Ponga and Knights shine in new era over Cowboys

AJ Lucantonio

Kalyn Ponga has led the Newcastle Knights to a courageous 28-18 victory over the North Queensland Cowboys in the NRL 2026 season opener in Allegiant Stadium.

The victory has kickstarted the Justin Holbrook era in style although there's some concerns over a knee injury to gun half Fletcher Sharpe.

It was the 'home side' that kick-started their season with a terrific try. Kalyn Ponga put up an almighty bomb, which saw Sharpe outleap Scott Drinkwater to score the first try of the 2026 NRL season after six minutes.

North Queensland were struggling early in the contest and they were punished for a second poor kick defusal. A Brown crossfield kick was batted back brilliantly by Sharpe before quick hands saw the ball float out to Greg Marzhew. With a lot of work to do, the huge winger crashed over in the corner to lead 12-0 after 14 minutes.

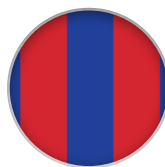

Midway through the half, the Cowboys capitalised significantly on their limited possession when Tom Dearden exposed an injured Sharpe in the defensive line with a delightful short pass to Heilum Luki to charge across.

The visitors continued their change in momentum when they caused carnage off a broken defensive line. A good kick return by Jaxon Purdue gave the Cowboys the switch they needed with the ball. When the ball went down the short side, it was a terrific offload from Sam McIntyre to send Murray Taulagi over in the corner to level the scores at the break.

Newcastle opened the scoring in the second half with new half Sandon Smith providing a lovely inside pass back to Ponga who busted them open before linking up with Bradman Best to score for the home side. Minutes later, Jake Clifford booted the kickoff out on the full. It took a simple movement to the right edge that saw Ponga and Brown combine to get a terrific tap on from Dane Gagai to find Dom Young to touch down in the right corner.

Off the back of a Knights error and some poor discipline, Clifford continued to have the game on a string with a clever grubber kick in behind the rushing defence and Murray Taulagi goes over for his second try of the contest.

It was a nervous finish to the game for the Knights who defended brilliantly to overcome the attacking raids by the Cowboys. It was a terrific start to the season for both sides who will walk away with plenty to work on heading into the season upon return to Australia.

Crichton hits the jackpot with golden point field goal

Rob Crosby

Stephen Crichton hit it big in Las Vegas with a last-gasp field goal to get the Canterbury-Bankstown Bulldogs over the line in a 15-14 victory against the St George Illawarra Dragons.

In a match that appeared destined to end in a draw after a host of wayward attempts from both teams, the Bulldogs captain held his nerve with only seconds left on the clock to the delight of Canterbury-Bankstown fans among the 45,719 supporters at Allegiant Stadium.

The result was a bitter pill for the Dragons, who were once again on the wrong side of a close game, after losing ten games by eight points or less last season.

In an opening half where attacking chances proved few and far between, the Dragons posted first points via a Valentine Holmes penalty goal before Jacob Preston (10th minute) burst through to give the Bulldogs their first try of the season.

The Dragons needed mere minutes to respond with Damien Cook executing a well-placed grubber kick in-goal which was pounced upon by Emre Guler (14th minute) to regain the lead.

The Bulldogs capitalised on the Dragons' poor discipline, levelling the scores after Lachlan Galvin was tackled off the ball, and hitting the front after Clinton Gutherson ran behind his own man, to take a 10-8 lead to the change of ends.

With the game in need of an injection of attacking spark, the Bulldogs delivered early in the second half with Crichton outclassing Holmes from a scrum and sending Jacob Kiraz (49th minute) over with a superb flick pass.

Having been peppered incessantly with bombs throughout his NRL debut, Dragons winger Setu Tu (58th minute) proved just as effective in attack, finishing off an enterprising passage of play with an acrobatic putdown to narrow the margin to 14-12 with a quarter of the match remaining.

A penalty against the Bulldogs while in possession gave the Dragons the opportunity to level the scores; Kyle Flanagan stepped up from 30 metres out in front to set up a thrilling finish.

With the game headed for golden point, the Bulldogs squandered an opportunity to seal the game in regulation time, opting to run the ball close to the posts, while Holmes' long-range attempt from inside his own half was short of the mark.

The Bulldogs knocked back the chance to win the game with a penalty kick on halfway and were rewarded with Crichton slotting the first field goal of his NRL career from in front of the posts.

Upon returning to Australia, the Bulldogs will have a bye in Round 2, while the Dragons will host the Storm in Wollongong.

PREVIEW

Luke JOBSON

The first Thursday Night Football game of the year sees Melbourne host the Parramatta Eels off the back of the Zac Lomax saga.

In what almost seems too good to be true, the two teams that have been in the news for every reason under the sun kick off the Australian NRL season at AAMI Park.

