MATCH PREVIEW

Beth NICHOLLS

Manly and South Sydney have the honours of opening the 2024 season in style, being the first game played on American soil in the Las Vegas double header. Both the Sea Eagles and Rabbitohs missed the finals series during 2023 and will be looking to start their season on a high note.

Having a plentiful off-season full of recruitment and signings, the Sea Eagles will be wanting to replicate the successful start of their 2023 season, where they won their first opening match since 2012.

Giving Manly a much-needed burst of energy coming into the Vegas clash, Tom Trbojevic plays his first game since injuring his PEC during Origin II last year. Former Tiger, Luke Brooks, joins veteran Daly Cherry-Evans in a new halves pairing, whilst Nathan Brown earns a bench spot after coming to the Sea Eagles on a train and trial deal. Reuben Garrick shifts to the centre to allow for new signing, Jaxson Paulo, to slot into the left wing position.

Much like Manly, South Sydney are also hoping to start the 2024 season with a win, after crashing out of the eight, winning only four out of their final twelve games last year. They will be determined to silence any sceptics, proving that they are worthy premiership contenders.

After suffering a calf injury that kept him out of the All-Stars match, Cody Walker will call the shots, partnering with Lachlan Ilias in the halves. Jacob Gagai will make his NRL debut from the wing, with Richie Kennar and Isaiah Tass making up the centres combination, due to Jack Wighton being suspended and Campbell Graham out with an injury. After a strong performance in the trials match, ex Sea Eagle Sean Keppie will join Tevita Tatola in the front row.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Latrell MITCHELL has scored 98 tries in his NRL career - two away from 100 tries.
- Reuben GARRICK has kicked 347 Goals in his NRL career - three away from 350 goals.
- Jason SAAB has scored 47 tries for Manly - three away from 50 club tries
- This will be the 150th game between these sides.
- Souths have won the last 7 straight, scoring 226 points to Manly's 124 (an average score of 32-17)
- They've met just six times outside of Sydney, five of those on the Central Coast and once in Brisbane. Manly has won just two of those games.

RUGBY LEAGUE

This match marks the 150th clash between Manly and South Sydney at premiership level, and they are almost even at number of wins, Manly totalling 77 to South Sydney's 72. However, history is on the Rabbitohs side within recent times, with them winning their past seven matches against the Sea Eagles.

This match marks the first NRL premiership game to be played outside of Australia and New Zealand in its 117 history. I'm excited to see what the Rabbitohs and Sea Eagles bring to the table in this grand opening match, which has been filled with an anticipatory and exciting leadup.

WHO TO WATCH: Latrell Mitchell is one of the many experienced players in the Rabbitohs side, and when he has a good game, he is nothing short of a masterpiece to watch. After having an up and down 2023, I'm interested to see what kind of season Mitchell has this year, especially after just having the honours of captaining the Indigenous All Stars squad. Mitchell is also only two tries away from reaching a total of 100, scoring 65 tries for his former club the Roosters, and crossing over the line 33 times for the Bunnies.

Having spent a decade at the Tigers, it's time to see Luke Brooks play a premiership match with the Manly side, after impressing in the trial match against the Bunnies. I'm looking forward to his partnership with DCE in the halves, and how he goes with his fresh start after playing eleven seasons with the Tigers and not once having the chance to play finals footy.

FAVOURITE: The Rabbitohs are slightly favoured to claim victory and add two points to start their tally in this 2024 season opener.

MY TIP: First round matches are always hard to pick, with a new roster and new team dynamics you can never quite know what is coming. I think this game could go either way, but I think the Rabbitohs will just manage to get themselves over the line. South Sydney by 8.

MATCH PREVIEW

Aidan EDGECOMB

Premiership contenders look to kick off their season with style in Vegas.

We all know the script. The Broncos coming an agonising 2023 Grand Final loss, playing The Roosters - always a top four side on "paper" who'll be wanting to transfer this potential into points.

The Broncos and The Roosters each face similarly a tough draw to start the season, both playing Penrith and South Sydney inside the first four rounds. A win to open the year will be crucial to begin the season on strong footing, and neither side will be likely to take a backward step.

For Brisbane, their backline features flyer Selwyn Cobbo moving into the centres, with young talent Deine Mariner snagging his wing spot. Corey Jensen and Brendan Piakura move off the bench to take Tom Flegler and Kurt Capewell's vacated jerseys. They're replaced on the pine by exciting prospect Xavier Wilison and former Roosters prop Fletcher Baker.

