BRISBANE 28 SOUTHS 18

ELECTRIC WALSH SPARKS BRISBANE TO THE WIN COLUMN AJ LUCANTONIO

An electric performance from fullback Reece Walsh has guided the Brisbane Broncos to their first win of 2024, downing an inconsistent South Sydney side by 28-18.

The game had a scrappy feel to it early with both sides keen on handing over possession to the other in the opening 15 minutes. Brisbane conceded two penalties whilst in possession in the red-zone going downtown and for a sheppard. Fortunately for the Broncos, the South Sydney attack was struggling to connect and walked away from their early raid empty-handed. Brisbane capitalised early on some chip kicks in behind Alex Johnston by Adam Reynolds and it paid off early as the Rabbitohs winger was bundled into touch. That proved critical as the Rabbitohs burnt their challenge on the same play. Off that ensuing possession, Reynolds worked his magic with a clever grubber fooling the Souths edge and a flying Deine Mariner won the race to the ball to cross for the opening try of the contest. Reynolds missed the conversion. Souths seemed to try to match Brisbane's pace in attack and it wasn't successful with mistakes in the middle of the park gifting Brisbane with possession. A Siliva Havili error gave Brisbane the ball and the game's most explosive player made them pay. After receiving the ball from almost a standing start, Reece Walsh carved Souths open and beat a good 5 defenders including Latrell Mitchell all ends up for a great individual try. Reynolds added it from in front for a 10-0 lead. The Rabbitohs were made to pay further when Mitchell failed to defuse a kick which allowed Reynolds to pick it up and was taken down metres short of the line. Damien Cook was judged to deliberately slow down play, and he was gone for sin-binned. Reynolds added a penalty goal for a 12-0 advantage. Brisbane struggled to execute whilst being down to 12 with several chances going to waste leaving the margin at 12 going into the half.

After gifting possession away in the first half like it was a closing-down sale. Souths passed the error code to Brisbane and Jesse Arthars was the poor soul to put the ball down. South Sydney capitalised and crashed over first to start the second half with a determined effort by Havili beating several defenders to the line. Mitchell added the extras and the deficit was cut in half. Off the back of a flop in the ruck from Billy Walters. Havili turned provider this time with a lovely short pass to Davvy Moale who crashed over next to the posts three minutes later. Mitchell locked the scores up at 12-12. After the initial Rabbitoh resistance, Brisbane fully capitalised on some possession down the Rabbitohs' end of the field. Walsh created some lovely second phase out to the left and Arthars finished off in the corner to retake the lead and a 4 point advantage. Despite Souths' best efforts, their attack was being met with every answer and with just under 20 to go, the Broncos eventually were going to strike with their speed in the backs. Walsh ran it on the last down the left finding Cobbo who found Arthars before kicking back in field. Mitchell mistimed getting to the footy and Walsh was there to pick it up and cross for his second of the contest. The conversion was successful for a vital 10 point cushion. Mariner put the icing on the cake with a Phil Blake-esque chip and chase over the top of Alex Johnston to cross for the Broncos to put the exclamation point on a dominant second half. Latrell Mitchell finished off the match with a great individual try, which also capped his 100th try at the NRL level to reduce the pain on the scoreboard a little. There was a blow to Brisbane's win with Adam Reynolds failing to finish with a lower leg injury and being replaced with 10 minutes to go. South Sydney started poor, it got a little better in the second half but they fell in a heap late. They desperately need Wighton back to provide some X Factor in attack out wide.

CANBERRA 32 WESTS TIGERS 12

GREEN MACHINE SPOILS BENJI'S BIG DAY WITH STRONG WIN IN CANBERRA RHYS SULLIVAN

Benji Marshall's coaching debut has ended with defeat, as the Canberra Raiders ran out 32-12 winners against the Wests Tigers.

The Raiders started the match well on top, with the Tigers unable to complete a set until the 11th minute of the match. In the meantime Jamal Fogarty tacked on a penalty goal, before a clean shift down the left hand side saw Danny Levi score. Even when the Tigers got possession Canberra were still rolling and Ethan Strange was able to make it a 14-0 lead within 15 minutes. But the Tigers caught fire and brought the game back. First Lachlan Galvin, on his NRL debut, turned an outside-inside with Jahream Bula who offloaded to get Samuela Fainu his first NRL try.

CRONULLA 25 CANTERBURY 6

CRONULLA OUTPACE TIRING CANTERBURY KELLY HOLLIS

The Bulldogs started fast, but weren't able to keep pace with a fast finishing Sharks outfit who won 25-6 at Pointsbet Stadium on Friday night.

It didn't take long for drama to unfold in the first game of Friday Night Football for Round 2. In his first carry of the game, Poasa Faamausili went down after a huge tackle from Connor Tracey. He was taken from the field for a mandatory head injury assessment and Josh Curran entered the game much earlier than expected. It didn't take long for the match officials to deem Faamausili unfit to return with a Category 1 HIA result. We didn't have to wait long for more drama to unfold, with Briton Nikora being sent to the bin in the 5th minute after play was stopped by the video referee. An incident that wasn't picked up by the on-field ref was called out following the next play and Nikora was placed on report and binned for a high shot on Villiame Kikau. Alongside this, we had a few instances of 'shenanigans' that the ref warned needed to stop or more players would be sitting out for 10.

In an unusual decision, Kikau was denied the first try of the evening because the referee impeded the Sharks defence... there are still a few people scratching their head over that one, questioning how the referee being in the way resulted in the try being overturned. The first points of the evening were earned by young winger, Blake Wilson after spreading the ball out to create and overlap. Wilson still needs to do some work to get over the line with a number of Sharks defenders in his way. Matt Burton pushed the Bulldogs lead out to 6 by slotting the conversion from the sideline.

The next ten minutes saw some end to end footy where both sides had opportunities that they couldn't capitalise on before the Sharks scored. A great passage of play from the Cronulla side saw Nicho Hynes put his second rower in Teig Wilton through a hole... who then connected with Braydon Trindall to send him over for their first points of the night! A successful conversion from Hynes saw the scores locked at 6 a piece and it remained that way until half-time. Going in to the break both sides were pretty evenly matched. Possession swung slightly in the Sharks favour in the last few minutes of the half, while both teams were completing well above 80%.

The second half started pretty slowly, with both sides once again having opportunities to get themselves down field, but errors were holding them back before a late offload from Jesse Ramien saw Sione Katoa go over for the Sharks to put them in front for the first time tonight. Hynes added the 2 to make it a 12 - 6 scoreline. At this stage, it looked like the Bulldogs were tiring much faster than the Sharks. Both sides had started fast, but it was going to come down to who could finish strong as well. It didn't take long for the Sharks to score again, with Teig Wilton threw a crazy pass two Siosifa Talakai before he grubbered the Ronaldo Mulitalo. He was unable to pick the ball up, but got his toe to it, getting it into the in-goal area and planting it for another Sharks 4 pointer: Hynes converted from beside the sticks and the score was now 18 - 6.

Five minutes later, Wilton crossed for his own 4-pointer after a beautiful left-side play, before Hynes kicked the conversion with the help of the goal posts. Nicho Hynes then put the final nail in the coffin by kicking a field goal to win the game 25 - 6.

Then a set later Apisai Koroisau pounced on a quick play the ball to barge over the line and suddenly the game was back to 14-12 But the Raiders steeled and quick tries by Jordan Rapana and Xavier Savage extended their advantage back to 12 points by halftime, and a myriad of chances by the Tigers coming out of the break couldn't break their line.

A penalty goal extended the lead to 14 for the Raiders, and then Zac Hosking crossed for a try a short time later to put the game almost beyond doubt. But it was the Raiders tough defence that really sealed the win, repelling multiple sets inside their 10 in the last 15 minutes to secure the two points. It's a great result for Canberra, who improve to 2-0 on the season. Heading into 2024 with outside expectations of being a wooden spoon chance, the Raiders are continuing to buck the trend and are building early momentum heading into a trip to New Zealand next week. For the Tigers it's a tough but unsurprising start, and after their Round 1 bye it's still just their first match of the year. But it's straight out the frying pan and into the fire with a match against Cronulla next week

PENRITH 26 PARRAMATTA 18

PANTHERS VICTORIOUS AGAINST GALLANT EELS

ANDREW FERGUSON

The Parramatta Eels produced a brilliant, fighting first half performance against the defending Premiers, but the Panthers controlled everything in the second half to strangle the Eels and take their first win of the year.

