munster, Pezet; Kamikamica, Grant, Welch (C), Loiero, Katoa, King. Int: Garlick, MacDonald, Eisenhuth, Anderson.

Melbourne's stingy defence was at it's usual best as they beat Souths, who were sloppy far too often with ball in hand.

Souths had the lions share of prime field position and so often they had a larger volume of possession inside their oppositions 30 metres, yet could only muster 2 tries for the game. The Storm opened the scoring in the seventh minute when Jonah Pezet put up a kick before the two Souths backs collided mid-air, one of which was due to a collision with Cameron Munster. Josh King swooped in, cleaned up the loose ball and dived over to score. Nick Meaney converted from out wide. The Rabbitohs immediately hit back when Cameron Murray got the ball at the line, got his way through the line and then offloaded to an unmarked Cody Walker who hit the pass at speed and raced away to score a good try. Latrell Mitchell converted. Harry Grant had a possible try denied by the bunker in the 16th minute, but five minutes later, the Storm would not be denied when William Warbrick got one-on-one with Alex Johnson and just ploughed through him to score in the right corner. Meaney added the extras from the sideline. At halftime, the Storm lead 12-6.

Melbourne started the second half looking dead keen to score plenty of points, with Munster spearheading the attack. In the 44th minute, Xavier Coates was put into space down the left side, he got into the clear, and as he approached Mitchell, he kicked low infield where Munster got a perfect bounce, which he gathered and then raced away to score a great try. Meaney again added the extras. Reimis Smith went close to scoring in the 57th minute, but it was Souths who got on the board next when Mitchell help up a beautiful pass for Campbell Graham and the Bunnies centre barged over between two edge defenders. Mitchell failed to convert from the sideline. The Bunker was then put to good use as it reviewed 3 possible tries to Souths and 1 to the Storm, all of which were rightly denied. Souths had a mountain of possession and play was largely confined to Melbourne's half, but Souths last tackle options all game were sloppy, poorly executed or just very slow and easily shut down. Melbourne's defence was unrelenting and kept Souths from scoring again and when the siren sounded, the Storm had won 18-10. ANDREW FERGUSON

MANLY 32 NEWCASTLE 32

MATCH FACTS: MANLY 32 (R. Garrick, H. Olakau'atu, B. Parker, K. Tuilagi, C. Tuipulotu, K. Weekes tries; R. Garrick 4 goals) DREW WITH NEWCASTLE 32 (D. Young 4, J. Johns, G. Marzhev tries; J. Hastings 2, L. Miller 2 goals) AT GLEN WILLOW OVAL. Date: Sat, 1st April. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Newcastle 22-16. Penalties: Newcastle 7-5. Referee: Chris Butler. Crowd: 9,024. TEAMS: MANLY: Trbojevic, Tuipulotu, Parker, Harper, Garrick; Johns, Cherry-Evans (C); Paseka, Croker, Trbojevic, Olakau'atu, Tuilagi, Aloiai. Int: Weekes, Trbojevic, Bullemor, Keppie. NEWCASTLE: Miller, Young, Gagai, Best, Marzhev; Gamble, Hastings; Saifiti, Brailey (C), Thompson, Frizell, Fitzgibbon, Johns. Int: Crossland, Hetherington, Croker, Jones.

Manly and Newcastle have played out a tantalising 32-all draw in Mudgee this afternoon, after an absorbing Golden Point period produced no points.

Signs were ominous early in Mudgee, with the Sea Eagles shooting out to a 10-0 lead in as many minutes, Haumole Olakau'atu and Christian Tuipulotu catching the Newcastle defence short. The Knights eventually had some attacking footy and put it to good use, with Leo Thompson coming within touching distance of a try, which was then referred to the Bunker and saw Olakau'atu sin-binned for a professional foul, the opening tryscorer of the game having held Thompson back in the chase for the ball. With a one-man advantage, Newcastle turned on the flair with tries to Greg Marzhev and Jack Johns levelling things up at 10-all after 20 minutes. It looked like things had turned sour again for Newcastle not long after when Lachlan Fitzgibbon was given a 10-minute spell for high contact, but his teammates were having none of it, Dom Young scoring to put the visitors into the lead for the first time in the contest. The sides traded tries over the following ten minutes - Brad Parker taking advantage of space on the left to level things for Manly, then Young bagged his second of the afternoon at the 33-minute mark to reclaim the lead for the Knights