With Roosters recruit Dom Young missing out via injury, wingers Joseph Suaalii and Daniel Tupou will get a chance to cement a starting spot. Spencer Leniu starts at prop and fresh off a premiership at Penrith, he'll look to hold his position over the retiring Jared Waerea-Hargreaves, soon returning from suspension. Young talent and favourite of AJ, Naufahu Whyte edges out Egan Butcher and Angus Crichton on the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: The Broncos halves pairing is arguably the strongest in the comp - featuring proven veteran Adam Reynolds and young superstar Ezra Mam. Both players have recently re-signed with, Ezra locked in until 2029 and Reyno staying a Bronco until his retirement in 2025. The dynamic duo will look

THINGS TO KNOW

- Adam Reynolds has 49 tries in his NRL career - needs one more for 50 NRL tries
- Selwyn COBBO has played 49 NRL games - his next game is his 50th NRL game
- Angus CRICHTON has played 99 games for the Roosters - his next will be his 100th club game
- Billy WALTERS has played 49 games for the Broncos - his next will be his 50th club game
- The last time the Roosters conceded any points while overseas was in 2017 when they lost 14-13 to the Warriors in Auckland. They played overseas twice since then and won 32-0 (2018) and 14-0 (2023) both v Warriors in Auckland
- The last time Brisbane lost a game overseas was in 2017, when they lost 28-10 to the Warriors in Auckland. Since then they've won 27-18 (2018), 8-2 (2019) and 26-22 (2023) all v Warriors in Auckland

to kick off the season in style and carry their electric combination over to Vegas.

Despite Brisbane's attacking prowess, much of their spark comes off the back of power up the middle. Workhorse prop Payne Haas is crucial to The Broncos' success, and he'll look to stamp his authority on the competition early with a strong outing. The loss of Kurt Capwell also sees Patrick Carrigan step up as vice-captain and leader of the forward pack. All eyes will be on Patty as fans pray he can direct his aggression towards the tricolours, rather than his own halfback...

For The Roosters, two-time premiership winner at the club, Luke Keary will be hoping to return to his best. Despite having a quiet couple of seasons, a contract extension until 2025 may well be the confidence boost he needs to fly out of the blocks fast. He's partnered in the halves by Sam Walker, who's shown glimpses of excellence in his time at the club and will be gunning for a strong outing in Vegas.

Brisbane's main weakness will be their edge defence, featuring Selwyn Cobbo in a new position and Deine Mariner with little NRL experience. The Roosters will certainly try to exploit this and look no further than gun centre Joseph Manu. Though lining up against Staggs, Manu is known to run the ball and will have no qualms attempting to get one on one with Mariner. If The Chooks play their cards right, it could be points aplenty on their right edge.

FAVOURITE: The Brisbane Broncos are the favourite to runaway with the blockbuster clash.

MY TIP: Last time I tipped Brisbane for League Unlimited was in the 2023 Grand Final - and we all know how that worked out... Round one games are always tough to pick, trials are never the best indicator, and 3-4 upsets are to be expected. Still, I think with a point to prove and an incredibly balanced and skillful roster, they'll safely get the win. Broncos by 22.

2024 MEN'S BETFRED SUPER LEAGUE

ROUND 2 WRAP with AJ LUCANTONIO

HULL KR 22 LEEDS RHINOS 12 at Sewell Group Craven Park, Hull

HULL KINGSTON ROVERS (22) Tries: Ryan Hall, Sauaso Sue, Peta Hiku; Goals: Jez Litten 5/5 DEF LEEDS RHINOS (12) Tries: Ash Handley, Harry Newman; Goals: Rhyse Martin 2/2. Date: Thu, 22nd February. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Hull KR 8-6. Penalties: Hull KR 11-3. Referee: Jack Smith.

Hull KR: Hiku, Evalds, Opacic, Gildart, Hall; May, Lewis; Whitbread, Litten, King, Tanginoa, Batchelor, Minchella (C). Int: Sue, Storton, Aydin, Hall. Leads: Miller, Roberts, Newman, Momirovski, Handley, Croft, Frawley, Sangaré, Ackers, Goudemand, Bentley, Martin, Smith (C). Int: Donaldson, O'Connor, Lisone, Ruan.

