MANLY 36 SOUTH SYDNEY 24

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED AS MANLY PREVAIL IN LAS VEGAS OPENER ROBERT CROSBY

The Manly Sea Eagles have created history in rugby league's inaugural venture to Las Vegas with a 36-24 victory over the South Sydney Rabbitohs at Allegiant Stadium.

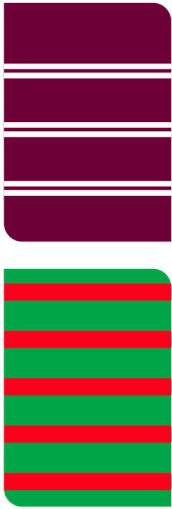

Opening the 2024 season in the first match of a double header played in the Nevada desert, the Sea Eagles fought back from an early second half deficit to claim only their second round one victory in 11 years and their first win against the Rabbitohs since 2019. After withstanding a physical barrage during the opening exchanges, the Rabbitohs stuck an early blow with Damien Cook sending Richie Kennar (6th minute) over for first points after a fortuitous kick from Cody Walker gave the 'visitors' strong field position. Responding midway through the opening half after a near miss from Tom Trbojevic, the Sea Eagles capitalised on a scrum play with Haumole Olakau'atu (22nd minute) powering his way over the line.

The Rabbitohs took advantage of Luke Brooks dropping the ball over the line with Latrell Mitchell throwing a superb cut-out pass which allowed Jacob Gagai (30th minute) enough space to cross for a four-pointer in his first grade debut. With halftime approaching and Tom Trbojevic denied another try by the bunker, the Sea Eagles struck an unlikely blow with Jason Saab (38th minute) swooping on an intercept from Mitchell to send the maroon and whites to the sheds with a 12-10 advantage.

Making amends immediately following the resumption of play, Mitchell (43rd minute) rose to the occasion with a powerful charge close to the line before delivering the final pass to send Alex Johnston (47th minute) over out wide. Facing the largest deficit of the match, the Sea Eagles responded by making their opponents pay for mistakes with Lachlan Croker (49th minute) and Ben Trbojevic (53rd minute) crossing in quick succession to turn a 12-20 deficit into a 24-20 lead.

Continuing the one-way flow of points with Daly Cherry-Evans setting up a try for Reuben Garrick (60th minute), the Rabbitohs began to lose touch with the contest following a slew of errors at both ends of the field. The Sea Eagles completed a remarkable second half turnaround with Brooks (76th minutes) clinching the result with a show-and-go, while a late try to Kennar (78th minute) offered the Rabbitohs mere consolation as the Sea Eagles claimed a 36-24 victory in the season opener.

Upon return to Australia, the Sea Eagles will host the Roosters in a Sunday afternoon match, while the Rabbitohs will face the Broncos in a Thursday evening away trip.

SYDNEY 20 BRISBANE 10

ROOSTERS SHINE IN VEGAS JOSH ROBERTSON

The Sydney Roosters kicked off their 2024 season in fine fashion, securing a 20-10 victory over a Broncos team that appeared to struggle with the Vegas conditions and the size of the field in front of nearly 40,000 fans at Allegiant Stadium.

The Roosters quickly took control, dominating possession and field position early in the contest. It took just five minutes for the Tricolours to open the scoring when Joey Manu intercepted an Ezra Mam pass and dashed off for the opening try under the posts. Despite dominating possession and field position throughout the first half, the Roosters could only add a penalty goal by Sam Walker at the 15-minute mark, following a ruck interference penalty against Billy Walters. The half-time scoreboard perhaps flattered the Broncos, who, after benefiting from repeated Roosters' ill-discipline, saw Reece Walsh weave some magic to escape the Roosters' defence and kick through for Deine Mariner to score. The conversion attempt from Adam Reynolds went astray. The Roosters looked to have added a field goal on the stroke of half-time but one of the NRL's new rules reared its head when Sam Walker's efforts were rejected by the bunker for interference by the blockers despite most thinking that it was never going to be stopped.

Physicality didn't disappear during the half time break and if anything it increased as the second half went on. The Roosters initially went close to scoring when Daniel Tupou lost the ball over the line but a shoulder charge from Reece Walsh was picked up by the bunker on a Captain's Challenge from the Roosters. The Roosters were able to extend their lead when Joey Manu pulled off some magic that wouldn't be out of place on the Vegas strip when he let out a no look fling of the ball that found Fetalaiga Pauga perfectly on the chest and the young winger scored on the outside. Ill-discipline from the Roosters let the Broncos back into the contest and it was some typical Brisbane magic that saw the big 3 combine to get the ball out to the outside before coming back inside to Walsh who scored and the Broncos were able to close the gap to just four points. Tensions continued to rise as the Broncos grew frustrated, leading to two separate flare-ups when things weren't going their way. The situation escalated when, during a second confrontation, Broncos' five-eighth Ezra Mam accused a Roosters forward of making a racist remark. Despite not hearing the comment himself, referee Adam Gee reported the incident for post-game review and investigation. The Roosters sealed the victory inside the final 10 minutes when James Tedesco put Victor Radley through to score and Sam Walker converted.

The events of the last fifteen minutes were a disappointing end to what was a strong day of football as the Roosters made a strong start to their 2024 campaign, whilst the Broncos will be grateful for the run despite the loss, and look to bounce back when they return to Australia in a fortnight.

CANBERRA 28 NEWCASTLE 12

RAIDERS AMBUSH SLUGGISH KNIGHTS FOR SEASON'S FIRST UPSET AJ LUCANTONIO

The Canberra Raiders have surprised the critics with a commanding 28-12 victory over a sluggish Newcastle Knights side away from home at McDonald Jones Stadium in front of over 22,000 fans.

Both sides were semi-finalists last season and had points to prove heading into the 2024 season. The opening half was marred by mistakes, poor discipline, some scrappy attacking footy and a brain snap by an Origin star. Canberra had the first scoring opportunity after six minutes. Albert Hopoate was ruled to have knocked the ball on in the contest and the first of four first half referred no tries was chalked off. The Raiders continued to build field position and were awarded a dubious penalty when Joe Tapine backed into contact and Leo Thompson inadvertently put pressure on the back of his neck. Jamal Fogarty added the penalty goal in the 14th minute for a 2-0 lead. Nine minutes later, Kalyn Ponga broke through some flimsy Canberra defence before linking up with Tyson Gamble to score. There was just one MAJOR problem, Danny Levi was obstructed from getting to Gamble. In the same play, Ponga was hit late in the head off the ball by Hudson Young. Young was quickly dispatched to the bin by Todd Smith. Two minutes after losing Young, the Raiders crossed first. A clever crossfield kick from Fogarty was well weighted. Zac Hosking flew through between the crowd of bodies to get to the ball first to score for the Raiders. Fogarty added the extras for an 8-0 lead. Newcastle were able to make most of the extra man advantage and hit back quickly. Tyson Gamble in game 50 soon joined in on the fun with a clever short pass to Frizell who fools the left edge of the Raiders to charge across. Ponga added the extras and we remained at 8-6 through the first 40 minutes.

Canberra opened the second half in fine style. Off the back of some poor discipline from the Knights. Danny Levi burrowed his way between Daniel Saifiti and Jack Hetherington (two defenders who should've done better) to cross and make the SuperCoach owners and Ricky Stuart happy as it was out to 14-6. Newcastle had some scoring opportunities with Greg Marzhev denied after being held up by tenacious defenders. Where the Knights struggled in attack, Canberra flourished and practically sealed the match 17 minutes from time. Fogarty's kick was taken brilliantly in traffic by Hopoate who found Young to quickly get it onto Savage who showed great speed to get it down in the left corner. Fogarty missed the conversion to leave the margin at 12. Canberra took advantage of their opportunities and confidently took home the two points two minutes later. Tom Starling poked his nose through. Got an incredibly quick play the ball. A spread across the backline sees Ethan Strange and Hopoate combine before finding Jordan Rapana to cement Canberra's margin. Newcastle didn't go down without a fight when Hastings got one back for over 22,000 in attendance with five to go. A show-and-go in between Hosking and Fogarty saw the English international race away to score. In the dying moments, Emre Guler refused to let the play die, linking up with Hosking, who in turn found Young to crash over to put an exclamation mark on this one. For Canberra, it's a win that proves the doubters and critics wrong for now. Meanwhile, the Knights were scrappy in attack and sloppy with their discipline. Issues that will have to improve quickly, if the Knights are going to compete to where we know they can.