Zac Lomax was the major talking point of the NRL in the post-Vegas fallout, with thoughts that he may be playing in this fixture. Whilst that has inevitably fallen by the wayside, the bad blood between the two sides goes a long way back... 2009, anyone?

Melbourne's immaculate round one record once again lands in the hands of the pre-season premiers, with Parramatta looking to avenge the 56-18 drubbing from twelve months ago.

Multiple players from both sides have come and gone, with Melbourne looking to blood some young players. The bench is stacked with youthful exuberance, while the spine cops a shakeup with the retirement of Ryan Papenhuyzen.

Parramatta keeps a relatively similar top squad to last season, with Brian Kelly a welcome upgrade in the centres for the blue and gold. Jason Ryles returns to his old stomping ground as the Eels look to build upon their successful preseason.

There's more team changes than the eye can see across both sides! A six man bench, major players leaving... bare with me here.

For Melbourne, the major losses of the aforementioned Ryan Papenhuyzen, Xavier Coates and Eli Katoa bring in some young blood. Sua Faalogo, Moses Leo and Ativalu Lisati all

THINGS TO KNOW

- Melbourne have won all of their last 23 Round 1 games
- Parramatta have won 23 of their last 41 Round 1 games (since 1984)
- Melbourne have won their last 6 games against the Eels, with an average of score of 36-14
- Parramatta have never beaten Melbourne in Melbourne with a score less than 20

come in to fill those voids, with Nick Meaney shifting to the wing.

Parramatta welcome Jonah Pezet, Brian Kelly and Jack De Belin to the starting 13, replacing Dylan Brown and an injured Josh Addo-Carr. Sean Russell ends up on the wing as cover for Addo-Carr, while the six man bench means Josah Papalii and Tallyn Da Silva share the pine for some livewire action late in the game.

Who to watch: Jahrome Hughes always finds a way to break Parramatta down and pull them apart. It's not always the lethal running game, with his kicking game pinning the slightly undersized Eels backline deep in their own half. His late season form last year was impeccable before being derailed by injury - a concern of recent times. Should he come back anywhere close to the form he was in at the end of 2025, the Eels are in trouble.

No one knows the Storm better than Jonah Pezet. Having spent plenty of time in the last few years behind Hughes and Cam Munster, his move to Parramatta (and then Brisbane in 2027) brings valuable insight to how the Storm operate in attack.

While he wasn't light out in the pre-season, he was a valuable foil to the dominant playmaker that is Mitch Moses. The running game for Pezet will be vital to breaking apart a rag-tag edge defence that Craig Bellamy has put together this week.

Favourite: Melbourne have never lost an opening round. The bookies have no reason to believe they will now.

MY TIP: Round 1, AAMI Park. It's hard to see Parramatta walking away with the win here. Multiple departures and injuries for the Storm walking into this season opens the door for an improved looking Parramatta, but even the most loyal of Eels fans are hesitant to project a win. It'll be nice if the Eels get up as a final insult to the Zac Lomax saga, but the Storm should be clear favourites for a good reason. Melbourne by 8.

PREVIEW

Andrew FERGUSON

This match on paper could go either way and a lot of historical data shows the uncertainty either way. Warriors have only won 9 Round 1 games in their entire history, however, they have won 14 of their 23 games played in New Zealand against the Roosters, however, Roosters have won 14 of their last 21 games against the Warriors.

The Roosters come into this match with all their players available and a full bill of health and despite a pair of losses in the trials, they will be confident coming into this game of a strong performance to get their 2026 campaign off to a good start.

The Warriors on the other hand have some major concerns for the start of their 2026 NRL season, with halves Te Maire Martin and Luke Metcalf both sidelined for 10 and 7 games respectively with injuries, while forward Mitch Barnett and centre Rocco Berry are also both sidelined this week.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Warriors have won just 9 of their 29 Round 1 games (31%)
- Roosters have won 14 of their last 21 games against the Warriors.
- Warriors have won 14 of their 23 games against the Roosters played in NZ.
- Daly Cherry-Evans (Sydney) has scored 97 Tries in NRL
- James Tedesco (Sydney) has scored 149 Tries in NRL
- James Tedesco has scored 99 club tries for Sydney
- Roger Tuivasa-Sheck has scored 47 club tries for Warriors

Match stats courtesy of

Despite their strong season in 2025, the Warriors campaign fell away at the back-end of the year due to injuries and subsequently they recorded just 2 wins from their last 8 games at Go Media Stadium. The Roosters won 5 of their last 8 Away games, however their biggest problem recently has been inconsistency – they've won 15 of their last 30 games. So while it looks ominous for the Warriors, the Roosters have not been capitalising on these opportunities like they once did.

