Storm crush Eels to continue Round 1 dominance

Justin Davies

Melbourne Storm won 52-4 against Parramatta Eels at Melbourne Rectangular Stadium to kick off the Australian portion of the NRL season on Thursday night.

The first flashpoint of the game came not with points but with a sin bin. J'maine Hopgood was binned for a high shot which took Alex MacDonald out of the contest.

The Eels shocked the Storm with the first try of the game. It was a slick backline move which ended with Sean Russell going over in the left corner for 4-0.

The hosts responded in supreme style to score three tries and take a 14-point lead into the half-time break. It started with a superb pass from Jahrome Hughes which sent William Warbrick over.

Next, it was a great solo effort from Harry Grant. The hooker scooted out of dummy-half and sliced through the Eels defence to streak away for a 12-4 lead.

Storm went back to their right again to score their third. Hughes was involved again, he gave it to a steaming Jack Howarth to nudge over for the four-pointer.

They picked up where left off in the second half. Hughes again was the provider, he slipped a short pass to Joe Chan to crash over for 24-4.

Grant got himself a brace and extended the lead to 25. He spotted some lazy defenders on the line and burrowed over from close range.

It was one-way traffic in the second half, all for the home side. They moved the ball left with quick hands and Moses Leo went over for his first NRL try.

Playing at fullback, Sualauvi Faalogo put his stamp on the game late. He got some space, chipped it for himself and recovered it to touch down for 42-4.

Munster got involved in the act with a swift kick of his own. He took a low pass and punched the kick through for Aivalu Lisati to add himself to the list.

Storm passed the half century in style right near the end! It came from a Lisati offload then some combination play kept it alive for Faalogo to get his second and make it 52-4.

Warriors rattle Roosters in Auckland

Tim Costello

The Warriors opened their 2026 campaign in emphatic fashion, running in seven tries to overwhelm the Roosters 42-18 at Go Media Stadium on Friday night.

Backed by a vocal home crowd, the Warriors laid the platform with a dominant first half and then withstood a brief Roosters revival before pulling away late to put a gloss on the scoreline.

The home side struck first through Tanah Boyd, who dummied and slid over near the posts in the 12th minute to cap an early period of pressure. Boyd converted his own try, and the Warriors looked in control as the Roosters struggled with discipline and cohesion. That changed briefly when James Tedesco crossed for his 150th career try - and 100th for the club - after Billy Smith burst through on the left and found his captain in support. Sam Walker's conversion levelled the scores at 6-all.

That was as good as it got for the visitors in the opening stanza. The Roosters' error count and repeated infringements invited pressure, and the Warriors made them pay. Adam Pompey was awarded a try after a lengthy bunker review, Kurt Capewell then sliced through on a sharp inside line off Chanel Harris-Tavita, and Harris-Tavita himself crossed soon after when Roger Tuivasa-Sheck put him into space on the left edge. With Boyd converting from the sideline, the Warriors surged to a 22-6 halftime lead, having controlled both territory and possession.

Any hopes of a Roosters comeback were dented almost immediately after the break when Leka Halasima crashed over in the 47th minute. The Roosters thought they had hit back through Daly Cherry-Evans soon after, but the bunker ruled Charnze Nicoll-Klokstad had grounded the ball in-goal first. Still, the visitors showed some fight. Billy Smith finished neatly in the corner, Angus Crichton backed up a James Tedesco break for a long-range try, and suddenly the margin was trimmed to 28-18 with over 20 minutes to play.

Crucially, the Warriors steadied. Boyd extended the lead with a penalty goal, and as Roosters errors and ill-discipline crept back in, the home side closed the contest decisively. Harris-Tavita grabbed his second off some clever aerial work from Ali Leiataua, and Nicoll-Klokstad iced the result late after breaking through on the right edge. Boyd's accurate boot accounted for six conversions and a penalty goal on the night, underlining his influence.

In the end, the Warriors' composure, sharper execution and ability to punish mistakes proved decisive. For the Roosters, flashes of attacking promise were undone by errors and lapses in discipline. For the Warriors, it was a statement opening performance - and a perfect start to their season at home.

Brisbane locked out by Fort Penrith

Andrew Ferguson

The Penrith Panthers have opened their 2026 NRL campaign by dominating the defending Premiers Brisbane Broncos in a defensive master-class at Suncorp Stadium.

The Panthers rarely look threatened while the Broncos attack looked panicky, clumsy and worst of all, sloppy, while defensively they were ill-disciplined, particularly when they had Penrith in their own end.

The Panthers struck early when Nathan Cleary's bomb was contested by Thomas Jenkins, who lost it backwards, but winger Casey McLean pounced on the loose ball to race over in the left corner for the try. Cleary's sideline conversion attempt hit the upright.

In the 18th minute fullback Dylan Edwards crossed for the 10,000th premiership try in Queensland. Receiving the ball on the left edge, he stepped inside through a gap and dived over. Cleary added the extras.

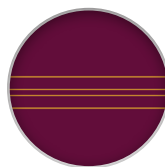

In the 33rd minute Cleary potted a penalty goal and then, on the stroke of halftime, Blaize Talagi shrugged off a tackle before kicking across field to the left wing, where Jenkins was perfectly placed to catch the ball and fall over the line. Cleary converted from the sideline. At halftime, the Panthers had a comfortable 18-0 lead.

18 minutes into the second half, another penalty to the Panthers allowed Cleary to extend his sides lead by 2 more points.

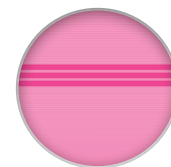

The game was finally put to bed with 6 minutes remaining when Thomas Jenkins scored his second try of the night with a brilliant intercept, before racing 35 metres to score. Cleary converted from the left touchline. The Panthers winning 26-0.