CRONULLA 16 WARRIORS 12

NO WORRIES IN NEW ZEALAND AS SHARKS OVERCOME SLOW START ROB CROSBY

The Cronulla Sharks have stunned the New Zealand Warriors with a 16-12 win in Auckland to claim only their second opening round win in 11 years.

Fighting back from a 0-12 deficit inside the opening quarter, the Sharks scored either side of halftime to get back into the contest before a try to Siosifa Talakai midway through the second half sealed a memorable win over last year's preliminary finalists. The win continued a strong record for the Sharks at Go Media Stadium - their fourth from their past five visits - along with extending a 66% record from 18 matches against the Warriors over the past decade.

The Warriors started in fine fashion with Addin Fonua-Blake (8th minute) showing his future teammates what they can expect with a powerful run from close range to open the scoring. Taking advantage of Cronulla front-rower Royce Hunt turning over possession on multiple occasions with ill-conceived offloads, the home side doubled their lead with five-eighth Luke Metcalf (12th minute) dazzling the Sharks with speed and footwork to put the home side up 12-0.

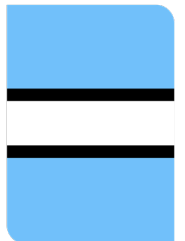

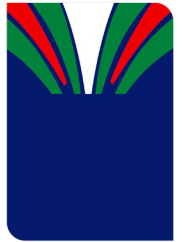

Threatening to go further in front with Jackson Ford, Dallin Watene-Zelezniak and Kurt Capewell all coming close to scoring, the Warriors inability to translate their dominance onto the scoreboard allowed the Sharks to grow in confidence. The visitors struck a crucial blow shortly before the change of ends with Jesse Ramien (34th minute) barging over from a metre out to reduce the margin to 12-6.

Taking advantage of an error in the first set following the resumption of play, the Sharks shifted the ball left and capitalised with Talakai positioning Ronaldo Mulitalo (41st minute) to touch down in the corner.

Hitting the front for the first time after withstanding plenty of pressure on their own line, a similar left side shift saw Mulitalo deliver the final pass for Talakai (57th minute) to give the Sharks a 16-12 lead. Repelling the home side repeatedly during the final quarter, the Sharks emerged with a deserved four-point win in Jack Williams' 100th appearance for the club.

Next week, the Warriors will travel to Melbourne for a Saturday evening clash with the Storm, while the Sharks will host the Bulldogs on Friday night at home.

NRL ROUND 1 WRAP

MELBOURNE 8 PENRITH 0

DEFENDING PREMIERS SHUT OUT IN STUNNING STORM STATEMENT ANDREW JACKSON

The Melbourne Storm have kept their undefeated Round 1 record under Craig Bellamy intact, frustrating a persistent Penrith Panthers side 8-0 on Friday night at AAMI Park.

The numbers told quite the story in the end, with the Panthers recording 42 tackles in Melbourne's 20 compared to 21 for the hosts and yet a determined defensive effort saw the hosts home. It was quite the statement for the Storm without five-eighth Cameron Munster and barnstorming forward Nelson Asofa-Solomona, although the Panthers were also without hooker Mitch Kenny and second rower Scott Sorensen. Penrith's attack looked disjointed and chaotic at times but that was as much a product of Melbourne's defence as it was shaking off early season rust for the three-time premiers.

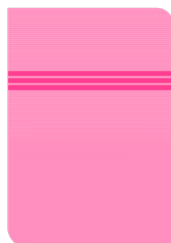

A Nick Meaney penalty goal was the only difference between the two sides in what was a fast-paced first half, with both the Storm and Panthers guilty of uncharacteristic errors in humid conditions. There were a few close calls as Taylan May, who looked the most threatening player for Penrith in attack, came up with a crucial one-on-one tackle as Nick Meaney almost sliced through to score in the 21st minute. A trick play from the Panthers off a scrum almost brought on the first try of the game in the 30th minute as Nathan Cleary put in a kick for Brian To'o, only for a tricky bounce to deny the visitors.

Elsewhere, Melbourne's right edge looked the most likely option for the home side but a brilliant tackle from Luke Garner stopped Jahrome Hughes late in the half before scrambling defence saw Meaney taken dead just as he reached over to ground the ball.

The Panthers almost had the first try of the night early in the second as Luke Sommerton spotted a hole close the line and had Nathan Cleary in support, only for a desperate Ryan Papenhuyzen to deny them as he knocked the ball down. Penrith went close again in the 49th minute with the electric May in the thick of it again as he made a break and kicked on the inside for Soni Luke in support but the Bunker intervened to overrule the try on the basis of an obstruction in the lead-up it proved a crucial call as the Storm went down the other end as broke the try-scoring drought as the size mismatch on the wings finally produced points, with Xavier Coates batting back a Jonah Pezet bomb for Reimis Smith to score.

Coates looked to have created another try - and potentially the game-winning one at that - when he charged at the line and offloaded, leaving Tui Kamikamica to run at a disjointed Penrith defence but the front rower dropped it just as he went to ground the ball. It didn't end up making a difference though as the Storm defended their line on multiple occasions to deny the Panthers in a low-scoring thriller. The Panthers host the Eels next week while the Storm are back at AAMI Park again to play the Warriors.

EELS BLOW AWAY BULLDOGS IN FRONT OF RECORD CROWD JUSTIN DAVIES

Parramatta Eels opened their season with a comfortable 26-8 win over local rivals Canterbury Bulldogs in front of 29,171 fans at Western Sydney Stadium in their game on Saturday afternoon.

The hosts did most of their damage in the first half. Bryce Cartwright with a pair of tries alongside scores from Morgan Harper and Bailey Simonsson were the difference while Blake Wilson and Stephen Crichton found the line for the Bulldogs. The Eels held most of the possession early in the game. They went close through Shaun Lane who was held up then made use of their kicking game to push the Bulldogs back often. It was from the kick where they opened the scoring. Mitch Moses drilled a kick low for former Bulldog Morgan Harper to touch down just inside the in-goal line and make it 6-0.

They went to the boot for their next points. Jaeman Salmon clipped an Eel high which drew the whistle and with Moses struggling with an injury, Clint Gutherson piloted through the kick for 8-0. Eels added to their score late in the first half. Joey Lussick flicked the short ball to a rampaging Bryce Cartwright who strolled over almost untouched after a blue-and-gold assault in the first half.

The script continued to benefit the Eels in the second half. They went close after some superb work kept the ball alive then Sean Russell went over but it was brought back for Kurt Mann taking it dead.

Parramatta didn't have to wait long for another four-pointer. Some superb hands between their forwards saw Cartwright involved heavily again, he rolled over the defense for a 20-0 lead.

Bulldogs got on the scoresheet eventually. Eels spilled it in their own half and some quick hands down the right side saw Blake Wilson go over in the corner for 20-4. It felt like groundhog day again for the Bulldogs for their second four-pointer. They were gifted another Eels error then Williams Kikau poked through and passed to Stephen Crichton to score.

The rumours of a Bulldogs comeback were premature. They spread it on last tackle in their own half, spilled it and Bailey Simonsson just ran away to secure the 26-8 win in front of their biggest crowd at Western Sydney Stadium.

ST GEORGE ILLAWARRA 28 GOLD COAST 4

SLOAN BAGS THREE AS FLANAGAN'S ERA STARTS EMPHATICALLY AJ LUCANTONIO

A maiden NRL hat-trick to Tyrell Sloan has secured an emphatic 28-4 upset victory for the St George Illawarra Dragons over the Gold Coast Titans at CBUS Super Stadium.

