NRL ROUND 1 (LAS VEGAS) WRAP

MANLY 36 SOUTH SYDNEY 24

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED AS MANLY PREVAIL IN LAS VEGAS OPENER ROBERT CROSBY

The Manly Sea Eagles have created history in rugby league's inaugural venture to Las Vegas with a 36-24 victory over the South Sydney Rabbitohs at Allegiant Stadium.

Opening the 2024 season in the first match of a double header played in the Nevada desert, the Sea Eagles fought back from an early second half deficit to claim only their second round one victory in 11 years and their first win against the Rabbitohs since 2019. After withstanding a physical barrage during the opening exchanges, the Rabbitohs stuck an early blow with Damien Cook sending Richie Kennar (6th minute) over for first points after a fortuitous kick from Cody Walker gave the 'visitors' strong field position. Responding midway through the opening half after a near miss from Tom Trbojevic, the Sea Eagles capitalised on a scrum play with Haumole Olakau'atu (22nd minute) powering his way over the line. The Rabbitohs took advantage of Luke Brooks dropping the ball over the line with Latrell Mitchell throwing a superb cut-out pass which allowed Jacob Gagai (30th minute) enough space to cross for a four-pointer in his first grade debut. With halftime approaching and Tom Trbojevic denied another try by the bunker, the Sea Eagles struck an unlikely blow with Jason Saab (38th minute) swooping on an intercept from Mitchell to send the maroon and whites to the sheds with a 12-10 advantage.

Making amends immediately following the resumption of play, Mitchell (43rd minute) rose to the occasion with a powerful charge close to the line before delivering the final pass to send Alex Johnston (47th minute) over out wide. Facing the largest deficit of the match, the Sea Eagles responded by making their opponents pay for mistakes with Lachlan Croker (49th minute) and Ben Trbojevic (53rd minute) crossing in quick succession to turn a 12-20 deficit into a 24-20 lead. Continuing the one-way flow of points with Daly Cherry-Evans setting up a try for Reuben Garrick (60th minute), the Rabbitohs began to lose touch with the contest following a slew of errors at both ends of the field. The Sea Eagles completed a remarkable second half turnaround with Brooks (76th minutes) clinching the result with a show-and-go, while a late try to Kennar (78th minute) offered the Rabbitohs mere consolation as the Sea Eagles claimed a 36-24 victory in the season opener.

SYDNEY 20 BRISBANE 10

ROOSTERS SHINE IN VEGAS JOSH ROBERTSON

The Sydney Roosters kicked off their 2024 season in fine fashion, securing a 20-10 victory over a Broncos team that appeared to struggle with the Vegas conditions and the size of the field in front of nearly 41,000 fans at Allegiant Stadium.

The Roosters quickly took control, dominating possession and field position early in the contest. It took just five minutes for the Tricolours to open the scoring when Joey Manu intercepted an Ezra Mam pass and dashed off for the opening try under the posts. Despite dominating possession and field position throughout the first half, the Roosters could only add a penalty goal by Sam Walker at the 15-minute mark, following a ruck interference penalty against Billy Walters. The half-time scoreboard perhaps flattered the Broncos, who, after benefiting from repeated Roosters' ill-discipline, saw Reece Walsh weave some magic to escape the Roosters' defence and kick through for Deine Mariner to score. The conversion attempt from Adam Reynolds went astray. The Roosters looked to have added a field goal on the stroke of half-time but one of the NRL's new rules reared its head when Sam Walker's efforts were rejected by the bunker for interference by the blockers despite most thinking that it was never going to be stopped.

Physicality didn't disappear during the half time break and if anything it increased as the second half went on. The Roosters initially went close to scoring when Daniel Tupou lost the ball over the line but a shoulder charge from Reece Walsh was picked up by the bunker on a Captain's Challenge from the Roosters. The Roosters were able to extend their lead when Joey Manu pulled off some magic that wouldn't be out of place on the Vegas strip when he let out a no look fling of the ball that found Fetalaiga Pauga perfectly on the chest and the young winger scored on the outside. Ill-discipline from the Roosters let the Broncos back into the contest and it was some typical Brisbane magic that saw the big 3 combine to get the ball out to the outside before coming back inside to Walsh who scored and the Broncos were able to close the gap to just four points. Tensions continued to rise as the Broncos grew frustrated, leading to two separate flare-ups when things weren't going their way. The situation escalated when, during a second confrontation, Broncos' five-eighth Ezra Mam accused a Roosters forward of making a racist remark. Despite not hearing the comment himself, referee Adam Gee reported the incident for post-game review and investigation. The Roosters sealed the victory inside the final 10 minutes when James Tedesco put Victor Radley through to score and Sam Walker converted.

The events of the last fifteen minutes were a disappointing end to what was a strong day of football as the Roosters made a strong start to their 2024 campaign, whilst the Broncos will be grateful for the run despite the loss, and look to bounce back when they return to Australia in a fortnight.

SYDNEY 20 (J. Manu, J. Pauga, V. Radley tries; S. Walker 4 goals) DEFEATED BRISBANE 10 (D. Mariner, R. Walsh tries; A. Reynolds goal) at Allegiant Stadium. Date: Sat, 2nd March. Kickoff: 8:30 PM. Halftime: Sydney 8-4.

MATCH PREVIEW

Josh ROBERTSON

The Southern Hemisphere kick-off for the NRL comes to us from Newcastle on Thursday night with a replay of a dramatic Week 1 finals battle as the Knights play host to the Raiders.

The Knights will come into the season with confidence that they can improve on last season's performance, which saw them make the second week of the finals, following up that Elimination Final win over the Raiders with a subsequent heavy loss in Auckland against the Warriors. The Novocastrians had a mixed start to their the 2024 campaign with an impressive trial win against the Sharks in oppressively hot conditions in Gosford, before an somewhat ok performance against Melbourne in an humid Fiji.