After points came at a breakneck speed in the first half, it was much slower going in the second half. Young picked up his hat-trick try, pushing the visiting side out to a 12-point lead approaching the hour mark. Manly weren't done though - three tries in the space of ten minutes saw them go from 12 points behind to four points ahead. Kelma Tuilagi taking advantage of some poor Newcastle right-side defence for the first of them, before Kaeo Weekes ducked through a gap in the middle to level things - then with ten to go, Reuben Garrick went over in the corner for a 32-28 lead. Manly looked confident to hold that lead until Weekes conceded a penalty and from that set, just 2 minutes from the end of regulation time, Dom Young picked up his fourth try of the afternoon. With scores locked at 32-all after 80 minutes, golden point was next. For Manly it would be the second time in as many weeks, while Newcastle's long record in golden point games stood against them. The first five minutes saw - incredibly - no field goal attempts. Both teams opted for high kicks or, in the case of the final moment before changing ends, running it. Attempts came thick and fast in the following five minutes but neither side could pierce the posts or the line, sharing the spoils 32-all. TIM COSTELLO

SATURDAY 1 APRIL, 5:30pm ST GEO ILLA 38 DOLPHINS 12

MATCH FACTS: ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA 38 (M. Ravalawa 2, B. Hunt, B. Lawrie, J. Liddle, Z. Lomax, T. Sloan tries; Z. Lomax 5 goals) DEFEATED DOLPHINS 12 (J. Isaako, H. Tabuai-Fidow tries; J. Isaako 2 goals) AT WIN STADIUM.

Date: Sat, 1st April. Kickoff: 5:30 PM. Halftime: St George Illawarra 12-8. Penalties: Dolphins 9-7. Referee: Gerard Sutton. Crowd: 16,472. TEAMS: ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA: Sloan, Feagai, Suli, Lomax, Ravalawa; Amone, Hunt (C); Molo, Liddle, Lawrie, Murdoch-Masila, Su'A, Bird. Int: Mbye, Couchman, Kerr, De Belin. DOLPHINS: Tabuai-Fidow, Isaako, Aitken, Lee, Bostock; Katoa, Milford; Bromwich (C), Marshall-King, Ese'ese, Bromwich, Lemuelu, Gilbert. Int: Wallace, Nicholls, Stone, Teague.

The second half yips are gone for the St George Illawarra Dragons for at least this week, as they ran out 38-12 winners over an injury-hit Dolphins side in Wollongong.

An early penalty goal was what the Dolphins were hoping would add to the scores but from long distance, Jamayne Isaako had it waved away but it wasn't long before the Dolphins winger was on the board when he had no space to work with when he went for the line trying to get it down in the corner. The Dragons hit back soon after when repeated sets began to mount and Jacob Liddle took advantage out of dummy half to get over from close range. The Red 'V' soon took the lead when big man Blake Lawrie had too much strength going to the line to beat the Dolphins defence to score. A strange decision to go for penalty goal just before half time for the visitors closed the scoreline to 12-8.

It was one-way traffic for the second half with the Red 'V' doing something that their opposition couldn't, take advantage of the howling southerly in the Gong. The Dragons opened the scoring not long after the resumption of play when a bouncing ball proved all sorts of issues for Hamiso Taubai-Fidow at the back and Zac Lomax got to it first to score. The defence from the Dolphins was struggling and Ben Hunt strolled through a wide gap in the defence after the visitors were in two minds about what the Dragons were looking to do in attack and Hunt went straight through. Ben Hunt magic put Mikeale Ravalawa over for his first with a long pass out to the right before his second came through some silky hands with Ben Hunt and Jack Bird combining. The Dragons lead 32-6 at this stage. Despite having a player sin binned in between the two Ravalawa tries, the Dolphins turned on the style and flair when Jamayne Isaako was able to get on the outside of the Dragons defence and put on the afterburners before finding the Hammer who had too much speed to get himself over in the corner. The Dragons finished the scoring with under 5 minutes to go when Tyrell Sloan was in open space after an offload and despite some tough and desperate defence Sloan was able to plant the ball down. JOSH ROBERTSON