Both sides were undergoing another rebuilding phase and a new era would begin in either a winning or losing fashion for Des Hasler or Shane Flanagan. The visitors had some early field position and capitalised early, Tom Eisenhuth was held up in the 2nd minute of play and the ensuing play delivered results

The Dragons worked the play down the right edge where Kyle Flanagan and Ben Hunt combined with new recruit Raymond Faitala-Mariner who broke through tackles. He was able to find Tyrell Sloan who popped up in the right place at the right time to cross for the first of 2024. Lomax converted from easy range for a 6-0 lead. Gold Coast would dominate the remainder of the first half having an astounding 34 tackles inside the Dragons 20m zone in the first half. But at every turn, the Dragons would answer and turn them away. However, mistakes began to fatigue the visitors and the Titans pounced. It was a long time coming for the home side and after a multitude of possessions. The Gold Coast Titans have crossed for the first time in 2024. Tom Weaver held his nerve and fired the grubber kick in behind the defensive line and Alofiana Khan-Pereira touches down for the Titans. Tanah Boyd's kick was wide left and it remained a two point break at the half time break.

Gold Coast made a cheap mistake coming out of yardage when Brian Kelly spilled possession in his 100th club game. After his father played 3 games in 1987, the Flanagan name finally got on the score-board in the famous Red V. Kyle Flanagan got his way through some would-be Titans defence to cross for the first try of the second half (47th minute). Lomax converted for a 12-4 lead. Seven minutes later, the Dragons added a third try of the contest. Jacob Liddle exposed the middle defence as it was retreating and burst through before finding Sloan who sprinted away to collect his second try of the contest. Lomax converted for a 14 point lead. After being undersieged for most of the first half, the Dragons continued to put the Titans to the sword. Eight minutes after Sloan's double, a clever grubber from Hunt was scooped up by Lomax to cross for their third try of the second half. The conversion from the right touch line was waved away for a 22-4 margin. Sloan grabbed a hat-trick four minutes later after some superb lead up work from Hunt and Flanagan finding the speedy fullback who burnt some suspect defence to score. Lomax converted from in front for a 28-4 verdict and that is where our scoreline remained at the conclusion of 80 minutes.

The Dragons showcased some brilliant attacking football and steel defence. While the Titans need to go back to the drawing board, after a good first half. The defence evaporated like we've seen in previous seasons. So clearly a lot to work on for the home side, while the visitors will be hopeful of more consistent outings like what we saw tonight.

NORTH QUEENSLAND 43 DOLPHINS 18

NORTH QUEENSLAND FIRE OPENING SALVO AT DOTTERING DOLPHINS RHYS SULLIVAN

The Cowboys began 2024 in the best possible way, with a 43-18 thumping of a Dolphins side that couldn't get out of their own way.

The Cowboys struck first just three minutes into the match, when Zac Laybutt made a line break and dummied Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow out of his boots to grab a four pointer.

The Dolphins struck back almost immediately with a try through Tom Flegler, but that was cancelled out almost immediately with a try from Tom Dearden to restore the lead for the Cowboys.

Both teams would settle for a little while before Jeremiah Nanai crossed in the 25th minute, closely followed by tries to Kyle Feldt, Josh Kerr and Murray Taulagi in a frantic 10 minute period to blow the score out to 30-12. Chad Townsend then knocked over a field goal on the final play of the first half to establish a 31-12 halftime lead.

The Dolphins started the second half well but were unable to capitalise, and the Cowboys soon crossed when Heilum Luki pounced on a Tabuai-Fidow error. From there both sides settled, with Reuben Cotter denied a try in the 60th minute.

A controversial penalty try to Zac Laybutt saw the Cowboys breach 40 points, before an attacking kick by the Cowboys backfired when Tabuai-Fidow skipped into space before finding Niu and then Bostock for the Dolphins' third. Kyle Feldt would be denied a try on the siren after dropping the ball over the goal line.

It was a statement win for the Cowboys, who displayed a much more aggressive mentality than they had in 2023 as they look to return to the finals. The Dolphins will need to do some soul searching heading into Round 2, made tougher with a suspected dislocated knee cap to Conolly Lemelemu.

MATCH PREVIEW

Lachlan McINTYRE

From American woes to Brisbane's cauldron

In both clubs' first game of the season on Australian soil, the Brisbane Broncos will host the South Sydney Rabbitohs at Suncorp Stadium on Thursday night to open round two. Both sides are coming off of defeats under the bright lights of Allegiant Stadium, but will be hoping to find their rhythm for the 2024 season with a win. It's been a long turnaround for both clubs, allowing them plenty of time to rest and reflect upon their respective round one losses.

The Broncos could not take the lead at any point against the South Sydney Rabbitohs, going down 20-10 after trailing 8-4 at the break. They were hindered by the early loss of Brendan Piakura to a head injury, although he has been named back in his second row spot for this game. Payne Haas led the charge as usual in the pack, racking up nine tackle breaks and 54 post contact metres, topped only by winger Selwyn Cobbo.

Corey Jenson has been named to start in the number eight, however last week he was a late shift to the bench, making way for Taupau to start, so keep an eye out for late mail. Veteran Corey Oates is again the 18th man.

The Bunnies had the privilege of opening the season against Manly in Vegas, but were underwhelming in a 36-24 loss. The game went back and forth, with the Rabbitohs getting out to a solid lead early in the second half, only to go scoreless for half an hour until the 78th minute and letting the Sea Eagles take control. Latrell Mitchell was on top of his game, but consistency will be key for him this year.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Souths have won 28 of their last 33 games in Queensland, including 8 of their last 9 games, (from 2018-2023)
- Brisbane have scored 28.4 points per game over their last 16 NRL matches. Souths have conceded 27.9 points per game over their last 14 NRL matches.
- Adam REYNOLDS (Brisbane) has 49 career tries, needing one more for 50.
- Latrell MITCHELL (Souths) has 99 career tries, needing one more for 100.

In terrible news for South Sydney, Jai Arrow has been left out of the 17 for this weekend, battling a rotator cuff injury. The best case scenario is shaping as a four week recovery, however if surgery is required it could be much worse for Arrow. His spot is taken by Tallis Duncan, who is set to make his first NRL appearance since round eight last year. Shaq Mitchell takes a bench spot from Jacob Host in a surprise move from Demetriou.

The Rabbitohs have only won 15 of 48 matchups with the Broncos since their first meeting in 1988.

WHO TO WATCH: 30 year old Billy Walters is now firmly cemented as the number nine at Brisbane after a roundabout journey to the top grade. Racking up nearly 100 appearances in Queensland reserve grade, plus a further 7 in NSW Cup, Walters has now been in the 17 week on week over the past two years at the Broncos after breaking through. He played a handful of games at the Tigers throughout the covid years after making his debut for Melbourne in 2019. He is one half of the father-son team at Brisbane, with dad Kevin now in his fourth year at the helm at Red Hill.

Alex Johnston is the third-highest try scorer in Australian first-grade rugby league history, an astounding accomplishment given he has not yet reached his 30th birthday. Lining up on the wing for the Rabbitohs for his entire ten year NRL career to date, Johnston has also represented PNG internationally, as well as playing one test match for Australia. Simply a hat trick in this Thursday's game would be enough for Johnston to overtake Billy Slater in the all time try scorers list, a significant motivator for the 2022 Dally M Winger of the Year.

FAVOURITE: The Broncos are the comfortable favourites to record their first win of the season in front of their home fans up against the Bunnies.

MY TIP: Brisbane will have learnt a lot from last week and now get the benefit of a home game after a long trip to and from Las Vegas. I think they will be ready to get into the swing of things and make a real statement. Broncos by 14.

Sharks return home looking to bite through Canterbury

After a gritty and determined season opening win in Auckland, Cronulla return to the eyesore of rugby league in PointsBet Stadium to play host to Canterbury in the first part of Friday Night Football.