The Eels got off to a perfect start when a penalty in the second minute saw them start their first set inside the Panthers half. A set restart followed and then Joey Lussick dived over from dummy half ever so easily and predictably and he scored a soft try. Mitchell Moses added the extras. The Panthers hit back in the 12th minute when a Nathan Cleary grubber into the Eels in-goal is collected cleanly by Dylan Edwards who scores with no one around. Cleary converts. The 17th minute saw Moses Leota score a brilliant solo try. Leota received the ball flat footed 35m from the Eels line, stepped two defenders clean and then accelerated between two others to score a gorgeous try. Cleary converted. A penalty against Jarome Luai for a trip allowed the Eels to march downfield and from the ensuing set, they shifted the ball left to Dylan Brown who shaped to pass long but then dropped a stunning short ball to Shaun Lane, who got through a tiny gap, evaded Edwards' tackle and strolled 20 metres to score under the sticks. Moses converted to level the scores again with 16 minutes remaining in the half. The Panthers crossed again with something out of the Matrix. The ball went out to Sunia Turuva seemingly too early, who then slipped and fell to his knee, which coincidentally allowed him to duck under Clint Gutherson's cover tackle attempt. Turuva got back to his feet and dived over in the corner for a brilliant try. Cleary's sideline conversion hit the upright. Penrith very nearly extended their lead further in the final 5 minutes of the half when Brian To'o landed short of the tryline but then lost the ball agonisingly short of the line. With a minute left in the half Parramatta struck back when Dylan Brown in the middle and close to the line, delivered another gorgeous short ball, this time to J'maine Hopgood who stands in the tackle and then stretches out as he falls to score near the posts. Gutherson converted and at halftime the Eels had an 18-16 lead.

Penrith struck first after the break when Issah Yeo, in the middle with nothing happening, kicked across the field perfectly for Turuva, who leapt and caught the ball cleanly, then fell over the line to score. Cleary converted from out wide. Just 3 minutes later the Panthers crossed again when Penrith spread the ball right to Izack Tago, who stepped inside his defender to score a soft try. Cleary from wide on the right hits the upright again. Both sides started showing signs of fatigue over the last 20 minutes, however it was the Panthers who dominated everything and eventually suffocated the Eels attack to win 26-18.

NORTH QLD 21 NEWCASTLE 20

COWBOYS WIN UGLY IN GOLDEN POINT ANDREW FERGUSON

The Cowboys had one of their most ill-disciplined and sloppiest first halves of footy in some time yet somehow managed to score a win over the Knights in Golden Point.

The first half was riddled with Cowboys errors, silly penalties from sloppy play, Chad Townsend failing to find touch not once, but twice from penalty kicks, Valentine Holmes dropping the ball cold twice and missing a penalty goal from almost in front. Meanwhile the Knights dominated field position but their execution on the last tackle was timid and ineffective, an issue that they struggled to overcome in the second half. In the 13th minute the Cowboys were awarded a penalty and Valentine Holmes missed the regulation goal. Five minutes later and the Knights were on the attack when Adam Elliott broke out of a tackle, fended off a cover defender and then raced 25 metres to score a strong solo try. Kalyn Ponga converted. Tyson Frizell was held up over the line in the 26th minute and Tom Dearden was ruled offside, denying him a try in the 31st minute, but the Knights finally scored just shy of halftime when Jack Hetherington at acting dummy half and right on the Cowboys line, dished a stunning short, flat ball to Elliott who hit a gap and scored his second try. Ponga converted from in front. Jackson Hastings attempted to kick a 2 point field goal right on the stroke of halftime, but he was unsuccessful. At the break the Knights held a 12-0 lead.

The first 5 minutes of the second half saw a completely different Cowboys side take to the field. In the 42nd minute a Cowboys bomb was dropped by Greg Marzhev, picked up by Kyle Feldt who quickly passed it out to Chad Townsend who scored untouched in the corner. Holmes nailed the sideline conversion. The Cowboys crossed again just 3 minutes later when Scott Drinkwater floated a beautiful cut-out pass over the top to Feldt who scored in the corner. Holmes failed to convert from the sideline. The Knights got control of the game back in the 50th minute when a kick close to the Cowboys line by Elliott ricocheted up into the waiting arms of Hastings, who then delicately dribbled a grubber to the left wing where Marzhev clearly regathered and scored in the corner. Ponga's sideline conversion was perfect and gave the Knights an 8 point lead. The Knights received a penalty 4 minutes later deep inside the Cowboys half and Ponga kicked a penalty goal to increase their lead to 10. On the hour mark, the Cowboys kept themselves in the contest when Tom Dearden scored a classic bullocking front rowers try and Holmes converted. With less than 5 minutes left in the game, Townsend put in a lovely grubber which Jeremiah Nanai cleaned up and scored with no Knights players in sight. Holmes from the easy angle failed to convert, leaving the scores tied with 2 minutes remaining. Holmes had a shot at a 2 point field goal from 45 metres out. He struck it perfectly but it sailed just wide and at full time the scores were 20 all.

The Cowboys opened Golden Point with a strong defensive set and then followed up by making huge metres before Townsend slotted the match-winning field goal in the 82nd minute.

MANLY 21 SYDNEY 14

MANLY DOMINANT BUT SCRAPPY OVER ROOSTERS JOSH ROBERTSON

There might not have been a big finish like last night but the Manly Sea Eagles have been able to edge themselves to a 21-14 victory over the Sydney Roosters.

The opening forty minutes might have looked close on the scoreboard with the Sea Eagles taking a two point lead but it could have been so much more for the home side. The first try to Manly came with a fair bit of controversy with opinions on divided whether James Tedesco was unfairly taken out in the air by Tom Trbojevic whilst contesting and losing the ball for it to end up with Lachlan Croker to score. Hitting back soon after, the Roosters found space when they really shouldn't have as an attacking raid down the short side netted them a four pointer through Daniel Tupou. Counter-attacking football netted the Sea Eagles their second try as a loose ball from the Roosters in their own end was swooped upon and Tolu Koula found space on the outside of the tricolours defence and he went over in the corner. The Roosters were able to again hit back when Luke Keary, Sitili Tupouniua and ultimate James Tedesco combined when Keary went outside before a quick ball from Tupouniua sent the Roosters captain to score. A penalty goal on the stroke of half time gave the Sea Eagles a deserved 12-10 lead at the break.

The start to the second half was pure dominance from the Sea Eagles as they found themselves in good field position and they scored inside two minutes when Tommy Talau got through four defenders to score. The bunker knocked back two try efforts from the Sea Eagles ruling that Haumole Olakau'atu was held short of the line initially then a second effort was given by referee Todd Smith but eventually overturned by the bunker for a knock-on. The overturn from the bunker was a big reprieve for the Roosters who were able to keep the scoreline within reach and Dom Young closed it back to 18-14 when he was able to get a touch on a long ball from the Sea Eagles and James Tedesco cleaned it up before finding Dom Young who had the speed to score. Despite being back in the contest, the Roosters looked as if they were still a step behind and a Reuben Garrick penalty goal was able to push the margin out to six before with seven minutes to go DCE kicked a 1 pointer for the ultimate 7 point gap.

MELBOURNE 30 WARRIORS 26

COATES SOARS MELBOURNE INTO FAMOUS VICTORY

JOSH ROBERTSON

A game that will go down in NRL history forever has seen Xavier Coates turn into superman to dive and miraculously score the match winner in the final 10 seconds as Melbourne took a 30-26 win from the New Zealand Warriors.