Who to watch: All eyes will be on Roosters new halfback Daly Cherry-Evans as he looks set to take over all of the organising duties, which will in turn free-up five-eighth Sam Walker and fullback James Tedesco to play their natural games. Tedesco especially could potentially be set to have a strong season due to DCE.

The Warriors will be looking for opportunities to put new recruit and prolific try scorer Alofiana Khan-Pereira in positions to score tries. The 24-year-old winger came to the Warriors after 3 years at the Titans, where he scored 53 tries in 54 games (He also scored 33 tries in 24 QLD Cup games).

Favourite: The Roosters are clear favourites for this clash.

MY TIP: The injury toll for the Warriors, their slow starts, Roosters current record against the Warriors all suggests that the Roosters will get the win here. Roosters by 14.

PREVIEW

Beth NICHOLLS

The reigning premiers take on the Panthers up at home in Brisbane to start their 2026 campaign, and both sides would love to start with a high.

The Broncos what many thought was almost impossible in 2025, where they made comeback after comeback to not only slip into the top four by Round 27 but go on to defeat the Melbourne Storm in the Grand Final. Brisbane finally raised the coveted premiership trophy after two haunting Grand Final appearances in the last decade.

Coach Michael Maguire has made a few changes to the starting side from 2025, mostly forced due to injury and player departures. The only players missing from the Brisbane side who took down the Storm, are Brendan Piakura (injured) and departed duo Kobe Hetherington (Manly) and Tyson Smoothy (Super League), with Billy Walters still out injured as well. Adam Reynolds and Ezra Mam make up the halves pairing, with Cory Paix starting hooker and Ben Hunt wearing the number 14 jersey. Jack Gosiewski starts in the back row, with Xavier Willison and Ben Talty coming off the bench, along with recruit Aublix Tawha. Jesse Arthars and Grant Anderson then round out the six-person interchange bench.

After having a rocky start to the 2024 season, Penrith bounced back and finished the season in seventh place, having won thirteen and lost eleven games. Come finals time the Panthers were roaring yet again, however they fell short to making their sixth consecutive Grand Final appearance, where they were defeated by the Broncos in the Preliminary Final.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Penrith have won just 3 of their last 17 Round 1 games played away from Panthers Stadium (dating back to 1987)
- Brisbane have won all four Round 1 clashes against Penrith (1989, 2003, 2008, 2023)
- Penrith have won 9 of their last 11 games against the Broncos.
- There have been 9998 tries scored in all Premiership games played in Queensland. The Broncos have scored 2404 of those (Penrith have scored 321)
- Reece Walsh (Brisbane) has scored 48 Tries in NRL
- Izack Tago (Penrith) will play his 100th NRL game
- Ben Hunt has 47 club tries for the Brisbane Broncos

With his two-week suspension successfully overturned, Nathan Cleary is in the halves with youngster Blaize Talagi. Luke Garner starts in the second row, with Liam Martin out with a calf injury. Jack Cogger returns to Penrith on the bench alongside new recruits Kalani Going and Freddy Lussick, which then sees Luron Patea, Isaiah Papali'i and Tom Jenkins finish off the now extended size bench. Other than these changes, the Panthers see an almost identical side to 2025.

The last time these two teams met, it saw Penrith's dynasty ended, whilst Brisbane progressed to a Grand Final. These two sides are the best of the best, and recently the odds have fallen to the side of the Panthers, but it will be no easy feat for them to get the job done up North.

Who to watch: Reigning Clive Churchill Medallist, Reece Walsh, will be put to the test again for the Broncos. His leadership and skills were on show during the 2025 Grand Final when the team was without Ben Hunt and Adam Reynolds, and minutes away from a premiership, and with a slightly different spine in the 2026 side, Walsh will have to step up and take control of the game.

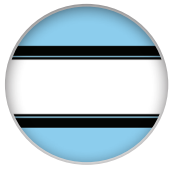

All eyes will be on captain and experienced playmaker, Nathan Cleary. The blood and life of the Panthers' side, Cleary will play yet again another key part in the season trajectory for Penrith.

Favourite: Brisbane are slightly favoured to start the season on a high and claim victory over the Panthers.

MY TIP: Look it's Round 1, and it's hard to really know who is going to have a good season and who isn't. But, as a Brisbane fan I really can't go past my own team. I know they had a troublesome time at the World Cup Challenge, but I don't think that will knock them down, and 2026 is the start of a new era. 2025 is behind us, and we look towards the future now. I think it'll be a challenge to get the job done against the Panthers, but it's nothing we haven't done before. (Please don't make me eat my words @ Broncos). Brisbane by 10.