Cronulla broke a 34 year hoodoo, winning their first Round 1 fixture outside of Sydney since 1990. It was one of the club's more famous victories in the regular season. After a sloppy start and a gashed middle third, Cronulla were able to weather the early Warriors ambush and score the game's final three tries to walk away deserved winners. The much talked about left edge in defence held very firm in it's first big test and Sifa Talakai delivered after an off-season of much pressure on his future as an outside back, while Nicho Hynes controlled the match well without his usual flair.

Going against the Bulldogs has seen most people chalk this up as an easy victory and given Cronulla's history against bottom eight opponents. It isn't a far gone conclusion, but these two sides have a history of gritty fixtures in recent years (excluding last season at this ground) despite Cronulla's dominance in the last five fixtures. Hynes and new 5/8 Braydon Trindall will look to solidify and build their combination once more with a game plan designed to blow the Dogs off the park early while looking to reduce a high error rate from the opening week.

Canterbury entered the season with a swag of new signings designed to bring about a cultural shift at Belmore following a wasted half-decade. The first outing against Parramatta does bring hope that things are moving in the right direction. Defensively was a low point at Belmore, but given how much defence that they had to endure in the opening 40 and only conceded four tries (1 from a kick and another from broken play). You'll have to give that a pass.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Cronulla have won 11 of their last 13 games against the Bulldogs.
- The Bulldogs last win at PointsBet stadium was in 2011.
- Dale FINUCANE (Cronulla) is set to play his 250th NRL game.
- Cameron McINNIS (Cronulla) is set to play his 50th club game.
- Injured forward Braden HAMLIN-UELE (Cronulla) is one game away from his 100th NRL game.
- Jesse RAMIEN (Cronulla) has 48 tries in the NRL, needing two more for 50.

However, to beat Cronulla they will need to do better with ball in hand. They were playing panicked and rushed from the opening whistle and that led to mistakes and increasing defensive pressure. Matt Burton playing one side of the ball is absolutely criminal at this point, having Drew Hutchison there was designed to free him up to play both sides of the ball. But, at this point they need to get him involved more. They showed some great signs with the ball in the second half, especially having Kikau and Crichton combine late. If they can place early pressure on the Sharks and convert with ball in hand, they'll go close.

Josh Addo-Carr won't play after suffering an AC joint injury early in the game. He'll be replaced by former Shark Connor Tracey on club debut, the Fox is named in the reserves though so watch this space. Cronulla have the same 17 but make one change with Toby Rudolf pushing Royce Hunt to the bench.

WHO TO WATCH: I am looking squarely at Sifa Talakai for this clash. Overcoming a leg injury to take his place, a lot of talk over summer was a potential transition into the forwards. However for the moment, Talakai has found a nice home at left centre and showed signs of his damaging best against the Warriors. He faces an even more vulnerable edge against Canterbury, load up for an anytime try-scorer because it could get ugly.

For me I am focusing solely on Matt Burton. It is an easy choice granted, but when you look at the struggles that Canterbury had in attack. It is simple that Cameron Giraldo needs to allow him to play both sides of the football. While he was the dominant half, it was clear that he needs to get involved and run some shape out both sides of the field. Given the suspect nature of the Sharks left edge, that'll be the first port of call.

FAVOURITE: Cronulla are heavy favourites for this one.

MY TIP: Let's keep it short and sweet. Cronulla should dominate at the Bermuda Triangle. It is their fortress, their home ground and the score should be convincing. After their attacking shape at times in Auckland, there was a lot to be desired so expect a big bounceback. Sharks by 20.

MATCH PREVIEW

Beth NICHOLLS

The Eels travel out West to BlueBet Stadium to write another chapter in the long-standing rivalry of the Western Sydney battle between them and the Panthers.

Penrith will be vying to get a win on the board after being kept scoreless in their opening match against the Storm last week, which was preceded by a loss in the World Cup Challenge against Wigan in February.

Scott Sorensen and Luke Kenny return to their forward positions, forcing Luke Garner to the bench and Luke Sommerton to drop out of the squad. Matt Eisenhuth, Paul Alamoti and Brad Schneider are the names among the reserves.

Unlike their rivals, the Eels opened their season on a high, beating the Bulldogs at home with a 26-8 score line, leaving them in third place on the ladder (although arguably this doesn't have much of an impact during the opening few rounds).

Parramatta will be lining up the same 17 that got the job done last week against the Bulldogs. Despite having to pass on kicking duties to his teammate last week due to a groin injury, Mitchell Moses has been confirmed that he'll be good to go come Friday night.

Between the two teams they have similar win percentages, however Parramatta lead the way with 66 compared to Penrith having only 52. Both

- Parramatta has won all of their last 4 regular season games against Penrith.
- Izack TAGO (Penrith) will line up for his 50th NRL game times these rivals met in 2023, the Eels claimed victory, in Round 4 where Mitchell Moses kicked a winning field goal in golden point, followed by a Round 26 where they pulled off an upset defeat, winning 32-18.

A plethora of stats lend towards each side, with Penrith not losing two consecutive opening matches since 2016 and winning their past 10/11 games at BlueBet Stadium, whilst the Eels have won four of their last six matches against the Panthers.

WHO TO WATCH: After missing out on the 2023 season due to an ACL injury, Taylan May is currently filling the centre void of Stephen Crichton. During the match against the Storm, he made 157 run metres for 14 runs, and lead the Panthers side for both line breaks (two) and tackle breaks (seven). He is already showing an inkling of his potential in the side, and it will be interesting to see how the rest of his season pans out.

Scoring two of the four tries last match, Bryce Cartwright is a force to be reckoned with. Not only did he pile on the points, he made two line breaks, ran for 114 metres and made six offloads, whilst also excelling in defence where he made 22 tackles, only missing one during his 68 minutes on the field. He was one of the shining stars on the field, and it would be great to watch this form carry with him from now on.

FAVOURITE: Penrith are favoured to grab their first win of the season.

MY TIP: I don't think Penrith will let another loss slide under their belt, especially after their mediocre start to the season in Melbourne. They were lacking a sense of cohesion against the Storm, who just were too good in defence. It will be a tight game, but I think the Panthers will persevere and claim victory in the end. Penrith by 8.

MATCH PREVIEW Andy P

Wests Tigers take their first swipe of the season at the Canberra Raiders

The Raiders are coming off a convincing round 1 win and will be hosting Benji Marshalls' Wests Tigers, which are playing their first game of the premiership season.

With only a Preseason Challenge performance to go on, Benji Marshall will hope the team's off-field work over the preseason will be enough to make it a competitive start to the year. Along with a new coach, plenty of new faces will make their premiership debut for the Tigers. Marshall has called on teen star Lachlan Galvin to step into the number 6, pairing up with new halfback Jayden Sullivan.

With off-field administration and player problems being widely covered, the double wooden spooners' first game for the season will be a chance to give fans fresh hope for the 2024 campaign. Benji believes his squad consists of the boys who have worked the hardest to earn their positions. Justin Olam will have to wait for his premiership debut after a knee injury from last year flared up during the last pre-season game. The gun Papua Guinea international and former Melbourne Storm centre is set to return, fighting fit in round 3.

Canberra showed a classic gritty performance for their start to the 2024 season, coming up trumps 24-18 against the Newcastle Knights at McDonald Jones Stadium. Ricky Stuart was quick to point out the work done by what he believes is his uncredited forward pack. The forwards paved the way for Jamal Fogarty's kicking game to dominate in the round 1 clash. The high completion rate of Fogarty's foot soldiers gave his kicking game a chance to breathe, racking up over 800 kicking meters.

Although key forwards Corey Horsburgh and Elliott Whitehead were out through suspension and injury, The Raiders' round-one pack shone. Raiders new face Zac Hosking had a day out round 1, joining fellow back-rowers Emre Guler and Hudson Young to produce a slick try for Young in the 79th minute.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Canberra have won 13 of their last 15 games against the Tigers, racking up 5 scores over 40 in that time and winning by an average margin of 20 points.
- 17 of the 21 games between these sides played at GIO Stadium has seen a total of at least 38 points scored.