SATURDAY 1 APRIL, 7:35pm BRISBANE 46 WESTS TIGERS 12

MATCH FACTS: BRISBANE 46 (J. Riki 2, K. Staggs 2, K. Capewell, S. Cobbo, H. Farnworth, P. Haas tries; A. Reynolds 7 goals)

DEFEATED WESTS TIGERS 12 (I. Papali'i, J. Simpkin tries; A. Doueihi 2 goals) AT SUNCORP STADIUM. Date: Sat, 1st April. Kickoff: 6:35 PM. Halftime: Brisbane 28-0. Penalties: Brisbane 8-2. Referee: Chris Sutton. Crowd: 27,533. TEAMS: BRISBANE: Walsh, Arthars, Staggs, Farnworth, Cobbo; Mam, Reynolds (C); Flegler, Walters, Haas, Capewell, Riki, Carrigan. Int: Paix, Palasia, Jensen, Taupau. WESTS TIGERS: Doueihi, Staines, To'a, Kepaoa, Tupou; Wakeham, Brooks; Twal, Korosau (C), Klemmer, Papali'i, Bateman, Pole. Int: Utoikamanu, Simpkin, Matamua, Blore.

Brisbane have very nearly racked up 50 against a Wests Tigers side that looks to be getting further away from improving every week.

The Broncos were impressive in their unrelenting attack all game, and even though they racked up 46 points, they let several opportunities go begging through either poor handling or pushed passes, meaning they've still got room for improvement, which is scary for the other 16 NRL sides. In the ninth minute the scoring began when the Broncos, despite some rushed and slightly panicky passing to flat footed players, eventually got the ball out to Jordan Riki, who stepped inside a defender and then raced 15 metres to score a soft try. Adam Reynolds failed to convert the try. After going close twice, the Broncos finally added another try in the 16th minute when Ezra Mam grubbered on the left side for Kurt Capewell, who chased it down, regathered and scored. Reynolds converted the try. Arthars almost scored himself 2 minutes later, but it was Payne Haas who got the next try, when he scooped up the ball from dummy half and barged over to score a strong try. Reynolds converted again. In the 30th minute, The Tigers were on the attack when a stray pass went behind their backs. Selwyn Cobbo pounced and picked up the ball before racing 87 metres to score. Reynolds converted to make it 22-0. Four minutes later the Broncos scored yet again when Reece Walsh ran to the line then grubbered through for Riki to plant the rolling ball for his second try. Reynolds converted and at halftime lead by a commanding 28 points.

The Tigers finally got on the board 3 minutes into the second half when a Brandon Wakeham kick was taken nicely by Isaiah Papali'i, who then fell over the line to score. Adam Doueihi converted. Any chance of a second half comeback though was quickly snuffed out when Herbie Farnworth strolled through two stationary Tigers defenders on the left side to score a soft try. Reynolds conversion gave the Broncos a 34-6 lead. Reynolds very nearly created a try for Kotoni Staggs on the right side with a grubber behind the line, but the centre couldn't control the ball and knocked it on. It would only take another minute before Staggs would get himself on the board when the Broncos shifted right, created an easy overlap and Staggs strolled in to score. Reynolds added the conversion to bring up 40 for the Broncos. Play from both sides started to lack discipline, with both sides pushing passes, losing the ball and giving away set restarts. In the 64th minute, Jake Simpkin dived over from dummy half to score. Doueihi converted. A penalty near full time for the Broncos near the Tigers line, allowed Reynolds to put in a grubber which Staggs regathered and scored. Reynolds converted just on fulltime to give the Broncos a commanding 46-12 victory. ANDREW FERGUSON