Looking ahead for 2024, the Knights will be hoping for a strong start to make teams take note of them, and a clash against a young Raiders side on "opening" night could be a good way to do it. Last year, Newcastle started their season with a loss against the Warriors in Wellington, so the Knights' faithful will be hoping a home start brings better fortunes.

Teamwise there's very little surprise with Phoenix Crossland named in the 9 jersey for the Knights - Jayden Brailey remains out with a hamstring injury. The one surprise is the decision for Adam O'Brien to put 2023 Premiership winning half Jack Cogger on the bench as opposed to starting in the halves, with the faith being kept in Jackson Hastings and Tyson Gamble.

There is a lot of pressure on Raiders coach Ricky Stuart heading into 2024, because both the Raiders fans and club themselves like to talk themselves up - but despite making the top 8 last year, Canberra have really struggled to match their on-field performances to their talk. The start to 2023 was a slow one for the Green Machine as they lost their first two matches and left them slightly on the backfoot - something they'll no doubt be keen to correct this year.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Canberra played at McDonald Jones Stadium before the Newcastle Knights did, when they beat St.George 20-10 there in Round 12, 1985. This was the first Premiership game played at the venue and the first Premiership game played in Newcastle since the original Newcastle side competed in 1909.
- Newcastle have had 16 wins and a draw in their 25 games against the Raiders at McDonald Jones
- 42 of the 57 clashes between these two sides has seen a combined total of at least 40 points scored in the game.
- Tyson GAMBLE has played 49 NRL games - this will be his 50th.
- Pasami SAULO has played 49 NRL games - this will be his 50th.
- Kalyn PONGA has 48 tries for Newcastle - one more would make it 50.

In the trials, the Raiders showed a lot of promise like usual, despite only winning one of their two trial matches. Victorious over Parramatta in Week 1, they lost to the Cowboys a week later. The mix of experience and youth is going to be key for Canberra as they start the season somewhat weakened as opposed to their full-strength side.

Exciting youngster Ethan Strange will take on the five-eighth jersey for Round 1, which shows a strong backing for the young teenage star who was dominant in the trials. Suspensions and injuries have meant that coach Ricky Stuart has not been able to name his full strength team - Jordan Rapana is at fullback in place of suspended Sebastian Kris whilst new recruit Zac Hosking starts in place of Elliott Whitehead (calf). One somewhat surprising move has seen Danny Levi take the 9 jersey ahead of 2023 regular Zac Woolford.

WHO TO WATCH: Knights halfback Jackson Hastings is a polarising figure and has been a strong competitor, but at times injury concerns have plagued his career. Despite being the more secure of the halves, the return of Jack Cogger to the Hunter could put the pressure on Hastings and he needs to make a big start to the year for his own sake.

One of the youngest players in the Raiders squad, Ethan Strange has the NRL world at his feet and looks to be a big star of the future. The opening round trip to Newcastle on a Thursday night isn't going to be an easy game for the Green Machine and they will want Strange to star and take a controlling role.

FAVOURITE: Home ground advantage hands Newcastle the upper hand with the bookies.

MY TIP: This is a game that could end up very similar to their 2023 finals contest. The Knights probably have the edge on paper with a strong line-up but Canberra have that little bit of X-Factor that will make them dangerous if the Knights aren't up to the mark. The way that Jack Cogger is used will be interesting for the contest and could make or break the game for Newcastle.

Knights by 6.

Tuivasa-Sheck's Homecoming Sets the Stage for NRL Showdown!

As the 2024 rugby league season kicks off, the New Zealand Warriors and the Cronulla Sharks are set to clash in an eagerly anticipated matchup. Both teams enter the season with mixed trial performances, each securing one win and suffering one loss in the lead-up to the official competition.

The Warriors faced a challenging start in Christchurch, falling to the Wests Tigers in the first week of trials. A first-half send-off added to their woes, but a resilient second-half performance saw them narrow the margin to just 2 points. They bounced back in the second week, defeating the Dolphins 34-22 in a display of cohesion among their first-grade players.

On the other side, the Sharks experienced a tough loss against a tough Newcastle Knights side in the opening week of trials, conceding 44-18. However, they showcased resilience in the following week, securing a hard-fought victory over the Bulldogs with a scoreline of 12-6.

The contrasting trial journeys set the stage for an intriguing face-off as both teams return to Auckland, the same venue where they last met in Round 20, 2023. In their previous encounter, the Warriors dominated the Sharks with a convincing 44-12 victory. The New Zealand team showcased exceptional efficiency with a remarkable 91% completion rate, scoring 8 tries to the Sharks' 2 and committing minimal errors.

Although both teams advanced to September footy, the Warriors went deeper into the finals, missing out on a Grand Final berth in a 42-12 loss to the Brisbane Broncos, while the Sharks went down to the Roosters by one point in the first week. These disappointing ends to solid 2023 campaigns for both sides will have them coming into the new season with a determination to go further in 2024.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Cronulla have won 15 of their last 21 games against the Warriors, dating back to 2012.
- The Warriors have won 14 of their last 21 games played in New Zealand.
- The Sharks have won 9 of their last 14 games played outside of Sydney.
- Jesse RAMIEN has scored 47 tries in the NRL, needing 3 more to reach 50.
- Jack WILLIAMS has played 99 NRL games - this will be his 50th.
- Injured Sharks forward Braden HAMLIN-UELE is sitting on 99 NRL games.