Hull Kingston Rovers have continued their unbeaten start to 2024 downing the Leeds Rhinos 22-12 at Craven Park. It was a bad start for Leeds with new signing Lachie Miller missing the match, withdrawing with a virus but they quickly recovered when they forced a mistake from Peta Hiku at the back. The subsequent time wasting saw him sent to the sin-bin. Leeds capitalised on the extra man advantage when Harry Newman finished off some lovely second phase play for a 6-0 lead. A scrappy period of the game ensued until the final ten minutes until Rovers started making some inroads. Jez Litten's grubber ricocheted off the upright into the waiting arms of Sauaso Sue to level the scores. Just before the break, James Donaldson made high contact on Oliver Gildart and under the new reforms, he was sent to the bin. Litten added the penalty goal for an 8-6 half-time lead.

Six minutes into the second half, second phase play was again the order of the day, this time Rovers shifted the ball across the left hand side. A lovely tip on from Gildart found Ryan Hall who had enough pace to beat the cover defence to the try-line. The Rhinos needed a spark and an early kick inside their own half in the 57th minute found Ash Handley who sprinted away from the cover defence to reduce the gap to within two points. However, more sloppy tackling cost the Rhinos ten minutes later when Sam Lisone was pinned by Jack Smith for a high tackle. On advice from Ben Thaler in the video referee room, he was also dispatched to the sin-bin. Litten's penalty goal extended the margin out to four points. The game was secured in the dying moments when Tyrone May dabbed it on the toe for Hiku to cross and secure their second win on the year.

WARRINGTON WOLVES 36 HULL FC 10 at Halliwell Jones Stadium, Warrington

WARRINGTON WOLVES (36) Tries: Sam Powell, Toby King, James Harrison, Danny Walker, Matthew Ashton, Connor Wrench; Goals: Josh Thewlis 6/7 DEF HULL FC (10) Tries: Jack Walker, Lewis Martin; Goals: Darnell McIntosh 1/2. Date: Fri, 23rd February. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Warrington 8-6. Penalties: Warrington 11-10. Referee: Marcus Griffiths. Crowd: 9,431.

Warrington: Duffy, Thewlis, King, Wrench, Ashton; Hayes, Drinkwater; Harrison, Walker, Vaughan, Holroyd, Fitzgibbon, Currie. Int: Philbin, Musgrove, Powell, Wood. Hull FC: Walker, Barron, McIntosh, Sutcliffe, Martin; Hoy, Smith; Brown, Brown, Ashworth, Okunbor, Staveley, Lane. Int: Gardiner, Severs, Litten, Balmforth.

The Super League's new high tackle reforms have created controversy with Warrington running way convincing 36-10 winners. The first half was a competitive game and was an arm-wrestle. Warrington crossed for the first try inside the opening five minutes when Danny Walker crossed from dummy half after some poor defence into the middle field. Josh Thewlis added the extras for a 6-0 lead. Lachlan Fitzgibbon was denied moments later when the video ref ruled he knocked the ball on. Midway through the first half, Lewis Martin crossed from a scrum play that was well worked by Tony Smith's men. Darnell McIntosh nailed the kick from the sideline to level the scores at 6-6. The drama began with five minutes to go. Fa'amanu Brown had a head clash with Ben Currie and was controversially sent off under the new reforms. The decision sparked outrage from everyone within the game. Thewlis added the penalty goal to get Wire up by 8-6 at the break.

The drama continued when Matty Ashton was taken high as he was running down the sideline and a penalty was promptly blown. As replays began to be shown at the ground, the referee referred the decision upstairs as a penalty try. Video referee Liam Moore couldn't overturn the live decision and it was 14-6. Hull wouldn't go down without a fight and Jack Walker showed his pace and crossed with half an hour to go to reduce the gap to four points. Five minutes later, Sam Powell charged over for a soft try out of dummy half for the Wire and any hope of an unlikely victory was quickly extinguished. The Wire would continue their scoring rampage with three tries in the final twenty minutes despite losing Powell to a yellow card in that period. Toby King crossed in the 62nd minute after some enterprising second phase play caught out the tiring defence of Hull to cross in the left corner. James Harrison finished off some incredible second phase play showing cohesion and creative play. Connor Wrench showed some great speed down the right edge in the final moments to get the score out to 36-10.

CATALANS DRAGONS (34) Tries: Tariq Sims 2, Théo Fages 2, Julian Bousquet, Jayden Nikorima; Goals: Arthur Mourgue 5/6 DEF LONDON BRONCOS (0) Date: Fri, 23rd February. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Catalans 16-0. Penalties: Catalans 6-5. Referee: Tom Grant. Crowd: 5,102.

London: Leyland, Kershaw, Storey, Miloudi, Macani; Campagnolo, Meadows; Butler, Davis, Kennedy, Lovell (C), Adebij, Parata. Int: Jones, Stock, Williams, Bassett. Catalans: Mourgue, Johnstone, Romano, Ikuvalu, Yaha; Abdull, Fages; Navarrete, Da Costa, Bousquet, Sims, Sironen, Garcia (C). Int: McKeen, Nikorima, Sataa, Dezaria.