SUNDAY 2 APRIL, 4:05pm WARRIORS 32 CRONULLA 30

MATCH FACTS: WARRIORS 32 (J. Curran, W. Egan, S. Johnson, E. Kosi, M. Niukore tries; S. Johnson 6 goals) DEFEATED CRONULLA 30 (R. Mulitalo 2, S. Katoa, W. Kennedy, T. Wilton tries; N. Crowd: 10,878. TEAMS: CRONULLA: Kennedy, Katoa, Ramien, Talakai, Mulitalo; Moylan, Hynes; Rudolf, Brailley, Hamlin-Uele, Nikora, Wilton, Finucane (C). Int: McInnes, Hunt, Williams, Trindall. WARRIORS: Nicoll-Klokstad, Kosi, Vailea, Pompey, Montoya; Volkman, Johnson; Fonua-Blake, Egan (C), Afoa, Ford, Niukore, Tevaga. Shaun Johnson has inspired the New Zealand Warriors to one of the club's greatest ever victories after rallying from a 20-point deficit to defeat the Cronulla Sharks 32-30 on Sunday afternoon.

In a match high on entertainment, but unlikely to be remembered fondly by defensive purists, Johnson nailed a late penalty goal to put the Warriors ahead for the first time before the side survived a final scare with Nicho Hynes missing a long-range penalty goal which would have sent the match into golden point. The win was the first time the Warriors prevailed at Cronulla since 2015 and only the sixth victory in 20 visits overall. Wasting little time in capitalising on a Warriors error on just the second tackle of the match, Cronulla second-rower Teig Wilton (1st minute) found himself in the right place to open the scoring in his 50th game for the club. Going further in front in the following set following a break by Briton Nikora resulting in a six-again call, a superbly-executed left-side shift allowed Ronaldo Mulitalo (5th minute) to take the score out to 12-0. Making the most of an opportunity after Edward Kosi failed to latch onto an intercept, the Sharks produced a mirror image of their second try with Sione Katoa (14th minute) touching down in the right corner. Facing a 20-0 deficit after Nicho Hynes added a penalty goal midway through the half, the Warriors stemmed the one-way flow of points with stand-in captain Wayde Egan (21st minute) pouncing on a bouncing ball to score his fourth try in as many games this season. Will Kennedy (27th minute) claimed his sixth try in five matches with a show-and-go close to the line, while former Cronulla playmaker Johnson kept the visitors in the contest with a well-placed pass to allow Marata Niukore (29th minute) to barge over for his first try in Warriors colours.

Forced to play the first ten minutes of the second half with 12 players after Niukore was sent to the sin bin for a hip drop tackle on halftime, Johnson (45th minute) was rewarded for effort on effort after forcing an error out of Mulitalo with a towering bomb and leading the chase to score. Gaining the ascendancy with Johnson and Ronald Volkman producing multiple repeat sets, Kosi (52nd minute) touched down to narrow the margin to two points. Having conceded three tries either side of half time, the Sharks regained a six-point advantage after Mulitalo (55th minute) claimed his second after Hynes forced a repeat set through his kicking game. Setting up a grandstand finish with Josh Curran (67th minute) crashing over after getting his first involvement during the final quarter, a successful conversion from Johnson levelled the scores at 30-all. In an enthralling final ten minutes that saw Dale Finucane sent to the sin bin for a hip drop tackle, the Sharks opted to frantically run the ball on the final tackle which resulted in Curran being tackled off the ball. Johnson stepped up to nail the penalty goal but almost went from hero to villain after conceding an offside penalty from the ensuring short kick-off. Hynes ultimately was off target with his penalty attempt, leaving the bulk of the rain-soaked 10,878 fans to lament what could have been as the Warriors secured a 32-30 great escape. ROB CROSBY