The Broncos rarely got themselves into good attacking position, largely due to the Panthers stellar defence, but also due to the haphazard attack of the Broncos. They went away from what worked so well last year and were playing like they haven't seen each other since last years Grand Final. Reece Walsh was kept quiet, Adam Reynolds was scarcely involved and Payne Haas up front was kept under wraps for the majority of the game.

Dylan Edwards was solid for the Panthers, as were back rowers Luke Garner and Isaiah Papali'i. Penrith too threw away a few chances, especially on the right side. However it was their defence that won them this game and in that department the Panthers were absolutely elite.

Sharks half-ton leaves Titans teetering

Tim Costello

Cronulla produced one of the most ruthless performances of the opening round on Saturday evening, demolishing Gold Coast 50-10 at Ocean Protect Stadium after racing to a staggering 34-0 halftime lead.

Led superbly by Nicho Hynes and Braydon Trindall, the Sharks overwhelmed a hapless Titans outfit with pace, precision and unrelenting pressure in a one-sided coastal clash.

The warning signs for the Titans arrived almost immediately. In just the second minute, Trindall hoisted a perfect attacking kick, William Kennedy scored after an aerial contest and received the ball to cross for first points. Nicho Hynes converted from the sideline, and Cronulla never eased their grip. Ten minutes later, Trindall was again the architect, grubbering deftly into the line for Briton Nikora to score untouched and stretch the margin to 12-0.

Gold Coast had brief moments with the ball but repeatedly failed to convert pressure into points, while Cronulla were clinical. Jesse Ramien crossed on the left edge after a single set, capitalising on an overlap created by Kennedy, and Trindall then scored twice in quick succession - the second after kicking ahead and regathering following another Titans error. By the half-hour mark, the Sharks led 28-0 and the contest was effectively over.

The Titans' discipline and handling deserted them entirely as the half wore on. Errors inside their own half and a lack of defensive cohesion allowed Cronulla to pile on the damage. Hynes capped a dominant first-half display by scoring himself in the 39th minute and converting to make it 34-0 at the break.

Cronulla showed few signs of easing immediately after halftime. Jesse Ramien barged over early in the second stanza to push the score to 40-0, before the Titans finally registered points through Sam Verrills and debutant Sialetili Faeamani. Lachlan Ilias converted Verrills' try but missed from the sideline for Faeamani, offering only fleeting respite on an otherwise grim night for the visitors.

Any thought of a late Titans rally was quickly extinguished. Sione Katoa crossed after a failed short drop-out, punishing Gold Coast's poor execution once again. Hynes then put an exclamation mark on the performance, scoring his second try late in the match and converting to bring up the half-century at 50-10.

The Sharks' dominance was built on sharp kicking, aggressive line speed and an ability to punish every mistake, with Trindall's creativity and Hynes' composure proving decisive.

For the Titans, it was a sobering reminder of the work ahead, as defensive lapses and basic errors turned the match into a procession long before full-time.

For Cronulla, it was a statement opening-round performance that underlined their attacking firepower and early-season intent.

Sanders steps up to silence the Sea Eagles

Rob Crosby

It was billed as Jamal Fogarty versus his old team but it was his replacement - Ethan Sanders - who had the last laugh as the Canberra Raiders clinched a 29-28 victory over the Manly Sea Eagles at 4 Pines Park.

Nailing the decisive point in the 82nd minute of golden point, Sanders stood tall in just his fifth appearance in first grade to extend the Raiders opening round record under Ricky Stuart to nine wins over the past 13 seasons, to the delight of a hearty band of visiting supporters among the 17,532 fans in attendance.

The Raiders appeared to have the result in hand after leading 28-14 with less than ten minutes remaining, however a late comeback from the home side pushed the match into golden point for the second time during the opening round of the season.

In a dominant opening which saw the home side hold possession uninterrupted for the first 11 minutes, captain Tom Trbojevic (3rd minute) used the wet conditions to slide over for first points before Fogarty added a penalty goal for an 8-0 lead.

The Sea Eagles continued to dominate their ill-disciplined opponents and kept the scoreboard ticking through Haumole Olakau'atu (17th minute), who marked his first game back from injury with a four-pointer.

Having been starved of possession over the opening quarter, the Raiders made the most of limited opportunities when Noah Martin (20th minute) slammed the ball down and was given the green light by the bunker.

While both sides came close to scoring during the remainder of the half, the wet conditions proved a factor as the Sea Eagles headed to the sheds up 14-6.

Returning from the halftime break with renewed vigour and intensity, the Raiders struck twice in as many minutes with Martin (46th minute) charging into space for his second and Xavier Savage (49th minute) finishing off a right-side shift to establish an 18-14 lead.

Continuing the one-way flow of points with Savage (53rd minute) exposing the Sea Eagles' retreating defence for his second, the Raiders' winger appeared to have a hat-trick only for the bunker to deem he grounded the ball on the sideline.

A classy show-and-go from Sanders (67th minute) looked to secure the result for the visitors, however the Sea Eagles conjured a comeback with two quick tries to Tolu Koula (73rd minute) and a length-of-the-field effort finished off by Fogarty (76th minute) to reduce the margin to two points.

Fogarty was wide of the mark with a two-point field goal as the fulltime siren sounded only for the referee to rule the Raiders defence offside, allowing the halfback to level the game at 28-all with a penalty goal from in front.

The Raiders needed just one set with the ball to ice the game in golden point with Sanders slotting the decisive score from 35 metres out.

Next week, the Sea Eagles will remain at home for a Sunday afternoon clash with the Knights, while the Raiders will face the Warriors on Friday night across the Tasman.

Souths start 2026 with important win in points fest

Josh Robertson

The South Sydney Rabbitohs have started their 2026 NRL campaign on the perfect note with an impressive 40-30 victory against the Dolphins at a wet Suncorp Stadium.