Master v Apprentice as Sharks look to take a bite out of revamped Titans

Craig Fitzgibbon takes on his old prodigy in Josh Hannay as the Sharks host the Titans to kickstart Super Saturday in 2026 from the re-named Ocean Protect Stadium (Shark Park).

Cronulla finished last year just a game shy of the grand final for the second successive campaign. The side has also been largely unaffected with only Dan Atkinson departing from their regular core of first graders last season. Coach Craig Fitzgibbon knows the squad will see significant turnover next season, so it's the last chance as such to send this core of players out as premiership heroes.

It is a strong squad with a halves combination that finally seems to have found the balance with Trindall as the organiser and Nicho Hynes playing an off the cuff brand of footy that saw him claim the 2022 Dally M Medal. They have an unheralded pack of forwards with the only question being who will step up and run alongside Addin Fonua-Blake this season, far too often the other forwards were being carried by him. Elsewhere, can Blayke Brailey continue the form that made him the form 9 of the competition last year.

Onto team news and thankfully the Sharks are largely unscathed. Sione Katoa has overcome an abductor injury that saw his trial against Canberra end abruptly. Elsewhere, Teig Wilton has not overcome injury and Billy Burns will start on the edge. The expanded bench sees Hohepa Puru and Chris Ve'ila join the usual four forward rotation Cronulla utilised last season.

For the Titans, they have another 'new era' at the club with Josh Hannay taking over the reigns. He has had previous interim runs at the Cowboys and Sharks but this is the first time he is able to put his stamp on a roster for the long haul. He has passed his first major tests with Tino Fa'asuamaleaui and Cooper Bai agreeing to remain at the club.

Onto their side and they trialled really well. Gold Coast played an expansive style of football that made them an exciting side to watch. A lot of eyes will be on the new look spine with Keano Kini looking like he is back to his best after a neck injury sidelined him last season. Elsewhere, their pack of forwards remains intact (mostly) with the only major blow being Jaimin Jolliffe's torn ACL.

Onto team news and there's an early blow for Hannay with Jayden Campbell battling a hamstring injury, missing the next two-to-four weeks. New signing Lachlan Ilias will get a chance to prove Shane Flanagan wrong when he gets an early run at halfback. Elsewhere, there's an NRL debut for Siale Fa'amani while Arama Hau gets the first chance on the vacant right edge.

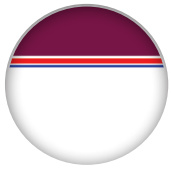

Who to watch: It's hard to go past Nicho Hynes for the Sharks. Hynes has had a noticeable role change over the summer with an emphasis on running the ball more. Hynes himself declared that he has "put on muscle" this pre-season and will look to tire out the new Titans edges and take advantage of open space.

Onto the Titans and the focus is going on Tino Fa'asuamaleaui. Having secured his future at the club in a terrific coup for the NRL, Fa'asuamaleaui will be looking to dominate every pack he goes up against this season. Expect his physical battle with Addin Fonua-Blake to be a highlight of the opening exchanges. His ability to offload and tire out the Sharks forwards especially with the speed of Kini and Brimson could cause significant problems for the Sharks.

Favourite: Cronulla go into this clash as favourites against the new-look Titans side. The Gold Coast have not won at Shark Park since 2017.

MY TIP: The Sharks will be looking to prove themselves to be premiership contenders from the outset. Meanwhile, the Titans will be looking to prove to the NRL world that they are not here to make up the numbers so expect a tight contest between two sides with the side that gets their attack right the quickest to come away with the victory in this contest. Cronulla by 6.

PREVIEW

Andrew JACKSON

Jamal Fogarty makes his Sea Eagles debut, and coincidentally it will come against his former team as Manly faces the Canberra Raiders on Saturday night.

After taking the Raiders all the way to the minor premiership last season, Fogarty faces a fresh challenge replacing Sea Eagles stalwart Daly Cherry-Evans.

He joins Luke Brooks, who actually took on more of a game managing role last season and looks a far more comfortable player than the version that struggled to live up to the hype at the Tigers.

But now Brooks will likely to settle into more of a running five-eighth role next to Fogarty, who is a traditional halfback with a strong long-range kicking game and calm temperament.

"I think everyone's got to understand Daly is Daly, and what he's done for the club for so long - the success that he had here in over 300 games, a premiership, Origin and Test ... I'm going to be myself," Fogarty said.

"I'm going to bring my own style. I'm not going to try and do what he did here, because that's just unrealistic.

"I like to steer the team around it and kick well. So if I can just be myself, play my style of footy and fit into the team well, hopefully we can have a good year."

On the flipside, young Ethan Sanders steps in to fill the void of Fogarty for a Raiders team looking to bounce back after crashing out of the finals in straight sets.