CANTERBURY 15 NORTH QLD 14

MATCH FACTS: CANTERBURY 15 (J. Preston 2, J. Addo-Carr tries; M. Burton goal; M. Burton field goal) DEFEATED NORTH QLD 14 (T. Chester, T. Dearden tries; V. Holmes 3 goals) AT ACCOR STADIUM. Date: Sun, 2nd April. Kickoff: 6:15 PM. Halftime: North QLD 8-6. Penalties: North QLD 8-6. Referee: Liam Kennedy. Crowd: 9,626. TEAMS: CANTERBURY: Perham, Kiraz, Averillo, Alamoti, Addo-Carr; Burton (C), Flanagan; King, Mahoney, Sutton, Faitala-Mariner, Preston, Waddell. Int: Reynolds, Pele, Okunbor, Morrin. NORTH QLD: Chester, Feldt, Holmes, Hiku, Elliot; Dearden, Townsend (C); McLean, Robson, Dunn, Hess, Luki, Taumalalo. Int: Neame, Granville, Taunoa-Brown, Price.

The Canterbury-Bankstown Bulldogs have come from the clouds to force golden point and 15-14 win against the North Queensland Cowboys, a Burton field goal in golden point all that stood between the two sides in 84 minutes of play.

The Bulldogs performance was made more impressive by the fact that injuries reared the ugly head during the game, starting in the third minute when Raymond Faitala-Mariner succumbed to an HIA which would rule him out for the remainder. The Cowboys would get on the board early, with Peta Hiku making a break to give the side momentum before Tom Dearden kicked into a backfield with no fullback, regathering the ball and touching down for the opening try. Things got worse for the Dogs when in the 15th minute Jayden Okunbor was sent to the sin bin for a hip drop tackle on Jason Taumalalo. The Cowboys opted to take the two points on offer, extending their lead to 8-points. Despite the one man disadvantage, the Bulldogs were able to hit right back in the 20th minute. Matt Burton put in a beautiful grubber on the 5th tackle close to the line that rookie back-rower Jacob Preston won the race to. They would go the entire 10 minute period without conceding a try in an early moral victory. Unfortunately for Canterbury, the rollercoaster continued when a stray finger from Jacob Preston connected with Max King's eye, forcing the front rower off the field and Preston to get his finger taped in a double blow. Right on half time, Holmes attempted a two point field goal, but was well short, sending the sides to the sheds with the Cowboys leading 8-6.

The Bulldogs defence was on show in the early stages of the second half, turning the Cowboys away despite being faced with consecutive set restarts. The game was well and truly in the balance when Hayze Perham knocked on in the 59th minute, allowing the Cowboys another prime attacking opportunity. They didn't waste it, with Dearden putting Heilum Luki through a gap and the back-rower then offloading for Tom Chester to score his 2nd career try. The conversion made it an 8-point game once again and the Dogs had a huge mountain to climb. They made progress toward doing so in the 68th minute, with Reed Mahoney throwing a great pass from dummy half to put Jacob Preston over for his second try of the night. Burton's conversion was missed, meaning the Bulldogs needed one more try to win the game. The Cowboys tried to extend the lead to 6 with a penalty goal two minutes later, but a rare miss from Valentine Holmes kept the score at 14-10. Burton's short side chip'n'chase on the Dogs next possession earned them a repeat set, but a pedestrian kick from Flanagan handed possession right back to the Cowboys. With three minutes to play, the Cowboys knocked on 5 metres out from their own line, giving the Bulldogs a prime opportunity to set up a grandstand finish. They would do exactly that; they shifted the ball to the left with 30 seconds to go and found an overlap courtesy of some quick hands from Paul Alamoti to Josh Addo-Carr, the latter grounding the ball in the corner to give Burton a shot to win it from the sideline after the siren. Burton's kick wasn't convincing off the boot but looked to be coming back just enough before it made contact with the left hand upright, rebounding back towards the sideline and sending the game into golden point.

Neither team managed to get themselves into good enough position to kick a field goal throughout the first 4 minute of golden point, and it looked as though another tie might be on the cards when Burton and Addo-Carr produced some magic. Burton kicked early in the tackle count from his own 30 for Addo-Carr, who took possession of the ball and chipped over the Cowboys fullback's head. He looked to be in for all money, but the ball bounced right back over his head and was dived on by Jacob Preston 25 metres out from the line and an inch away from the sideline. The clock was winding down and Burton was in position for the field goal, which he nailed from 30 metres out while on an angle, more than making up for his earlier missed conversion. ADAM HUXTABLE

ROUND 7 WRAP

Match wraps by AJ LUCANTONIO. Times are BST.