Things started fast for Souths when they scored after just five minutes, with Campbell Graham having space in the corner and, despite the efforts of the Dolphins defence, Graham got the ball down.

The ball and territory were all with Souths before they saw it go the other way in an instance when Cody Walker threw an intercept straight to the chest of Jake Averillo, who raced downfield to score for the Phins. Just like Latrell Mitchell before him, Jamayne Isaako could only hit the uprights.

Everything was going South's way, and errors put the Dolphins under pressure, and it might've taken longer than the Bunnies thought it would, but they got over the line with Latrell Mitchell scoring after a break from Jye Grey.

Two more try efforts for the Rabbitohs were rejected by the bunker with Cody Walker's solo effort denied after his boot hit the sideline and Latrell Mitchell having an effort even he said shouldn't have been given was initially awarded by Peter Gough only for it to be rejected.

Souths added a penalty goal in the 23rd minute before the Dolphins hit back just three minutes later. Kulikefu Finefeuiaki ran onto the ball and was no match for Jye Grey, and the Dolphins had closed the gap to 2 points.

The Rabbitohs then went on a scoring spree in the last eight minutes of the half, with Campbell Graham, Jye Grey and Alex Johnston all scoring, and Latrell Mitchell converting two of the three tries to give Souths a 28-10 lead at the break.

A quick start was needed for the Dolphins, and they got it just ten minutes into the second half when Herbie Farnworth got a tick of approval after initially being ruled no try by Peter Gough on-field. The try gave the hosts a much-needed spark as the Hammer went solo to score just five minutes later, and after the conversion, it was a six-point ball game.

Cody Walker nailed his first-ever NRL 40/20 to switch the momentum, and then after 5 sets in a row, the Rabbitohs took advantage when Lachie Hubner slipped underneath two tackles and then looked surprised as he was able to score one of the easiest tries he would ever score. Latrell Mitchell added a second after the Dolphins spilled the ball on their own 10 and Souths took advantage.

Just after the 70-minute mark, Tom Gilbert and David Fifita were both given an early shower by referee Gough for two major flare-ups in a matter of seconds.

The Dolphins finished the game with Jamayne Isaako scoring to tighten the scores, before a string of penalties saw the Dolphins put a penalty goal over after the full-time siren for a 40-30 defeat.

Next week, the Dolphins are at home yet again against the Titans at Suncorp Stadium whilst the Rabbitohs take on the Roosters in a local Derby at Allianz Stadium.

PREVIEW

Kelly HOLLIS

Both the Brisbane Broncos and Parramatta Eels enter Round 2 looking to bounce back after heavy opening-round defeats.

The two clubs have met 53 times since 1998, with the ledger almost perfectly balanced, Brisbane holding a narrow advantage, with just one more win than Parramatta. While both sides finished the 2025 season strongly – the Broncos winning the premiership and the Eels closing with three straight victories – that momentum counted for little in Round 1. With both teams sitting on the back foot early in 2026, Thursday night's clash at Suncorp looms as an important chance to reset.

There is added intrigue surrounding a match-up between two sides who were well below their best last week. For Brisbane, the result was historically poor for a defending premier, while Parramatta endured a blowout loss that exposed defensive frailties and discipline issues. With both teams having plenty to work on, the focus for Round 2 will be less about flair and more about rediscovering the basics that underpin winning football. At this early stage of the season, it remains too soon to determine whether their Round 1 performances were a one-off stumble or signs of deeper concerns.

Brisbane's premiership defence began in disastrous fashion with a 26-0 defeat to the Penrith Panthers on Friday night at Suncorp Stadium. The reigning premiers failed to score during the 80 minutes in what was one of the most underwhelming performances of the Madge era. The Broncos had just 42 percent possession, completed at only 61 percent and made 19 errors while missing 37 tackles – numbers that allowed Penrith to dominate territory and apply relentless pressure. The result was historically rare, making Brisbane just the second team in more than a century of rugby league to be held scoreless in the opening game of a title defence.

Maguire has resisted the urge to make sweeping changes, naming the same side for Round 2 with Ezra Mam again listed at five-eighth and Ben Hunt on the bench, though the pair could swap roles as they did last week. With Brendan Piakura still sidelined with a knee injury, the premiers will be desperate to correct their discipline and execution on the short turnaround.

Parramatta also endured a difficult start to the season, falling 52-4 to the Melbourne Storm in a result that quickly erased the confidence gained from finishing atop the Witzer Pre-Season Challenge ladder. Sean Russell's early try gave the Eels a promising start, and they trailed just 18-4 at halftime, but a flood of errors and poor ball control left them defending for most of the second half. Parramatta finished with only 41 percent possession, completed at 63 percent and made 17 errors, while Melbourne racked up 13 line breaks and more than 2000 running metres. Discipline also proved costly, with Bailey Simonsson sin-binned for a professional foul and J'maine Hopgood later accepting a one-match suspension from the Match Review Committee for a careless high tackle he was binned for in the opening minutes.

Coach Jason Ryles has made a few adjustments ahead of the trip to Brisbane, with Josh Addo-Carr returning from a thumb injury on the wing, pushing Sean Russell into the centres. Jack Williams moves to prop to cover Hopgood's absence, Kelma Tuilagi joins the starting side, and Sam Tuivaiti again sits among the interchange options.

Who to watch: Reece Walsh rarely produces two quiet performances in succession. Expect the Brisbane fullback to be heavily involved as the premiers look to ignite their attack.

Mitchell Moses will be eager to ensure Parramatta does not produce another performance like last week's. The halfback's kicking game and leadership will be key as he looks to guide the Eels around the park.

Favourite: The Broncos head into this clash as favourites according to the latest odds.