WHO TO WATCH: The spotlight is firmly fixed on Roger Tuivasa-Sheck as he returns to the New Zealand Warriors for his first official NRL game since departing in 2021 to pursue a rugby union career with the Auckland Blues. The dynamic player showcased his enduring prowess in the two trial games, making an immediate impact with impressive running stats of 134 and 196 running metres, including a notable 101 post-contact metres in his performance against the Dolphins. His trademark sidestep was on full display, leaving defenders in his wake. In a standout moment in the second trial, he orchestrated a last-minute try assist, securing the victory for the Warriors. As the team prepares to face the Cronulla Sharks, the question lingers about Tuivasa-Sheck's role under coach Andrew Webster. Despite being the Dally M Fullback of the Year in 2018, Tuivasa-Sheck faces a positional shift, with Webster indicating that his favoured fullback position will be occupied by Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad. Whether playing in the centres or on the wing, the anticipation surrounding Tuivasa-Sheck's return adds an intriguing layer to the Warriors' opening game of the season.

Eyes will be on Teig Wilton as he makes a comeback for the Cronulla Sharks in the upcoming NRL season after a season-ending injury in Round 20 last year - when the Sharks last played the Warriors. The 24-year-old second-rower has displayed resilience in both of the pre-season games, getting crucial meters in his legs, particularly in the second match against the Bulldogs, where he ran an impressive 110 meters, executed 12 hit-ups, and sealed the victory for the Sharks with a match-winning try. Before his unfortunate injury in the 2023 season, Wilton showcased his dual-threat by scoring six tries in 17 games, highlighting his attacking prowess. Additionally, his defensive capabilities were evident, with an impressive tackle efficiency of 92%. As the Sharks gear up for their opening clash against the New Zealand Warriors, the return of Teig Wilton brings a potent combination of attacking flair and defensive solidity, making him a player to watch closely throughout the 2024 NRL season.

FAVOURITE: At home and coming off a superb 2023, the 'Wahs' are comfortable favourites to start strong.

MY TIP: The Warriors definitely looked more cohesive in their two trial games, especially with their second-week win against a strong Dolphins side.

MATCH PREVIEW

Lachlan McINTYRE

The hunt for four straight begins

The Panthers will be looking to pounce in this crucial first round clash against the Melbourne Storm on Friday night. Kicking off just past 8pm at AAMI Park, these are two sides who have been ranked consistently amongst the top echelon for quite some time, with this game itself being a rematch of the 2020 NRL grand final. Although it's obviously Penrith who's carrying the momentum into this game from their three straight premierships, Bellamy's Storm haven't lost a first round game in 23 years and they will be desperate to keep that record alive.

Cameron Munster has been named to play for the Storm despite his preseason shower incident which led to concerns surrounding a groin injury. Apart from this mishap, Melbourne travelled through the pre-season fairly unscathed, recording a comfortable 28-10 win against the Knights last time out. That match was played in Fiji, a positive sign for the NRL as competition for the 18th club licence continues to build.

21 year old Joe Chan has been named to start for Melbourne after making his NRL debut last year. Trent Loeiro is set to start at lock, with Tigers recruit Shawn Blore missing out on a place in the 17, named at 18th man. In big albeit expected news for the home side, Ryan Papenhuyzen is the number one after a severely injury-affected 2023.

The visitors had a very different build up to the 2024 season than the other 16 clubs, with a visit to Wigan ending in disappointment for Penrith. The Panthers did not get the opportunity to play two full pre-season challenge games, instead contesting the World Club Challenge, played under much more serious conditions. The loss was their fourth in four attempts at the title. Jarome Luai sat out the Warriors game with injury, but he has been named.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Penrith have recorded just 4 victories from 20 trips to Melbourne, two of which have come in their last two matches there.
- Penrith have won 8 of their last 12 games against Melbourne and 5 of their last 6.
- Penrith have won 25 of their last 29 games outside of NSW.
- Melbourne have won 23 of their last 29 games played in Victoria, winning by an average score of 31-14.
- Moses LEOTA has played 149 NRL games - this will be his 150th.
- Nick MEANEY has 199 goals (one more for 200) and 47 tries (three more for 50) across his NRL career
- Trent LOIERO has played 49 NRL games - this will be his 50th
- Ryan PAPHUYZEN and Xavier COATES both have 49 tries in their NRL careers, one more each for 50.
- Jahrome HUGHES has 49 tries for Melbourne, needing one more for 50 club tries

This Friday will be Luai's first game since last year's grand final, and also his first since signing a contract with the Wests Tigers from 2025. Turuva has been named despite injury concerns following the WCC defeat. Stephen Crichton's departure to the Bulldogs makes way for Taylan May to take the first crack at centre alongside Izack Tago, while Luke Sommerton is the number nine in the absence of the suspended Mitch Kenny. Daine Laurie, Soni Luke, and Brad Schneider are all names who miss out one round one who will be hoping to force their way into the side over the course of the season.

The Panthers have won six of eight meetings with Melbourne since their grand final meeting in 2020.

WHO TO WATCH: Despite being born in Sydney, Joe Chan first established himself as a top flight footballer in the Northern Hemisphere with the Catalans Dragons. In 2023 he signed with the Melbourne Storm, playing out the majority of the season in the Queensland Cup competition with the East Brisbane Tigers. He made his NRL debut off the bench for the Storm in round 27, and went on to win the Queensland Cup title with the Tigers a few weeks later. Chan has been given an early crack at the starting 13 this weekend, and will be keen to prove himself as worthy of that spot consistently.

Following the departure of Api Koroisau, Mitch Kenny slotted straight into the hooker role in 2023 for the Panthers. However he will be watching from the sidelines this weekend due to an off-field occurrence, giving Luke Sommerton a great opportunity to show his worth in the number nine role. Sommerton made his NRL debut in round 24 last season in a win against Manly, and the 24 year old will definitely want to show Mitch Kenny that the hooker jersey does not automatically belong to him.