Canberra was one of the success stories of the season, only to falter when it mattered most and now with Fogarty out of the picture, last year's minor premiers are betting on Sanders quickly developing into a complementary playmaker next to Ethan Strange.

Really, there will be more pressure on Strange to shoulder greater responsibility after a breakout 2025 season.

"We have seen what Ethan Strange brought last year and he's just got bigger and better.

The way he's been training will translate into the games," teammate Hudson Young said on Tuesday.

"For Sanders, we don't want to put too pressure on him. He's just a kid and as a back rower, I take it personally to look after him and defend him out there on the field. I just want him to play his game and build into the season."

In team news, Haumole Olakau'atu is good to go after a shoulder reconstruction while prop Taniela Paseka is also set to return from a ruptured Achilles.

New recruit Jayden Brailey makes his club debut off the bench with Ricky Stuart wanting to get more minutes into Owen Pattie in NSW Cup.

Who to watch: You know the footy season is starting soon because Tom Trbojevic has been training the house down. That is at least what new Manly assistant coach Kieran Foran reckons, declaring this week that Trbojevic is in the best shape of his career and has never looked better. It will be music to Manly fans' ears, even if it may be a case of seeing it to believe it, or more accurately waiting to see if he can stay fit. But if he can, with Fogarty taking more charge of the general plays in attack, it will not just ease pressure on Brooks but also Trbojevic and open him up to really travel all over the field and in the formation.

It will be interesting to see how Stuart uses new recruit Daine Laurie. The former Panther is the kind of player who could thrive with the NRL's newly introduced extended interchange and was one of Canberra's best in the pre-season games. While it is hard to see Stuart pulling Sanders even if he struggles, it must be comforting to know he has an experienced and versatile option in Laurie that he can inject if he needs a calmer head next to Strange at any point. Laurie may just be insurance for both the halves and fullback position, but if the game is tight it may be tempting to find a way to include him late in the piece should the Raiders need an extra injection of energy and ball-playing.

Favourite: It is near dead-even, with the Sea Eagles a slight betting favourite.

MY TIP: There is a reason the bookies are finding this one hard to split. The Raiders have the better forward pack on paper, but with a fit and firing Tom Trbojevic along with Fogarty having a point to prove, Manly may come out the more energised of the two teams and get the win. Manly by 7.

The sum (Suncorp) of Wayne's past and present

The opening round of the 2026 NRL season comes to a close on Sunday afternoon with the Dolphins and South Sydney Rabbitohs facing off at Suncorp Stadium.

Meeting in the opening round of the season for the second year running, the two sides are intimately tied to Wayne Bennett, who oversaw the Dolphins' foundation seasons before returning to South Sydney for a second stint last year.

Entering their fourth season in the big league in pursuit of qualifying for the finals for the first time, the Dolphins will be banking on a host of returning stars to bolster their premiership aspirations.

Producing mixed form in the pre-season with a narrow loss to the Titans (24-12) and a late surge to defeat the Warriors (38-34) in a high-scoring encounter, coach Kristian Woolf will be looking to build on his side's prowess with the ball – finishing last season as the best attacking side – while stiffening the defensive resolve which saw the side concede close to 25 points per game last year.

Naming three club debutants in English import Morgan Knowles, playmaker Brad Schneider and representative outside back Selwyn Cobbo, the match will mark the long-awaited return of Tom Flegler after spending almost two years on the sidelines with a serious shoulder injury.

The Dolphins have lost their past two opening round matches, including a closely-fought 16-14 defeat to the Rabbitohs last season.

Hoping for better luck with injury after a wretched run last year, the South Sydney Rabbitohs will be looking to recapture their best after missing the finals for the past three seasons.

THINGS TO KNOW

- Souths have won just 4 of their last 18 games played outside of Sydney, conceding 563 points (31 points per game)
- Souths have lost all of their last 6 games in Brisbane or Redcliffe, conceding at least 28 points every time and averaging 38.7 points per game against.

- Selwyn Cobbo (Dolphins) has 49 Tries in NRL
- Jamayne Isaako has 47 club tries for the Dolphins

RUGBY LEAGUE project

Gaining plenty of confidence with trial wins over the Dragons (28-24) and Sea Eagles (30-6) heading into the opening round, coach Bennett will be hoping his side can arrest a run of five straight losses at Suncorp Stadium, with the side last winning at the venue in Magic Round three years ago.

Marquee recruit David Fifita will make his first start for the club in the second-row with Bronson Garlick – son of club legend Sean Garlick – named at hooker, while a shortage of available halfbacks will see Ashton Ward line up in the number seven jersey after being granted an exemption due to being outside the top 30 and the development list.

This is the fifth meeting between the two sides with the ledger standing at two wins apiece, including one win apiece in contests held at Suncorp Stadium.