Things started much better than last week for the Storm who were able to score inside five minutes when Will Warbrick was able to outjump Marcelo Montoya and get the ball down. The Warriors were able to level things up soon after when Xavier Coates was left isolated in defence and meant that DWZ got space on the outside and scored when he was able to bring the ball around. Jahrome Hughes was controlling the show and Ryan Papenhuyzen was at his attractive best when the two combined to put Nick Meaney into space from deep in their own end to score and reestablish the lead for Melbourne. Nick Meaney extended Melbourne's lead with a penalty goal just after 20 minutes before Ryan Papenhuyzen showed why he is one of the most attractive footballers to watch when he just sliced through the Warriors defence coming back on the angle. The Warriors were denied just after the half hour mark when Marcelo Montoya was initially awarded a try on-field but overturned when the Bunker correctly ruled that Montoya was short of the line and then put his foot over the touch in goal line.

Needing to turn things around in the second half, the Warriors did just that as DWZ was able to isolate the defence of the Storm again and scored in the corner. The visitors continued with their momentum as luck began to go their way as Jackson Ford got close to the line but was initially denied by the referee before after a long check of replays, the green lights were shown as Ford held the ball and got it to the line. Things were completely derailed for Melbourne as referee Chris Butler brought out a rarely seen and enforced rule when Harry Grant was penalised for deliberately passing the ball into a tackler on the ground out of dummy half. A second penalty goal pushed the Warriors lead after Ryan Papenhuyzen was penalised for a strip after he himself had the ball stripped 1-on-1. Melbourne needed something special in the last two minutes and it was Ryan Papenhuyzen who started it as a pass back on the inside from Eli Katoa to the Melbourne fullback who went through to score. Inside the final minute, a charged down two point field goal gave the Storm a big attacking chance in the final few minutes and Xavier Coates did the unthinkable as he flew in the air for what seemed to be an eternity for a long range aerial try and he just got it down inside the corner for an unlikely 30-26 win after the Meaney conversion.

DOLPHINS 38 ST GEO ILLA 0

DOLPHINS SHUT OUT DIRE DRAGONS ANDY P

A clinical Wayne Bennett 'bounce-back' has seen the Dolphins nil the Dragons in a 38-point rout at Redcliffe tonight.

The writing was on the wall fairly early, with the 'Phins opening the scoring just seven minutes into the contest thanks to Hamiso Tabuai-Fidow. While the 'Hammer' would go on to score his first career hat-trick later in the game, the second of the night went to Jamayne Isaako just five minutes later, with a great leap and put down to surge the hosts to 10-0 in less than 15 minutes. Just short of the quarter-mark of the game, Dragons half Ben Hunt nailed a 40/20 for the visitors but sloppy attack eventually led to them surrendering possession. An arm wrestle ensured for the remainder of the half, neither side penetrating the scoreboard as halftime edged closer, and the home team retained a 10-0 advantage at the break.

The second half generated somewhat of a party atmosphere for the home fans once the points started flowing. At 49 minutes Mark Nicholls became the Dolphins' third tryscorer, then at the hour mark Canterbury import Jake Averillo scored his first try for his new team. Almost immediately after the Averillo four-pointer, the 'Hammer' was back on the scoresheet after a Jack Bostock break and kick set him up.

At 28-0 the hosts were home and hosed... but they weren't done yet! With the clock moving nicely to 69 minutes, Jeremy Marshall-King caught the Red V defence napping for a 34-0 lead, then three minutes after that, Tabuai-Fidow sealed his hat-trick with a quality inside step and straighten to the line for 38-0.

After a week of praise for Shane Flanagan's charges, it's a harsh reality check for a team whose fans have been through plenty in the last decade and thought they may have turned a corner.

MATCH PREVIEW Rhys SULLIVAN

Stars to miss Grand Final rematch as both sides seek to stake their claim in 2024

October 1st 2023 will be a day forever etched in the history of both of these teams. The day the Penrith Panthers became the first team since the Eels of the early 80's to win three premierships in a row. The day the Brisbane Broncos became responsible for the largest blown lead in Grand Final history.

For the Broncos the scars of that day still cut deep (although you won't hear them talking about it). The team is determined to go one win further in 2024, and while this clash with the Panthers is relatively meaningless for the course of the season, the sentimental value will not be lost on the players.

Both sides have started the season 1-1, with disappointing Round 1 performances leading into strong wins in Round 2- the Broncos downing the Rabbitohs 28-18 while the Panthers overcame the Eels 26-18.

The Broncos will be without their captain Adam Reynolds, who picked up an MCL injury in their win over the Rabbitohs.

Similarly, the Panthers are without James Fisher-Harris due to a shoulder problem. While neither player will be unavailable long term, it does put a bit of a dampener on this match.

WHO TO WATCH: With Adam Reynolds out, Jock Madden takes on the responsibility of leading the Broncos around the park. The team won 2 of the 4 matches he played at halfback in 2023, although one of those losses did come against the Panthers. He'll be able to rely on the oozing natural talent around him, but still have to get the 1% done that Reynolds does so well.

Similarly, pressures on for Lindsay Smith who steps up in replacing James Fisher-Harris. The Panthers pack famously hunt as a unit, but so do the Broncos. Pat Carrigan and Payne Haas will both be desperate for revenge, meaning Smith will need to step up to help Isaah Yeo and Moses Leota overcome.

But by far the majority of eyes will be on the battle between Nathan Cleary and Reece Walsh. Arguably the two best players in Rugby League, the pair have the potential to almost singlehandedly win games for their club, and with some of their star teammates out they might just have to. Expect to see a chess match between these two as they try to break the game open.

FAVOURITE: Penrith by 8.5

MY TIP: It's hard to predict how losing stars on both teams will impact how they play, but the loss of Reynolds seems too much for Brisbane to overcome in this one. Panthers by 10.

MATCH PREVIEW

Kelly HOLLIS

In Round 3 of the 2024 season, the New Zealand Warriors are eager to rebound from a heartbreaking loss to the Storm in a last-minute nail-biter. Despite leading the game until the 71st minute, the Warriors could not stave off the Storm's late surge, succumbing to a second consecutive four-point loss to start the season 0 - 2.

However, the Warriors will draw confidence from standout performances, particularly from Dallin Watene-Zelezniak, who notched another double, further solidifying his reputation as a try-scoring machine. As Watene-Zelezniak celebrates his 50th appearance for the club, the Warriors will be buoyed by the historic significance of their first-ever home game at Apollo Projects Stadium in Christchurch.

With a sold-out crowd anticipated to create an electric atmosphere, the Warriors will be determined to make a statement on their NRL debut in Christchurch, with first-choice hooker Wayde Egan returning to the side and dynamic Luke Metcalf, who will be looking to thank the club for his recent contract extension.

Meanwhile, the Canberra Raiders arrive in Round 3 riding high on the back of an impressive 32 - 12 victory over the Wests Tigers at GIO Stadium, maintaining their perfect start to the season. With a dominant display that saw them control possession and force errors, the Raiders showcased their ability to dictate the game's tempo.

As they aim to continue their winning streak, the return of Elliot Whitehead and Nick Cotric bolsters the Raiders' lineup, providing added firepower and experience. The captain's return pushes Round 2 Man of the Match Zac Hosking to the bench and sees Ata Mariota drop out of the 17. Cotric's return is timely, as Sebastian Kris has been ruled out through HIA protocols. Cotric will return to the wing, and Albert Hopoate will shift into the centre position.

Eager to replicate their successful start to the 2020 season and end their New Zealand drought, the Raiders will be motivated to secure a victory against the Warriors on their home turf, setting the stage for a thrilling showdown between two determined sides.

WHO TO WATCH: Classy finisher Dallin Watene-Zelezniak is playing his 50th game for the New Zealand side. The two tries he scored against the Storm lifted his try tally for the club to 39 in 49 games and 88 across all 192 games he has played. Running 151m and 196m in the first two games of the year, respectively, DWZ is a tough player to catch when he finds himself in open space and is renowned for finishing with flair.