The Raiders are showing that they have a depth of solid forwards ready to take it to the opposition this season.

The Canberra Raider's back line will have some extra punch with Sebastian Kris returning from a five-game suspension. Ricky Stuart has also talked up Ethan Strange in five-eight, who he believes has plenty more for us to see as a halves combination with Jamal Fogarty

WHO TO WATCH: Jordan Rapana has a healthy appetite for finishing off tries, and he loves to go for extra servings when playing against the Wests Tigers, scoring 15 tries in the last 13 clashes between the two teams. Look for Rapana to eat up run meters as well as lead line breaks.

The Raiders forward pack didn't let their fans and coaching staff down in round 1, and the lineup for Saturday afternoon's games is looking dangerous. Zac Hosking seemed to find his feet with the team in round 1, and with the same men shoulder to shoulder with him, look for another solid performance. If that happens, Jamal Fogarty will be ready to dominate with his kicking game and pepper the Tigers' defence with his speedy outside backs.

Wests have proven that although wood spooners for the last two years, they can still cause an upset. And if there is one member of the Wests Tigers who can boost morale and rally troops, it's Jahreem Bula. If the Tigers earn the right to move the ball around through hard work in the middle, watch for Bula to expose a gap from a lazy opposition forward. With fresh faces in the Tiger's back line, regardless, it will be interesting to watch if they will be able to gel and find positives to build on for the season.

FAVOURITE: The numbers don't lie, and they make an easy case for the Raiders to be favourites to win against the Wests Tigers team, who will be desperate not to place a third wooden spoon in the trophy cabinet.

MY TIP: Class and grit got the Raiders a first-up win, and a mountain of confidence going against a Tigers side coming out of the ashes of an organisational firestorm may prove too much. I'm always hoping for a competition, nonetheless, but the Viking Clap will be strong this weekend. Raiders win.

MATCH PREVIEW Aidan EDGECOMB

High flying Cowboys do battle with the Knights up north

Newcastle suffered a major upset in the first Australian game of the 2024 NRL season. Playing at home in front of a near sold out crowd, The Knights had no answers for a defiant Raiders side who claimed a 28-12 victory.

They went into half time down by two, but very soft defence led to Canberra putting on 20 points in the second half. With poor discipline and uninspiring attack, we got a glimpse of the Knights team that started last year - not the one that ended it.

The script couldn't be any more different for North Queensland. Travelling down to Brisbane for a blockbuster clash against The Dolphins. Bookies were split, and it was set to be a close affair that could go either way.

From the second minute, The Cowboys dominated, playing expansive football which shot The Dolphins edges to pieces. They never looked like slowing down, and eventually ran away 43-18 winners. The polar opposite starts to the season for North Queensland and Newcastle, creates an intriguing matchup in Townsville.

In team news, The Cowboys have named an unchanged 17, as Tom Jenkins replaces the injured Enari Tuala on the wing for The Knights. Kai Pearce-Paul has been promoted to a starting spot, due to concussion protocol for Dylan Lucas. Former Rabbitoh Jed Cartwright comes in to take the final bench spot.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Kalyn PONGA (Newcastle) has 48 tries for the club, needing two more for 50.
- This will be just the 12th time in their history that the Cowboys have started match sitting in first place on the ladder. The last time was in Round 10, 2016.
- Cowboys have won 14 of their last 21 games against the Knights

WHO TO WATCH: Centre Zac Laybutt was arguably North Queensland's best last week, bagging a try assist and scoring twice (I won't comment on the last try). He was impressive in the few chances he got last year, and with a starting spot locked down, he'll be wanting to build consistent, dominant performances.

Only 22, Cowboys 5/8 Tom Dearden looks like fine wine - he just gets better with age. Though Dearden crossed for a 4-pointer last week, I was more impressed with his ball running and ability to linkup with Scott Drinkwater. If he can continue these positive signs in attack, it'll cause many headaches for opposing teams.

Perhaps the only blight on North Queensland's performance was the two tries they conceded inside the first 31 minutes - both to forwards on their own try line. This is particularly worrying when you consider Newcastle possess Tyson Frizell, one of the best line runners in the comp. After a try scoring effort last week, Frizell will be looking to exploit this weakness.

2023 Dally M medallist and star fullback, Kalyn Ponga, was quiet last week. After a Tyson Gamble try he set up was disallowed, he struggled to find attacking spark and was far below his best. Still, with a line break and 190 run meters, Ponga certainly showed glimpses of the talent we all know he has. Be on the lookout for an electrifying bounce-back game from Kalyn.

FAVOURITE: The North Queensland Cowboys are clear favourites for a home victory.

MY TIP: I'm currently one from three in my League Unlimited tipping - and by picking the underdog - my record is at risk of getting even worse. Call me crazy, but I have a feeling Newcastle will surprise some people. Knights by 4.

MATCH PREVIEW

Rob CROSBY

Preliminary finalists meet in early season tussle

The Melbourne Storm will be out to extend an emphatic record over the New Zealand Warriors when the trans-Tasman rivals clash at AAMI Park on Saturday evening.

Hosting a fixture in March that has historically been played on ANZAC Day over the past 15 years, the Melbourne Storm will be looking to claim their 15th win in succession over the Warriors.

Defeating reigning premiers Penrith 8-0 last Friday to maintain Craig Bellamy's unbeaten record in opening round fixtures, the Storm coach has gone with an unchanged line up with star playmaker Cameron Munster still sidelined with a groin injury.

Versatile outside back Nick Meaney will make his 50th appearance for Melbourne after joining the club two seasons ago.

The New Zealand Warriors will be hoping to break a decade long drought in Melbourne as they chase their first win of the season.

Getting off to a strong start last Friday before going down 16-12 to Cronulla at home, coach Andrew Webster has stuck solid with the same 17 despite concerns over the fitness of Wayde Egan and Kurt Capewell.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Melbourne have won their last 14 straight games against the Warriors, with an average score of 33-11.
- The Warriors have won just 15 of their last 50 games in Australia.
- This will be the 50th club game for Nick MEANEY (Melbourne). He has 47 NRL tries, needing 3 more for 50.
- Ryan PAPENUYZEN and Xavier COATES (Melbourne) both have 49 career tries, needing one each for 50.
- Jahrome HUGHES (Melbourne) has 49 club tries, needing one more for 50.

Managing just three wins from 13 appearances at AAMI Park over the years, the Warriors have struggled to win their first match in Australia historically with ten victories from 29 attempts.

WHO TO WATCH: Crossing for a decisive four-pointer in last week's record extending win, outside back Reimis Smith will be looking for greater consistency in 2024. Enduring a difficult run with back-to-back seasons cruelled by injury and time spent in reserve grade, the 26-year-old showed signs of the form that saw him regarded as a prospective Kiwi international with just under 100 running metres and three tackle breaks in the opening round win. Entering his fifth season with the Storm after beginning his career with Canterbury-Bankstown, Smith will be looking to make an impact in the final year of his current deal.

Producing a scintillating solo effort in the opening quarter of last week's loss at home, Luke Metcalf will be content to trade in the highlight reel moments for a win on the scoreboard. Beating out more accomplished playmakers for the right to start the season in the number six jersey, the 25-year-old speedster was among the Warriors best attacking threats with six tries in 12 appearances during an injury-interrupted first season at the club. Set to extend his time in New Zealand for a further two years, look for Metcalf to play a key role if the Warriors are to claim a rare win in the Victorian capital on Saturday night.

FAVOURITE: Off the back of an opening round win built on defence, the Storm are expected to maintain their resolve on home soil.

MY TIP: Holding one of the longest winning streaks over any team in the league, the Storm should make it 15 straight against the Warriors on Saturday evening. Storm by 12.