FAVOURITE: Although away from home, the defending premiers are the favourites to get the job done against Melbourne.

MY TIP: Panthers will bounce back from their World Club Challenge defeat to Wigan and get home in a close one, ending Melbourne's streak of first round victories. Penrith by 4.

Rivals look to rebound in season opening round grudge match

Two teams aiming for better fortunes in 2024 will renew a decades-old rivalry on Saturday evening as the Parramatta Eels play hosts to the Canterbury-Bankstown Bulldogs at Commbank Stadium.

Going from grand finalists to missing the play-offs in a dispiriting decline last season, the Parramatta Eels will have history on their side as they look to kick start their campaign on a winning note.

Winning 15 out of 26 opening round matches in the NRL era, including seven out of ten during coach Brad Arthur's tenure, the Eels produced mixed trial form with defeat at the hands of the Raiders (16-38) before responding with a more experienced squad to down the Titans (26-16).

Joey Lussick will start at hooker with Brendan Hands coming off the bench, while Morgan Harper and Kelma Tuilagi will make their club debuts. Dylan Brown will make his 100th appearance in first grade for the Eels five years on from his debut as a teenager.

Falling one win short of the finals last season – despite holding a 50% record in home-and-away matches – the Eels performed at their best on home soil with seven wins from 11 appearances at Commbank Stadium.

Coming off a campaign marred by mediocre on-field performances and the worst defensive record in the league, the Canterbury-Bankstown Bulldogs will be hoping a heavy turnover of personnel brings about a change for the better.

Holding a dreadful record in opening round fixtures with two wins over the past 11 years, the Bulldogs showed signs of promise during the pre-season with a solid win over the Storm (24-12) and a narrow loss to the Sharks (6-12).

Coach Cameron Ciraldo has named seven club debutants for the opening

THINGS TO KNOW

- Parramatta have won 13 of their last 16 games against the Bulldogs
- The Bulldogs last 10 games has seen them concede an average of 41 points per game. In 1995, one of the worst seasons by any club of all time, they conceded 41.25 points per game. Wests in 1999 conceded a paltry 39.33 points per game.
- The Eels have won 39 of their 54 games played at Commbank Stadium since it opened in 2019.
- Dylan BROWN has played 99 NRL games - this will be his 100th.

round, headlined by newly appointed captain Stephen Crichton in the centres. Blake Taaffe and Drew Hutchison will start at fullback and halfback respectively as part of a new-look spine.

While the Bulldogs have struggled historically at Commbank Stadium with five wins from 19 appearances, the side's last three victories in opening round fixtures occurred away from home.

The Eels and Bulldogs have met in a season-opening match three times during the NRL era; the Eels have won two of the three matches, including the most recent fixture in 2020 set against the imminent disruption caused by COVID-19.

WHO TO WATCH: Claiming Parramatta's coveted number nine jersey following a strong showing in the pre-season, Joey Lussick will be looking to assert his standing as a starting playmaker for the duration of 2024. Returning from the English Super League towards the end of last season, the 27-year-old finished the year as the Eels preferred number nine following a career-ending injury to Josh Hodgson. Set to face internal pressure from interchange rake Brendan Hands as the season goes on, the Eels will be looking for Lussick to deliver solid service for the side's more accomplished playmakers.

Set to start at halfback for only the tenth time in his well-travelled career, Drew Hutchison will have his sights set on shedding the tag of utility in favour of becoming a permanent playmaker. Shifting to Belmore following five seasons with the Roosters, the 28-year-old beat out youngster Toby Sexton for the halfback role following a series of solid showings in the trials. Set to offer a steadying influence on a Bulldogs side lacking leaders, Hutchison may prove to be the player capable of kick-starting a new era for the blue and whites.

FAVOURITE: The Eels are expected to open their 2024 account with a win on home soil.

MY TIP: Boasting the benefit of a more settled roster and home ground advantage, the Eels should have the measure of a Bulldogs team yet to find cohesion. Eels by 14.

MATCH PREVIEW

AJ LUCANTONIO

Two returning coaches intent on rebuilding sinking ships

Des Hasler and Shane Flanagan return to coaching with their new clubs in the second match on Super Saturday as the Gold Coast Titans go head to head with the St George Illawarra Dragons.

For the Titans, this marks another new era for the club. After the swift and decisive decision to end Justin Holbrook's tenure last season, the Titans are hellbent on fixing their image. They want to go from the team that can't hold a lead to a team that can grind it out with the best in the game. In the attacking phase, there's no denying their quality. AJ Brimson, Phil Sami, Alofiana Khan-Pereria and Keano Kini will all be sparking fear in the opposition, while an imposing pack of forwards such as Tino, Mo Fotuaitika adds Keenan Palasia, fresh off a grand final berth with Brisbane.

But for the Titans, it will be defence that is the main watch here. Across the last 4 seasons, the Titans have conceded on average over 25 points a game. That is nowhere near acceptable at the NRL level, especially for a club that is trying to compete for premierships year on year. Under Des Hasler, there will be a renewed focus in that department, hopefully that doesn't compromise the attack like it did at Canterbury.

David Fifita and Jayden Campbell will be missing for the first few weeks still recovering from injuries sustained in the off-season for the former and last season for the latter. So, Kini will get the first crack at the fullback jumper. Brimson will slot in at centre, he looked good in the pre-season but this is a new kettle of fish. Chris Randall starts at hooker with Sam Verrills reverting to the bench.