Raiders' young five-eighth Ethan Strange wrapped up the Round 2 game against the Wests Tigers with an impressive highlights package. Scoring his first NRL try, Strange looked like he had played many more than three games. He made his mark on the game early, having a hand in the Raiders' first two four-pointers, showing confidence to go down the short side in the lead-up to Canberra's first try before taking the line on himself for a sensational solo try soon after.

FAVOURITE: Given the home-ground advantage, the Warriors are the favourites to walk away with the win in Christchurch.

MY TIP: The history between the two sides is fairly even, with Canberra holding a slight advantage over the Warriors, winning 26 out of 50 games since they first met in 1995. Recent games, though, have swung the way of the New Zealand side, winning four of their last six, including both times the sides met in 2023.

This game could go either way, with Canberra's strong start and the Warriors not finding themselves in the winners' circle yet in 2024. You can't really go past the Warriors at home, though, so my tip is the Warriors by 6.

MATCH PREVIEW Beth NICHOLLS

Another chapter is set to be written in one of the game's greatest rivalries, with the Roosters and Rabbitohs meeting at Allianz Stadium on Friday night for their 51st battle (since the NRL was formed in 1998).

After beating the Broncos in their Round 1 Vegas clash, the Roosters were brought back down to Earth last week, being defeated by Manly in a 21-14 score line. Despite being in the game all the way to the final minutes, they had a lacklustre performance making 20 errors and only having 43% possession. They will be desperate to get back into the winning circle, however they are missing a few key players for this annual clash.

With Luke Keary out due to concussion, Sandon Smith will partner in the halves with Sam Walker. Siua Wong drops down to the reserves, with Angus Crichton making his return off the bench, along with Connor Watson who will play his first game since 2022 in No.14 off the bench.

The Rabbitohs are hungry for a win, losing both to Manly and Brisbane in their opening two rounds, if they succumb again come Friday night, they will be starting the season 0-3. Last round's match against the Broncos just seemed to result in every possible thing going wrong for the Bunnies, and despite making less errors than their opponent they could not tie together enough defensive and offensive plays to take the lead.

Demetriou has made a big decision, dropping Lachlan Ilias to the reserves, with Dean Hawkins taking his place. After serving a suspension, Jack Wighton makes his Rabbitohs debut in the centres, forcing Richie Kennar out of the side. Sean Keppie reverts to the bench with Davvy Moale being named as starting prop.

The odds are stacked in favour of the tricolours, where they have won three of the past four contests against the Bunnies. South Sydney has also had little luck lately, only winning four of their past fifteen matches.

This game marks important milestones, with it being Jared Waerea-Hargreave's 300th NRL match and Cameron Murray's 150th NRL match. Both sides will be craving a win, not only for their club but also to celebrate these special occasions.

WHO TO WATCH: Playing a starting role last week after previously starting off the bench, Terrell May is a force to be reckoned with. During his 57 minutes stint on the field last week, he made 111 metres in 14 runs, 4 tackle breaks, 13 hit ups and two offloads, with 94.87% tackle efficiency, only missing one and making one ineffective tackle. He is an absolute beast on the field, and the Roosters are in talks with him continuing his career with the tricolours.

Making a big impact from the bench, Siliva Havili is an important player in the Rabbitohs pack. Last week against the Broncos he was one of their best players and his injection into the game saw a difference in the side, albeit their loss. During the game he managed to bag his own four pointer, whilst also making one linebreak and one try assist.

FAVOURITE: The Roosters are slightly favoured to claim victory over their South Sydney opponents.

MY TIP: Neither team is standing out for me, both playing games littered with errors and poor choices. I think the Roosters will make it over the line in the end, they are playing a stronger game than their counterparts at the moment, and I think they will be able to outlast them for the entirety of the match. Roosters by 12.

MATCH PREVIEW AJ LUCANTONIO

Dogs look to claw back as Titans try to strike

The Canterbury Bulldogs will look to bounce back from an 0-2 start to the season when they go against the Gold Coast Titans at their suburban heartland of Belmore Sports Ground.

Canterbury have shown glimpses of promise through the first two weeks despite it not showing on the record. They've had to endure a lot of defence and that area has shown a marked improvement on where they were last year, only conceding 26 and 25 points respectively. Their attack has been poor however, only scoring three tries this season and will have to improve significantly. The left edge showed some promising improvement against Cronulla and will look to have better luck against the Titans.

To beat the Titans, they will need to match it physically up front. Tino Fa'asuamaleaui and Mo Fotuauka are two damaging forwards and if they're at their best, it'll be a long afternoon for the Bulldogs pack trying to muscle any forward momentum. Expect Max King to lift in his 100th NRL game. Matt Burton showed signs of playing both sides of the football last week, but will need some help on the other side of the field from his half-back Drew Hutchison. Far too often, the attack broke down at the critical phases last weekend.

On the team news, Poasa Fa'amasilli will miss this match after being KO'ed in a head-clash off the initial hit-up of the match. Liam Knight comes into the run on side with Josh Curran still on the interchange bench. Josh Addo-Carr is still a week away from returning.

For the Titans, there's no sugar-coating how disappointing their first up effort was against the Dragons. It was a competitive match at half time, but conceded four second half tries to look completely out-enthused and beaten across all aspects of play. Des Hasler would've worked the side over backwards during the bye week to ensure that their first Sydney excursion doesn't end in disappointment.

There's no doubting that Kieran Foran's absence hurt the Titans in the season opener, but they had 34 tackles inside the Dragons 20 and could only score one try which was off a grubber. Execution will be better with him back in the line-up, but it places pressure on the other spine players to lift and execute at a high level. Beau Fermor back in game 2 will be better following the first run back in the NRL but they need better yardage and work-rates from their other forwards outside Tino and Mo.

On their team front, Kieran Foran returns after missing the opening round. Klese Haas retains his spot on the edge while Jaimin Jolliffe gets the start at lock over Keenan Palasia.

WHO TO WATCH: For Canterbury, eyes are firmly on Blake Taaffe to rebound after a sloppy start to the season. After arriving from Souths in the summer, Taaffe has won his way to the number 1 jersey but has had a shaky opening fortnight to the season, making costly mistakes at the back and struggling to inject energy into the Canterbury attack. With a big rebound game looming, Taaffe will need to perform or risk losing the 1 jumper he's earned over summer.

For the Titans, similar questions will again arise over Tanah Boyd this season. After debuting in 2019 and being in a halves by-committee ever since. Boyd faces his toughest season so far as an NRL halfback. With Tom Weaver's footsteps encroaching ever so slowly, it'll soon be now or never for Boyd to cut it in the NRL at the club. His short kicking game showed signs of breaking the Dragons down, but defensively was an up-hill battle. Hopefully with Foran back on deck, the pivot can rebound nicely.

FAVOURITE: Canterbury are favourites very slightly for this one. Gold Coast won the only head to head match at Belmore back in 2018 with a 32-10 verdict.

MY TIP: It's a hard game to pick this one. But, the Dogs seem to get up for matches at the Belmore Sports Ground so you'd have to back them in to get it done at their spiritual home despite their recent poor record there. It has two potential outcomes, an attacking masterclass like last year's clash, or a slugfest that can't end quick enough. Dogs by 6.

MATCH PREVIEW

Rob CROSBY

Kogarah sets the scene for one side, battered and beaten. Another, unbeaten

The St George Illawarra Dragons will be aiming to atone in their first home match of the season when they host the unbeaten North Queensland Cowboys on Saturday evening.

Going from high-flying to battered and beaten in the space of a week, the St George Illawarra Dragons will be looking for improvement with and without the ball following a shocking performance on the road.

Suffering the double indignity of their equal fourth heaviest loss and being held scoreless for only the 12th time as a joint venture during last Sunday's 38-0 thrashing at the hands of the Dolphins, coach Shane Flanagan has responded by naming Jesse Marschke to debut at hooker and recalling Viliami Fifita at the expense of suspended prop Francis Molo.

Winning three of their five matches at Kogarah in 2023, the Dragons last defeated their weekend opponents at the spiritual home of the Red V in an Origin-impacted fixture a decade ago.