MY TIP: Even though this game falls on a Thursday night rather than their traditional Friday slot, Brisbane remain under lights at Suncorp Stadium – a venue where they are typically extremely difficult to beat. With the rust from the World Club Challenge travel hopefully shaken off and a week to address their discipline and errors, the premiers should respond strongly. Expect a much sharper performance from the home side. Brisbane by 16.

The Milk head across the ditch to take on the red hot Wahs

Vegas is done & dusted and the split round is complete which means Round 2 is ready to get underway where we will see the New Zealand Warriors play host to the Canberra Raiders at Mount Smart Stadium in Auckland on Friday night.

Both sides will be high on confidence and will be raring to go after experiencing satisfying victories in Round 1.

Warriors pulled off a huge upset over the Sydney Roosters in a 42-18 victory in front of a home crowd in Auckland last weekend. Their halves were on full display as Chanel Harris-Tavita scored a double whilst Tanah Boyd scored the opening try with a nice show and go past DCE. He also set up another two tries later on in the match.

Raiders will travel across the ditch after a thrilling 29-28 victory over the Manly Sea Eagles last Saturday night. The Green Machine overcame an early 14 point deficit to hold a healthy 28-14 lead however Manly bounced back with their own comeback to force golden point. Ultimately all the headlines were on Ethan Sanders who nailed the field goal to claim the victory.

Both these two teams will be expecting a finals charge this year as they boast creative halves and electric outside backs but this battle will be won up front in the middle as both sides wield two of the most dominant forward packs in the competition.

Raiders will be without Josh Papali'i which will be a massive blow to their chances but luckily the likes of Corey Horsburgh, Morgan Smithies and Joe Tapine will be more than enough to match the likes of Jackson Ford, Erin Clark and James Fisher-Harris.

Warriors go into this one with an unchanged side whilst Papali'i drops out due to concussion protocols for the Raiders. Morgan Smithies is promoted to the front row in his place whilst Matthew Timoko rejoins the side on the interchange with Joe Roddy also juggling a spot on the 6 man bench.

Who to watch: Noah Martin will be the one to watch for the Raiders this week after he had a stellar debut against the Sea Eagles. Ricky Stuart put his faith in Martin and the back rower repaid him with two tries, two line breaks and three tackle busts. He also made 48 tackles with none missed.

The key watch for the Wahs will be boom forward Leka Halasima. The gun edge had a phenomenal debut season and picked up in Round 1 where he left off. Although he was named on the bench and limited to just 35 minutes he managed to come up with a big try when he leaped into the air to claim an exciting try. Halasima has been named on the bench again but he will be an interesting watch to see if he can have the same impact against the Raiders.

Favourite: Warriors are slight favourites in this one over the Raiders with home ground advantage at Mount Smart.

MY TIP: Both of these sides have exciting forwards, electric backs and halfbacks who are rolling high on confidence. It will go right down to the wire but I'm backing the Milk to come away with this one. Canberra by 2.

PREVIEW

Andrew FERGUSON

Traditional rivals Sydney and Souths meet once again in Round 2 after interesting Round 1 performances by both sides.

The Roosters came up against a Warriors side missing both halves, a centre and a key forward and were absolutely trounced 42-18. The Warriors out-muscled and out-enthused a placid Roosters outfit who went into the match as favourites.

The Roosters turned the ball over too much and failed to bend the Warriors defensive line anywhere near enough to make any impact, let alone set any platform for their halves to structure any attack from.

Roosters were also very ill-disciplined, giving away 11 penalties to 4, making 13 errors to 8 and were offside 3 times to 1. A lot of basic, silly errors that a team of their quality knows they shouldn't be doing.

Souths on the other hand came up against last years attacking behemoths, the Dolphins. Many pundits had the Dolphins as the favourites but it was Souths who got the win, 40-30. Souths dominated possession, were defensively solid despite both sides being quite clumsy with ball-in-hand. Star centre Latrell Mitchell had a strong hit-out and will be looking to build upon that form against his former club this weekend.

THINGS TO KNOW

- 12 of the last 16 clashes between these two sides has had a margin of 10 or more points (since 2019)
- Roosters have won 18 of their last 26 Round 2 games after having lost in Round 1 (since 1968)
- Daly Cherry-Evans has 97 Tries in NRL
- Angus Crichton will play his 200th NRL game.

Souths have been dealt an injury blow with Ashton Ward sidelined with an ankle injury. Jayden Sullivan will replace him at halfback, allowing Sean Keppie to move onto the bench.

Meanwhile the Roosters will be bolstered by the return of centre Rob Toia, while Sua Wong has been named in the back row, forcing Nat Butcher to the pine.

Who to watch: Souths gun centre Latrell Mitchell made a stellar start to his 2026 NRL campaign last week and will be keen to build upon that form this week against his former side. Mitchell is one of the most supremely talented Rugby League players in the modern game, but his time at Souths has been hampered by injury and form fluctuations. He'll be very keen to leading this talented Souths side to a finals campaign this year. Winger Alex Johnston is now just 1 try behind matching Ken Irvine's long-untouched marker of 212 first grade tries. He would love nothing more than to equal, or perhaps even break the marker against old foes Sydney Roosters.

Lindsay Collins will need to lead the Roosters pack against the big Bunnies forwards. New half Daly Cherry-Evans didn't set the world on fire in his first outing for the Roosters last week. He will line up at five-eighth again this week alongside Sam Walker which may be something DCE is learning to adapt to.

Favourite: The Roosters will come into this match as the very slight favourites.

MY TIP: The Rabbitohs looked markedly improved last week, while the Roosters were dismal. With Johnson set to break the try scoring record, Souths have something extra to play for. Souths by 8.

Benji's charges look for perfect start against Cowboys

The Wests Tigers kickstart their 2026 NRL campaign when they take on the North Queensland Cowboys from Leichhardt Oval to start Super Saturday.