WIGAN 34 (J. Field 2, A. Miski 2, B. French, T. King, J. Wardle tries; H. Smith 3 goals) DEFEATED LEIGH 6 (T. Briscoe try; B. Reynolds goal) AT LEIGH SPORTS VILLAGE STADIUM. Date: Thu, 30th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Wigan 10-6. Penalties: Leigh 5-4. Referee: Liam Moore. Crowd: 9,189. LEIGH: O'Brien, Charnley, Leutele, Hardaker, Briscoe; Reynolds, Lam; Amoné, Ipape, Mulhern, O'Donnell, Holmes, Asiata. Int: Nakubwai, Seumanufagai, Davis, Chamberlain. WIGAN: French, King, Pearce-Paul, Wardle, Miski; Field, Smith; Cooper, Powell, Byrne, Isa, Farrell, Smithies. Int: Ellis, Havard, O'Neill, Shorrocks.

The Wigan Warriors have won their third straight match downing the Leigh Leopards 34-6 in a convincing display to kick off Round 7.

It was Leigh who kicked off the scoring in the seventh minute of play. Tom Briscoe was able to finish off a nice movement down the left-hand side to set the home side up with a 6-0 lead. However, it was all one way traffic for the rest of this encounter. It appeared the Warriors were up against it when Jacob Wardle was sin binned, but six minutes later, Bevan French finished off a set play to slice through the defence. Eight minutes later, Jai Field showcased his strength to finish off a movement and Wigan led 10-6 at half-time.

Five minutes after the resumption, Wardle atoned for his earlier sins when he finished off a Bevan French break following a kick which was charged down. Nine minutes later, Abbas Miski crossed for the first of his two tries when he had enough pace to beat the cover to stroll over in the left corner. Field would add a second try just before the hour mark when he sliced through some would be tacklers to effectively seal the match. Two more Wigan tries through Toby King and Miski concluded a thorough hiding in the derby match.

HULL KR 20 (K. Linnett, L. Senior, S. Sue tries; L. Cooté 4 goals) DEFEATED LEEDS 12 (J. McDonnell, L. Roberts tries; R. Martin 2 goals) AT SEWELL GROUP CRAVEN PARK. Date: Fri, 31st March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Hull KR 14-0. Penalties: Hull KR 6-5. Referee: Marcus Griffiths. HULL KR: Cooté, Senior, Wood, Batchelor, Hall; Lewis, Abdull; Kennedy, Parcell, King, Halton, Linnett, Minchella. Int: Sue, Litten, Hadley, Luckley. LEEDS: Hooley, Fusitu'a, Newman, Martin, Olpherts; Austin, Sezer; Holroyd, O'Connor, Tetevano, McDonnell, Bentley, Smith. Int: Roberts, Lisone, Sangaré, Oledzki.

Hull Kingston Rovers have secured a 20-12 triumph over Leeds Rhinos in their Round 7 clash at Craven Park.

Ireland international Louis Senior crossed for the first try just shy of the 25 minute mark after a bomb from Jordan Abdull was allowed to bounce and Senior gathered to touch down to cross with Lachlan Cooté's conversion stretching the advantage to 8-0. Rovers continued to add to their advantage when another Abdull grubber caused confusion at the back for the Rhinos. From there, Sauaso Sue was jolly on the spot to collect their second try and what would be a sizable 14-0 advantage at half-time.

Leeds' start to the second half was an absolute fizzer with the kickoff bouncing over the sideline which allowed Rovers to place further pressure. Kane Linnett crossed off the ensuing set and Leeds were up against it. The Rhinos did bounce back off a kick of their own when Luis Roberts dotted down a grubber kick into the corner, Martin's touchline conversion reducing the gap to 12 points. Cooté knocked over another penalty to extend the gap back to 14. James McDonnell claimed the Rhinos' second try with Martin's kick making it 20-12 with six minutes remaining, but that was as close as the visitors got.