In contrast, the North Queensland Cowboys will be eyeing off three straight wins to start a season for the first time since 2007 and only the fourth time in the club's history.

Making minimal changes to the team that downed the Knights 21-20 in golden point last Saturday, Kulikefu Finefeuiaki will start in place of injured second-rower Heilum Luki with journeyman Jack Gosiewski coming onto the bench.

Holding a disappointing record in Sydney with two wins from seven appearances last season, the Cowboys have underperformed at Kogarah historically with two wins from six clashes against the joint venture.

Veteran winger Kyle Feldt requires one try to surpass Matt Bowen as the all-time leading try scorer for North Queensland; the 32-year-old has scored nine tries from ten matches against the Dragons.

WHO TO WATCH: Up until a month ago, Luciano Leilua was toiling away in the Townsville heat as a Cowboy – now he's plotting their demise as a Dragon. Securing an early release to return to the club where he debuted in first grade, the 27-year-old second-rower produced 20 tackles, three tackle breaks and an offload in limited opportunities during last week's loss to the Dolphins. Elevated to the starting side after coming off the bench in his return from suspension last week, look for Leilua to offer a point of difference in attack as the Red V look to respond on home soil.

Coming off an afternoon to forget in last week's error-riddled win over the Knights, expect Valentine Holmes to bounce back with a showing more befitting his stature as an elite-tier player. Missing three conversions last Saturday, including a late kick for goal that would have given the Cowboys victory in regular time, the 28-year-old has grown in confidence as a centre after spending the early part of his career with North Queensland across the backline. Scoring at least ten points in all six of the games he has played for the Cowboys against the Dragons, Holmes requires eight points to bring up 1,000 career points in first grade.

FAVOURITE: Cowboys have been heavily backed to inflict further misery upon a Dragons side coming off their heaviest defeat in six years.

MY TIP: Boasting plenty of confidence and the incentive of multiple individual milestones, the men from the north should have too much strike power in their first visit south of the border this season. Cowboys by 14.

Leichhardt Oval plays host to its first game of 2024 on Saturday night, with their tenants the Wests Tigers aiming to bounce back from their round two defeat against the Raiders. The Cronulla Sharks make the trip to Leichhardt with two wins from two to begin their campaign, and sit in a very handy third place on the table. The match is set to the backdrop of yet another round of media headlines surrounding concerns about Leichhardt Oval's future as an NRL venue.

The Wests Tigers have only needed to play one game proper this season to be written off for the year, but whilst some coverage has been extreme, it's clear to see why. A short period in which the Tigers crossed for twelve unanswered points was the highlight for fans in their 32-12 loss to the Raiders in Canberra. NRL debutant 18 year old Lachlan Galvin was impressive in the six jersey, and he has retained his position in the starting 13 for this game.

It's Aidan Sezer who has been given the number seven after an injury cloud saw him start on the bench last week. Jayden Sullivan reverts to the bench after an underwhelming first time out in Tigers colours. An ankle injury to Starford To'a is timed well with Justin Olam's recovery, with the PNG centre named to make his first NRL appearance not for the Storm. Fonua Pole moves into the starting lock role, forcing Alex Seyfarth onto the bench.

Meanwhile, The Cronulla Sharks are going swimmingly. They are coming off a home win against the Bulldogs, scoring 19 unanswered points in the second half to finish 25-6 winners. They faced some minor issues early on, with Briton Nikora sin binned in the 5th minute, and the Bulldogs opening the scoring just a few minutes later. They will want to bring that second half energy right from the start against the Tigers.

A two week suspension for Briton Nikora gives Jack Williams a shot in the starting back row. Royce Hunt joins the bench after missing last week through illness, as does Billy Burns, who will make his Sharks debut. Tuku Hau Tapuha is relegated to the reserves.

WHO TO WATCH: Fonua Pole has been chipping away quietly since making his NRL debut in 2022 for the Wests Tigers. The forward will start at lock this weekend as he enters his second season as an established member of the 17. Now still at only 21 years of age, Pole was raised in Melbourne and showed promise on the Australian Footy field before joining the Victoria Thunderbolts junior pathways. Pole played a whopping 58 minutes off the bench last week, so it makes sense that Benji has upgraded him into the starting side this weekend.

Jack Williams has been with the Sharks since 2017, making his NRL debut in 2018. He recently brought up 100 first grade games and will be looking to add to that tally significantly throughout 2024. Despite making only six NRL appearances in 2022, he fell back into favour last year, becoming a consistent second row option and playing 24 games. The 27 year old played 37 minutes off the bench last week but gets the opportunity to make his case to become a regular in the starting side.

FAVOURITE: The Sharks are heavy favourites to push aside the Tigers to keep their unbeaten start to the 2024 season alive.

MY TIP: The Sharks have started on fire, but it's hard to maintain consistency in the NRL. The Wests Tigers have absolutely nothing to lose in front of what will be a heaving Leichhardt crowd. Unfortunately for the Tigers, even at their best Cronulla should get the job done. Sharks by 16.

MATCH PREVIEW

Josh ROBERTSON

Sunday afternoon Rugby League heads to Parramatta where the Blue and Gold will be looking to bounce back from a defeat against arch-rivals Penrith when they take on the as yet undefeated Manly-Warringah Sea Eagles.

Last week, Parramatta were left bemoaning being on the wrong end (which they weren't) of some controversial refereeing decisions in their 26-18 loss to the Panthers in Penrith. The Eels started fast last week opening up a 6-0 lead and they were well outplayed during the first half and came away with an 18-16 lead at the break. Concerningly though, was the fact that the Eels struggled to find any points in the second half whilst conceding two second half tries to ultimately fall to the 26-18 loss.

The Eels were impressive back in round 1 with their big win over the Bulldogs which showed a lot of promise but last week coming up against the Panthers, they seemed to be a step behind the defending premiers at times although key injuries to Bailey Simonsson and Kelma Tuilagi probably made defensive fragilities on the right edge a lot worse than normal. The concern of recent times for the Blue and Gold is that other than a Round 25 win over Penrith, the Eels have failed to beat a top 8 team since 2022.

Team wise, the Eels are forced into one change with Bailey Simonsson ruled out after being concussed and failing his HIA last week after copping a high shot from Jarome Luai. The Eels have named Kelma Tuilagi on the bench despite suffering a dislocated shoulder last week when tackling Liam Martin.

The Manly Sea Eagles remained undefeated on their return to Vegas last weekend following a 21-14 victory over the Sydney Roosters at Brookvale Oval. The Sea Eagles were impressive though would've been disappointed that they could only manage a seven-point victory in a game where they were quite dominant. The Sea Eagles had their struggles despite their dominance only managing a two-point lead at the break even though it could have been a lot more. Manly had their chances in the second half but would be happy to keep their undefeated record going.

A new look halves combo has worked for Manly though a big crowd at Parramatta is another big test against a side that can take a game away from you if you're not at your best which the Eels did to the Panthers at key moments. The Sea Eagles will need to ensure that they take the chances with a string of tough games ahead.

Manly have only one change and that comes through the ankle injury to Tommy Talau who is named in the reserves but unlikely to play. Raymond Tuaimolo Vaega has been named on the wing as the replacement in the only change for the Sea Eagles.

WHO TO WATCH: Reportedly carrying an injury, Mitch Moses tried hard last week but looked to be slightly off the pace which could have been a reason for his extra whinging towards the referee last week but it had an impact on the Eels. The Eels are going to need Moses to stand up and direct attack for Parramatta coming up against a side that has had success in the halves across the first two rounds.

Close friend of Mitch Moses, new Manly five-eighth Luke Brooks has made a great start to his time at Manly where he looks to be playing with a lot more freedom than he had with the Tigers. Manly will need Brooks' running game to be strong to catch out a Parramatta defence that can tire out with a few big men in the middle.