The Tigers were impressive in the pre-season, but as we saw last week with the Eels and Titans, take the form of the trials with a big pinch of salt. Despite this, their left edge will be a fun watch this season with Jarome Luai and Taylan May causing carnage throughout the run home. Now with a full pre-season under their belt together, the combination is set to take off once more. Kai Pearce-Paul is an impressive addition from Newcastle and his big frame will be imposing for opposing defenders.

A lot of talk this off-season has been about impressive rookie Heamasi Makasini and rightly so. That try he scored in the final trial against the Panthers has been played on loop by Tigers fans since he put the ball down. He will line up at left centre due to the injury sustained by Starford To'a. Luke Laullili gets rewarded for an impressive pre-season with a spot on the left wing.

For the Cowboys, they were disappointing in Vegas. It's easy to point the finger but it was a poor attacking performance against the Knights. Between the goal line to the 20 metre line, they were terrific, marching up field with relative ease. However, as soon as they were in the attacking 20, it seemed like they forgot the dimensions and kept playing lateral football which failed to trouble the Knights defence.

That is something that would have to be tidied up by Todd Payten who is still fighting tooth and nail to keep his job in Townsville. Defensively, they conceded two tries from kicks but outside, issues still persisted. Tom Chester and Jaxon Purdue will have their hands full with Makasini and May but were very sound in dealing with Gagai and Best in Vegas. Their middles will need to contain Terrell May and co, they allowed Trey Mooney and Jacob Saifiti to roll up field far too easy.

Onto team news. Braidon Burns has been named despite facing suspension if he fails at downgrading at the judiciary. Rob Derby is on standby, Tom Mikaele (MCL) is out with Soni Luke promoted to the bench. Liam Sutton and Ethan King are in jersey 18-19 respectively.

Who to watch: All eyes will be on Jarome Luai. Rightly or wrongly, whether the club succeeds in 2026 will be on the former premiership winner's shoulder. He shouldered unfairly, a lot of the criticism about what went wrong on field last year. His role has changed slightly this off-season with Adam Doueihy at halfback. That should free up Luai to be a ball running six to cause carnage with ball in hand.

For the Cowboys, expect a bounce back and to be led by Tom Dearden. Dearden is a class talent and one of the best eyes up footy players we have in our game. The IQ to pick out the injured Fletcher Sharpe and send Heilum Luki on his way was just superb. The Dearden/Luki combination (whilst not perfect) can make a serious ploy of being to the Cowboys what Hughes to Katoa was for the Storm.

Favourite: The Tigers come into this one as favourites but haven't won their first clash of the season since 2020. Their most famous win against the Cowboys was a 66-18 massacre at Leichhardt back in 2023.

MY TIP: Expect a lot of points in this one, it will be a fast, free-flowing game with both sides showcasing their attacking brilliance. The team that show a better defensive steel will win the day and the gut feel suggests the Tigers will be up for this one at their spiritual home of Leichhardt and run away with it in the second half. Wests Tigers by 14.

Dragons eye first WIN as Storm heads towards Wollongong

The St George Illawarra Dragons will be looking to open their 2026 account when they host the top-of-the-table Melbourne Storm at WIN Stadium on Saturday evening.

Returning to Wollongong with a point to prove after falling narrowly short in Las Vegas, the St George Illawarra Dragons will have additional motivation as they strive to record a third straight win over the Storm for the very first time.

Going down to the Bulldogs in a tense 15-14 golden point showdown in their opening match, coach Shane Flanagan has resisted the urge to make changes while Jacob Liddle (hamstring) remains sidelined.

Winning three of their six matches at WIN Stadium last season, the Dragons haven't defeated the Storm in Wollongong in a decade.

The joint venture has historically struggled over the early rounds, opening a campaign with back-to-back losses nine times and bouncing back from a Round 1 loss with a win just seven times since 1999.

Coming out of the gates with a scintillating opening round performance at home, the Melbourne Storm will be out to take their winning form on the road.

Posting a half century in the opening round against the Eels for the second straight year with a 52-4 thrashing last Thursday, coach Craig Bellamy has elevated Tui Kamikamica into the starting pack in place of Alec MacDonald (concussion) with Jack Hetherington joining the bench and Shawn Blore included in the extended squad.

The Storm claimed their first ever win in first grade in Wollongong over the Illawarra Steelers back in 1998 and have enjoyed a solid record in the ensuing years with seven wins and a draw from 13 visits.

While much has been made of Melbourne's remarkable opening round record for more than two decades, coach Bellamy's ability to start fast has seen the Storm open a campaign with back-to-back wins 16 times over the past 23 seasons.

Who to watch: Making the move to the joint venture following a prosperous stint as a utility with Cronulla, off-season acquisition Daniel Atkinson will be looking to showcase his skills as a starting playmaker. Enjoying a modest debut for his new club with a solid defensive showing (28 tackles, 3 misses) and acting as the dominant kicker, the 25-year-old knows what it takes to upset the Storm after masterminding a star-making victory at AAMI Park two years ago. Getting the chance to be a first-choice halfback for the first time in his career, Atkinson will have an intriguing personal duel with Jahrome Hughes – a player who has walked a similar path with great success over recent seasons.

Enjoying a night to remember last Thursday after an injury-cruelled introduction to rugby league last season, Moses Leo will be hoping to follow in the footsteps of fellow New Zealand 7s representative Will Warbrick in becoming a mainstay of the Melbourne backline. Scoring a try, producing three line-breaks and six tackle breaks in an eye-catching performance against the Eels, the 28-year-old looked right at home in the NRL after recovering from a shoulder fracture that curtailed his first season in the 13-man code. Contracted to the Storm for this season and a club option for 2027, Leo looms as the latest in a long line of unheralded players to thrive under Craig Bellamy.