For the Dragons, they have had a horrific off-season. Shane Flanagan has dealt with distraction after distraction this summer, but it appears that has strengthened the resolve within the squad. Speaking with Yvonne Sampson on The League Scene podcast, Sampson said "Flano loves a scrap and he

- The Dragons have had 1 win from their last 6 visits to the Gold Coast, and that was back in 2019. They've lost all 4 games there since.
- The Titans have won 4 of their last 6 games against the Dragons
- St George Illawarra have won just 4 of their last 23 games
- AJ Brimson has played 99 NRL games - this will be his 100th.
- Isaac LIU has played 249 NRL games - this will be his 250th.
- Brian KELLY has played 99 games for the Titans - this will be his 100th club game.

has drilled them this off-season". First up results look promising, yes trial footy doesn't mean the world. But they look a fitter, more cohesive unit than perhaps many were expecting.

The big conundrum is the fullback spot. Tyrell Sloan has it for the moment, but one slip up appears to have him surrender the jersey to Zac Lomax. Elsewhere, the side appears to be stable and will be a gritty, determined side in 2024. Up front appears to be solid, with Blake Lawrie and Francis Molo leading the way. Depth could be a problem, but the only way we will answer that is with time.

On the team front, Kyle Flanagan will get the first crack at partnering Ben Hunt in the halves. Lawrie and Jacob Liddle have overcome injuries to take their place. Viliami Fifita makes his debut from the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: With the injury to Jayden Campbell, all eyes are on Keano Kini. The young phenom burst on the scene with an impressive season with Burleigh in QLD Cup, winning fullback of the year and man of the match on a losing side in the Grand Final. Kini's elusive footwork and evasion is scintillating to watch, he also presents some silky passing which will present this talented backline with opportunities galore.

For the Dragons, the focus is on Moses Suli. After a few seasons with many questions asked of his fitness and commitment. Suli has really brought into the changes Flanagan has made at the club. In the trials he looked slimmer and fitter than any point of his career since arriving in the Red V, his damaging ball-running against new look Titans edges will be a key highlight to watch in this one.

FAVOURITE: Home ground advantage and supercoach Des have the Titans the better backed of these sides heading into Saturday evening.

MY TIP: Two sides deep in a rebuild in the early stages of the season. This suggests a scrap with chances of individual brilliance sneaked in. It will be a tightly fought contest throughout, but expect the Titans X factor to just sneak them home in the dying moments. Titans have had a good record against the Dragons at CBUS in recent seasons, so expect it to continue. Titans by 4.

MATCH PREVIEW Andy P

Queensland teams ready to lock horns for the last game of round 1

The Cauldron will be set to boil over as two Queensland teams prepare to clash. This Sunday's game will mark the third meeting between The Dolphins and the North Queensland Cowboys, offering a chance for bragging rights not only in terms of wins against each other but also wins on the hallowed turf of Queensland Rugby League.

A mixed bag of results for both teams leading up to the Premiership season, both performance-wise and on the injury list. But it gave us a sneak peek of what will be on offer.

Assistant coach Kristian Woolf said the Dolphins showed grit in their first preseason game but gave away too many penalties. He also noted performances from Jamayne Isaako, Jack Bostock and Jake Averillo.

However, in their second preseason game in Auckland, it was a different story, with the Dolphins not managing to find a rhythm to threaten the Warriors at any stage during the game.

A worrying trend for Wayne Bennett would be the Dolphin's tackling efforts in the last preseason game; missing 47 tackles, they showed gaps that will either be fixed or exposed.

It wasn't the start to the preseason the Cowboys wanted, but a thumping at the hands of the Brisbane Broncos gave them some talking points as they adjusted for game two accordingly.

Scott Drinkwater was in fine form for the last pre-season game against the Raiders. Setting up many tries and generally baffling the other team's defence. Kyle Feldt showed great form, finishing off three tries, two of which came by some scintillating rugby league from Drinkwater.

The drawbacks of these pre-season games were that both teams lost key forwards. Five minutes into the second half of the last pre-season game, Tom Gilbert went down with what is a tragic blow to the back-rower, out for the year with a ruptured ACL. In an unfortunate twist, Coen Hess will also be

THINGS TO KNOW

- The Cowboys have won 4 of their last 5 games at Suncorp Stadium
- This will be the Cowboys 99th Premiership game against a fellow QLD-based team. They've had 43 wins, 2 draws and 53 losses.
- The Dolphins won just 2 of their final 12 games, conceding 356 points – or 29.67 pts per game.
- Mark NICHOLLS has played 149 NRL games - this will be his 150th.
- Valentine HOLMES has 297 goals in his NRL career, needing just three for 300.
- Tesi NIU has played 99 NRL games - this will be his 100th.

missing time this year for the Cowboys with a torn ACL.

Round 26 of the premiership season 2023 was the last time these two teams met, and the Cowboys came up trumps in that game at Suncorp Stadium. Showing they love Suncorp almost as much as the Dolphins, the Cowboys ran away winners that day 34-10.

Getting that first win for the season is a moral booster every team wants. The Dolphins rallied as a team for the first part of their inaugural season off the back of a round 1 win against the Roosters. There is some noise of this being Bennett's last year with the Dolphins, and he has had early coaching success in the past, giving St George a long-needed premiership and South Sydney a taste of the big dance all in his second year for both teams.

The 30th year of the North Queensland Cowboys franchise saw a change of guard by Coach Todd Payten, with young guns Reuben Cotter and Tom Dearden given captain duties for 2024. Payten has rewarded two of his most gutsy players, with hopes no less that their work ethic will bleed into the team from the top down.

WHO TO WATCH: I look at these team sheets, and I can't help but smile at what a game we will be privy to on Sunday. The head-to-head battles stand out from top to bottom. Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow against Scott Drinkwater, threatening with each run.

The outside back talents of Valentine Holmes and Herbie Farnworth. And let's say both forward packs, but a special mention goes to Thomas Flegler and Reuben Cotter.