The London Broncos have tried valiantly in their home opener, but as will be the case in 2024 the class of the opposition simply was too much for them to overcome. Catalans proved too strong winning convincingly 34-0. It was clear in the early stages that it was going to be a tough slog for the Broncos. Catalans charged ahead inside the first two minutes when Theo Fages showed and goed to cross for the first try of the contest. Eight minutes later, Tariq Sims crashed over from point blank range and it was 10-0 after the opening 15 minutes. Sustained pressure on the London line was defended brilliantly but their fatigue was obvious when they struggled to get out of their own end. Fages again crossed from relatively easy range and with Mourgue's conversion. It was 16-0 at the change of ends.

Eight minutes into the second half, Sims completed his double after getting a lovely pass from Jordan Abdull. Sims ran a great line to cross for the first try of the second half to extend the margin out to 22-0. London's defence showed some resilience, doing a great job to hold Ben Garcia up. Shortly afterwards, Jayden Nikorima crashed over from dummy half to cross and extend the margin to 28. Julien Bousquet wrapped the game up with 10 minutes to go crashing over to make it 34-0. Despite some attacking brilliance late, London couldn't crack the Catalans defence and the passionate home crowd left with a duck egg next to their name in their home opener.

HUDDERSFIELD GIANTS 0 ST HELENS 28 at John Smith's Stadium, Huddersfield

ST HELENS (28) Tries: Sione Mata'utia, Matt Whitley, Morgan Knowles, Jack Welsby, Jon Bennison; Goals: Mark Percival 3/3, Thomas Makinson 1/2 DEF HUDDERSFIELD GIANTS (0) Date: Sat, 24th February. Kickoff: 5:30 PM. Halftime: St Helens 12-0. Penalties: Huddersfield 7-4. Referee: Aaron Moore. Crowd: 6,812.

Huddersfield: Lolohea, Swift, Marsters, Naigama, Wallis; Clune, Russell; Hill, Milner, Ikaohifo, Murchie, Hewitt, Cudjoe. Int: Golding, English, Wilson, Salabio. St Helens: Welsby, Makinson, Blake, Percival, Bennison; Lomax, Dodd; Walmsley, Clark, Lees, Whitley, Sironen, Knowles. Int: Mata'utia, Bell, Wingfield, Delaney.

St Helens have maintained their undefeated start to 2024 after shutting the Huddersfield Giants out by 28-0. Saints started fast and crossed for their first try after just 10 minutes. A clever Johnny Lomax grubber was grounded by Matt Whitley and the Catalans recruit had his third try in just the opening two games. Mark Percival converted for a 6-0 lead. Percival had a chance to extend the lead with a long range penalty 15 minutes later, but was waved away. Huddersfield had some chances to hit back and reduce the deficit. Adam Swift ran down field but was taken by new recruit Waqa Blake in the corner. A few minutes from the break, Saints collected their second when Sione Mata'utia crashed onto James Bell's pass to score. Percival converted for a 12-0 lead at the half.

Saints crossed 11 minutes after the resumption when Jack Welsby grounded Daryl Clark's well waited grubber. Saints went down to 12 men after Clark was sin binned for a professional foul jaggig Esan Marsters off the ball. Huddersfield threatened the line, but would remain scoreless during the sin bin period and the remainder of the match. Despite being down to 12, Saints finished with a flurry of tries. Welsby turned provider when he broke through before finding Jon Bennison. Morgan Knowles finished off the shutout charging over under the sticks in the closing stages.

SALFORD RED DEVILS 26 CASTLEFORD TIGERS 22 at Salford Stadium, Barton-upon-Irwell

SALFORD RED DEVILS (26) Tries: Sam Stone 2, Nene Macdonald, Amir Bourouh; Goals: Marc Sneyd 5/5 DEF CASTLEFORD TIGERS (22) Tries: Joe Westerman, Sam Wood, Jack Broadbent, Liam Horne; Goals: Luke Hooley 2/2, Daniel Richardson 1/2. Date: Sun, 25th February. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Salford 18-10. Penalties: Castleford 9-6. Referee: James Vella. Crowd: 4,770.