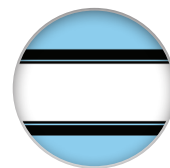

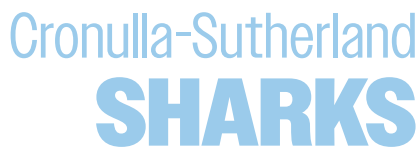

Favourite: Off the back of scoring a half century in the opening round, the Storm are expected to back up that performance – albeit by a closer margin.

MY TIP: The Dragons showed that they could compete when few gave them a chance in Las Vegas, but the step up in class should be too much to contend with when the Storm come to town on Saturday evening. Melbourne by 18.

The Cronulla Sharks look once again like they will be among the top teams in the regular season, but a litmus test against the Penrith Panthers this week could prove whether they are ready to take the next leap.

Cronulla has more often than not been in the finals picture in the years since lifting the Provans-Summons trophy in 2016, but time and time again the Sharks have just fallen short in September.

It was the case again last year when they went down to the Storm, and the Panthers in particular have been particularly tough for Cronulla to get past in the postseason.

The Sharks have a poor record in general against Penrith, who have won five straight and nine of the past 10 matches between the two sides.

The Panthers are coming off a 26-0 statement win against the defending premiers, which signaled the NRL's most dominant side in recent memory won't repeat last year's slow start to the season.

It wasn't the most clinical performance you will see from Penrith this year regardless of what the scoreboard said, but the way the Panthers scrambled in defence to deny the Broncos would have pleased coach Ivan Cleary.

As for the Sharks, they put the cleaners through the Titans in a 50-10 thumping on Saturday afternoon as established halves pairing Nicho Hynes and Braydon Trindall enjoyed one of their best games as a combination.

In team news, there are no changes to either side's 19-man squad with Liam Martin (calf) and Teig Wilton (shoulder) both unavailable.

Who to watch: When the Panthers announced they had signed Jack Cogger it was primarily viewed as insurance for Nathan Cleary and for the most part, that is the role the premiership-winning playmaker will have. But Cogger proved last week against the Broncos that he can be more than that, even when Cleary is healthy. Ivan Cleary injected Cogger into the game for the last 20 minutes or so and he had an immediate impact, as was the case in the 2024 grand final, straightening up and simplifying Penrith's attack while allowing Nathan Cleary to play a more instinctive style of football. Having Cogger there, whether it is late in games or even earlier, frees up Cleary by easing the pressure on him to do all the long-range kicking and steering the side around. While teams may eventually expose Cogger by targeting him defensively through the middle, until that happens he will continue to be an underrated weapon off the bench.

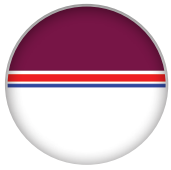

As for the Sharks, former Panthers second rower Billy Burns is one of the more remarkable stories in the NRL. Burns was considering life as an electrician when, without an NRL contract, he was suddenly handed a lifeline by Cronulla. He made the most of it and now has established himself as a genuine weapon in a stacked Sharks forward pack that also includes the dangerous Briton Nikora. Burns struggled for consistency in his game during his time at Penrith, but has thrived with a larger role at Cronulla and is putting himself in the shopfront window with every strong performance this year given he is off-contract at the end of the season.

Favourite: Clearly no one buys Cronulla as genuine premiership threats because the Sharks are paying over $3 despite last week's big win.

MY TIP: This will be a lot closer than the bookies expect. The Sharks have the kind of workrate up front to stick with the Panthers while they have speed and power out wide to trouble Penrith's edges. The Panthers haven't been particularly great at Bathurst recently, but they will be keen to right the wrongs of last year's disaster against the Knights. Penrith by 8.

PREVIEW

Josh ROBERTSON

Sunday afternoon football returns to the Northern Beaches and hopefully much better weather than last Saturday night as the Manly-Warringah Sea Eagles take on the Newcastle Knights at Brookvale Oval.

Torrential rain met Manly for their first hit out of the season, and conditions didn't hurt the Sea Eagles early as they were able to open up a 14-0 lead inside the first twenty minutes and were looking to dispel the criticisms that were levelled at the Maroon and Whites in the pre-season.

Things turned quickly, though, for Manly as they conceded 28 straight points, struggling to match the Raiders' intensity for the next 50 minutes or so. They finally hit back twice to tie the scores at 28-28, then needed some luck, and they got it in the dying minutes. A penalty against Hudson Young after the Raiders enforcer was penalised for being offside, and Manly locked the scores up. Manly hearts were broken just under two minutes into golden point when Ethan Sanders sank the Sea Eagles' fortunes, consigning them to a 29-28 defeat.

The side under the most pressure coming into 2026, the Newcastle Knights, heavily under-delivered in the pre-season challenge, losing to the Dragons, and the reappearance of their 2025 Achilles heel, a lack of points. The Knights put those demons aside in Las Vegas for a very impressive 28-18 win over the North Queensland Cowboys.

RUGBY LEAGUE project

A Round 1 win was important for the Novocastrians, but the style of their 28-18 win was the perfect start. Things seemed to click early for Newcastle as they were able to open a 12-0 lead early before the Cowboys were able to hit back to level the scores at 12-12. Whilst things didn't go all the Knights way with a knee injury hitting Fletcher Sharpe, the attack and defence of the Knights was impressive which had been one of their big issues in 2025.

Who to watch: Manly's new recruit, Jamal Fogarty, has big shoes to fill, taking on the controlling of the Manly attack after the departure of DCE, and there has already been scrutiny on the ex-Raiders player for the Sea Eagles' defeat last week. The performance was far from awful, but there are high expectations on the Northern Beaches, and partnering with Luke Brooks, who himself is already under pressure, the heat will be on Jamal Fogarty.