Who to watch: Going from scoring a hat-trick in the opening game of last season to missing the Broncos' drought-breaking premiership win, Selwyn Cobbo will be determined to make the most of his opportunity in new colours. Signing a one-year deal with the Dolphins in a bid to prove he has what it takes to earn an elite-tier contract, the 23-year-old outside back is capable of brilliance at his best, earning representative honours with Queensland, Australia and the Indigenous All Stars in the process. Named to make his club debut on the wing, Cobbo will need to make an early impression in order to hold onto his jersey with Jack Bostock on the comeback trail from injury.

Missing all but one game last year with a ruptured Achilles, Cameron Murray will be looking to make up for lost time in the Rabbitohs' pack. Renowned for his work rate and leadership over many seasons, the 28-year-old forward will make his return in his favoured number 13 jersey after spending time on an edge at club and representative levels prior to injury. Lining up as part of one of the best forward packs in the league on paper, a strong performance from Murray should set the tone for a much-improved season for the men in cardinal and myrtle.

Favourite: The Dolphins will come into the match as slight favourites due to the home ground advantage.

MY TIP: With so many attacking threats and a wealth of experience to draw upon, the Rabbitohs will fancy their chances of getting the job done on the road. South Sydney by 10.

Wigan 54 Leigh 0

Wigan blast Leigh in Borough battle

The Wigan Warriors have put the Leigh Leopards to the sword, inflicting a 54-0 hiding on last year's semi-finalists to kickstart Round 3. It was a loss that had further blows for Adrian Lam with several key injuries.

The first major headache came when Joe Ofahengaue came from the field after feeling a pop in his calf. Leigh were already struggling with the speed of the Wigan forwards and Bevan French exposed the edge defence, with a sharp pass to Adam Keighran for the opening try after 11 minutes.

Wigan soon added a second following a terrific passage of footy. Harry Smith broke through off a Sam Walters offload and on the ensuing play, French charged over to eventually slam the ball down for a 12-0 cushion.

The hosts would add two more tries in the next ten minutes to take a 24-0 lead into half time. A Smith kick was batted back by Junior Nsemba before Jai Field had too much pace for the cover. Minutes later, the defence backed off Field who found a charging Smith to cross under the sticks, there was an element of doubt over the last pass but the points were on the board.

Pain continued for Leigh after the break when Oliver Partington combined with impact forward Pat Mago to put him away before linking with Field to score his second double in as many weeks. French had the game on a silver platter and put Zach Eckersley away in the corner just before the hour mark with a terrific pass.

Wigan added three more tries to inflict salt into the already gaping wound that was the Leigh defensive line. Nsemba crossed after a well placed Harry Smith grubber while Smith and bench hooker Tom Forber added tries for a 54-0 hiding. The news got worse for Leigh with fullback Bailey Hodgson carried from the field with a suspected serious knee injury, the third sustained by a fullback against Wigan in as many weeks.

Castleford 34 Huddersfield 8

Tigers add to Giants' misery

The Castleford Tigers have rebounded from a sloppy opening fortnight to easily dispatch of lowly Huddersfield by 34-8 in slippery conditions at the Jungle to give Ryan Carr his first win as Castleford coach.

Huddersfield's shaky on-goal defence was exposed early when Liam Hood charged over after seven minutes to give the hosts the lead. Taane Milne was lucky to avoid any disciplinary action over a high tackle, but it didn't matter as the Tigers found a second try courtesy of Darnell McIntosh.

Milne found himself in the sin-bin mere minutes later when he was guilty of too many infringements. The hosts made light work of the numbers advantage when George Lawler charged across. Huddersfield did have their chances but determined Tigers defence held them out. That was until two minutes before half-time when Jacob Gagai crossed off a terrific pass from Oliver Russell to cut the gap to 12 at half-time.

Tom Weaver impressed in the second half scoring a double that gave the Tigers a commanding position. The first came off a well-weighted Daejarn Asi grubber kick that sat-up perfectly for the former Titan after 47 minutes. Huddersfield managed a try that served as consolation only when George Flanagan Jr collected a loose ball from a kick.

Weaver's second try just after the hour mark sealed the Tigers first win of the season after a bust by experienced Joe Westerman who busted through like a man in an alley way before finding the Aussie youngster to score under the sticks. Ashton Golding scored late in his Castleford debut to put the exclamation mark on a terrific win.

York 17 Hull FC 16

York stun Hull, rugby league world - again

The York Knights have completed the Hull double to start season 2026, with an impressive 17-16 win over an injury depleted Hull FC at the MKM Stadium.

It was an impressive start to the game that was played in terrible conditions throughout. The visitors opened the scoring after ten minutes when a terrific tap on from Toa Mata'afa sent new signing David Nofoaluma over in the corner to put the hosts up 6-0.