FAVOURITE: Parramatta's home ground advantage sees them narrowly ahead in the bookmaker stakes

MY TIP: It's a tough game to call but I think Parramatta might be able to pull off an upset on Sunday afternoon. For me personally, there feels like there is somewhat of a honeymoon period for Manly right now and they have a few chinks in the armour that I think the likes of Mitch Moses, Dylan Brown and Clint Gutherson can find in a tight contest. Parra by 6.

MATCH PREVIEW Andy P

Knights look to find form against a weak Storm front

An in-form but under-gunned Melbourne Storm side head to the Hunter to take on a Knights side, starting at a 0-3 start to the season. The 10-game winning streak of last year for the Knights is something they have to get out of their thoughts, says Newcastle coach Adam O'Brien. Even though it was a similar start to last season, and the losses were a foundation to bring out the dream form run, O'Brien says they have to be looking forward, not backward, if their season is to improve. Even with the Knights having bragging rights of a 26-18 win in their last meeting in round 21, their 0-2 start to the season will be something they want to turn around for the home crowd. Off the back of what is touted as the try of the year and a gutsy performance to score 12 points in the dying throws of a game to win, the Melbourne Storm will be digging deep as an unfamiliar halves combination will control a depleted Storm for their first away game of the 2024 season.

And the Storm aren't the only ones with a shake-up in the halves, as a positional shift has been played by Adam O'Brien, with Jackson Hasting being relegated to the reserves and ex-Penrith halves back up, Jack Cogger being bought up to pair with Tyson Gamble. Coach O'Brien may be looking to get a halves pairing that will get the ball out to the backs more and in the lap of start Kalyn Ponga. With more ball time for the gun fullback, we could see the attacking form that shook up the teams they played at the back end of 2023. With Cameron Munster sidelined by a lingering groin issue and Jahrome Hughes pleading guilty to contrary conduct against match referee Chris Butler, the Storm will be looking to Tyran Wishart and Jonah Pezet to command a Storm side that was starting to look ominous.

The Knights have come close in their last two matches, and their loss to the Cowboys last round in golden point, as frustrating as it was, shows the team is hungry for 2024 and, in Kayla Ponga's words, just needs to tweak the details to get the W. It was the start of the second half where the Knights seemed to come undone against the Cowboys, allowing them to crawl back after leading half-time. Coach O'Brien will be asking his team to come out firing for the full 80, and after the Storm's heroics in the last round against the Warriors, they will need to tweak those details for the full 80 to remain competitive and in the hunt.

Craig Bellamy looked like a proud father in the on-field post-interview after what was a miraculous comeback against a tough Warriors outfit at AAMI Park. With 3 minutes to go and 8 points down, a relentless Storm went over via some Ryan Papenhuyzen brilliance. It was soon followed by one of the most athletic displays by a rugby league player in some time. With about 30 seconds to go, the Storm backline manoeuvred beautifully to the Warrior's right edge, and Reimis Smith delivered a ball to Xavier Coates, who launched himself over Dallin Watene-Zelezniak walk to score with laser-like accuracy and take the game. Bellamy said Papenhuyzen was starting to get his mojo back, and as unbelievable as Coates's efforts were, he wasn't surprised due to the young winger's work ethic at training. Even with these heroics, it seemed the Storm fizzled during some changes in the middle at halftime, which also saw errors creep into their game. It will be on the fresh halves combination to make sure their middlemen keep their heads up at McDonald Jones Stadium on Sunday.

The Knights will be without bullocking winger Greg Marzhev for at least 4 weeks due to a wrist injury, which sees Enari Tuala come into his spot. The Knights will welcome back Jayden Brailey who will come off the bench, while Mat Croker and Will Pryce will be in the reserves for the 22 man squad. The Storm have a range of injuries to their stars, with Cameron Munster still not knowing when his return will be, Nelson Asofa-Solomona's hamstring will keep him out till at least round 5, and Christian Welsh will sit this game out due to concussion protocols.

WHO TO WATCH: Even though the Storm are missing some marquee players, they have power hitters on the field who are finding their stride. Ryan Papenhuyzen looks to be getting his mojo back and will be keen to show he is the better of fullbacks on the day. Harry Grant will be the usual trouble in the middle if he decides to run and get the Knights forwards in a cat-and-mouse game around the ruck it may be a long day for the Newcastle team. Melbourne has supreme finishers on either side of the field in Will Warbrick and Xavier Coates, and we can only hope for some more athletic performance from them this game.

Jack Cogger proved himself last year, settling into the halfback position, while Nathan clearly was absent for Penrith through injury. The Knights have the means in the middle to at least trouble Melbourne if Cogger can control them. It may be, though, that his skills in getting the ball out to Kalyn Ponga will be the attack plan for the Knights. Undoubtedly, when Ponga is involved and running in the game, the team will lift, and combined with either Dane Gagai or Bradman Best, we could see some exciting clashes in the outside backs.

FAVOURITE: Even with a 0-2 record so far it seems the bookies are keen on the home team to get the glory this Sunday. Sure, it's tight, but with the unfamiliar halves combo for the Storm, it may be a tougher battle for them this Sunday.

MY TIP: The Storm seems to be finding the rewards of a good offseason, and even with key players like Hughes out of the team, Wishart and Pezet have had enough runs to keep the plays sharp. Storm to get the win away, just! against a hungry Knights team looking to turn the season around.

2024 MEN'S BETFRED SUPER LEAGUE

ROUND 5 WRAP with ROBERT McHUGH

WIGAN 22 (B. French, L. Marshall, A. Miski, J. Wardle tries; A. Keighran 2, H. Smith goals) DEFEATED SALFORD 12 (T. Lafai, S. Stone tries; M. Sneyd 2 goals) at Salford Stadium. Date: Thu, 14th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Wigan 4-0. Penalties: Wigan 7-6. Referee: Chris Kendall. Crowd: 6,087.

Salford: Brierley, Nofaluma, Macdonald, Lafai, Cross; Atkin, Sneyd; Dixon, Bourouh, Vuniyayawa, Stone, Watkins, Shorrocks. Int: Ryan, Wright, Foster, Dudson. Wigan: Field, Miski, Keighran, Wardle, Marshall; French, Smith; Thompson, O'Neill, Byrne, Isa, Farrell, Ellis. Int: Dupree, Mago, Hill, Forber.

Defending champions, Wigan Warriors, continued their unbeaten start to the Super League season, but were made to work hard by a results Salford Red Devils side, who continue to pre-season predictions of doom.

Late tries from Jake Wardle and Bevan French eventually sealed a win for Wigan, but this does no justice to the late drama that unfolded.

The game started in gruelling fashion, with Salford applying early pressure, but remained scoreless for the first 39 minutes, until Liam Marshall opened the scoring for Wigan the last play before half time. Wigan worked the ball to Jai Field 20 metres out, who threaded a deft grubber kick through for Marshall to collect and touch down in the corner.

Wigan then extended their lead early in the second half, a score which looked like it may end Salford's chances. Another flowing passing move, this time from left to right, saw the ball worked out to Abbas Miski, who dived in for a simple finish in the corner. Harry Smith kicked the conversion from the touchline to extend to score to 0-10.

But Paul Rowley's Salford side have demonstrated their fighting spirit, and they refused to give up in this game, boosted by a shock win against St Helens the previous weekend. Marc Sneyd has been instrumental in their good early form, and it was through his boot that they grabbed a lifeline in this game. Salford worked their way to 20 metres from goal, which gave Sneyd an excellent position to kick through for Sam Stone to gather and score under the posts, with Sneyd making no mistake with the conversion.

Salford then took an unexpected lead, threatening another famous upset. Another Sneyd kick, this time hoisted into the air near the left touchline, saw Abbas Miski spill the ball, under pressure from Ethan Ryan. The ball dropped into the grateful hands of Tim Lafai, who touched down to level the scores, with Sneyd's conversion putting Salford 12-10 ahead.

Salford appeared set for victory, when Smith received a yellow card, reducing Wigan to 12 men for the closing stages, taking out Ryan Brierley off the ball as Salford threatened to extend their lead.