MATCH PREVIEW Kelly HOLLIS

The Manly Warringah Sea Eagles and Sydney Roosters have returned to Australia as impressive round one winners in their historic NRL Double Header matches at Allegiant Stadium in Las Vegas. These ground-breaking games will help to set the scene for another great clash between these two rivals.

The Sea Eagles secured a 36-24 victory over the South Sydney Rabbitohs in Las Vegas. In a game that saw three club debutants, Jaxson Paulo, Luke Brooks, and Nathan Brown, the team from the Northern Beaches went into the sheds with a slight lead before falling behind to a fast start from the Rabbitohs in the second half. Despite playing through an ankle injury, Reuben Garrick had a stellar performance. He scored a try, kicked six from six conversions, and earned an impressive 99 SuperCoach points.

The two teams were evenly matched statistically; however, the Manly side was able to capitalise on their opportunities to secure the win. Unfortunately, the victory came at a cost as Jason Saab left the field with a hamstring injury, likely sidelining him for a number of weeks.

Although the Sea Eagles will be missing Jason Saab, Seibold had two potential replacements: Raymond Tuaimalo Vaega and Tommy Talau. Talau has had a solid pre-season, impressing the coaching staff and as a result has scored himself the wing spot in this game. Apart from this one change, the Manly side will run out with the same squad that played in Round 1.

On the Roosters' front, they opened their 2024 campaign with a 20-10 victory over the Brisbane Broncos, also at Allegiant Stadium. James Tedesco and Joey Manu showcased their attacking prowess, with Manu delivering a spectacular intercept try and a mesmerising pass to set up Junior Pauga for a stunning try. Tedesco's exceptional performance included over 190 meters, nine tackle busts, two offloads, one linebreak, one try assist, and flawless tackle efficiency.

The victory in Las Vegas was marred by Spencer Leniu facing an extended stint on the sideline after being charged for an on-field racial slur towards

- Roosters have won 5 of their last 8 games against Manly at 4 Pines Park
- Manly have won 24 of their last 51 games at 4 Pines Park.
- Nathan BROWN (Manly) is set to play his 150th NRL game.
- Angus CRICHTON (Sydney) is sitting on 99 club games.

Ezra Mam. As a result of Leniu's suspension and players returning from injury, Robinson will be bringing Jared Waerea-Hargraves straight into the starting line-up. Dominic Young will make his club debut replacing Pauga on the wing, with the Round 1 try scorer being moved to the bench.

In their two meetings in the 2023 season, each team tasted victory, and in their past 10 games, the Roosters have taken the W on 7 occasions. In saying that, the Roosters do not have a great history against Manly when they've had to cross the Bridge, having won only 12 of their 50 games at Brookvale.

WHO TO WATCH: One player to keep a close eye on for the Sydney Roosters in this round is Terrell May. The 24-year-old forward showcased his prowess in both attack and defence during Round 1 against the Broncos. Coming off the bench, May had a stellar performance, playing 54 minutes and covering over 160 metres, with 80 post-contact. He broke three tackles and made a solid 28 tackles, missing only one. With key players like Spencer Leniu and Jared Waerea-Hargreaves serving lengthy bans, May has a golden opportunity to solidify his place in the Roosters' forward pack.

A player to watch for the Manly Warringah Sea Eagles is Ben Trbojevic. After earning a starting spot in the second row towards the end of the 2023 season, 'Burbo' has carried this momentum into 2024. In a standout performance against the Rabbitohs, he scored a crucial try in the 53rd minute, propelling Manly back into the lead and inspiring the team to secure a convincing victory. Trbojevic made a significant impact with 10 hit-ups, breaking four tackles, and maintaining an 88% tackle efficiency from 35 tackles. The 22-year-old's impressive contributions have not gone unnoticed, as the Sea Eagles recently extended his contract through the end of the 2027 season, making him a key asset to watch in the Roosters showdown.

FAVOURITE: The Tricolours have the backing of the bookmakers.

MY TIP: Based on the history between these two it would appear that the Roosters may have the upper hand. However, with Manly's spectacular winning record over the Tricolours at Brookvale, this game will come down to who can capitalise on their opportunities. Because this is the first home game for the Manly side, and they were able to capitalise on more opportunities than the Roosters in Round 1, my tip is Manly by 8.

MATCH PREVIEW

Olivia T

Bottom placed Dolphins have a chance to put their phins up when they play the dominant Dragons at Kayo Stadium.

The Dolphins are coming off a 43-18 loss to the Cowboys at Suncorp Stadium, where their inability to defend late in the tackle count cost them four tries. The loss was made even worse as back-rower Connelly Lemuelu reportedly dislocated his kneecap, which is set to rule him out for an extended period and lock Ray Stone failed a HIA in the second half.

Shane Flanagan's first game as Dragons coach showed fans exactly why he was brought in, as the Dragons won 28-4 over a weak Titans team at CBUS Super Stadium. New halves pairing Ben Hunt and Kyle Flanagan guided the Dragons, allowing their backs to capitalise on their plays. Their defence was strong as well, only letting the Titans grab one try late in the first half. It was their first away win since Round 24, 2022.

In team news, the Dolphins are hindered by Lemuelu and Stone's injuries. Euan Aitken is replacing the former this week in the second row and Max Plaith replacing the latter at lock. Sean O'Sullivan has been dropped from the halves, with Isaiya Katoa named at No.7. New signing Jake Averillo is set to make his club debut, and present a new centres pairing alongside Herbie Farnworth, with Tesi Niu in the reserves. Jarrod Wallace joins the interchange after missing out last week.

For St George Illawarra, prop Blake Lawrie has returned from a rib injury he attained during the trials. Returning Dragon, Luciano Leilua has been named on the bench after missing last week's win due to suspension, which pushes Viliami Fifita to 18th man. After starting last week, Raymond Faitala-Mariner has also been named on the bench.

THINGS TO KNOW

- The Dragons have won their opening 2 Rounds of the season just 3 times – 2010, 2014 and 2018.
- The Dragons have won just 14 of their last 52 games in Queensland (since Round 9, 2009)
- Injured Dolphins utility Ray STONE sits on 49 NRL games.

WHO TO WATCH: Another new signing for the Dolphins, prop Tom Flegler made an immediate impact on the field, scoring the Dolphins first try 7 minutes into the match. He also had one line break, three tackle breaks and 100% tackle efficiency, but it wasn't enough to hold out the Cowboys. However, Flegler made a few errors – to get over the Dragons this week, he would be looking to improve discipline.

You might think Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow STILL plays for the Cowboys after his defensive decision to kick a Taulagi ball sent it right into Luki's arms. Besides his brain fade leading to a Cowboy's try, Tabuai-Fidow had seven tackle breaks and one line break, which contributed to the Dolphins long range try, of which he ran 20 out of the 80 meters. Whilst not a mesmerising game (for the right reasons at least), once he finds his attacking groove again, he can be dangerous for the Dolphin's season.

Tyrell Sloan was THE standout with a hat-trick under his belt along with two line breaks and 107 run metres. Sloan was one of the players that turned Hunt and Flanagan's plays into points. After an inconsistent 2023 season, Sloan would be looking for more consistency and dangerous demonstrations of his attacking abilities.

Newly minted winger Zac Lomax raised eyebrows with his new position, but he did not disappoint. In what was one of his best performances of his career, Lomax scored a try and had 25 runs for 234 meters. While there is always room for improvement, especially in a new position, Lomax did well in his first stint as a winger. If he continues this form into the season, other wingers are at risk of a lesson from Lomax.

FAVOURITE: At the time of writing, the Dragons are ever so slightly tipped to take this home.

MY TIP: Anyone who knows me, knows my Phin is always up. The Dolphins could turn it around this week and win at home, but after the Dragons performance last week, it's safe to say they are breathing fire and are looking for two away wins in a row. Dragons by 16.