Salford: Brierley, Hankinson, Macdonald, Lafai, Cross; Cust, Sneyd; Ormondroyd, Bourouh, Singleton, Stone, Watkins, Shorrocks. Int: Atkin, Vuniyayawa, Wright, Hellewell. Castleford: Hooley, Oareqare, Broadbent, Wood, Senior; Richardson, Miller; Lawler, Horne, Putt, El-Zakhem, Tasipale, Westerman. Int: Milnes, Hall, Mustapha, Kibula.

Salford have held on against a fast finishing Castleford side for a 26-22 victory which sees the Red Devils get off the mark for their first victory of 2024. The Red Devils got the scoring underway inside the opening ten minutes when Marc Sneyd drew in the defence and delivered a wonderful pass to Sam Stone to cross for the opening try. Sneyd converted for a 6-0 lead. Three minutes later, the Red Devils continued their dominance with their second try. Brad Singleton attracted defenders to him, but Cas couldn't wrap the ball up and he found Amir Bourouh to cross for their second and a 12-0 advantage. Castleford wouldn't let the fast start by their opponents get to them. In the 22nd minute, Jacob Miller delivered a wonderfully timed pass to Sam Wood who hit the gap superbly. Danny Richardson converted to cut the gap in half. Ten minutes later, the gap was cut to just two points when a shift down the right found points, Jack Broadbent managed to keep his feet in the field of play and ground the ball. Salford delivered a blow on half time when Sneyd put up a bomb and a flying Nene Macdonald jumped up and over Luke Hooley for an amazing try on the half time break to extend the margin to eight.

Eight minutes after the resumption, Sneyd and Stone combined once more. This time it was Sneyd's boot providing the assist, a instinctive grubber was grounded by Stone for his second try of the contest. With 25 minutes to go, George Lawler found a gap, before offloading the Joe Westerman who finished the job and scored. Sneyd added a penalty goal in the final quarter to give Salford a 10 point cushion, and those points would be critical. In the final moments of the game, Liam Horne was scouring around the ruck and collected another well timed offload to reduce the gap to just four points. However, they couldn't rally another attack and they would narrowly lose the match.

RFL STATEMENT: SUPER LEAGUE ROUND 2

Following Monday's meeting of the Match Review Panel, the RFL acknowledges that the implementation of the new Head Contact Sentencing Framework caused controversy and confusion during Round Two of the Betfred Super League.

This was most obvious in Friday's match at Warrington Wolves, with the dismissal of Hull FC's Nu Brown late in the first half.

On studying the incident, the MRP decided it did not merit a charge under the Framework. This has highlighted a lack of clarity in the procedures regarding head on head contact, which left the officials at Friday's game in an invidious position.

The section of the Framework relating to head-on-head contact will now be amended, emphasising that it applies only to initial contact. Once the mechanics of the tackle become more fluid, officials are able to use their knowledge and game-understanding to mitigate the sanction, to reflect the level of culpability of the tackler.

This point will be reinforced to Betfred Super League head coaches at a pre-arranged meeting on Wednesday, and to playing representatives of all 12 Super League clubs at a separate meeting later in the day.

Robert Hicks, the RFL's Director of Operations and Legal, said: "We are in the very early stages of the season at all levels having introduced significant changes as recommended by the sport's Brain Health Sub-Committee, and in that regard we thank the players and coaches for their response.

"Comparing Round Two of the Betfred Super League to the opening round, there has been a significant reduction in the number of charges, reflecting a significant change in player behaviour - with a tiny proportion of over 3,000 tackle events leading to charges for head contact. It has been a similar story through the early rounds of the Betfred Challenge Cup and the AB Sundecks 1895 Cup.

"However we have acknowledged throughout this process that it would be challenging for all, and that as a governing body we need to be flexible, and sympathetic to those at the sharp end.

"The dismissal of Nu Brown at Warrington on Friday night was an uncomfortable moment for the sport, and it has highlighted a lack of clarity in the wording of the framework as followed by match officials on the night.

"We recognise this will be of little consolation to the player or his club - and we thank them for their measured response.

"Head to head contact was an area highlighted as especially important by the Brain Health Sub-Committee, given the impact on two players, so it will remain a focus of the framework, and will continue to be sanctioned - specific to initial contact.

"The meetings with head coaches and senior players this week are another opportunity to update and consult, given the importance of communication through this process.

"Next weekend is a significant one for the Community Game, marking the start of the National Conference League and a number of other competitions, meaning further adaptation for another group of players, coaches and match officials.

"As at the professional level, these changes have been introduced following recommendations from the Brain Health Sub-Committee given developments in medical and scientific knowledge, and with a focus on player welfare - and again as in the professional game, we are grateful to clubs, coaches, players and match officials for their support.