But after inspiring Salford, it was Sneyd who played a hand in their defeat. Under the face of Wigan pressure, Sneyd attempted a short drop out, which David Nofaluma dropped. Jake Wardle scooped up the loose ball and ran in unopposed to score the decisive try, which was converted by Adam Keighran.

Bevan French scored a late try, which Keighran converted, to extend Wigan's final margin of victory to 12-22, but it was Sneyd's moment of madness in the 76th minute which finally swung the game in their favour.

ST HELENS 18 (J. Bennison, W. Blake, M. Mbye tries; J. Lomax 3 goals) DEFEATED LEEDS 8 (L. Roberts try; R. Martin 2 goals) at AMT Headingley Stadium. Date: Fri, 15th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: Leeds 8-6. Penalties: Leeds 8-4. Referee: Jack Smith. Crowd: 15,284. Leeds: Miller, Handley, Martin, Newman, Roberts; Croft, Frawley; Oledzki, Ackers, Sangaré, McDonnell, Bentley, Smith. Int: Holroyd, Edgell, O'Connor, Goudemand. St Helens: Welsby, Makinson, Hurrell, Blake, Bennison; Lomax, Dodd; Walmsley, Clark, Lees, Whitley, Mata'utia, Knowles. Int: Batchelor, Mbye, Bell, Wingfield.

A second half blitz from St Helens was enough for them to take the points in a pulsating encounter at AMT Headingley, in which the Rhinos demonstrated, simultaneously, how far they have come, and how far they still have to go if they wish to challenge for honours this season.

Leeds started the game fast, showing the best of what Rohan Smith is trying to build, displaying their speed, agility, and handling skills, as well as a defensive intensity which put the Saints on the back foot. Lachie Miller, in particular, impressed, dodging several tackles, and giving Leeds momentum with his runs from full back.

Leeds nearly took the lead in the opening minutes, with a try saving tackle from Lewis Dodd denying Harry Newman, after a flowing Rhinos move. But Leeds did open the scoring in the 10th minute, through rookie winger Luis Roberts.

A good passing move from left to right ended with a looping pass from the influential Brodie Croft out to winger Roberts. St Helens appeared to have numbers on hand, but Roberts' inside step against the grain took three defenders out of the game, allowing him to open the scoring, with Rhys Martin adding the conversion.

Leeds then extended their lead to 8-0, through the boot of Martin, who kicked a simple penalty from 35 metres out. But the introduction of James Bell from the bench for St Helens swung the momentum in their favour, and Saints scored in the 35th minute to give themselves a lifeline.

After a passage of play in which St Helens won the arm wrestle and became increasingly dominant, the Leeds defence did not deal with a high kick to the left corner from Lewis Dodd. The ball found its way into the hands of Waqa Blake, who burrowed his way over to score. Jonny Lomax's conversion from the touchline meant Leeds went in 8-6 ahead at half-time, but it was the Saints who had the momentum.

The two sides traded spells of pressure at the beginning of the second half, but it was Saints who eventually added the first score of the second half. This time it was St Helens' turn to move the ball from left to right, with slick passing and a brilliant final cut pass from Lomax exploited a gap in the Leeds defence, which allowed Jon Bennison to score in the corner after 57 minutes, with Lomax again converting from the touchline.

The Rhinos then compounded this score with back-to-back errors. Lachie Miller, who had been so impressive in the first half, put too much on his kick off and the ball sailed out on the full.

The Saints took full advantage of the field position through replacement hooker, Moses Mbye. With the Leeds defence scrambling, he picked up the ball at dummy half and threw an outrageous dummy, which opposite number Jarrod O'Connor bought hook, line, and sinker, creating a gap for him to dive over, under the posts. Lomax made mistake with the extras, extending Saints' lead to an unassailable 8-18.

HULL KR 24 (P. Hiku 2, J. Burgess, R. Hall, J. Litten tries; J. Litten 2 goals) DEFEATED HUDDERSFIELD 12 (K. Naiqama, A. Swift tries; J. Connor 2 goals) at John Smith's Stadium. Date: Sat, 16th March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Hull KR 8-0. Penalties: Hull KR 7-4. Referee: Tom Grant. Crowd: 5,428. Huddersfield: Connor, Swift, Marsters, Naiqama, Halsall; Russell, Clune; Hill, Milner, Ikahihifo, Murchie, Hewitt, Cudjoe. Int: Lolohea, Yates, Rushton, Wilson. Hull KR: Evals, Burgess, Hiku, Gildart, Hall; May, Lewis; Sue, Litten, Whitbread, Hadley, Batchelor, Minchella. Int: King, Parcell, Luckley, Tanginao.

Hull Kingston Rovers got their season back on track, following back-to-back defeats in the earlier rounds, overcoming the Huddersfield Giants, who continue to show signs of improvement despite this defeat.

Hull KR broke the deadlock in the third minute with a move from the base of a scrum 20 metres out. Full back, Niall Evals, joined the attacking line before quickly moving the ball out to the right wing for Joe Burgess to score in the corner, to give the Robins a 0-4 lead.

They extended their lead in the 23rd minute, but this time it was their defence which earned the try, rather than their flowing attack. With Huddersfield in possession pinned near their own try line, three Hull KR defenders met Sam Halsall and pushed him back behind his own line. Halsall lost the ball in the contact, which allowed Jez Litten to touch the ball down for an opportunistic score, which gave Rovers a 0-8 lead at half time.

Hull KR threatened to blow the Giants away in the second half, starting with Petr Hiku's try in the 43rd minute. Star man, Mikey Lewis, chipped a kick into the right centre's channel, and Hiku was able to out jump the Huddersfield defence to collect and score, with Litten adding his first conversion of the game.

Hiku then extended KR's lead, largely thanks to Evals, who broke brilliantly from deep after a slick passing move in Hull KR's own half. Evals pass inside to Hiku was touched by the flailing hand of Tui Lolohea, who was scrambling back for the Giants, but he could only knock the ball down. Hiku was able to collect the loose ball and score, with Litten adding the extras to extend their lead to 0-20.

When Ryan Hall scored in the 62nd minute, after more excellent play from Niall Evals, Huddersfield looked like they could sink without a trace, but head coach Ian Watson can take heart from the fact his side did not capitulate. Huddersfield scored their first try from a brilliant Naiqama line, cutting in from the right centre position to exploit a gap in the Hull KR defence to score under the posts in the 66th minute.

Then Adam Swift stepped inside the covering defence to add Huddersfield's second try, in the 76th minute, and whilst it was too late for Hull KR to be worried about throwing away their lead, it showed the resilience in the Huddersfield side. Jake Connor converted both scored to give the scoreline a respectable feel, with Hull KR winning 12-24.

LEIGH 54 (O. Holmes 2, R. Leutele 2, J. Charnley, U. Hanley, B. McNamara, M. Moylan, R. Mulhern tries; M. Moylan 9 goals) DEFEATED HULL FC 4 (T. Hoy try) at MKM Stadium. Date: Sat, 16th March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Leigh 30-4. Penalties: Leigh 4-1. Referee: Aaron Moore. Crowd: 10,227. Hull FC: Hoy, McIntosh, Tuimavave, Sutcliffe, Tindall; Smith, Brown; Ese'ese, Houghton, Sao, Okunbor, Staveley, Lane. Int: Pele, Scott, Brown, Gardiner. Leigh: O'Brien, Hanley, Hardaker, Leutele, Charnley; Moylan, McNamara; Norman, Dwyer, Mulhern, O'Donnell, Halton, Hughes. Int: Trout, Nakubuwai, Holmes, Davis.

If Leigh Leopards were guilty of throwing away a lead against Leeds Rhinos in the previous round, they were never in danger of doing so against Hull FC, cruising to an impressive 6-54 victory at the MKM stadium, consigning the Airlie Birds to a fourth defeat of the season.

Leigh wasted no time in opening the scoring, working the ball through hands from left to right, releasing Umyla Hanley to score the first try of the game in the corner in the 4th minute. This was followed by an acrobatic score in the left-hand corner by Josh Charnley, after good work from Ricky Leutele to draw in 2 Hull FC defenders before offloading. Matt Moylan kicked the first of 9 goals to make the score 0-10.