After a starring role in the dazzling lights of Las Vegas, Kalyn Ponga has to back up the performances as a regular thing, not just one where he shows up for the glory and disappears as he has in the past. The big money star frequently comes under pressure from the media and Newcastle fans who are excited for a big year ahead from the Knights captain, who needs to show he can deliver it on a Sunday afternoon in Manly as well as the lights of Vegas.

Favourite: Manly are comfortable favourites to win this one at home.

MY TIP: Early rounds are always hard to tip with no established patterns of form yet and players still finding their footing, but this is a hard game to pick either way because you don't know what sort of performance they will bring. The Knights' history of inconsistency doesn't bode well for a good position, but then Manly's in the same ship as well. A dry Sunday afternoon with plenty of factors falling in favour of the Sea Eagles sees my tip go to them with no confidence whatsoever. Manly by 4.

PREVIEW

Beth NICHOLLS

After both starting the season with a loss, only one side will go home with their first win in 2026.

Playing the Rabbitohs in the opening round, the Dolphins almost staged a comeback, but they didn't quite get there in the end, with a final score of 40-30.

The Dolphins make a few changes to their side, with the return of Max Plath and Ray Stone to the interchange bench.

This match marks Plath's first NRL game since suffering an ACL injury in Round 14 last year, and Stone's first of the season after having off-season shoulder surgery.

Trai Fuller drops to the extended bench, whilst Brent Woolf drops out of the side.

Unfortunately, it seems like the Titans premiership chances are already over, where they were defeated by the Sharks away from home in Round 1 50-10.

A try from Sam Verrills and NRL debutant Sialetili Faeamani at least gave the Titans their first points of the season.

Despite the loss, Josh Hannay keeps his confidence in the team and names an unchanged side for this Round 2 clash, with Sam Verrills named to play despite leaving Shark Park with a sternum injury.

The Titans haven't much luck against their QLD rivals, only winning one of the six times they have played each other since the Dolphins entered the comp.

Who to watch: Named as co-captain of the side in 2026, Isaiya Katoa is a young but confident player who continues to dominate in the Dolphins side.

2025 saw Katoa score only two tries but make 23 try assists and eighteen offloads.

Paired with the experienced Kodi Nikorima in the halves Katoa is growing into a freakish young playmaker.

In recent times the Titans have struggled with their spine, and it has been at the expense of experienced player, AJ Brimson.

Brimson has been named as Gold Coast's current 5/8th and I think he has the skills to strike and could unlock a piece of the puzzle the Titans are sometimes missing.

2024 was a strong year for Brimmo, where he scored 12 tries, made 13 try assists and 13 linebreaks.

Favourite: The Dolphins are favoured to add their first win to the 2026 tally.

MY TIP: Both sides started the season on a low, one much lower than the other, but I think this will be an interesting match-up and could be a close one. Dolphins by 4.

Wakefield 14 Hull FC 10

Trinity adds to Hull FCs woes

Wakefield Trinity won 14-10 against Hull FC in their game on Thursday night down at DIY Kitchens Stadium.

The hosts get their second win of the campaign while Hull FC remain in the lower half of the Super League table.

Hull FC were the first side to get on the board. Lewis Martin set it up with a slicing run which had Trinity on the back foot. Late in the set, Hull FC swept it left on the last tackle and the winger finished in the corner to make it 6-0. Trinity forced Martin in-goal for their best chance. Jake Trueman went close then it was flung to the hosts winger, Will Tate, to slide over. Hull FC went to the well again and extend their lead to six. It was a slick backline move and Martin strolled over for his second. It looked like the visitors would take that lead into the break before the rugby league ball decided to bounce wickedly. Trueman lofted a kick which fooled the Hull FC defenders and it bounced right to Oliver Pratt to go over for a 10-all scoreline at the break.

The second half was much more attritional from both sides. Trueman almost set up Josh Rourke but they weren't able to convert. Trinity did get it right near the hour mark. It was a night for the wingmen as another set piece ended with Tate bagging his second for 14-10. Tate was denied a hat-trick late in the contest. He tried to burrow himself to the line but Davy Litten was able to hold him up. Wakefield held off the late charge from Hull FC and earned themselves another two precious points.

Catalans 22 Leigh 16

Dragons outlast Leopards

Catalans Dragons won 22-16 against Leigh Leopards in their contest at Leigh Sports Village on Friday night.

The Dragons get their second win of the season while the Leopards remain in 12th spot on the Super League ladder. It was Leigh who opened the scoring. Innes Senior flew down the wing before he found support in Tesi Niu to touch down. While Leigh used guile, Catalans barged the door down for their first try. Harvey Wilson rolled over and eventually planted the ball. Dragons took the lead just after half-time. A strip on Tiaki Chan allowed Toby Sexton to raise the flags for 8-6. Kruike Leeming threw a no-look offload to Sexton who in turn found Charlie Staines who made his way to the line.

Leigh needed to find a response and all their key men were involved in a movement which ended with Innes Senior going over. Late inclusion to the starting line-up, Leo Darrelatour scooped up a loose ball and almost went the length but he found his support in Lewis Dodd eventually to make it 20-10.

Niu showed off his skills with a long-range effort that saw him weave past the Dragons defenders to get his brace. Dragons held firm and added two points late after Leeming was hit high. Sexton slotted the goal to give them a six point lead.

Date: Fri, 6th March. Kickoff: 8:00 PM. Halftime: 6-all.

Penalties: Leigh 10-8. Referee: Marcus Griffiths. Crowd: 8,090.

Warrington 38 York 30

Wolves feast on Knights

Warrington Wolves won 38-30 against York Knights in a points-fest at LNER Community Stadium on Friday night.