However, the battle of the hookers will be a treat. If Robson can set a platform up via his forwards, Dearden and Drinkwater will cause havoc and deliver finishes for their outside backs with ease.

FAVOURITE: North Queensland has the bet makers on their side, and if we are going off both teams' last performances via the preseason games, I would wholeheartedly agree. They have the ducks to line up for a win.

MY TIP: I'm leaning in on the Dolphins taking this one. The team is in good spirits even with a leader like Tom Gilbert on the sideline. This is definitely a team with more depth this year, and if Wayne Bennett's legacy is anything to go by, this will be a more decisive year than last, so I feel they are going to start it the right way. Dolphins by 6 in a nail-biter.

2024 MEN'S BETFRED SUPER LEAGUE

ROUND 3 WRAP with ROBERT MCHUGH

WIGAN WARRIORS 30 HUDDERSFIELD GIANTS 16

at DW Stadium

WIGAN WARRIORS (30) Tries: Liam Marshall 3, Bevan French, Tyler Dupree; Goals: Harry Smith 5/6 DEF HUDDERSFIELD GIANTS (16) Tries: Adam Swift, Elliot Wallis, Jack Murchie; Goals: Oliver Russell 2/3

Date: Fri, 1st March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Wigan 18-4. Penalties: Huddersfield 11-7. Referee: Jack Smith. Crowd: 15,357.

Wigan: Field, Miski, Keighran, Wardle, Marshall; French, Smith; Thompson, O'Neill, Dupree, Isa, Farrell, Ellis. Int: Mago, Byrne, Hill, Forber. Huddersfield: Connor, Swift, Marsters, Naigama, Wallis; Russell, Clune; Hill, Milner, Ikahihifo, Murchie, Hewitt, Cudjoe. Int: Golding, English, Wilson, Salabio.

Wigan Warriors followed their World Club Challenge victory against Penarth Panthers with a 30-18 win over a spirited Huddersfield Giants side.

Winger Liam Marshall continued his excellent start to the season with a hat trick of tries, with further tries from Bevan French and Tyler Dupree.

Huddersfield lost 28-0 to against St Helens the previous week, and looked like they may be on the receiving end of another heavy defeat, as Wigan raced into an early lead. Liam Marshall opened the scoring after 12 minutes, cutting back in off the wing, wrong footing two defenders in the process. Bevan French extended Wigan's lead, combining well with Adam Keighran, who dummed, then offloaded, to put French through to score. A slick passing move in the 22nd minute put Marshall through for his second score of the night, extending Wigan's lead. But Huddersfield came roaring back into the game, scoring two tries either side of half time. The first came following a brilliant pass from Adam Clune, which cut out two Huddersfield attackers to find Elliot Wallis, who dived to score in the corner. When Esan Marsters managed to miraculously offload the ball, despite the attentions of four Wigan defenders, to allow Adam Swift to score in the corner, Huddersfield were well and truly in the game at 18-10.

The two sides then traded scores to set up an exciting finish. Liam Marshall completed his hat trick, before Jack Murchie picked Keighran's pocket in a contest for a high kick, to bring Huddersfield back into the contest with 10 minutes to play. But Wigan were too strong for the Giants, and when Tyler Dupree powered over from close range in the 75th minute, Huddersfield's resistance was broken. Harry Smith added the last of his 5 goals to complete a 30-18 victory for the Warriors.

ST HELENS 12 LEIGH LEOPARDS 4

at Totally Wicked Stadium

ST HELENS (12) Tries: Thomas Makinson, Jack Welsby; Goals: Mark Percival 2/3 DEF LEIGH LEOPARDS (4) Tries: Zak Hardaker

Date: Fri, 1st March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: St Helens 4-0. Penalties: St Helens 9-5. Referee: Liam Moore. Crowd: 13,028.

St Helens: Welsby, Makinson, Hurrell, Percival, Bennison; Lomax, Dodd; Walmsley, Clark, Mata'utia, Whitley, Sironen. Knowles. Int: Mbye, Bell, Wingfield, Delaney. Leigh: O'Brien, Briscoe, Hardaker, Leutele, Charnley, Moylan, Lam; Hughes, Dwyer, Mulhern, O'Donnell, Halton, Asiata. Int: Norman, Davis, Nakubuwai, Trout.

St Helens overcame a resolute Leigh side in a physical game, which saw controversy on and off the pitch.

Leigh Leopards forward John Asiata sin binned after 41 seconds for targeting the legs of Stone Mata'utai, and Leopards' Director of Rugby, Chris Ghester, was involved in a heated altercation with a St Helens fan after the match.

Asiata, who was also criticised for his tackle technique in a fiery Challenge Cup clash against Saints last season, was criticised by Saints coach, Paul Wellens, after the game was passionately defended by Leigh Head Coach, Adrian Lam. St Helens opened the scoring in the 30th minute, with Jack Welsby getting on the end of Matt Whitley's offload to score. Mark Percival missed the conversion, meaning the Saints led 4-0 at half time.

But Leigh struck back early in the second half, registering their first score in the 46th minute. Following a sharp break from full-back Gareth O'Brien, the Leopards moved the ball wide to veteran Zak Hardaker who beat the Saints' desperate goal line defence to level the scores at 4-4. The deadlock only lasted 5 minutes, when Lewis Dodd beat two defenders in his own half, before releasing Tommy Makinson. Makinson still had plenty to do but was able to evade the chasing defence from 40 metres out to give Saints the lead, his momentum taking him over the line despite the valiant efforts of O'Brien. Mark Percival converted the try from in front of the posts, which gave the Saints a 10-4 lead. Brad Dwyer was shown a late yellow card for holding down in the tackle, which gave Percival the chance to add a further 2 points with the boot, and effectively end Leigh's hopes. Leigh's night was made worse by losing Asiata and Tom Briscoe to injury, which makes them doubts for Leigh's next fixture, at home against Leeds Rhinos, where they will be hoping to register their first win of the season. St Helens maintain their 100% start to the season, and host Salford Red Devils in their next fixture.