2024 MEN'S BETFRED SUPER LEAGUE

ROUND 4 WRAP with AJ LUCANTONIO

HULL KR 20 WARRINGTON WOLVES 22 at Sewell Group Craven Park, Hull
 Date: Thu, 7th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Warrington 18-12. Referee: Aaron Moore.
Hull KR: Hiku, Evalds, Opacic, Gildart, Hall; May, Lewis; Hadley, Litten, Whitbread, Tanginoa, Batchelor, Minchella. Int: Sue, King, Parcell, Luckley. Warrington: Dufty, Thewlis, King, Wrench, Ashton; Williams, Hayes; Harrison, Walker, Vaughan, Holroyd, Fitzgibbon, Currie. Int: Philbin, Growthor, Musgrove, Powell.

Life under Sam Burgess continues to improve for Warrington after a narrow 22-20 win over Hull KR away from home. Warrington opened the scoring after seven minutes when Matt Dufty schemed around before finding George Williams who beat some flimsy Rovers goal-line defence to crash over. Josh Thewlis added the extras for a 6-0 lead. Seven minutes later, Wire extended their lead when Leon Hayes delivered a clever kick into the in-goal which was spilled by Peta Hiku. Matty Ashton was jolly on the spot to collect the scraps and a 10-0 lead for the visitors. Fortunately for the home crowd, Rovers woke up three minutes later and found their first try when Tyrone May outlept Dufty to cross for a great individual try. At the 25 minute mark, the left edge of Mikey Lewis and Oliver Gildart combined to send Ryan Hall sprinting away down the sideline and Rovers gained the lead for the first time courtesy of Jez Litten's boot to lead 12-10. James Batchelor spilled a golden opportunity in the 32nd minute that would prove costly for the home side. Six minutes later, the Wire capitalised and Toby King crossed out wide after some great lead up work from Lachlan Fitzgibbon. Warrington weren't finished before the break when Connor Wrench toed the ball ahead and won the race to the loose ball to lead 18-12 at the break.

Rovers started strongly in the second half and got the rewards in the 57th minute. Lewis broke some fragile Wire defence with a rainbow pass to Hall before he kept the play alive with a miraculous ball to Gildart to cross. Five minutes later, the same set play worked on the right when May delivered a magic ball to Tom Opacic who crossed outside and Rovers held a 20-18 lead. Dufty stole victory for the visitors inside the final 10 minutes when he broke through off a scrum play to secure the Wire's third straight win.

ST HELENS 20 SALFORD RED DEVILS 24 at Totally Wicked Stadium, St Helens
 Date: Fri, 8th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: St Helens 14-6. Referee: Tom Grant. Crowd: 11548
St Helens: Welsby, Makinson, Blake, Percival, Bennison; Lomax, Dodd; Walsley, Clark, Mata'utia, Whitley, Siromen, Knowles. Int: Mbye, Bell, Wingfield, Delaney. Salford: Brierley, Hankinson, Macdonald, Lafai, Cross; Cust, Sneyd; Ormondroyd, Bourour, Singleton, Stone, Watkins, Shorrocks. Int: Vuniyayawa, Atkin, Wright, Hellewell.

Salford have overcome a 20-6 victory to defeat a 12 man St Helens side by 24-20 at Totally Wicked Stadium winning at St Helens for the first time in 44 years. Both sides were guilty of making mistakes in the early going. But it was Salford's mistakes in their own end that proved most costly after ten minutes. From a scrum win, St Helens shifted the ball left and the ever dangerous Jack Welsby sprinted past the cover defence to score the opening points of the evening. Mark Percival's conversion attempt was unsuccessful. Eight minutes later, Saints were in again. Some simple shape saw Sione Mata'utia bust through the line before finding Lewis Dodd who sprinted away to add a second try on the board. Percival's conversion attempt bounced off the left hand upright and the score remained at 8-0. Salford slowly began to work their way back into the contest and got their reward at the 24 minute mark after Saints failed to recover the kickoff. The ball began to move across the backline and Deon Cross got the ball with plenty of room to do, but he beat the sliding cover defence from Saints and crossed for the visitors. Marc Sneyd added the extras from touch and the margin was cut significantly down to just two points. With just 5 and a half to go until the break, Johnny Lomax schemed around the field before finding a man in Percival who crashed over to score. He converted his own try for a 14-6 lead to the Saints at the break.

The second half started horrifically for Saints when Percival was given a red card for a forceful head high tackle off the ball. Saints edge defence held firm early in the send off period and held out several Red Devil raids. Despite being down to 12, Dodd crossed for his second try in the 58th minute with a dummy and run, fully capitalising on a controversial forward pass call against Salford. Dodd converted his own try and it was 20-6. Salford did hit back 17 minutes from time when Nene Macdonald crashed his way over down the right hand side where Saints were vulnerable in defence. Sneyd converted for an eight point gap. Salford continued to close the gap when Chris Atkin stepped his way past some would-be defenders to crash over with 11 minutes to play. Tim Lafai showcased his silky skills delivering a miraculous flick pass which found Cross in the last five minutes to give the Salford Red Devils a narrow lead. Sneyd's conversion gave the Red Devils a four point lead. Saints had chances to win it late, but put the ball down in the critical moments to spill the chances of victory.

LEIGH LEOPARDS 16 LEEDS RHINOS 22 at Leigh Sports Village Stadium, Leigh
LEEDS RHINOS (22) Tries: Ash Handley 2, Rhyse Martin, Matt Frawley; Goals: Rhyse Martin 3/4 DEF LEIGH LEOPARDS (16) Tries: Gareth O'Brien, Kai O'Donnell, Umyla Hanley; Goals: Matt Moylan 2/4
 Date: Fri, 8th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Leigh 16-0. Referee: Chris Kendall.
Leigh: O'Brien, Hanley, Hardaker, Leutele, Charnley, Moylan, Lam; Hughes, Dwyer, Mulhern, O'Donnell, Halton, Amone. Int: Norman, Davis, Trout, Nakubuwai. Leeds: Miller, Roberts, Newman, Momirovski, Handley, Croft, Frawley, Oledzki, Ackers, Goudemand, McDonnell, Martin, Smith. Int: Holroyd, O'Connor, Sangaré, Ruan.

The Leeds Rhinos have come back from 16-0 down away from home to pull out a 22-16 win over the Leigh Leopards. Leigh opened the scoring early despite early Leeds pressure on their own line. It was a well worked set move in the 13th minute which allowed Gareth O'Brien to burst through a gap down the left hand side to put Leigh up 4-0. The conversion attempt was waved away. Seven minutes later, the Rhinos were made to pay for conceding a seven tackle set. Zak Hardaker set his team up brilliantly before later in the set, the Aussie trio of Matt Moylan, Lachie Lam and Kai O'Donnell combined brilliantly for a move we saw end in points galore for Leigh last season. A crash ball from Lam to O'Donnell and the big backrower crashed over to score. Moylan finally gave Leigh a successful conversion in 2024 to lead 10-0. Leeds continued to make mistakes and the Leopards had the class to cross for their third try. Umyla Hanley crossed on his home debut finishing off a silky backline play, and the Rhinos were shellshocked conceding three tries in 14 minutes and trailed 14-0. Moylan added a penalty goal as Leeds discipline continued to let them down to extend the deficit to 16. Tom Amone was denied a try for a double movement just before the break, but it was still a handy 16-0 lead at the break.

Rohan Smith's men started stronger in the second half and it was a good ball from Brodie Croft to Rhyse Martin who ran over the top of Moylan to score for the Rhinos in the 48th minute. He duly converted his own try and the gap was cut to just 10 points. Leeds were starting to gain ascendancy, Andy Ackers broke through a few moments later and following a shift, O'Brien ended up in the sin-bin for a professional foul to reduce Leigh to 12 men. Just past the hour mark, they made the Leopards pay for going down to 12 when Matt Frawley crossed for a great individual try with a dummy and run to cross under the posts. Leeds continued their charge off the next set when Martin toed ahead, Ash Handley secured it and found Paul Momirovski who got it on back inside to Handley to level the scores at 16 all. Martin's kick just missed and we remained level. Leeds recovered quickly and it was again another move down the left edge where Martin, Croft and Handley combined to send the winger away for his second and put the Rhinos in front by six points. To further compound the collapse, Lam was carried off in the 71st minute with a lower leg injury. Justin Sangare was sin-binned for Leeds after repeated foul play penalties, but Leigh lacked direction late without Lam on and Leeds were able to survive and hang on for a tenacious comeback victory.