Hull who have battled a significant injury toll already this season soon added points of their own midway through the first half. Off a scrum play, Jake Arthur made his presence felt when he dug into the line to send makeshift fullback Davy Litten over to level the scores. Hull were quick to attack from inside their own end and Harvey Barron crossed before the half, capitalising on York mistakes to open up a 10-6 lead.

But, the hosts came out of the sheds a different side and sorely missed the organisation of Aidan Sezer who left the field due to blurred vision. Barron wouldn't want to see the replays of an unfortunate sequence that led to Nofoaluma's second try. He was lucky to have ruled to have knocked a Liam Harris bomb backwards, but dropped the ensuing yardage carry before kick hands to the new Samoan import saw him cross in the corner.

Jed Cartwright soon found himself dispatched to the sin-bin for a professional foul and the Knights made easy work of the overlap. Nice hands from Harris and Mata'afa sent Jamaican flyer Ben Jones-Bishop away in the corner and the sideline conversion from new signing Danny Richardson gave the visitors a comfortable gap.

A field goal from Richardson with 15 to go appeared to have the match won, but Hull had different ideas. A Cade Cust grubber was grounded just in time by Lewis Martin and Hardaker's inch perfect conversion reduced the gap to one. But, the experienced man's rushed field goal attempt was short of the mark to give York their second win in Super League history.

Warrington 27 Wakefield 16

Wire win Wakefield wrestle

Warrington have continued their undefeated start to the season, handing Wakefield their first loss of the season by claiming an 11-point victory at home.

It was a tense beginning as Warrington dominated possession. An offside penalty enabled the first scoring play of the game when Marc Sneyd added a penalty goal after 14 minutes. Seven minutes before the break, new import Tof Siplely charged his way over claiming a try. After a nervous video referee examination, Chris Kendall overturned Liam Rush's live decision of no-try and the Wire had an 8-0 lead.

Three minutes later, Danny Walker's clever dart out of dummy half exposed the Wakefield defence before Albert Hopoate backed up in support to score a vital try in the shadows of the break. Wakefield did knock over a penalty goal before the break to make the score 14-2 at half-time after a spree of penalties that saw Siplely turn from hero to zero as he was dispatched to the sin-bin.

Wakefield started the second half with intent and a nice movement saw a delightful pass from Jake Trueman to Max Jowitt who was flying down the right touchline to slam the ball down for the visitors. We were set for a thrilling second half when Trueman delivered another terrific pass down the left edge to send Jayden Myers over to score to cut the gap to four.

Warrington woke up with 25 minutes to play and it was a Sneyd cross field kick that landed on a dime for QLD Cup standout Josh Smith to score in the corner to restore order in the contest. Sneyd landed another penalty goal when George Williams stayed down claiming high contact and was rewarded by the referee.

The visitors weren't going down without a fight. A clever cross kick by Jack Sinfield was pursued by Oli Pratt who won the race to the bouncing ball to touch down reducing the gap to six points as we headed into the final ten minutes.

Myers was searching for a double late before he was smashed over the sideline, Warrington marched down field to knock over a Sneyd go ahead field goal before Smith somehow kept the ball alive to send Toby King over out wide to seal a 27-16 victory for the hosts.

St Helens 36 Catalans 4

Second half Saints douse Dragons

St Helens have claimed back-to-back victories over a disappointing Catalans Dragons side thanks to a 30-point second half in a 36-4 hiding at Stade Gilbert Brutus.

Saints had the first chance when Tristan Sailor went close after three minutes but determined left edge defence denied the pivot. A bust in the ninth minute had the visitors set up nicely, Darryl Clark had to simply back up in support to score the first try of the contest for a 6-0 advantage.

It was a determined first half and there was no other scoring plays in the half but the second 40 was when the flood gates opened. Nine minutes into the half, a crash ball sent former Rabbitoh Jacob Host over the line. Minutes later, a Sailor break caught the Dragons defence at sixes and sevens before Hastings went "left for Wright" to send Shane Wright over.

Catalans' middle had great difficulty containing Clark's darts out of dummy half. Just after the hour mark, he charged over once more from acting half to set up a 24-0 lead, and the signs were ominous for the hosts. The hosts had their moment in the sun when Charlie Staines fired a great pass to Josh Simm to race down the sideline before linking up with Staines to score.

Hastings fired a penalty goal to put the game out of reach for the Dragons. Saints fired two more tries in the second half when Kyle Feldt scored a quick-fire double. The first came from a movement down the right-hand corner which saw him touch down. The second effort came from a bomb take over the top of Simm to touch down and seal an emphatic verdict.

Leeds 58 Hull KR 6

Leeds trounce Rovers under Vegas lights

The Leeds Rhinos have delivered a major statement in Las Vegas, trouncing Hull KR by 50 points at Allegiant Stadium.