WARRINGTON WOLVES 30 CASTLEFORD TIGERS 8

at Halliwell Jones Stadium

WARRINGTON WOLVES (30) Tries: Matthew Ashton 2, Joe Philbin, Matt Dufty, Josh Thewlis; Goals: Stefan Ratchford 5/5, Josh Thewlis 0/1 DEF CASTLEFORD TIGERS (8) Tries: Josh Simm, Innes Senior

Date: Fri, 1st March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Warrington 20-4. Penalties: Warrington 5-4. Referee: Aaron Moore. Crowd: 8,483.

Warrington: Dufty, Thewlis, King, Ratchford, Ashton; Hayes, Drinkwater; Harrison, Walker, Vaughan, Holroyd, Fitzgibbon, Currie. Int: Philbin, Musgrove, Powell, Wood. Castleford: Hooley, Simm, Broadbent, Wood, Senior; Milnes, Miller; Lawler, Horne, Mustapha, El-Zakheim, Mellor, Westerman. Int: Putt, Hall, Kibula, Johnson.

Castleford Tigers' search for a first Super League win continued, as Sam Burgess' Warrington side eased to a 30-8 victory, helped by two tries from Matty Ashton.

Castleford took an unexpected early lead in the 10th minute, with Josh Simm finishing off a flowing move which saw the Tigers strike from deep inside their own half. But Warrington took the lead through Matty Ashton's first try, diving acrobatically to score following a brilliant miss pass from Matt Dufty. Stefan Ratchford converted the try, his first of 5 successful goals.

Ashton extended Warrington's lead with a carbon copy finish, diving for the corner again, before Joe Philbin added another try before half time, finishing a flowing move which started inside the Wolves' half, with the hosts leading 20-4 at half time, following a Ratchford penalty on half time.

It took Warrington less than 2 minutes to open their account in the second half. After shifting the ball through hands from right to left, Matt Dufty stepped back inside, against the grain, beating 2 defenders to score under the posts. Castleford briefly threatened to fight back, through Innes Senior's try, which featured a remarkable pass from Danny Richardson who punched the ball overhand, like an overhead tennis smash, out to centre Sam Wood, who put Senior in for a simple finish in the corner. But any fleeting hopes of a comeback were extinguished thanks to Josh Thewlis's closing try. Warrington turned over the ball after Castleford lost possession, trying to force an opportunity. Thewlis took in Ben Currie's superb, backhanded offload to score the final try of the game. Warrington's victory moved them up to 3rd in the table, with 2 wins from 3 games, Castleford remain winless, following defeats to Salford and Wigan.

LEEDS RHINOS 18 CATALANS DRAGONS 10

at AMT Headingley Stadium

LEEDS RHINOS (18) Tries: Ash Handley 2, Harry Newman; Goals: Rhysie Martin 3/5 DEF CATALANS DRAGONS (10) Tries: Chris Satae; Goals: Arthur Mourgue 3/3

Date: Sat, 2nd March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Leeds 10-2. Penalties: Leeds 7-4. Referee: Chris Kendall. Crowd: 14,168.

Leeds: Miller, Roberts, Newman, Momirovski, Handley; Croft, Frawley; Sangaré, Ackers, Goudemand, Bentley, Martin, Smith. Int: Holroyd, O'Connor, McDonnell, Ruan. Catalans: Mourgue, Johnstone, Romano, Ikuvalu, Yaha; Abdull, Fages; Navarrete, Da Costa, Bousquet, Sims, Sironen, Garcia. Int: Séguier, Nikorima, Satae, Dezaria.

Ash Handley continued his superb start to the season, scoring two tries as Leeds Rhinos maintained their 100% home record, beating Catalans Dragons 18-10 at AMT Headingley.

Injuries and suspensions to Leeds' forward pack left the Rhinos short on power in the front row, and at times the contest resembled a cruiserweight fighting a heavyweight in a boxing match, with the Rhinos playing expansive rugby, taking risks in their own half to counteract Les Dracs' physical advantage.

The opening exchanges were dominated by the French side, not helped by a string of errors by Leeds - including Lachlan Miller dropping the kick off to put Leeds under pressure right from the start. But Leeds' defence held firm, typified by a brilliant tackle from Brodie Croft, which dislodged the ball with the Catalans in a dangerous pressure. Having soaked up significant pressure, it was the Rhinos who opened the scoring in the 27th minute through Ash Handley. Handley collected a pinpoint kick from Croft, showing some neat footwork in the process, controlling the kick before touching the ball down. Leeds extended their lead further before half time through England Centre, Harry Newman. The Video Ref judged that Harry Newman has grounded the ball, in the face of significant pressure from the Catalans defence. In trying to prevent the try, Tariq Sims made contact with Newman's head, and Leeds were awarded a penalty try and Sims was yellow carded. Rhysie Martin missed the conversion, put kicked the penalty from in front of the posts to give Leeds a 10-0 lead against the run of play. Arthur Mourgue gave the Dragons a lifeline, converting a penalty before half time, before Catalans' superior physicality appeared to be taking its toll. Tevita Satae scored from a power play, barging over on the last play after a dummy from hooker Alik Da Costa. Justin Sangare was then sin binned for the Rhinos after a high shot on Da Costa.