The action started fast and was high octane until the final whistle as Wolves struck first through Sam Stone. The Wolves were hungry for points and feasted on more on the wing. It was a cut-out pass that was juggled by Josh Thewlis who touched down. They kept pushing forward with fullback Cai Taylor-Wray slicing through the Knights defence and putting them up 16-0. York got some possession and got themselves in the contest. The ball got swung wide and Ben Jones-Bishop went over in the corner.

The Knights went back-to-back with Toa Mata'afa breaking the line and finding support in Denive Balmforth to bring it back to 16-12. The turnaround was complete soon after. Wolves spilled a bomb and York profited through Mata'afa to take the lead. Wolves did take the lead into half-time with a late four-pointer. Some elusive footwork from Stone again saw the second rower get his second.

The points piled up again in the second half. George Williams crashed onto a short ball to extend the Wolves lead. Next, Taylor-Wray went on a breathless run before Ben Currie nudged over close to the posts for the Wolves. York weren't going quietly. They kept the ball alive for Paul Vaughan to cross then Liam Harris latched onto a grubber to bring it to 32-30. Warrington kept them at arm's length with Thewlis picking up a second try in a wonderful night of rugby league.

St Helens 26 Bradford 22

Saints second half explosion downs Bulls

St Helens won 26-22 against Bradford Bulls in their game at BrewDog Stadium on Saturday evening.

The Saints scored 22 points in the second half to put away a determined effort from the newly promoted Bulls.

They marched to the first points of the game. Daryl Clark put the ball on a plate for Shane Wright to go over. Bradford responded with their own four-pointer. Rowan Milnes punched through a kick for Ethan Ryan to latch onto. The Bulls would hit the front at 6-4 from the tee. David Klemmer was binned for a high tackle which allowed Luke Hooley to convert. They used it to their advantage halfway through. Milnes floated across the turf before he unfurled a pass for Connor Wynne to score.

Bradford continued to believe and extended the lead to 16-4. Esan Marsters and Wynne combined for the latter to get his double. It felt like déjà vu when another short pass from Clark put Curtis Sironen over then Tristan Sailor sliced through from a scrum to level at 16.

Things took a twist for Bradford when Eliot Peposhi was sent off for a shoulder to the head of a St Helens player. Saints took advantage with a try to Kyle Feldt before they had Joe Shorrocks binned for being the third man in at the legs.

Bulls scored while the game was 12 on 12. Andy Ackers used all his strength to burrow over from close range for 22-20. Saints held their nerve and scored winner with five to go. They used their man advantage well and Deon Cross stretched out.

Date: Sat, 7th March. Kickoff: 5:30 PM. Halftime: Bradford 10-4.
Penalties: Bradford 5-4. Referee: Jack Smith. Crowd: 12,031.

Wigan 36 Toulouse 16

Warriors continue unbeaten start

Wigan Warriors won 36-16 against Toulouse Olympique at Stade Ernest Wallon on Saturday evening.

The Warriors are at the top of the Super League ladder currently with four wins to start the 2026 season. They were into their pattern quickly with a flowing backline move ended with Zac Eckersley going over in the corner. Next, it was Adam Keighran who was able to extend his arm to score then sprinted onto a Jack Farrimond pass to get a second soon after. Wigan kept peppering the right side and profiting with points. They put it through the hands again for Eckersley to join the brace club. Toulouse would get on the board just before half-time. It was a nice kick from the wing which saw Olly Ashall-Bolt score.

The visitors picked up where they left off in the second half. Sam Walters passed it inside to Bevan French who showed off his leg strength to score. Ashall-Bolt collected his second after it was confirmed via the video referee that he was taken out in the process of scoring. Wigan ticking over the scoreboard in this game. Farrimond produced a good step to prise open the defence then found Brad O'Neill to touch down.

Toulouse kept fighting until the final whistle. Benjamin Laguerre held his poise enough to score in the corner. The Warriors had the final say in the game. Farrimond burst through again and slung it to Walters to make it 36-16.

Hull KR 32 Huddersfield 6

Robins get off the mark against lowly Giants

Hull KR finally got off the mark for 2026 with their 32-6 win against Huddersfield Giants at ACCU Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

The World Champions finally got some joy after a tough month to open their 2026 Super League season.

The Robins were flying early in the game. Oliver Gilart took on the line and crawled his way to the line for 4-0. Next, they swung it wide to the right. Tyrone May did the majority of the work from the scrum then found Tom Davies to dive over in the corner. Hull KR were in full flow and used the ball to their advantage. It was given air on the left and Joe Burgess strolled over. Mikey Lewis was a threat all afternoon. He sliced through again and threw the dummy to touch down close to the posts.

Huddersfield Giants got on the board in the second half. Tui Lolohea lofted it high and George Flanagan rose highest to ground it. Hull KR were enjoying themselves at ACCU Stadium. They kept the ball and Davies walked in his second four-pointer. Lewis put the capper on the win with getting himself a double. He ran a solid line to exploit the Giants defence for 32-6.

Leeds 22 Castleford 4

Rhinos ease past Tigers

Leeds Rhinos were 22-4 winners against Castleford Tigers in their contest at Headingley Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

The Rhinos consolidated their spot in the top two of the Super League ladder with a close win over the languishing Tigers.

It was a battle of the powerful former NRL wingers. First blood went to Leeds when Mikaele Ravalawa led a bomb hit him then the Rhinos got it George Brown to score. He made up for his error with his own four-pointer. It was a typical strong effort from Ravalawa to duck under the defenders and make it 6-4. Fresh from his Vegas exploits, Maika Sivo was back in action. It was a cut-out pass from Lachlan Miller for the winger to go over.

Connor continued to cause havoc with his kicks. His latest was batted back into the path of Sivo for his second. Sivo kept up his try-scoring heroics and collected a hat-trick. Connor got it to Chris Hankinson who flicked it out to the Fijian who strolled over for 22-4.