But when Hull FC scored in the 11th minute, it appeared that the game would be a real contest. After a quick play the ball 20 metres from the Leigh line, a Tex Hoy dummy broke the Leigh defensive line, with the Australian going over for FC's first score.

But Leigh hit back definitively, with back-to-back tries before the 20-minute mark. Ricky Leutele scored his first try of the game, evading the Hull FC covering defence with a smart inside step before touching down. Powerhouse forward, Robbie Mulhern extended Leigh's lead, crashing onto a short pass from hooker Brad Dwyer to score from close range, with Moylan converting both tries.

Leigh scored again before half time, through ex-Hull FC player, Ben McNamara. A neat passing move but second-row Kai O'Donnell into space, who seemed destined to score. A brilliant covering tackle from full-back, Hoy, only delayed the inevitable, with Leigh scoring from the next play, giving them a 4-34 lead at half time, after a Moylan penalty on the stroke of the interval.

The second half was one to forget for Hull FC, and Oliver Holmes took just eight minutes to open the scoring. Ben McNamara tipped back an offload, into the hands of Holmes, who scored under the posts. Holmes added his second try of the game in the 53rd minute, after Zak Hardaker's smart offload put Ben McNamara through. His inside ball released Holmes, who showed a smart turn of pace to finish off from 30 metres out. Moylan scored his first try of the night, capitalising on some passive Hull FC defending to run in unopposed. Moylan then turned provider for Leutele, releasing the centre for his second score of the game to round off a 4-54 win for the Leopards. Hull FC's experienced head coach, Tony Smith, will have serious concerns about his side's lack of fight going into their Challenge Cup game against Huddersfield next weekend.

CATALANS 40 (J. Abdull, T. Davies, M. Ikuvalu, T. Johnstone, M. Laguerre, A. Mourgue, C. Rougé tries; A. Mourgue 6 goals) DEFEATED CASTLEFORD 14 (J. Simm 2, J. Westerman tries; R. Milnes goal) at Stade Gilbert Brutus. Date: Sat, 16th March. Kickoff: 6:30 PM. Halftime: Catalans 16-6. Penalties: Catalans 5-4. Referee: James Vella. Crowd: 8,159.
Catalans: Mourgue, Davies, Ikuvalu, Laguerre, Johnstone; Abdull, Fages; McMeeken, Garcia, Navarrete, Sims, Séguier, Sironen. Int: Bousquet, Rougé, Dezaria, Maria. Castleford: Broadbent, Simm, Tasipale, Wood, Senior; Milnes, Miller; Lawler, Horne, Hall, Martin, Mellor, Westerman. Int: Hooley, Robb, Kibula, Vete.

A week after conceding 50 points against Huddersfield - a defeat which Castleford Head Coach, Craig Lingard described as embarrassing - the Tigers produced a creditable, if ultimately fruitless, display in the South of France, losing 40-14 to a superior Catalans Dragons side.

Realistically, winless Castleford held little hope for a victory, but after Lingard's public criticism of his side, they had to produce a better display in Perpignan. And whilst the Dragons were comfortable winners, there were some signs of fight from Castleford.
Catalans Dragons fullback, Arthur Mourgue opened the scoring for Les Dracs after 15 minutes, throwing a cute dummy before ghosting over the line. Jordan Abdull extended their lead, producing a near carbon copy of Mourgue's try, again dummying on almost the same square of grass and cutting inside to score. Mourgue converted Abdull's try to give Les Dracs a 10-0 lead, the first of six successful conversions.

Castleford struck back in the 34th minute, through forward Joe Westerman. Westerman took in a pass close to the line and barged through to exploit a hole in the defence, going down to score under the posts, with the extras added by Rowan Milnes.

Catalans hit back immediately, working the ball wide from a scrum, with the influential Mourgue releasing Tom Johnstone to dive into the corner. Mourgue converted the try to give the Dragons a 16-6 lead at half time.

It did not take the side from Perpignan long to extend their lead in the second half, more slick passing from Les Dracs shifted the ball from right to left, before a smart final pass from Mourgue released centre, Mathieu Laguerre, to score. Another decisive pass from Mourgue put Tom Davies over in the right corner for the fifth Catalans try of the night, both of which were converted by Mourgue, extending the lead to 28-6.

But Castleford refused to lie down, and registered their second try of the night, with another set play from the base of the scrum, working the ball out to Josh Simm, who showed good pace to run in, in the corner in the 55th minute.

The faint hopes of a Castleford fightback were quickly extinguished, however, when a smart pass from Theo Fages released Matt Ikuvalu to score from close range. Cesar Rouge then got his first try of the game, diving over from dummy half. Mourgue's conversion made the score 40-10.

Castleford registered the final score of the game, Simm collecting a neat kick through from Milnes to make it 40-14, but it was scant consolation in another heavy defeat. Catalans are now joint top of the table, with four wins from five, whilst the Tigers stay winless, saved from the bottom spot only on points difference.

WARRINGTON 58 (M. Dufty 3, J. Thewlis 3, A. Holroyd 2, J. Harrison, S. Ratchford tries; S. Ratchford 9 goals) DEFEATED LONDON 4 (H. Miloudi try) at Cherry Red Records Stadium. Date: Sun, 17th March. Kickoff: 3:00 PM. Halftime: Warrington 24-4. Penalties: London 3-2. Referee: Liam Rush. Crowd: 3,324.

London: Walker, Kershaw, Bassett, Miloudi, Macani; Campagnolo, Meadows; Butler; Butterworth, Rogers, Lovell, Jones, Parata. Int: Williams, Kennedy, Leyland, Stock. Warrington: Dufty, Thewlis, King, Wrench, Ashton; Ratchford, Hayes; Harrison, Powell, Vaughan, Holroyd, Philbin, Crowther. Int: Musgrove, Bullock, Whitehead, Wood.

Warrington Wolves continued Sam Burgess' impressive start to life as a head coach, running in comfortable 4-58 winners against the league's bottom side, London Broncos.

Matt Dufty's first try was the pick of the scores, as he collected an attempted kick through by Hakim Miloudi, before racing 85 metres to score.

Warrington opened the scoring in this one-sided contest through young forward, Adam Holroyd, his first try for Warrington. Stefan Ratchford added the conversion, before Josh Thewlis dived into the corner to extend Warrington's lead. Adam Holroyd scored his second of the game, latching onto a pass from Connor Wrench, with Ratchford kicking the goal to extend the Warrington lead to 0-18. Paul Vaughan was held up over the line as Warrington threatened again, before London opened their account through Hakim Miloudi, who dived over in the corner to score, but was unable to convert his own try.

But Miloudi went from hero to villain shortly after, as his attempted kick through was picked up by Dufty. Dufty showed electric pace to escape the London defence and never looked likely to be caught as he raced home to score from deep within his own half. Ratchford added the conversion to give Warrington a 24-4 lead at half time.

Things went from bad to worse immediately in the second half for London, who surrendered possession deep in their own half from the restart, allowing Thewlis to go over to score.

A steady of trickle of tries then became a deluge, as Thewlis crossed for his second try of the game, before going in again in the corner for his hat trick. Ratchford converted both tries to maintain his perfect record of seven from seven.

Prop forward James Harrison got in on the act, picking up a deflected kick through before beating the last defender to score his first try of the game. Matt Dufty then completed his hat trick in the 65th minute, bringing up Warrington's half century in the process, with Ratchford's conversion taking the score to 52-4.

Ratchford grabbed a try for himself in the 72nd minute, picking up the ball after Paul Vaughan's attempted offload hit the deck. Ratchford dummied a pass to the wing, before cutting through the resulting gap to score from close range, adding another conversion to his personal tally of 22 points of Warrington's 58.

London pushed for a late consolation, but Warrington's defence held firm and the Wolves took a comfortable two points. London's wait for a first win continues and based on today's evidence, it could be a long one. Sterner tests lie ahead for Warrington, but Sam Burgess can be happy with his start to life as a coach.