Hull KR were coming into this game as the undisputed champions of the English game, but on the American continent, they were simply no match for the Rhinos. Maika Sivo was in everything, scoring four tries and kickstarting the scoring in the opening ten minutes after a delightful cutout pass by Man of Steel Jake Connor. Five minutes later, a Harry Newman offload caused carnage when Sivo crossed for a quick-fire double, despite a forensic video referee review, the try was eventually awarded.

Leeds dominated possession and punished Rovers for their poor discipline and errors coming out of territory. Brodie Croft shone his light brightest with a stunning solo try before Keenan Palasia turned Jack Broadbent into a human speedbump on his way to a sensational individual try.

Despite limited chances, Hull KR never turned away. A short dropout was taken by the man of the moment Sivo and following a 90-metre swing of possession, Ryan Hall charged over for a stunning 28-0 lead at half-time. Croft added to Hull KR's woes after half-time with his second try off a delightful Danny Levi pass.

Sivo added to his third try moments later when Rovers' inability to take possession off kicks was exposed. Lachie Miller turned defence into attack with a terrific show and go before finding Sivo for his hat-trick. Hull KR added a consolation try when Joe Burgess quickly touched down but the Rovers fans quickly could pack away their flags.

Leeds were ultra impressive and the changes around the ruck interpretations have benefited their superstars such as Jake Connor and Lachie Miller while Brodie Croft and Danny Levi have proven to be great foils. Hull KR were out enthused in the contest really early and something will have to change quickly for Willie Peters' chargers, the coach ripped into his side, calling the effort "soft" post-game.

Bradford 18 Toulouse 6

Bradford find their defensive resolve against sluggish Toulouse

The Bradford Bulls have claimed back to back wins when they down Toulouse by 18-6 at the Odsal Stadium.

It was a tense opening to the game with both sides having nervous moments. Toulouse missed a chance at penalty goal while Bradford added one of their own after a high tackle to lead 2-0.

The visitors dominated possession and got their reward after 24 minutes got their reward. A crash pass from Cesar Rouge landed on the chest of Anthony Marion to touch down and lead 6-2.

The hosts wouldn't be denied for long when they capitalised on some poor discipline to level the scores. A nice offload from Joe Mellor isolated the defence before Rowan Milnes linked up with Waqa Blake who had too much strength for Rennie to touch down.

Bradford carried all momentum heading into the break after a lovely passage of play that saw Connor Wynne set it up with a determined run. On the ensuing play, Milnes and Luke Hooley combined brilliantly to set Ethan Ryan on his way and give the Bulls a 4-point lead at halftime.

The hosts began the second half with intent and purpose. Off the back of a quicker ruck speed generated by their back five, they crossed for their third try when Milnes' cross field kick sat up perfectly for Ryan to jump over Paul Ulberg to score his second.

On the hour mark, Caleb Aekins made his mark with a delightful cutout pass to Ryan and the Irish international capped off a terrific game with a hat trick of tries. There was chances for Toulouse in the second half but their goal line attack was really disappointing.

The Rugby Football League has today granted RFL Membership approval to a new Halifax Panthers club who will take over participation in the 2026 Betfred Championship competition.

The decision was made at an RFL Board meeting following extensive work from a number of parties and a detailed application from the directors of the new entity to help ensure professional rugby league can continue in the West Yorkshire town. The old club's demise meant fixtures against Sheffield Eagles and Barrow Raiders remain unfulfilled. However, the new club, who will host London Broncos on Sunday [3pm], will work to ensure that those missed games are now undertaken on dates to be decided.

As part of the decision to re-instate them, Halifax will have a 12-point deduction applied for the 2026 Championship season.

RFL interim chief executive, Abi Ekoku, said: "The Rugby Football League is delighted to welcome Halifax back into the 2026 Betfred Championship.

"We understand the trauma to players, staff and fans in recent weeks; but remained hopeful that the club would have a chance of survival. That has proved to be the case, primarily down to an exceptional community, corporate and political effort. We wish them well for the rest of the competition and will continue to support them in that endeavour."

Martyn Buchan, a local businessman who has led negotiations with the governing body for the new club, said: "It's a great relief that Halifax Panthers will participate in 2026 to continue their 153-year membership of the Rugby Football League.

"Thanks to all the invested staff, sponsors, the governing body and the Calderdale Council who have helped make it possible for this to happen. The RFL has been really supportive in getting us to this stage and now, over this next period of time, we'll be focusing on simplifying our model and doing more in the community for the good of rugby league in Halifax."

The new club has five directors: Adam Butterfield, Jason Clough, Christopher Brooke, Benjamin Walker and John Coulter.