CASTLEFORD TIGERS 8 HUDDERSFIELD GIANTS 50 at The Jungle, Castleford
HUDDERSFIELD GIANTS (50) Tries: Leroy Cudjoe 2, Adam Swift 2, Sam Halsall 2, Kevin Naiqama, Sam Hewitt, Adam Clune; Goals: Oliver Russell 7/10 DEF CASTLEFORD TIGERS (8) Tries: Innes Senior 2
 Date: Fri, 8th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Huddersfield 24-4. Referee: Liam Moore. Crowd: 7040
Castleford: Hooley, Simm, Mellor, Wood, Senior, Milnes, Miller; Lawler, Horne, Namu, Johnson, Taspale, Westerman. Int: Broadbent, Putt, Hall, Vete. Huddersfield: Connor, Halsall, Marsters, Naiqama, Swift; Russell, Clune; Hill, Golding, Ikahihifo, Murchie, Hewitt, Cudjoe. Int: Lolohea, Yates, Wilson, Salabio.

The Huddersfield Giants have compounded Castleford's woes by piling on the points in a 50-8 massacre of the Tigers at the Jungle. The Giants crossed for the opening try inside 7 minutes when Adam Swift crossed for the first of his two tries in the corner after some slick hands. Oli Russell added the extras for an early 6-0 lead. This was soon doubled when Adam Clune chipped over the top and regathered for the visitors to cross for a second try in fifteen minutes, with Russell's conversion it was 12-0 rather quickly. Castleford hit back when Innes Senior crossed after 25 minutes when he showcased his power to cross down the left edge. Luke Hooley's kick hit the post and it remained a tight contest at 12-4. But, Huddersfield showed their class late in the half to extend their lead. Sam Halsall crossing in the corner for the visitors (33rd minute) with Russell's kick missed. This was made up for a penalty goal by Russell three minutes later for an 18-4 lead. Sam Hewitt crossed before the half to make the score 24-4.

Senior crossed for the Tigers ten minutes after the resumption after showcasing some stepping and skill to put the ball down for the home side. Hooley's kick was again narrowly wide to reduce the gap to 16 but that was as close as they got. Huddersfield ran in five tries in the last 20 minutes of play with Leroy Cudjoe crossing for a double while fourth tries for Swift, Halsall (adding to their first half tries) and Naiqama crossing to add some further salt into the wound for the Castleford Tigers looking for their first win of the season. That being said, there are still some major question marks for the side as they look to avoid the relegation battle yet again in 2024.

LONDON BRONCOS 22 WIGAN WARRIORS 60 at The Cherry Red Records Stadium, Wembleton
WIGAN WARRIORS (60) Tries: Harvie Hill 2, Ryan Hampshire, Jacob Wardle, Patrick Mago, Abbas Miski, Adam Keighran, Tyler Dupree, Bradley O'Neill, Zach Eckersley; Goals: Adam Keighran 10/11 DEF LONDON BRONCOS (22) Tries: Lee Kershaw 2, Jacob Jones, Jordan Williams; Goals: Oliver Leyland 3/4
 Date: Sat, 9th March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Wigan 22-10. Referee: James Vella. Crowd: 4,116.
London: Miloudi, Kershaw, Storey, Bassett, Macani; Leyland, Meadows; Kennedy, Davis, Rogers, Lovell, Jones, Stock. Int: Butterworth, Butler, Williams, Walker. Wigan: Field, Miski, Keighran, Wardle, Eckersley, Hampshire, Farrimond; Thompson, O'Neill, Dupree, Isa, Farrell, Mago. Int: Hill, Nsemba, Chan, Forber.

The London Broncos tough initiation back into the grind of Super League football continued with a 60-22 loss to the defending champions Wigan. A tough challenge was made harder early when an unforced error from London gave Wigan possession. They immediately capitalised and crossed after shifting the ball fast and efficiently to find Jacob Wardle who crossed for the opening try. Five minutes later, Abbas Miski charged across from dummy half and it was a quick fire 10-0 lead after 10 minutes. London were able to hit back four minutes later, Oliver Layland stepped through some defenders before finding Jacob Jones to give London some much needed points on the board and cut the margin to 4. But a team like Wigan were always going to pose a threat. Tyler Dupree crashed over three minutes later after a tenacious effort to get the ball to the ground. Ten minutes later, Harvie Hill made an impact with his first touch to crash over the top of some would be tacklers for a try, making the score quickly blow out to 22-4. London would get the final try of the half, Lee Kershaw finishing off acrobatically in the left corner making it a 22-10 half-time deficit for the home side.

London miraculously scored first in the second half, a misfielded kick was recovered by Rhys Kennedy who found Jordan Williams to crash over and cut the gap to six. Rob Butler was sent to the sin-bin for a dangerous tackle, Adam Keighran added two points to extend the margin to eight. The Warriors took full advantage of the 12 man Broncos side, crossing for two tries courtesy of a dummy half dart by Brad O'Neill in the 49th minute and Patrick Mago in the 54th minute from short range and the game quickly fell out of London's grasp. Zach Eckersley added his name to the scorer's list after backing up a break on the hour mark. Ryan Hampshire added another five minutes later, breaking through some pedestrian and fatigued London defence. London added a try in the final ten when Kershaw again finished off spectacularly in the corner before two quick ones from Hill and Keighran saw the Warriors put 60 on London for the third time since 2013.

CATALANS DRAGONS 26 HULL FC 12 at Stade Gilbert Brutus, Perpignan
 Date: Sat, 9th March. Kickoff: 6:30 PM. Halftime: Catalans 14-6. Referee: Jack Smith. Crowd: 9,104.
Catalans: Nikorima, Davies, Ikuvalu, Laguerre, Johnstone, Abdull, Fages; Navarrete, Da Costa, Bousquet, Sims, McMeeken, Garcia. Int: Mourgue, Séguier, Satae, Dezaria. Hull: FC: Walker, Russell, Tuimavave, McIntosh, Martin; Smith, Brown; Eese/ese, Houghton, Sao, Okunbor, Staveley, Lane. Int: Ashworth, Bullock, Gardiner, Hoy.

Catalans have rebounded from last week's loss to Leeds with a 26-12 win over Hull FC at home. The Dragons crossed after barely any time at all. Theo Fages turned Mike McMeekan on an oners play and he broke through before finding Jayden Nikorima and after 36 seconds of play, the Dragons had a 6-0 lead. Ten minutes later, they added a second try when Nikorima this time turned provider with a lovely short pass to Matthieu Laguerre to slide over. Abdull's two conversions gave the home side a nice 12-0 cushion. Hull were competitive and made Catalans earn their victory, fighting back in the 18th minute courtesy of Fa'amanu Brown. Brown finished off a clever little grubber kick that failed to be taken care of by the Dragons and touched down for the visitors to cut the lead in half. Arthur Mourgue added a penalty goal five minutes from time. The penalty also resulted in Jack Ashworth being yellow carded for a high tackle to give the home side an eight point lead (14-6).

Hull FC again started strong in the second half and got rewarded. Jack Walker finished off a bizarre movement when the pass was touched by Catalans but came off the head of a Hull player. The ball landed in Walker's arms for a fair try and with the sideline conversion, it was well and truly game on. However, the second half from there was all Catalans as they added two tries to run away comfortable winners. First, Mourgue added to his tally of points with a solo piece of brilliance. Receiving the ball 5 or so metres away from the line, he broke through a handful of tackles to cross and put the margin beyond two scores (58th minute). The match was sealed 11 minutes from time when Fages delivered a peach of a pass to Tom Davies to secure a 26-12 verdict.