But the Dragons' own ill discipline came back to haunt them, with Jordan Dezaia receiving a yellow card for a high tackle on Brodie Croft, meaning the two sides played 5 minutes with 12 men each. The Rhinos sealed victory, with another try which began in their own half. Man of the match Brodie Croft ran the ball on the 5th tackle, working the ball wide to Luis Roberts, whose attempted kick through was deflected by a Catalans hand. Leon Ruan broke through, before the ball was worked to Handley who scored in the corner, with Martin kicking the conversion to complete the scoring. Romain Navarrete received a late yellow card, which ended the Catalans hopes of a fight back, and Leeds' rope-a-dope was complete, ending the Dragons' perfect start to the season.

SALFORD RED DEVILS 17 HULL KR 10

at Salford Stadium

SALFORD RED DEVILS (17) Tries: Chris Hankinson, Deon Cross; Goals: Marc Sneyd 4/4; Field Goals: Marc Sneyd 1 DEF HULL KINGSTON ROVERS (10) Tries: Peta Hiku, Jez Litten; Goals: Jez Litten 1/1

Date: Sat, 2nd March. Kickoff: 5:30 PM. Halftime: Salford 12-0. Penalties: Salford 9-5. Referee: Tom Grant. Crowd: 5,036.

Salford: Atkin, Hankinson, Macdonald, Lafai, Cross; Cust, Sneyd; Ormondroyd, Bourouh, Singleton, Stone, Watkins, Shorrocks. Int: Morgan, Vuniyayawa, Wright, Hellewell. Hull KR: Hiku, Burgess, Opacic, Gildart, Hall; May, Lewis; Hadley, Litten, Whitbread, Tanginoa, Batchelor, Minchella. Int: Sue, King, Parcell, Luckley.

Salford upset the odds to register their second win of the season, beating Hull Kingston Rovers at the Salford Stadium.

Marc Sneyd inspired the Red Devils with his metronomic kicking game, scoring four goals from four attempts and a drop goal. Salford has been expected to struggle this season, having suffered from a number of high-profile departures, including losing influential pair Andy Ackers and Brodie Croft to Leeds Rhinos, but Paul Rowley's men continued their strong start to the season.

Despite losing their star full back, Ryan Brierley in the warmup, Salford took the lead, after a tense opening 15 minutes. After Marc Sneyd dabbled a kick in goal, winger Deon Cross raced in to beat Jez Litten to the ball and open the scoring. Salford extended their lead in the 35th minute, this time in the right-hand corner, through their other winger, Chris Hankinson. Hankinson did well to collect Gade Cust's misdirected pass, which bobbed on the ground before Hankinson stooped to collect the ball and score. Sneyd converted both tries, and Salford led 12-0 at half time.

Sneyd extended Salford's lead to 16-0 by adding two further penalties before Hull KR's fought back. Cross was sin binned for obstruction, after preventing Joe Burgess from taking a quick 20 metre restart. Mikey Lewis found Peta Hiku, who made the most of KR's numerical advantage to score. But, with regular goal kicker Jez Litten off the field, stand in James Batchelor missed the conversion. But Hiku then received a yellow card of his own, this time for dissent, just as Cross returned to the field of play. Jez Litten gave Hull KR hope of completing the turnaround, with a try in the 65th minute. With the Robins still down to 12 men, Kelepi Tanginoa broke through the Salford line to put Litten in the clear. Litten then converted his own try, to reduce Salford's lead to just 6 points. Fittingly, Marc Sneyd scored the final point of the game. A strong carry from Ben Hellewell put Salford into position, and Sneyd coolly slotted the ball between the posts, his drop goal giving Salford a 17-10 victory.

HULL FC 28 LONDON BRONCOS 24

at MKM Stadium

HULL FC (28) Tries: Jack Brown 2, Matthew Russell, Fa'amanu Brown, Morgan Smith, Lewis Martin, Nick Staveley; Goals: Darnell McIntosh 4/5 DEF LONDON BRONCOS (24) Tries: Hakim Milouidi 2, Lee Kershaw, Jimmy Meadows, Robbie Storey; Goals: Oliver Leyland 2/5

Date: Sun, 3rd March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Hull FC 16-4. Penalties: London 9-8. Referee: James Vella. Crowd: 10,066.

Hull FC: Walker, Russell, McIntosh, Tuimavave, Martin; Smith, Brown; Ashworth, Houghton (C), Sao, Okunbor, Staveley, Lane. Int: Brown, Bullock, Charles. London: Leyland, Kershaw, Storey, Bassett, Miloudi; Campagnolo, Meadows; Butler, Davis, Kennedy, Lovell (C), Jones, Parata. Int: Macani, Stock, Williams, Rogers.

London battled valiantly before ultimately falling short of victory, in the battle of the winless sides, against Hull FC. FC looked on course for a comfortable win, when leading 16-4 at half time, but a spirited London side made them work for the points.

London took the lead through James Meadows, before Hull FC struck back. Tries from Nick Staveley, Matty Russell and Lewis Martin put Hull FC firmly in control, despite a sin bin for Russell reducing them to 12 men for a period.

After the break, London began to turn the game in their favour. Off season signing Lee Kershaw pulled the first try back, before Hakim Milouidi got on the end of Leyland's grubber kick through to close the gap to 2 points, with the score at 16-14. But Hull FC wrestled the initiative back through a converted Fa'amanu Brown's converted try, and looked likely winners at this stage. But a second try for Hakim Milouidi gave London a lifeline, again collecting Leyland kick through, and the game seemed destined for golden point when Robbie Storey levelled the scores. But Hull FC sealed the win thanks to a late try from Morgan Smith, taking two points from a game which was scrappy at times, but utterly enthralling. London may run missed conversions, with only scoring with 2 from 5 attempts, and Hull FC winning by a 4 point margin. Hull FC will be hoping to build on this result, although they face a daunting away trip to the south of France to play the Catalans Dragons, while London's wait for a first win may continue, as they host defending Super League and World Club Challenge holders, Wigan Warriors.