ST HELENS 38 (K. Hurrell 2, L. Dodd, W. Hopoate, J. Lomax, T. Makinson, M. Percival tries; M. Percival 5 goals) DEFEATED WAKEFIELD 0 AT TOTALLY WICKED STADIUM. Date: Fri, 31st March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: St Helens 12-0. Penalties: St Helens 4-3. Referee: Chris Kendall. Crowd: 10,304. ST HELENS: Welsby, Makinson, Hurrell, Percival, Hopoate; Lomax, Dodd; Walmsley, Roby, Lees, Sironen, Bell, Knowles. Int: Lussick, McCarthy-Scarsbrook, Royle, Delaney. WAKEFIELD: Dagger, Kershaw, Lyne, Langi, Senior; Smith, Lino; Whitbread, Kay, Batty, Pitts, Ashurst, Crowther. Int: Eseh, Butler, Bowes, Forber.

St Helens have continued their revival with a third straight victory downing Wakefield by 38-0 at home.

It was a true David v Goliath battle and with St Helens' inconsistent start to the season it was anyone's guess how this match was going to go. St Helens crossed inside the first ten minutes when Mark Percival crossed in the seventh minute of play but from there a stale mate reigned until the final ten minutes of the first half. Two quick tries in the space of four minutes to Will Hopoate and Tom Makinson gave the Saints a 12-0 lead with goalkicking proving to be the headache for the three time premiers.

Four second half tries to the Saints sealed Wakefield's fate with Lewis Dodd crossing first just shy of the hour mark. Konrad Hurrell added a second half double and Johnny Lomax crossed to give the Saints a 38-0 shallocking to keep their hopes of a rare four-peat alive. For Wakefield, this season is looking more and more ugly through every passing game. It's an up hill battle to stay up in Super League for the Wildcats.

WARRINGTON 34 (M. Ashton, B. Currie, J. Drinkwater, M. Dufty, P. Mata'utia, M. Nicholson tries; S. Ratchford 5 goals) DEFEATED HULL FC 6 (B. Dwyer try; J. Clifford goal) AT HALLIWELL JONES STADIUM. Date: Sat, 1st April. Kickoff: 1:00 PM. Halftime: Warrington 28-0. Penalties: Warrington 3-2. Referee: Aaron Moore. Crowd: 10,797. WARRINGTON: Dufty, Russell, Minikin, Ratchford, Ashton; Williams, Drinkwater; Mikaele, Walker, Vaughan, Nicholson, Currie, Mata'utia. Int: Philbin, Dudson, Thewlis, Thomas. HULL FC: Hoy, Litten, Tuimavave, Sutcliffe, Swift; Lovodua, Clifford; Taylor, Houghton, Satae, Savelio, Griffin, Fash. Int: Lane, Cator, Evans, Dwyer.

The Warrington Wolves have continued their undefeated start to the 2023 with a resounding 34-6 victory over Hull FC at home today.

It was a fast and furious start from the home side crossing the stripe three times in the first quarter of the match. The scoring began in the sixth minute of play when Matty Ashton crossed following a George Williams kick. Five minutes later, Peter Mata'utia crashed over from short range. In the twentieth minute of action, another Williams kick provided a try for Ben Currie. Two more tries were to follow in the first half when Matt Dufty backed up in support to finish off a Williams break from a loose Hull pass. Warrington claimed their fifth try of the half in the final minute when Drinkwater stroled through some poor defence and the Wolves were in total control at 28-0 at half-time.

Hull showed some resistance in the second half only conceding the one and countering it with a try of their own. They crossed just after the hour mark when Brad Dwyer dove across from short range with Jake Clifford bringing them within four converted tries. But, they were unable to come close and a late Matt Nicholson try sealed the deal for Wolves.

CATALANS 22 (T. Johnstone, M. McMeeken, A. Mourgue, P. Séguier tries; A. Keighran 2, A. Mourgue goals) DEFEATED CASTLEFORD 18 (J. Broadbent 2, J. Turner tries; P. McShane 3 goals) AT STADE GILBERT BRUTUS. Date: Sat, 1st April. Kickoff: 5:00 PM. Halftime: Catalans 12-6. Penalties: Catalans 9-2. Referee: Jack Smith. Crowd: 8,109. CATALANS: Mourgue, Davies, Keighran, Laguerre, Johnstone; Rougé, Pearce; McMeeken, Da Costa, Bousquet, Whitley, Séguier, Garcia. Int: Navarrete, Chan, Dezaria, Tomkins. CASTLEFORD: Eden, Faraimo, Sutcliffe, Turner, Fonua; Broadbent, Miller; Massey, McShane, Matagi, Griffin, Mellor, Westerman. Int: Lawler, Edwards, Vete, Smith.

The Catalans Dragons have come from behind in the final minutes of play to snatch victory over the Castleford Tigers.

The Dragons crossed for the first try after just six minutes of play. Paul Segquier crossed following a grubber from Tom Davies which was batted back in by the winger and dived on by the Frenchman to score the game's first try. Four minutes later, the Tigers responded. Jack Broadbent scooped up an errant offload from Nathan Massey and ran the best part of 20 metres to cross for the game tying try. Adam Keighran added a penalty goal nine minutes later to give the home side an 8-6 lead. This was added to five minutes later. Tom Johnstone finished off some great individual work from Tyrone May to cross outwide and give the hosts a slender 6 point advantage at the change of ends.

Arthur Mourgue crossed a minute after the resumption when he made the Castleford defence look as foolish as their Australian counterparts to give the French side some breathing room to kickstart the second forty. Castleford would respond just before the hour mark. Jordan Turner crossed following some desperate second phase play and some poor defence to reduce the gap to just four points. With just under 10 to go, Broadbent split the Dragons defence wide open and ran 80 metres to score the lead changing try and it appeared Castleford were home. However, a late try from Mike McMeeken was enough to give Catalans a desperate victory and keep in touch with the undefeated Warrington.

HUDDERSFIELD 26 (O. Trout 2, A. Golding, C. McQueen tries; O. Russell 5 goals) DEFEATED SALFORD 16 (M. Costello, K. Watkins, S. Wright tries; M. Sneyd 2 goals) AT SALFORD STADIUM. Date: Sun, 2nd April. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Huddersfield 14-6. Penalties: Huddersfield 10-6. Referee: Ben Thaler. Crowd: 4,764. SALFORD: Brierley, Sio, Cross, Costello, Burgess; Croft, Sneyd; Dupree, Atkin, Ormondroyd, Watkins, Stone, Addy. Int: Vuniyayawa, Hellewell, Wright, Dixon. HUDDERSFIELD: Pryce, Golding, Marsters, Naiqama, Halsall; Connor, Russell; Hill, Peats, English, Rushton, McQueen, Yates. Int: Lolohea, Ikahihifo, Trout, Ashworth.

The Huddersfield Giants have ended a two game losing streak with a 26-16 away victory over the Salford Red Devils at Salford Stadium.

The Giants opened the scoring in the twelfth minute of the game when Jamaican international Ashton Golding picked up a loose pass from Marc Sneyd and raced away to score. Olly Russell added a penalty goal in the twenty-fifth minute when Salford were pinned for being inside the 10 and it was soon 8-0. Salford got themselves back into the match and crossed for a vital try before half-time. Shane Wright crashed over from short range and Sneyd added the extras and it was two points that separated the two sides, albeit for a brief period of the game. Owen Trout crossed for the visitors three minutes out from half-time after backing up a break from Kevin Naiqama and it was 14-6 at the main change.

Salford struck first after the break when Matt Costello finished off a backline movement with an acrobatic finish. Sneyd was unsuccessful and the gap remained four points. Eight minutes later, more poor Salford discipline led Russell to add a penalty goal and extend the gap to a converted try. Victory was assured 14 minutes from time when Trout crossed for his second try following a great short ball from Matty English. Chris McQueen put the game beyond doubt following great lead-up work from Naiqama. Salford managed a late consolation try through Kallum Watkins but it was all in vein for the hosts who slump to their second straight defeat and 3-4 on the season. Huddersfield are now 3-3 with a match in hand.
